On September 28, 2010, the Board of Directors of WS appointed Edward Bernstein as director of the Company to fill a vacancy on the Company’s Board left by Mr. Jotwani. The Company believes that Mr. Bernstein is an “independent director” as that term is defined by Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5605(a)(2).

Mr. Bernstein is currently CEO and director at Propell Corporation, an e-commerce provider he cofounded that enables schools and nonprofit companies to sell merchandise online for fundraising and other programs. Mr. Bernstein is also co-founder of Creekside LLC, a private technology consulting company. Mr. Bernstein will serve an initial term through the 2011 annual meeting of stockholders. In connection with his appointment to the Company’s Board, Mr. Bernstein was granted an option to purchase 20,000 shares of the Company’s common stock and an amount of the Company’s restricted common stock equal in value to $20,000, as valued on the grant date. One-fourth of the stock options and restricted stock will vest each quarter during Mr. Bernstein’s service on the Company’s Board. Mr. Bernstein was also appointed to serve on the Company’s Audit, Compensation, and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committees of the Board, along with the existing Committee members Ed Roffman and Jon Witkin.

There was no arrangement or understanding between Mr. Bernstein and any other person pursuant to which he was selected as a director. There is no family relationship between Mr. Bernstein and any of the Company’s other directors or executive officers. Mr. Bernstein is also a director of Adex Media, Inc., which is the parent company of Abundantad. Abundantad was formed for the purpose of creating, operating and/or acquiring publishers of internet content whose properties are deemed desirable to generate paid-for dissemination of internal or third-party direct advertising and revenues derived from agency and advertising network-directed advertising on the internet. Mr. Bernstein does not have any direct or indirect material interest in any transaction which would require disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
