Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On May 20, 2008 Community Bankers Acquisition Corp. (the Company) borrowed $290,000 from the Company s President. In connection with the loan the parties executed a demand note (the Demand Note) pursuant to which the Company unconditionally promised to pay the principal sum of $290,000 in cash to the lender on the earliest of (a) one business day following the lender s written demand to the Company for such payment, (b) consummation of a business combination and (c) liquidation of the Company pursuant to the Company s amended and restated certificate of incorporation.

If the Company defaults under the Demand Note, the lender may declare all amounts due under the Demand Note due and payable. The following events constitute an event of default under the Demand Note: (i) a default by the Company in the payment of the principal when due and payable if such default is not cured by the Company within two days after the lender has given the Company written notice of such default; (ii) the institution by the Company of or the consent by the Company to bankruptcy or similar proceedings; and (iii) if, within thirty days after the commencement of an action against Borrower seeking any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief, such action shall not have been resolved in favor of the Company or all orders or proceedings affecting the operations of the Company stayed, or if the stay of any such order or proceeding shall thereafter be set aside, or if, within thirty days after the appointment without the consent of the Company of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of the Company or of all or any substantial part of its properties, such appointment shall not have been vacated; provided that the adoption of a plan of dissolution and distribution and its implementation by the Company s board of directors that is approved by its stockholders due to the failure of the Company to complete a business combination shall not in any instance be deemed an event of default.

Under the Demand Note, the lender irrevocably waived any claim to funds in the trust fund or distributed from the trust fund, other than in a business combination distribution.
