Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

As previously reported, on November 14, 2018, OptimumBank Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”) received a letter from the staff of The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”) indicating that the staff of Nasdaq had reviewed two stock issuances by the Company, and had determined that the issuances did not comply with Nasdaq Rule 5635(c) (the “Rule”), as described more fully below.

In order to address this issue, the Company submitted a compliance plan to Nasdaq pursuant to which the Company proposed to treat the two transactions as equity awards under the Company’s 2018 Equity Incentive Plan. On January 7, 2018, the staff of Nasdaq informed the Company that its compliance plan had been accepted.

The two stock issuances were as follows:

First Transaction

The first transaction consisted of the sale of 20,814 shares of common stock to Moishe Gubin, a director of the Company, on March 30, 2018 at a price of $2.21 per share. The market price on that date was $4.12 per share.

The Company has agreed to treat this transaction as an equity award to Mr. Gubin under the Plan. To reflect this treatment, the Company has reduced the number of shares available under the Plan to cover the issuance of the shares.

Second Transaction

The second transaction consisted of the issuance of 79,186 shares of common stock in exchange for 7 shares of the Company’s preferred stock, effective on April 9, 2018. The liquidation value of the preferred shares on the date of the exchange was $175,000, which was equivalent to a price of $2.21 for each common share that was issued. The market price of the common stock on the date of the exchange was $4.12 per share.

The Company has agreed to treat this transaction as an equity award to Mr. Gubin under the Plan. To reflect this treatment, the Company has reduced the number of shares available under the Plan to cover the issuance of the shares.

Effect on Plan

The Plan permits the Company to issue awards covering up to 250,000 shares of the Company's common stock. Based on the treatment of the two transactions as equity awards under the Plan, the number of shares available for issuance under the Plan has been reduced to 150,000 shares.
