Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities

On November 10, 2011, CommerceTel Corporation (the “Company”) entered into agreements with all holders of its 10% Senior Secured Convertible Bridge Notes (the “Notes”) due November 2, 2011 in the principal amount of $1,010,000. Under the terms of the agreements, holders of $800,000 in principal amount agreed to extend the maturity due date of the Notes to February, 2012.

In addition, holders of the balance of $210,000 agreed to convert the entire principal amount plus all accrued and unpaid interest into units (each, a “Unit”) each of which consists of one share of common stock of the Company (the “Common Stock”) and a four year warrant (each, a “Warrant”) to purchase one share of Common Stock at $2.00 per share. The conversion took place at a price of $1.50 per Unit. Accordingly, the Company issued an aggregate of 153,515 shares of Common Stock and 153,515 Warrants.

The Common Stock and the Warrants were issued pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, under Section 4(2) thereunder, as they were issued in reliance on the recipients’ representations that they were accredited (as such term is defined in Regulation D), without general solicitation and represented by certificates that were imprinted with a restrictive legend. In addition, the recipients were provided with sufficient access to Company information.
