Second Amended and Restated Distribution Reinvestment Plan

30,000,000 Shares

Cole Credit Property Trust II, Inc. is a Maryland corporation which qualifies as a real estate investment trust. We invest primarily in freestanding, single-tenant retail properties net leased to investment grade and other creditworthy tenants.

We have established a Second Amended and Restated Distribution Reinvestment Plan (DRP) designed to provide existing holders of shares of our common stock with an economical and convenient method to designate the cash distributions on all or a portion of their shares for reinvestment in more shares through the DRP. Some of the significant features of the DRP are as follows:

- Our current stockholders may purchase additional shares, if desired, by automatically reinvesting all or a portion of their cash distributions in shares under the DRP.
- The purchase price for shares under the DRP is the higher of 95% of the value of one share as estimated by our board of directors or $9.50 per share.
- Stockholders may participate in the DRP by completing and executing an authorization form. Authorization forms may be obtained at any time by calling Cole Credit Property Trust II Investor Services at (866) 341-2653 or by writing to them at 2575 East Camelback Road, Suite 500, Phoenix, Arizona 85016. If you are already enrolled in the DRP, no action is required.
- You may terminate your participation in the DRP at any time without penalty by delivering written notice to us. A withdrawal from participation in the DRP will be effective with respect to distributions for a quarterly or monthly distribution period, as applicable, only if written notice of termination is received at least ten days prior to the end of such distribution period.
- We will offer shares pursuant to the DRP until we sell all $285,000,000 worth of shares in this offering; provided, however, that our board of directors may amend or terminate the DRP for any reason by providing ten days' written notice to participants in the plan.
- Cash distributions are still taxable even though they will be reinvested in our shares of common stock pursuant to the DRP.
- There is no public trading market for our shares, and there can be no assurance that a market will develop in the future.
- You should carefully consider the specific risks set forth under the caption "Risk Factors" under Item 1A of Part I of our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and Item 1A of Part II of our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, which are incorporated by reference into this prospectus, before making an investment decision.

PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

Cole Credit Property Trust II, Inc.

Cole Credit Property Trust II, Inc. is a Maryland corporation, incorporated on September 29, 2004, that elected to be taxed as a real estate investment trust (REIT) under federal tax law beginning with the year ended December 31, 2005. Our overall investment objectives, in their relative order of importance, are:

- to provide current income for investors through the payment of cash distributions; and
- to preserve and return investors' capital contributions.

We invest primarily in income-generating retail properties, net leased to investment grade and other creditworthy tenants. Our investments may be direct investments in such properties or in other entities that own or invest in, directly or indirectly, interests in such properties. We seek to acquire a portfolio of real estate that is diversified by geographical location and by type and size of property. Currently, our portfolio consists primarily of freestanding, single-tenant properties net leased for use as retail establishments. A portion of our portfolio also includes multi-tenant retail properties and single-tenant properties leased to office and industrial tenants. Although we expect our portfolio will continue to consist primarily of freestanding, single-tenant properties, we expect to continue to invest in other property types, including office and industrial properties, leased to one or more tenants. In addition, we expect to further diversify our portfolio by investing in multi-tenant properties that compliment our overall investment objectives and mortgage loans. Our offices are located at 2555 East Camelback Road, Suite 400, Phoenix, Arizona 85016. Our telephone number is 602-778-8700. Our fax number is 602-778-8780, and the e-mail address of our investor relations department is investorservices@colecapi.com. We sometimes refer to Cole Credit Property Trust II, Inc. as "Cole Credit Property Trust II" in this prospectus.

We commenced our initial public offering of shares of our common stock on June 27, 2005. We terminated our initial public offering on May 22, 2007. We issued a total of 54,838,315 shares in our initial public offering, including 53,909,877 shares sold in the primary offering and 928,438 shares sold pursuant to our distribution reinvestment plan, resulting in gross offering proceeds to us of approximately $547.4 million.

We commenced our follow-on offering of shares of our common stock on May 23, 2007. Pursuant to the follow-on offering, we are offering up to 143,050,000 shares in a primary offering and up to 6,000,000 shares pursuant to our distribution reinvestment plan. As of November 12, 2008, we had accepted investors' subscriptions for, and issued, 135,194,046 shares of our common stock in the follow-on offering, including 129,261,633 shares sold in the primary offering and 5,932,413 shares sold pursuant to our distribution reinvestment plan, resulting in gross proceeds to us of approximately $1.3 billion. Combined with our initial public offering, we had received a total of approximately $1.9 billion in gross offering proceeds as of November 12, 2008. We will stop offering shares under the distribution reinvestment plan portion of our follow-on offering before we begin offering shares under this prospectus.

As of November 12, 2008, we owned 663 properties and an 85.48% interest in a property, comprising approximately 18.6 million gross rentable square feet of commercial space located in 45 states and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Our Advisor

Cole REIT Advisors II, LLC (Cole Advisors II), a Delaware limited liability company, is our advisor and is responsible for managing our affairs on a day-to-day basis and for identifying and making acquisitions on our behalf.

Our Management

We operate under the direction of our board of directors, the members of which are accountable to us and our stockholders as fiduciaries. We currently have three members on our board of directors. Two of the directors are independent of our advisor and have responsibility for reviewing its performance. Our directors are elected annually by the stockholders. Although we have executive officers who manage our operations, we do not have any paid employees. Only our non-employee directors are compensated for their services to us.

Our REIT Status

As a REIT, we generally will not be subject to federal income tax on income that we distribute to our stockholders. Under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, REITs are subject to numerous organizational and operational requirements, including a requirement that they distribute at least 90% of their taxable income, excluding income from operations or sales through taxable REIT subsidiaries. If we fail to qualify for taxation as a REIT in any year, our income will be taxed at regular corporate rates, and we may be precluded from qualifying for treatment as a REIT for the four-year period following our failure to qualify. Even if we qualify as a REIT for federal income tax purposes, we may still be subject to state and local taxes on our income and property and to federal income and excise taxes on our undistributed income.

Terms of the Offering

We are offering up to 30,000,000 shares of our common stock to our existing stockholders pursuant to the DRP at the higher of 95% of the value of one share as estimated by our board of directors or $9.50 per share. We will offer shares pursuant to the DRP until we sell all $285,000,000 worth of shares in this offering; provided, however, that our board of directors may amend or terminate the DRP for any reason by providing ten days' written notice to participants in the plan. This offering must be registered or exempt from registration in every state in which we offer or sell shares. If this offering is not exempt from registration, the required registration generally is for a period of one year. Therefore, we may have to stop selling shares in any state in which the registration is not renewed annually and the offering is not otherwise exempt from registration.

Second Amended and Restated Distribution Reinvestment Plan

This prospectus describes our DRP, which is designed to offer our existing stockholders a simple and convenient method of purchasing additional shares of our common stock by reinvesting cash distributions without paying any selling commissions, fees or service charges. Regardless of your participation in our DRP, you will be taxed on your distributions to the extent they constitute taxable income, and participation in our DRP would mean that you will have to rely solely on sources other than distributions from which to pay such taxes. As a result, you may have a tax liability without receiving cash distributions to pay such liability. Our board of directors may terminate the DRP in our discretion at any time upon ten days' written notice to plan participants.

Use of Proceeds

The proceeds raised pursuant to the DRP will be used for general corporate purposes, including, but not limited to, investment in real estate, payment of fees and other costs, repayment of debt, and funding for our share redemption program.

Incorporation by Reference

This prospectus incorporates by reference several documents previously filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including, but not limited to, our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007, our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended March 31, June 30 and September 30, 2008, our 2008 proxy statement, as well as all future documents we file pursuant to certain sections of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These documents contain information about us which supplements the information in this prospectus. See "Incorporation of Certain Information by Reference."

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the specific risks set forth under the caption “Risk Factors” under Item 1A of Part I of our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and Item 1A of Part II of our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, which are incorporated by reference into this prospectus, before making an investment decision, as the same may be updated from time to time by our future filings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Some of the information in this prospectus contains forward-looking statements. Such statements include, in particular, statements about our plans, strategies and prospects. These forward-looking statements are not historical facts but are the intent, belief or current expectations of our business and industry. You can generally identify forward-looking statements by our use of forward-looking terminology, such as “may,” “anticipate,” “expect,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe,” “seek,” “estimate,” “would,” “could,” “should” and variations of these words and similar expressions. I containing these forward-looking statements may be found, among other places, in the “Use of Proceeds” section of this prospectus and the “Business” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” sections incorporated by reference from our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC, as well as any similar statements contained in future Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q or Annual Reports on Form 10-K which are hereby incorporated by reference upon their subsequent filing with the SEC. These forward-looking statements are or will be, as applicable, based largely on our expectations and projections about future events and future trends affecting our business. You should not rely on our forward-looking statements because the matters they describe are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other unpredictable factors, many of which are beyond our control, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements.

Our actual results of operations and execution of our business strategy could differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, the forward-looking statements. In addition, past financial and/or operating performance is not necessarily a reliable indicator of future performance and you should not use our historical performance to anticipate results or future period trends. We can give no assurances that any of the events anticipated by the forward-looking statements will occur or, if any of them do, what impact they will have on our results of operations and financial condition. Except as required by law, we undertake no obligation to publicly revise our forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that arise after the date of this prospectus or the date of documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus that include forward-looking statements.

SUMMARY OF OUR DISTRIBUTION REINVESTMENT PLAN

Purpose of the DRP

The DRP is designed to offer our existing stockholders a simple and convenient method of purchasing additional shares of our common stock by reinvesting cash distributions without paying any selling commissions, fees or service charges. We will use the proceeds received from sales of the shares for general corporate purposes, including investment in real estate, payment of fees and other costs, repayment of debt, and funding for our share redemption program.

How to Enroll in the DRP

You can participate in the DRP if you currently own shares of our common stock and the shares are registered in your name. If you have stock registered in the name of someone else (for example, with a bank, broker or trustee), to enroll in the DRP, you will need to arrange for that entity to transfer ownership of the shares to you. However, participants in a previous publicly offered REIT or other real estate program sponsored by us or our affiliates may not elect to have their cash distributions from such previous program invested in our shares pursuant to the DRP.

Eligible persons may join the DRP at any time by completing and executing an authorization form and returning it to Cole Credit Property Trust II Investor Services at 2575 East Camelback Road, Suite 500, Phoenix, Arizona 85016. Authorization forms may be obtained at any time by calling (866) 341-2653 or by writing to the address specified above. Participation in the DRP will commence with the next distribution payable after receipt of your election to participate, provided it is received at least ten days prior to the last day of the quarterly or monthly distribution period, as applicable, to which such distribution relates.

You will remain a participant of the DRP until you deliver to us written notice of your desire to terminate your participation (described more fully below under the heading "Terminating Your Participation in the DRP").

Reinvestment of Your Distributions

If you choose to participate in the DRP, we will apply cash distributions on the shares of stock registered in your name to purchase additional shares for you directly from us. Participants generally are required to have the full amount of their cash distributions with respect to all shares of stock owned by them reinvested pursuant to the DRP. However, we have the sole discretion, upon the request of a DRP participant, to accommodate such participant's request for less than all of its securities to be subject to participation in the DRP.

The distributions paid on shares acquired through the DRP will continue to be reinvested unless you elect to have them paid in cash by changing your investment option.

Source and Purchase Price of the Shares

There is no public trading market for our shares, and there can be no assurance that a market will develop in the future. The shares may be purchased under the DRP at the higher of 95% of the value of one share as estimated by our board of directors or $9.50 per share. Our board of directors arbitrarily determined the selling price of the shares to be issued under the DRP, and such price bears no relationship to our book or asset values, or to any other established criteria for valuing issued or outstanding shares. The selling price may not be indicative of the price at which the shares may trade if they were listed on an exchange or of the proceeds that a stockholder may receive if we liquidated or dissolved.

When Shares Will Be Purchased

Shares will be purchased for you under the DRP on the payment date for the distribution used to purchase the shares. We intend to pay distributions monthly.

Cost of Participating in the Program

You will not incur any brokerage commissions or service charges when purchasing shares under the DRP.

Tracking Your Investment

Within 90 days after the end of each calendar year, we will mail you a statement of account describing your distributions received, the number of shares purchased, and the per share purchase price for such shares pursuant to the DRP during the prior year. Each statement will also advise you that you are required to notify us in the event that there is any material change in your financial condition or if any representation made by you under the Subscription Agreement for your initial purchase of shares becomes inaccurate. Tax information regarding your participation in the DRP will be sent to you at least annually.

In addition, our annual report contains information regarding our history of distribution payments. This annual report is mailed to our stockholders each year.

Book-Entry Evidence for Shares Acquired Under the DRP

All shares of our common stock that you purchase through the reinvestment of distributions are recorded in your name on our books. No stock certificates will be issued because we do not issue stock certificates. The number of shares you hold in the DRP will be shown on your regular statement of account.

Selling Shares Acquired Under the DRP

You may sell the shares held in the DRP, and your other shares, at any time, subject to any restrictions set forth in our charter or that we may impose on the sale of shares to protect our status as a real estate investment trust. However, there is currently no liquid market for our shares and we do not expect one to develop. Consequently, there may not be a readily available buyer for your shares.

Prior to the listing of the shares on a national securities exchange, your transfer of shares will terminate participation in the DRP with respect to such transferred shares as of the first day of the month in which such transfer is effective, unless the transferee of such shares in connection with such transfer demonstrates to us that such transferee meets the requirements for participation hereunder and affirmatively elects participation by delivering an executed authorization form or other instrument required by us.

Terminating Your Participation in the DRP

You may terminate or modify your participation in the DRP at any time upon written notice to us. To be effective for any quarterly or monthly distribution period, as applicable, such notice must be received by us at least ten days prior to the last day of the distribution period.

We may terminate your individual participation in the DRP at any time by ten days' prior written notice to you.

After termination of your participation in the DRP, we will send you a check for the amount of any distributions in your account that have not been invested in shares. Any future distributions with respect to your shares made after the effective date of the termination of your participation in the DRP will be sent directly to you.

Tax Consequences of Your Participation in the DRP

The reinvestment of distributions does not relieve you of any income tax which may be payable on such distributions. Distributions paid by us to you are treated as dividends to the extent that we have earnings and profits for federal income tax purposes. Any amount distributed in excess of our earnings and profits is applied as a return of capital, which results in reduction in the adjusted basis of your shares. Once your adjusted basis in the shares is reduced to zero, any excess is treated as gain from the sale of shares.

If you participate in the DRP, you will recognize taxable dividend income equal to the value of the shares received, even though you purchased shares and did not receive any cash. These deemed dividends will be treated as actual dividends paid from us to you and will retain the character and tax effects applicable to all dividends. The shares received by you pursuant to the DRP will have a holding period beginning with the day after the purchase, and a tax basis equal to their cost, which is the gross amount of the deemed distribution.

Tax-exempt stockholders, including IRAs, Keogh Plans, 401(k) plans and charitable remainder trusts, generally will not have to pay any taxes on distributions, including distributions reinvested under the DRP. However, if a tax-exempt stockholder borrows to acquire shares, or if we become a pension-held REIT, distributions can be taxable.

The income tax consequences for participants who do not reside in the United States may vary from jurisdiction to jurisdiction.

The above discussion regarding the tax consequences of participating in the DRP is intended only as a general discussion of the current federal income tax consequences of participating in the DRP. Since each stockholder's financial situation is different, you should consult your individual tax advisor concerning any tax questions you may have about participation in the DRP.

Amendment or Termination of the DRP

Our board of directors may amend or terminate the DRP for any reason by providing ten days' written notice to plan participants.

After termination of the DRP, we will send you a check for the amount of any distributions in your account that have not been invested in shares. Any future distributions with respect to your shares made after the effective date of the termination of your participation in the DRP will be sent directly to you.

Voting Rights of Shares Acquired Under the DRP

Shares in your DRP account will be voted as you direct. As a stockholder, you will receive a proxy card in connection with any annual or special meeting of stockholders. This proxy will apply to all shares registered in your name, including all shares credited to your DRP account. You may also vote your shares, including those in your DRP account, in person at any annual or special meeting of stockholders.

Our Liability Under the DRP

We will not have any responsibility or liability as to the value of our shares or any change in the value of the shares acquired for each participant's account, and we will not be liable for any act done in good faith, or for any good faith omission to act. In addition, our charter provides that we will generally indemnify and hold harmless a director, an officer, an employee, an agent, our advisor or an affiliate against any and all losses or liabilities reasonably incurred by such party in connection with or by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted to be performed on our behalf in such capacity.

We have agreed to indemnify and hold harmless our advisor and its affiliates performing services for us from specific claims and liabilities arising out of the performance of their obligations under the advisory agreement. As a result, our stockholders and we may be entitled to a more limited right of action than they and we would otherwise have if these indemnification rights were not included in the advisory agreement.

The general effect to investors of any arrangement under which we agree to insure or indemnify any persons against liability is a potential reduction in distributions resulting from our payment of premiums associated with insurance or indemnification payments in excess of amounts covered by insurance. In addition, indemnification could reduce the legal remedies available to our stockholders and us against the officers and directors.

The SEC takes the position that indemnification against liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (Securities Act), is against public policy and unenforceable. Indemnification of our directors, officers, employees, agents, advisor or our affiliates and any persons acting as a broker-dealer will not be allowed for liabilities arising from or out of a violation of state or federal securities laws, unless one or more of the following conditions are met:

- there has been a successful adjudication on the merits of each count involving alleged securities law violations;
- such claims have been dismissed with prejudice on the merits by a court of competent jurisdiction; or
- a court of competent jurisdiction approves a settlement of the claims against the indemnitee and finds that indemnification of the settlement and the related costs should be made, and the court considering the request for indemnification has been advised of the position of the SEC and of the published position of any state securities regulatory authority in which our securities were offered as to indemnification for violations of securities laws.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, liability under the U.S. federal securities laws cannot be waived. Similarly, we have been advised that in the opinion of certain state securities commissioners, indemnification is also contrary to public policy and therefore unenforceable.

YOU SHOULD RECOGNIZE THAT YOU MAY NOT PROFIT, AND MAY INCUR A LOSS, ON THE SHARES YOU ACQUIRE UNDER THE DRP.

Governing Law

The terms and conditions of the DRP and its operation will be governed by the laws of the State of Maryland.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The proceeds raised pursuant to the DRP will be used for general corporate purposes, including, but not limited to, investment in real estate, payment of fees and other costs, repayment of debt, and funding for our share redemption program. We cannot predict with any certainty how much DRP proceeds will be used for any of the above purposes, and we have no basis for estimating the number of shares that will be sold.

We will pay actual expenses incurred in connection with the registration and offering of the DRP shares, including but not limited to legal fees, printing expenses, mailing costs, SEC, FINRA and blue sky registration fees, and other accountable offering expenses, in our sole discretion. These offering expenses are currently estimated to be approximately $158,000 (or less than 1% of the maximum DRP proceeds).

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are offering a maximum of 30,000,000 shares to our current stockholders through the DRP. The shares are being offered at the higher of 95% of the value of one share as estimated by our board of directors or $9.50 per share, and we have no basis for estimating the number of shares that will be sold.

We will not engage any person to participate in or facilitate the distribution of shares under the DRP, and we will not pay any selling commissions, dealer manager fees or any other remuneration in connection with the sale of shares pursuant to the DRP.

EXHIBIT A

SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED

DISTRIBUTION REINVESTMENT PLAN

Cole Credit Property Trust II, Inc.

Cole Credit Property Trust II, Inc., a Maryland corporation (the “Company”), has adopted this Second Amended and Restated Distribution Reinvestment Plan (the “Plan”), to be administered by the Company or an unaffiliated third party (the “Administrator”) as agent for participants in the Plan (“Participants”), on the terms and conditions set forth below.

1. Election to Participate. Any purchaser of shares of common stock of the Company, par value $.01 per share (the “Shares”), may become a Participant by making a written election to participate on such purchaser’s subscription agreement at the time of subscription for Shares. Any stockholder who has not previously elected to participate in the Plan may so elect at any time by completing and executing an authorization form obtained from the Administrator or any other appropriate documentation as may be acceptable to the Administrator. Participants in the Plan generally are required to have the full amount of their cash distributions (other than “Excluded Distributions” as defined below) with respect to all Shares owned by them reinvested pursuant to the Plan. However, the Administrator shall have the sole discretion, upon the request of a Participant, to accommodate a Participant’s request for less than all of the Participant’s Shares to be subject to participation in the Plan.

2. Distribution Reinvestment. The Administrator will receive all cash distributions (other than Excluded Distributions) paid by the Company with respect to Shares of Participants (collectively, the “Distributions”). Participation will commence with the next Distribution payable after receipt of the Participant’s election pursuant to Paragraph 1 hereof, provided it is received at least ten (10) days prior to the last day of the period to which such Distribution relates. Subject to the preceding sentence, regardless of the date of such election, a holder of Shares will become a Participant in the Plan effective on the first day of the period following such election, and the election will apply to all Distributions attributable to such period and to all periods thereafter. As used in this Plan, the term “Excluded Distributions” shall mean those cash or other distributions designated as Excluded Distributions by the Company’s board of directors.

3. General Terms of Plan Investments.

(a) The Company intends to offer Shares pursuant to the Plan at the higher of 95% of the value of one share as estimated by the Company’s board of directors or $9.50 per share, regardless of the price per share paid by the Participant for the Shares in respect of which the Distributions are paid.

(b) Selling commissions will not be paid for the Shares purchased pursuant to the Plan.

(c) Dealer manager fees will not be paid for the Shares purchased pursuant to the Plan.

(d) For each Participant, the Administrator will maintain an account which shall reflect for each period in which Distributions are paid (a “Distribution Period”) the Distributions received by the Administrator on behalf of such Participant. A Participant’s account shall be reduced as purchases of Shares are made on behalf of such Participant.

(e) Distributions shall be invested in Shares by the Administrator promptly following the payment date with respect to such Distributions to the extent Shares are available for purchase under the Plan. If sufficient Shares are not available, any such funds that have not been invested in Shares within 30 days after receipt by the Administrator and, in any event, by the end of the fiscal quarter in which they are received, will be distributed to Participants. Any interest earned on such accounts will be paid to the Company and will become property of the Company.

(f) Participants may acquire fractional Shares so that 100% of the Distributions will be used to acquire Shares. The ownership of the Shares shall be reflected on the books of the Company or its transfer agent.

4. Absence of Liability. Neither the Company nor the Administrator shall have any responsibility or liability as to the value of the Shares or any change in the value of the Shares acquired for the Participant’s account. Neither the Company nor the Administrator shall be liable for any act done in good faith, or for any good faith omission to act hereunder.

5. Suitability. Each Participant shall notify the Administrator in the event that, at any time during his participation in the Plan, there is any material change in the Participant’s financial condition or inaccuracy of any representation under the Subscription Agreement for the Participant’s initial purchase of Shares. A material change shall include any anticipated or actual decrease in net worth or annual gross income or any other change in circumstances that would cause the Participant to fail to meet the suitability standards set forth in the Company’s prospectus for the Participant’s initial purchase of Shares.

6. Reports to Participants. Within ninety (90) days after the end of each calendar year, the Administrator will mail to each Participant a statement of account describing, as to such Participant, the Distributions received, the number of Shares purchased and the per share purchase price for such Shares pursuant to the Plan during the prior year. Each statement also shall advise the Participant that, in accordance with Section 5 hereof, the Participant is required to notify the Administrator in the event there is any material change in the Participant's financial condition or if any representation made by the Participant under the subscription agreement for the Participant's initial purchase of Shares becomes inaccurate. Tax information regarding a Participant's participation in the Plan will be sent to each Participant by the Company or the Administrator at least annually.

7. Taxes. Taxable Participants may incur a tax liability for Distributions even though they have elected not to receive their Distributions in cash but rather to have their Distributions reinvested in Shares under the Plan.

8. Reinvestment in Subsequent Programs. The Company may determine, in its sole discretion, to cause the Administrator to provide to each Participant notice of the opportunity to have some or all of such Participant's Distributions (at the discretion of the Administrator and, if applicable, the Participant) invested through the Plan in any publicly offered limited partnership, real estate investment trust or other real estate program sponsored by the Company or its affiliates (a "Subsequent Program"). If the Company makes such an election, Participants may invest Distributions in equity securities issued by such Subsequent Program through the Plan only if the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) prior to the time of such reinvestment, the Participant has received the final prospectus and any supplements thereto offering interests in the Subsequent Program and such prospectus allows investment pursuant to a distribution reinvestment plan;

(b) a registration statement covering the interests in the Subsequent Program has been declared effective under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended;

(c) the offering and sale of such interests are qualified for sale under the applicable state securities laws;

(d) the Participant executes the subscription agreement included with the prospectus for the Subsequent Program; and

(e) the Participant qualifies under applicable investor suitability standards as contained in the prospectus for the Subsequent Program.

9. Termination.

(a) A Participant may terminate or modify his participation in the Plan at any time by written notice to the Administrator. To be effective for any Distribution, such notice must be received by the Administrator at least ten (10) days prior to the last day of the Distribution Period to which it relates.

(b) Prior to the listing of the Shares on a national securities exchange, a Participant's transfer of Shares will terminate participation in the Plan with respect to such transferred Shares as of the first day of the Distribution Period in which such transfer is effective, unless the transferee of such Shares in connection with such transfer demonstrates to the Administrator that such transferee meets the requirements for participation hereunder and affirmatively elects participation by delivering an executed authorization form or other instrument required by the Administrator.

10. State Regulatory Restrictions. The Administrator is authorized to deny participation in the Plan to residents of any state or foreign jurisdiction that imposes restrictions on participation in the Plan that conflict with the general terms and provisions of this Plan.

11. Amendment or Termination by Company.

(a) The terms and conditions of this Plan may be amended by the Company at any time, including but not limited to an amendment to the Plan to substitute a new Administrator to act as agent for the Participants, by mailing an appropriate notice at least ten (10) days prior to the effective date thereof to each Participant.

(b) The Administrator may terminate a Participant's individual participation in the Plan and the Company may terminate the Plan itself, at any time by providing ten (10) days' prior written notice to a Participant, or to all Participants, as the case may be.

(c) After termination of the Plan or termination of a Participant's participation in the Plan, the Administrator will send to each Participant a check for the amount of any Distributions in the Participant's account that have not been invested in Shares. Any future Distributions with respect to such former Participant's Shares made after the effective date of the termination of the Participant's participation will be sent directly to the former Participant.

12. Governing Law. This Plan and the Participants' election to participate in the Plan shall be governed by the laws of the State of Maryland.

13. Notice. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given by any provision of this Plan shall be in writing and, if to the Administrator, addressed to Cole Credit Property Trust II Investor Services Department, 2575 East Camelback Road, Suite 500, Phoenix, Arizona 85016, or such other address as may be specified by the Administrator by written notice to all Participants. Notices to a Participant may be given by letter addressed to the Participant at the Participant's last address of record with the Administrator. Each Participant shall notify the Administrator promptly in writing of any changes of address.

Item 15. Indemnification of the Officers and Directors

The Maryland General Corporation Law, as amended (the “MGCL”), permits a Maryland corporation to include in its charter a provision limiting the liability of its directors and officers to the corporation and its stockholders for money damages except for liability resulting from (a) actual receipt of an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services or (b) active and deliberate dishonesty established by a final judgment as being material to the cause of action. Subject to the applicable limitations under Maryland law and in our charter, our charter contains a provision that eliminates directors’ and officers’ liability to us and our stockholders for money damages.

The MGCL requires a Maryland corporation (unless its charter provides otherwise, which our charter does not) to indemnify a director or officer who has been successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she is made or threatened to be made a party by reason of his or her service in that capacity. The MGCL permits a Maryland corporation to indemnify its present and former directors and officers, among others, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses actually incurred by them in connection with any proceeding to which they may be made or threatened to be made a party by reason of their service in those or other capacities unless it is established that (a) the act or omission of the director or officer was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and (i) was committed in bad faith or (ii) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty, (b) the director or officer actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services or (c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. However, under the MGCL a Maryland corporation may not indemnify for an adverse judgment in a suit by or in the right of the corporation or for a judgment of liability on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received, unless in either case a court orders indemnification and then only for expenses. In addition, the MGCL permits a corporation to advance reasonable expenses to a director or officer upon the corporation’s receipt of (a) a written affirmation by the director or officer of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification and (b) a written undertaking by him or her or on his or her behalf to repay the amount paid or reimbursed if it shall ultimately be determined that the standard of conduct was not met. It is the position of the Securities and Exchange Commission that indemnification of directors and officers for liabilities arising under the Securities Act is against public policy and is unenforceable pursuant to Section 14 of the Securities Act.

Our charter provides that we will generally indemnify and hold harmless a director, officer, employee, agent, advisor or affiliate against any and all losses or liabilities reasonably incurred by such director, officer, employee, agent, advisor or affiliate in connection with or by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted to be performed on our behalf in such capacity.

Edgar Filing: Cole Credit Property Trust II Inc - Form 424B3

However, under our charter, we will not indemnify the directors, officers, employees, agents, advisor or affiliates for any liability or loss suffered by the directors, officers, employees, agents, advisor or affiliates, nor will we hold harmless the directors, officers, employees, agents, advisor or affiliates for any loss or liability, unless all of the following conditions are met: (i) the directors, officers, employees, agents, advisor or affiliates have determined, in good faith, that the course of conduct which caused the loss or liability was in our best interests; (ii) the directors, officers, employees, agents, advisor or affiliates were acting on our behalf or performing services for us; (iii) such liability or loss was not the result of (A) negligence or misconduct by the directors, excluding the independent directors, advisor or affiliates; or (B) gross negligence or willful misconduct by the independent directors; and (iv) such indemnification or agreement to hold harmless is recoverable only out of our net assets and not from stockholders. In addition, the directors, officers, employees, agents, advisor or affiliates and any persons acting as a broker-dealer will not be indemnified by us for any losses, liability or expenses arising from or out of an alleged violation of federal or state securities laws by such party unless one or more of the following conditions are met: (i) there has been a successful adjudication on the merits of each count involving alleged securities law violations as to the particular indemnitee; (ii) such claims have been dismissed with prejudice on the merits by a court of competent jurisdiction as to the particular indemnitee; and (iii) a court of competent jurisdiction approves a settlement of the claims against a particular indemnitee and finds that indemnification of the settlement and the related costs should be made, and the court considering the request for indemnification has been advised of the position of the Securities and Exchange Commission and of the published position of any state securities regulatory authority in which our securities were offered or sold as to indemnification for violations of securities laws.

Our charter provides that the advancement of funds to our directors, officers, employees, agents, advisor or affiliates for legal expenses and other costs incurred as a result of any legal action for which indemnification is being sought is permissible only if all of the following conditions are satisfied: (i) the legal action relates to acts or omissions with respect to the performance of duties or services on our behalf; (ii) the legal action is initiated by a third party who is not a stockholder or the legal action is initiated by a stockholder acting in his or her capacity as such and a court of competent jurisdiction specifically approves such advancement; (iii) the directors, officers, employees, agents, advisor or affiliates undertake to repay the advanced funds to us together with the applicable legal rate of interest thereon, in cases in which such directors, officers, employees, agents, advisor or affiliates are found not to be entitled to indemnification; and (iv) the directors, officers, employees, agents, advisor or affiliates provide us with written affirmation of their good faith belief that the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification has been met.

We also have purchased and maintain insurance on behalf of all of our directors and executive officers against liability asserted against or incurred by them in their official capacities with us, whether or not we are required or have the power to indemnify them against the same liability.
