EQUUS TAKES ACTION TO COLLECT $2.3 MILLION FROM TRULITE

Equus Notes Conflict of Interest in Fact that Chairman, CEO and Paula Douglass, a Trulite Director, are Each Nominees of "Committee to Enhance Equus"

HOUSTON, TX – April 23, 2010 – Equus Total Return, Inc. (NYSE: EQS) ("Equus" or the "Fund") today announced that on April 22, 2010, it had taken action to collect $2.3 million owing from Trulite, Inc., a portfolio company of Equus. The loan to Trulite was originated by Paula Douglass (who until March 2010 had been an officer of the Fund and a member of the Fund's Investment Committee). Trulite defaulted on the Loan from Equus on January 26, 2010.

"We are very disturbed that Jonathan H. Godshall, CEO of Trulite, John D. White, Chairman of Trulite, and Paula Douglass, a Director of Trulite, have been put forward by the 'Committee to Enhance Equus' (The Douglass Committee) as nominees for Directors for your Fund," said Richard Bergner, Chairman of the Fund. "The appointment of these proposed nominees would not be in the best interest of the Fund's shareholders, as these Directors would have a clear conflict in their duty to protect the interest of the Fund's shareholders versus their duty to protect the assets of Trulite, which is in default on a $2.3 million loan from the Fund."

In early 2007, Trulite commenced trading on the OTC Bulletin Board and on March 31, 2008 had a market capitalization in excess of $14 million. In July 2008, Paula Douglass was appointed to the Board of Trulite. By June 2009, Trulite's stock price declined and last traded at a penny per share in July 2009 with a market capitalization of approximately $200,000.
