5.02 Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On May 28, 2014, Northfield Bank, (the “Bank”) the wholly owned subsidiary of Northfield Bancorp, Inc., (the “Company”) approved amended and restated employment agreements with President and Chief Operating Officer, Steven M. Klein, and Executive Vice President, Kenneth J. Doherty, effective July 1, 2014. Pursuant to the review provided for in each agreement, the agreements were extended for an additional year so that the term of the agreements remains three years. Mr. Doherty’s agreement was amended to provide that if employment is terminated during the term of the agreement by the Bank without Cause (as defined) or Mr. Doherty resigns for Good Reason (as defined), including such a termination following a Change in Control (as defined), Mr. Doherty will receive a severance payment equal to the amount of the remaining payments that Mr. Doherty would have earned as Base Salary if he had continued his employment with the Bank for a twenty-four month period following his termination of employment and had earned a bonus and/or incentive award in each year equal in amount to the average bonus and/or incentive award earned by him (or the highest bonus or incentive award earned in the event of a change in control) over the two calendar years preceding the year in which termination occurs.

In addition, the employment agreements were revised to provide a disability benefit equal to one year of Base Salary, as adjusted, as provided in the agreements, plus one year of non-taxable medical, dental and other health benefits. The non-compete and non-solicitation provisions of the agreements were also revised to provide a one-year non-solicitation requirement upon any termination of employment under the agreement (or two years for Mr. Klein if he is receiving a severance payment under the employment agreement) and a one-year non-compete requirement (two years in case of Mr. Klein) if the executive receives a severance payment under the agreement (other than a severance payment following a change in control). In addition, in the event of his termination of employment Mr. Klein will offer to submit his resignation from the boards of directors of the Bank and the Company.

Also on May 28, 2014, William R. Jacobs entered into an employment agreement with the Bank. Mr. Jacobs employment agreement is substantially similar to those entered into with Messrs. Klein and Doherty. The following is a summary of the employment agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 10.3, and this summary is qualified by reference to the agreement.

The employment agreement provides for an annual Base Salary of $200,000, which may be increased but not decreased. In addition, Mr. Jacobs will be entitled to receive an annual cash bonus depending on the Company’s performance against certain metrics established by the Compensation Committee from time to time. Mr. Jacobs will be entitled to participate in all company benefits that are generally made available to executive officers of the Company and the Bank, to the extent permissible under the general terms and provisions of such plans or programs, and other perquisites approved by the Boards of the Company or the Bank.

The employment agreement has a term of three years, and provides that the Board of the Bank may extend the agreement for an additional period, unless written notice of non-renewal is given by the Board after conducting an annual performance evaluation. The employment agreement provides that if Mr. Jacobs’ employment is terminated during the term by the Bank without Cause (as defined) or Mr. Jacobs resigns for Good Reason (as defined), including such a termination following a Change in Control (as defined), Mr. Jacobs will receive a severance payment equal to the amount of the remaining payments that Mr. Jacobs would have earned as Base Salary if he had continued his employment with the Bank for a twenty-four month period following the date of his termination of employment and had earned a bonus and/or incentive award in each year equal in amount to the average bonus and/or incentive award earned by him (or the highest bonus or incentive award earned in the event of a change in control) over the two calendar years preceding the year in which termination occurs, as well as continued medical, dental and disability coverage for a period of twenty-four months. In the event of his disability while employed, Mr. Jacobs will also be entitled to a disability benefit equal to one year's base salary (as adjusted as set forth in the agreement) and one year of non-taxable medical, dental and other health benefits. He will also be subject to one-year non-solicitation and one-year non-compete provisions on the same terms as set forth in the agreements for Messrs. Klein and Doherty.

The amended and restated employment agreements for Messrs. Klein and Doherty and the employment agreement for Mr. Jacobs are filed as exhibits to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
