

ITEM 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Effective December 31, 2007, Mr. Herman W. Moore III resigned from his position as the Executive Vice President of PGT, Inc. and PGT Industries, Inc., the wholly owned operating subsidiary of PGT, Inc. (collectively, the "Company"). In connection therewith, the Company entered into an Employment Separation, General Release of Legal Rights and Consulting Agreement with Mr. Moore (the "Agreement"), that supersedes and replaces Mr. Moore's employment agreement with the Company, which terminated on December 31, 2007.

Pursuant to the Agreement, among other things (i) Mr. Moore will receive certain severance benefits including a lump sum payment in cash in an amount equal to $506,545.67, (ii) the Company will retain Mr. Moore as a consultant to the Company from December 31, 2007 until June 28, 2009 (the "Consulting Period") for a lump sum consulting fee of $90,000, (iii) Mr. Moore will forfeit all restricted stock and stock options not vested as of December 31, 2007, except for 13,241 shares of restricted stock granted to Mr. Moore pursuant to the Restricted Stock Award Agreement, dated June 27, 2006, which will continue to vest over the Consulting Period, (iv) Mr. Moore will release the Company and its affiliates from all claims and obligations, including those related to Mr. Moore's employment with the Company and the termination of such employment, and (v) Mr. Moore will agree not to compete with the Company or its affiliates or solicit their customers or employees during the Consulting Period or for a one year period thereafter, and will not use or disclose any of their confidential information.

ITEM 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

As reported under Item 1.01 above, effective as of December 31, 2007, the employment agreement entered into between PGT Industries, Inc. and Mr. Moore, effective as of October 11, 2005, terminated and is superseded and replaced in its entirety by the Agreement.
