On December 10, 2013, General Motors Company (the “Company”) decided to cease manufacturing at its GM Holden subsidiary in Australia by the end of 2017. GM Holden will retain its presence in Australia by continuing to sell Holden vehicles through its extensive dealer network and maintaining its global design studio. The Company expects to record pre-tax charges of $400 million to $600 million in the fourth quarter of 2013 consisting of approximately $300 million to $500 million for non-cash asset impairment charges including property, plant and equipment and approximately $100 million for cash payment of exit-related costs including certain employee severance related costs. Additional charges are expected to be incurred through 2017 for incremental future cash payments of employee severance once negotiations of the amount are completed with the employees’ union. The asset impairment charges will be considered special for EBIT-adjusted reporting purposes.

On December 10, 2013, the Company issued a press release that provides further details. A copy of the press release is attached to this Current Report as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
