Employment Agreements; Termination and Change-in-Control Arrangements

As of December 29, 2018, Messrs. Coskey and Hess were each a party to a written employment agreement (the "Employment Agreements") with ENGlobal. The Employment Agreements provide for an annual base salary, subject to discretionary increases by the Board, and other compensation in the form of cash bonuses, incentive compensation, stock options, stock appreciation rights, and restricted stock awards. Additionally, the executives receive health, life, and other insurance benefits in accordance with the terms of the Company's benefit plans, and the Company provides management level support services and reimbursement for specified business expenses.

The Employment Agreements provide for severance payments and benefits in the case of termination of employment. If employment ends because of death, the Company will pay any accrued but unpaid salary, additional compensation, and other benefits earned up to that date. In the case of a physical or mental disability that prevents the executive from performing his services under the Employment Agreement for a period of six months in the case of Mr. Coskey, and three months, in the case of Mr. Hess, the Company may terminate the executive's employment. If the Company terminates an executive's employment in such cases of disability, the Employment Agreements provide that the Company will continue to pay the executive his full salary and benefits for the six months following the date of termination (the "Initial Severance Period"). At the Company's option, severance payments consisting of 50% of the monthly amount of the base salary for Mr. Coskey, and in the case of Mr. Hess, 100% of the monthly amount of his base salary, and full benefits may be extended for an additional six-month period following the Initial Severance Period.

If the Company terminates an executive's employment for "cause," as defined in the Employment Agreements, the Company will pay any accrued but unpaid salary, additional compensation, and other benefits earned up to the effective date of termination. If the Company terminates an executive's employment without "cause," the Employment Agreement provides that the Company will continue to pay the executive his full salary and benefits for the Initial Severance Period. At the Company's option, severance payments consisting of 50% of the monthly amount of the base salary for Mr. Coskey, and in the case of Mr. Hess, 100% of the monthly amount of his base salary, and full benefits may be extended for an additional six-month period following the Initial Severance Period.

The Employment Agreements include a covenant not to compete following termination of employment for a period of up to one year, as well as confidentiality provisions that are customary in nature and scope, for such agreements.

The terms of the Employment Agreements were set through the course of arms-length negotiations with the executives. As part of these negotiations, the Compensation Committee analyzed the terms of the same or similar arrangements for comparable executives employed by some of the companies in our peer group. The Compensation Committee used this approach in setting the amounts payable and the triggering events under the Employment Agreements. The Employment Agreements' termination of employment provisions were entered into in order to address competitive concerns by providing the executives with a fixed amount of compensation that would offset the potential risk of foregoing other opportunities. At the time of entering into the Employment Agreements, the Compensation Committee considered ENGlobal's aggregate potential obligations in the context of retaining the executives and their expected compensation.

Executive Perquisites

Our use of perquisites as a component of compensation is limited and largely based on historical practices and policies of our Company. These perquisites and other benefits are provided to assure competitiveness and provide an additional retention incentive for these executives. Our Compensation Committee endeavors to adhere to a high level of propriety in managing executive benefits and perquisites. We do not own a plane and do not provide any personal aircraft use for executives.

Other Compensation

From time to time, we make available to employees and executives certain other fringe benefits. We may provide club memberships, tickets to sporting or cultural events, tickets to community events, etc. To the extent that such items are taxable to the individual, they are considered to be part of the individual's compensation package.

Compensation of Directors

The principal objectives of our director compensation programs are to: (i) compensate for time spent on the Company's behalf, and (ii) align the compensation programs with long-term value to the Company's shareholders. We attempt to accomplish these objectives in an economical manner through a combination of reasonable director retainer fees and equity incentive grants to the directors.

Retainer Fees

Historically, our non-employee directors received a cash retainer as compensation for their service to the Company, and our Chairman of the Audit Committee also received an additional cash retainer as compensation for such service. Our non-employee directors are also eligible for reimbursement of travel and other miscellaneous expenses associated with attendance at Board and Committee meetings. However, due to the losses that the Company incurred during 2016 and 2017, the Compensation Committee recommended and the Board approved that cash retainer fees be suspended effective October 1, 2017 and reviewed for reinstatement on a quarterly basis. At this time, cash retainer fees have not been reinstated.

Restricted Stock Grants

Under the Plan, non-employee directors are eligible to receive equity grants. Our non-employee directors typically receive the equity grants in June concurrent with the annual shareholder's meeting. On June 15, 2017, in recognition of the services provided by its Board for the 2017-2018 service term, our non-employee directors, Messrs. Gent, Hale and Roussel, each received 42,735 restricted shares of the Company's common stock, valued at $50,000 based on the fair market value of the shares on the date of grant, or $1.17 per share. One quarter of the shares vested on September 30, 2017. Due to the losses that the Company incurred in 2016 and 2017, the Compensation Committee recommended and the Board approved the suspension of the vesting provisions of these restricted shares to be extended indefinitely; therefore, the remaining future vestings are not determined at this time and will be revisited on a quarterly basis for reinstatement.

The Company did not issue restricted shares to its non-employee directors in June 2018. The equity grant component of director compensation is reviewed for reinstatement on a quarterly basis. Any unvested shares will be forfeited as of the date the non-employee director ceases to qualify as an independent director.

Mr. Palma does not receive any compensation from the Company for his service as a director, but is eligible for reimbursement of travel and other miscellaneous expenses associated with attendance at Board and Committee meetings.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCEDirector Independence

Our Board of Directors considers the independence of each of the directors under the listing standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market. Among other things, the Board considers current or previous employment relationships as well as material transactions or relationships between ENGlobal or its subsidiaries and the directors, members of their immediate families, or entities in which the directors have a significant interest, including any transactions described in the section entitled "Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions" in this Amended Form 10-K. The purpose of this review is to determine whether any relationships or transactions exist or have occurred that are inconsistent with a determination that the director is independent.

The NASDAQ independence standards include a series of objective tests, such as that the director is not an employee of ENGlobal and has not engaged in various types of business dealings with ENGlobal, to determine whether there are any relationships that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of the director. To be considered independent, the Board must affirmatively determine that the director has no material relationship with ENGlobal.

Under the above standards, the Board has determined that no non-employee director has a relationship which, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of his independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director, and that all directors, except Mr. Coskey, meet the criteria for independence under NASDAQ rules. The Board has also determined that the members of each of its committees, including the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee, meet the criteria for membership applicable to each committee under the NASDAQ listing standards and applicable SEC rules and regulations.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

The Board has adopted a policy requiring that all transactions between the Company and its officers, directors, principal shareholders and their affiliates be on terms no less favorable to the Company than could be obtained from unrelated third parties and that any such transactions be approved by a majority of the disinterested members of the Board. Pursuant to such policy, the Company's Audit Committee is responsible for the review and assessment of all related party transactions.

Mr. Coskey holds a 25% interest in and Mr. Hale holds a 12.5% interest in a small privately held company which placed orders with ENGlobal U.S., Inc. totaling $399,328 (later reduced to $234,403) during the fiscal year ending December 31, 2016, which was billed in February 2017, and an additional $14,839 during the fiscal year ending December 30, 2017. Disinterested members of the Audit Committee reviewed and approved this transaction and found that it complied with the Company's policy and that the transaction was made on terms no less favorable to the Company than could be obtained from unrelated third parties. During 2018, orders were placed by this company for approximately $26,462. No other related party transactions occurred during fiscal year 2017 and 2018.

ITEM 14. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING FEES AND SERVICESIndependent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Moss Adams LLP was appointed as the Company's independent auditors on November 16, 2017 and has audited the Company's 2018 and 2017 consolidated financial statements. During 2018 and 2017, Moss Adams LLP did not audit the Company's internal control over financial reporting because the Company is a "smaller reporting company" as defined under the rules of the Exchange Act. The Audit Committee has determined that the audit-related services provided by Moss Adams LLP are compatible with maintaining its independence in the conduct of its auditing functions pursuant to the auditor independence rules of the SEC. No non-audit services were provided by Moss Adams LLP in 2018 and 2017.

Principal Auditor Fees

The following table shows the fees paid or accrued by ENGlobal for the audit and other services provided by Moss Adams LLP for fiscal years 2018 and 2017.

Hein & Associates LLP was appointed as the Company's independent auditors on December 20, 2013. Effective November 16, 2017, Hein & Associates LLP combined with Moss Adams LLP. As a result of this transaction, on November 16, 2017, Hein resigned as the independent registered public accounting firm for the Company. Concurrent with such resignation, the Audit Committee approved the engagement of Moss Adams LLP as the new independent registered public accounting firm for the Company, and Moss Adams LLP audited the Company's 2017 consolidated financial statements.

The following table shows the fees paid or accrued by ENGlobal for the audit and other services provided by Hein & Associates LLP for fiscal year 2017.

Audit Fees	62,250
Audit-Related Fees	-
Tax Fees	-
All Other Fees	-
Total	62,250

As defined by the SEC, (i) “audit fees” are fees for professional services rendered by the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm for the audit of the Company’s annual financial statements and review of financial statements included in the Company’s Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, or for services that are normally provided by the accountant in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements for those fiscal years; (ii) “audit-related fees” are fees for assurance and related services by the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company’s financial statements and are not reported under “audit fees”; (iii) “tax fees” are fees for professional services rendered by the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm for tax compliance, tax advice, and tax planning; and (iv) “all other fees” are fees for products and services provided by the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm, other than the services reported under “audit fees,” “audit-related fees,” and “tax fees.”

Pre-Approval Policy

Under applicable SEC rules, except for the ability to designate a portion of this responsibility as described below, the full Audit Committee is required to pre-approve the audit and non-audit services performed by the independent registered public accounting firm in order to ensure that they do not impair the auditors' independence from ENGlobal. The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to a member of the Audit Committee, and if it does, the decisions of that member must be presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting. The SEC's rules specify the types of non-audit services that an independent auditor may not provide to its audit client and establish the Audit Committee's responsibility for administration of the engagement of the independent registered public accounting firm.

Consistent with the SEC's rules, the Audit Committee Charter requires that the Audit Committee review and pre-approve all audit services and permitted non-audit services provided by the independent registered public accounting firm to ENGlobal or any of its subsidiaries, except that the Audit Committee Chairman has the right to approve up to $25,000 of services in any year. During 2018, all fees were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.
