PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS OF DATANG

Reference is made to the Company's announcements dated 10 November 2008 and 15 July 2010 in relation to the Datang Share Purchase Agreement which was completed on 24 December 2008, as a result of which Datang now holds 5,227,132,761 Ordinary Shares constituting approximately 19.08% of the issued share capital of the Company.

Pursuant to the Datang Share Purchase Agreement, in case of any issue of new shares or warrants, subject to certain exceptions, Datang has a pre-emptive right to subscribe for a pro rata portion of the new shares and warrants being issued equivalent to the percentage of the issued share capital of the Company then owned by Datang immediately prior to the issue of the new shares and warrants. Datang's pre-emptive right is applicable to the issue of the Investor Securities pursuant to the Investor Subscription and any TSMC Further Subscription. Pursuant to the Datang Share Purchase Agreement, completion of any such issue of the Datang Pre-emptive Securities to Datang upon exercise of its pre-emptive right will be further subject to the receipt of any required regulatory approvals. Any exercise by Datang of its pre-emptive right to subscribe for the Datang Pre-emptive Securities in connection with the Investor Subscription Agreement and any TSMC Further Subscription will be at a price equivalent to the Investor Subscription Price and conditional on the obtaining of the necessary governmental approval and the obtaining of Independent Shareholders' approval of the Further Special Mandate.

The Company has notified Datang in accordance with the terms of the Datang Share Purchase Agreement in respect of the Investor Subscription and the possibility of the TSMC Further Subscription. Pursuant to the Datang Share Purchase Agreement, Datang is deemed to have elected not to exercise the pre-emptive right with respect to the Datang Pre-emptive Securities if it does not respond to the final notice within ten (10) business days following the date of the final notice. The Company will make such further announcement as is necessary under the Listing Rules in relation to this.

If Datang fully exercises its pre-emptive right pursuant to the Datang Share Purchase Agreement, Independent Shareholders' and necessary governmental approvals are successfully obtained, the maximum gross proceeds of the potential Datang Further Subscription will be approximately US$64 million (assuming the TSMC Further Subscription takes place but assuming no exercise of any Datang Pre-emptive Warrants).

PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS OF TSMC

Reference is made to the Company's announcement dated 10 November 2009 in relation to the TSMC Share and Warrant Issuance Agreement which was completed on 5 July 2010, as a result of which TSMC now holds 1,789,493,218 Ordinary Shares constituting approximately 6.53% of the issued share capital of the Company.

Pursuant to the TSMC Share and Warrant Issuance Agreement, in case of any issue of new shares or warrants, subject to certain exceptions, TSMC has a pre-emptive right to purchase a pro rata portion of the new shares and warrants being issued equivalent to the percentage of the issued share capital of the Company then owned by TSMC prior to the issue of the new shares and warrants. TSMC's pre-emptive right is applicable to the issue of the Investor Securities pursuant to the Investor Subscription and any Datang Further Subscription. Pursuant to the TSMC Share and Warrant Issuance Agreement, completion of any such issue of the TSMC Pre-emptive Securities to TSMC upon exercise of its pre-emptive right will be further subject to the receipt of any required regulatory approvals. TSMC's exercise of its pre-emptive right to subscribe for the TSMC Pre-emptive Securities in connection with the Investor Subscription Agreement and any Datang Further Subscription will be at a price equivalent to the Investor Subscription Price and conditional on the obtaining of the necessary governmental approval and the obtaining of Independent Shareholders' approval of the Further Special Mandate.

The Company has notified TSMC in accordance with the terms of the TSMC Share and Warrant Issuance Agreement in connection with the Investor Subscription and the possibility of the Datang Further Subscription. Pursuant to the TSMC Share and Warrant Issue Agreement, TSMC is deemed to have elected not to exercise the pre-emptive right with respect to the TSMC Pre-emptive Securities if it does not respond to the final notice within ten (10) business days following the date of the final notice. The Company will make such further announcement as is necessary under the Listing Rules in relation to this.

If TSMC fully exercises its pre-emptive right pursuant to the TSMC Share and Warrant Issuance Agreement, Independent Shareholders' and necessary governmental approvals are successfully obtained, the maximum gross proceeds of the potential TSMC Further Subscription will be approximately US$22 million (assuming the Datang Further Subscription takes place but assuming no exercise of any TSMC Pre-emptive Warrants).

REASONS FOR THE INVESTOR SUBSCRIPTION

The Company continues to seek ways to strengthen its shareholder base by inviting high quality investors that recognize the Company's unique strategic value proposition and share the same, long-term vision of making the Company one of the leading semiconductor companies in the world. The Company believes that receiving such an investment from this Investor is consistent with the Company's above financing strategy and will be highly beneficial to the Company. Bank of America Merrill Lynch is acting as exclusive financial adviser to the Company.

USE OF PROCEEDS

It is estimated that the net proceeds from the issue of the Investor Securities would be approximately US$249.4 million.

It is estimated that, assuming Datang and TSMC exercise their respective pre-emptive rights in full, the net proceeds from the issue of the Datang Pre-emptive Securities and TSMC Pre-emptive Securities (assuming no exercise of any Datang Pre-emptive Warrants and TSMC Pre-emptive Warrants) would be approximately US$86.0 million.

It is estimated that the net proceeds upon the full exercise of the Investor Warrants would be approximately US$49.5 million.

It is estimated that, assuming Datang and TSMC fully exercise the Datang Pre-emptive Warrants and TSMC Pre-emptive Warrants, the net proceeds would be approximately US$17.0 million.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds for capital expenditure and debt repayment.

Reference is made to the Company's announcements dated 10 November 2008 and 15 July 2010 in relation to the Datang Share Purchase Agreement which was completed on 24 December 2008, as a result of which Datang now holds 5,227,132,761 Ordinary Shares constituting approximately 19.08% of the issued share capital of the Company.

Pursuant to the Datang Share Purchase Agreement, in case of any issue of new shares or warrants, subject to certain exceptions, Datang has a pre-emptive right to subscribe for a pro rata portion of the new shares and warrants being issued equivalent to the percentage of the issued share capital of the Company then owned by Datang immediately prior to the issue of the new shares and warrants. Datang's pre-emptive right is applicable to the issue of the Investor Securities pursuant to the Investor Subscription and any TSMC Further Subscription. Pursuant to the Datang Share Purchase Agreement, completion of any such issue of the Datang Pre-emptive Securities to Datang upon exercise of its pre-emptive right will be further subject to the receipt of any required regulatory approvals. Any exercise by Datang of its pre-emptive right to subscribe for the Datang Pre-emptive Securities in connection with the Investor Subscription Agreement and any TSMC Further Subscription will be at a price equivalent to the Investor Subscription Price and conditional on the obtaining of the necessary governmental approval and the obtaining of Independent Shareholders' approval of the Further Special Mandate.

The Company has notified Datang in accordance with the terms of the Datang Share Purchase Agreement in respect of the Investor Subscription and of the possibility of the TSMC Further Subscription. Pursuant to the Datang Share Purchase Agreement, Datang is deemed to have elected not to exercise the pre-emptive right with respect to the Datang Pre-emptive Securities if it does not respond to the final notice within ten (10) business days following the date of the final notice. The Company will make such further announcement as is necessary under the Listing Rules in relation to this.

If Datang fully exercises its pre-emptive right pursuant to the Datang Share Purchase Agreement, Independent Shareholders' and necessary governmental approvals are successfully obtained, the maximum gross proceeds of the potential Datang Further Subscription will be approximately US$64 million (assuming the TSMC Further Subscription takes place but assuming no exercise of any Datang Pre-emptive Warrant).

PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS OF TSMC

Reference is made to the Company's announcement dated 10 November 2009 in relation to the TSMC Share and Warrant Issuance Agreement which was completed on 5 July 2010, as a result of which TSMC now holds 1,789,493,218 Ordinary Shares constituting approximately 6.53% of the issued share capital of the Company.

Pursuant to the TSMC Share and Warrant Issuance Agreement, in case of any issue of new shares or warrants, subject to certain exceptions, TSMC has a pre-emptive right to purchase a pro rata portion of the new shares and warrants being issued equivalent to the percentage of the issued share capital of the Company then owned by TSMC prior to the issue of the new shares and warrants. TSMC's pre-emptive right is applicable to the issue of the Investor Securities pursuant to the Investor Subscription and any Datang Further Subscription. Pursuant to the TSMC Share and Warrant Issuance Agreement, completion of any such issue of the TSMC Pre-emptive Securities to TSMC upon exercise of its pre-emptive right will be further subject to the receipt of any required regulatory approvals. TSMC's exercise of its pre-emptive right to subscribe for the TSMC Pre-emptive Securities in connection with the Investor Subscription Agreement and any Datang Further Subscription will be at a price equivalent to the Investor Subscription Price and conditional on the obtaining of the necessary governmental approval and the obtaining of Independent Shareholders' approval of the Further Special Mandate.

The Company has notified TSMC in accordance with the terms of the TSMC Share and Warrant Issuance Agreement in connection with the Investor Subscription of the possibility of the Datang Further Subscription. Pursuant to the TSMC Share and Warrant Issue Agreement, TSMC is deemed to have elected not to exercise the pre-emptive right with respect to the TSMC Pre-emptive Securities if it does not respond to the final notice within ten (10) business days following the date of the final notice. The Company will make such further announcement as is necessary under the Listing Rules in relation to this.

If TSMC fully exercises its pre-emptive right pursuant to the TSMC Share and Warrant Issuance Agreement, Shareholders' and necessary governmental approvals are successfully obtained, the maximum gross proceeds of the potential TSMC Further Subscription will be approximately US$22 million (assuming the Datang Further Subscription takes place but assuming no exercise of any TSMC Pre-emptive Warrants).

REASONS FOR THE INVESTOR SUBSCRIPTION

The Company continues to seek ways to strengthen its shareholder base by inviting high quality investors that recognise SMIC's unique strategic value proposition and share the same, long-term vision of making SMIC one of the leading semiconductor companies in the world. The Company believes that receiving such an investment from this Investor is consistent with the Company's above financing strategy and will be highly beneficial to the Company. Bank of America Merrill Lynch is acting as exclusive financial adviser to SMIC.

USE OF PROCEEDS

It is estimated that the net proceeds from the issue of the Investor Securities would be approximately US$249.4 million.

It is estimated that, assuming Datang and TSMC exercise their respective pre-emptive rights in full, the net proceeds from the issue of the Datang Pre-emptive Securities and TSMC Pre-emptive Securities (assuming no exercise of any Datang Pre-emptive Warrants and TSMC Pre-emptive Warrants) would be approximately US$86.0 million.

It is estimated that the net proceeds upon the full exercise of the Investor Warrants would be approximately US$49.5 million.

It is estimated that, assuming Datang and TSMC fully exercise the Datang Pre-emptive Warrants and TSMC Pre-emptive Warrants, the net proceeds would be approximately US$17.0 million.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds for capital expenditure and debt repayment.
