The amounts reported in this column represent the grant date fair value for these awards as calculated in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification Topic 718. The assumptions made in calculating the grant date fair value amounts for these Performance Awards are summarized in Note 5 to the Company's consolidated financial statements included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013. The amounts in this column do not necessarily correspond to the actual economic value that may be realized by the Named Executive Officers from the Performance Share Awards.

2013 Executive Officer Compensation Components

For the year ended December 31, 2013, the principal components of compensation for Named Executive Officers were:

- base salary;
- performance-based incentive compensation, including both short-term cash incentive compensation and long-term equity incentive compensation;
- retirement and other benefits; and
- perquisites and other personal benefits.

Base Salary

We provide our Named Executive Officers and other employees with a base salary to compensate them for services rendered during the year. Base salary ranges for Named Executive Officers are determined for each executive officer based on various factors considered by the Compensation Committee, including his or her position and level of responsibility and his or her actual performance during the preceding year. Base salaries for each year are typically evaluated annually in the first quarter of such year. Merit-based increases to base salaries for executive officers are based on the Compensation Committee's assessment of various factors, including the individual's performance during the preceding year and base salary history. In 2013, the base salaries for our Named Executive Officers were adjusted to be more heavily weighted toward incentive programs focused on Company financial performance and share price performance compared to a benchmark index.

Performance-Based Incentive Compensation

Our 2005 Employee Stock and Incentive Plan, as amended and restated (the "Plan") provides the Compensation Committee with the flexibility to design cash and stock-based incentive compensation programs to promote performance and the achievement of our goals and objectives by executive officers and other key employees by allowing them to participate in our long-term growth and profitability. The Compensation Committee believes that providing performance-based incentive compensation is necessary to attract and retain superior executive talent and to align the financial interests of executive officers with those of our stockholders. A portion of each executive officer's potential aggregate compensation is in the form of incentive compensation. There are two types of performance-based incentive compensation used by the Compensation Committee. The first type is short-term incentive compensation in the form of a performance based cash award. The second type is long-term incentive compensation in the form of grants of performance shares, stock options, restricted stock or restricted stock units.

In May 2013, pursuant to the Plan, the Company issued Performance-Based Cash Awards and Performance Share Awards (as such terms are defined in the Plan) to the Company's named executive officers and other senior management. Under the terms of such Awards, the determination of the dollar amount of the Performance-Based Cash Awards and the number of Performance Shares which each such individual received was subject to, and calculated by reference to, the achievement by the Company of a performance goal measured by a range of targeted adjusted EBITDA performance for 2013. EBITDA represents earnings (or losses) before interest, income taxes, depreciation, and amortization. Adjusted EBITDA further eliminates the effect of stock-based compensation and restructuring and other charges.

The dollar amount of the Performance-Based Cash Awards and number of Performance Shares was determined in March 2014 upon completion of the Company's 2013 annual financial statements. Based upon the achievement of certain targeted adjusted EBITDA goals, the Company paid the following Performance-Based Cash Awards to the Named Executive Officers and the Named Executive Officers are entitled to the following number of Performance Shares (subject to the vesting conditions for the unvested shares):

Named Executive Officer	Cash Award	Performance-Based
		Vested	Unvested
Michael C. Willoughby	$ 377,450	52,178	156,532
Thomas J. Madden	$ 246,700	24,349	73,049
Cynthia D. Almond	$ 186,550	18,043	54,129

The number of Performance Shares shown in the table above are subject to four year vesting beginning with 2013 based upon continued employment and the comparative performance (on an annual and cumulative basis) of the Company's common stock on NASDAQ compared to the Russell Micro Cap Index.

For 2013, the Compensation Committee retained an independent compensation consultant to assist the Committee in reviewing and establishing executive and senior management compensation.

Retirement and Other Benefits

Executive officers are eligible to participate in our 401(k) plan and other benefit programs as described below. The Compensation Committee reviews the overall cost to us of these various programs generally on an annual basis or when changes are proposed. The Compensation Committee believes that the benefits provided by these programs have been important factors in attracting and retaining the overall executive officer group, including the Named Executive Officers.

Our 401(k) plan allows for discretionary employer matching funds of the employee contribution. During 2013, the employer match portion was 12%. We do not provide any other tax-qualified deferred compensation plans or programs for our executive officers.

Executive officers also receive benefit of life insurance policies, which provide coverage in varying amounts up to $0.75 million.

Executive officers are also entitled to participate in the various other group health, term life and similar benefit plans available to all of our employees and on the same terms as such employees.

Perquisites and Other Personal Benefits

We provide Named Executive Officers with perquisites and other personal benefits that we and the Compensation Committee believe are reasonable and consistent with our overall compensation program to better enable us to attract and retain superior employees for key positions.

Tax and Accounting Implications

Deductibility of Executive Compensation

As part of its role, the Compensation Committee reviews and considers the deductibility of executive compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code, which provides that we may not deduct compensation of more than $1 million that is paid to certain individuals, subject to certain exemptions. Although the issuance of the Performance-Based Cash Awards and Performance Shares in 2013 did not meet the Section 162(m) exemptions since the performance targets were not established within the required time period, the Committee determined that the issuance of such performance based compensation was appropriate in order to ensure competitive levels of total compensation for the Company's executive officers.

- (1) The unexercisable Options Awards listed above are generally subject to a quarterly vesting schedule over a three-year period commencing on the date of grant.
- (2) Awards consist of Performance Share Awards subject to four year vesting beginning with 2013 based upon continued employment and the comparative performance (on an annual and cumulative basis) of the Company's common stock on NASDAQ compared to the Russell Micro Cap Index.
- (3) Market value is computed by multiplying the number of Performance Share Awards by $9.07, which was the closing price per share of the Company's common stock on December 31, 2013, on the NASDAQ.
- (4) Effective March 2013, Mr. Layton no longer serves as Chief Executive Officer of the Company and Mr. Willoughby serves as Chief Executive Officer.

EMPLOYMENT, CHANGE OF CONTROL AND TERMINATION ARRANGEMENTS FOR EXECUTIVES

The Company and the Named Executive Officers have entered into Change in Control and Severance Agreements. Under these agreements, and in consideration of certain commitments of the officer to continue employment, upon the occurrence of a change in control, all unvested options held by the officer immediately vest and become exercisable. During the two year period following a change in control (whenever occurring), if the employment of the officer is terminated (other than for cause, death, disability or retirement), or if there is a material adverse change in the officer's responsibilities, compensation or benefits to which the officer does not consent, then, in each case, the officer is entitled to receive from the Company (1) all salary and bonus amounts accrued through the date of termination, (2) a severance payment equal to twice the officer's salary and bonus amount (which is defined as the greater of (i) the highest annual incentive bonus earned by the executive during the last three completed fiscal years or (ii) the executive's then target bonus, if any) and (3) continuation for two years of all employee benefits (unless otherwise provided by a subsequent employer). If applicable, the officer is also entitled to receive an additional payment to compensate the officer for any additional excise tax liability arising by reason of the receipt of such severance or bonus payment. The agreement terminates upon the voluntary resignation or termination of employment by the officer.

In addition, upon a change in control, all unvested Performance Shares issued to the Named Executive Officers immediately vest and each recipient is entitled to receive an additional payment to compensate the officer for any additional excise tax liability arising by reason of the receipt of such shares.

The Company and the Named Executive Officers (other than Ms. Almond) have also entered into Executive Severance Agreements. Under these agreements, and in consideration for, among other things, the agreement by the executive to be bound by a restrictive covenant, in the event of the termination of the employment of the executive other than for cause (including termination following a reduction in the executive's base salary unless such reduction is part of, and proportionate with, a general reduction in officer compensation), the executive is entitled to a severance payment, based on the executive's years of service, up to a maximum of twice the executive's salary and the bonus, if any, that the executive would have received for such fiscal year (based upon the executive's targeted bonus amount and the Company's actual results for such fiscal year), payable in monthly installments over a period not to exceed two years (based on the executive's years of service). In addition, in the event of termination without cause, the executive is entitled during the severance period to a continuation of benefits and to the accelerated vesting of all options then held by the executive, and the executive is considered a continuing employee of the Company for all purposes for which the executive's status as an employee of the Company would entitle the executive to some benefit, including the vesting of Performance Shares. The severance payment and benefits are reduced by any compensation or benefits received by the executive from any subsequent employer.

Effective as of December 31, 2008, the Company and the aforesaid Named Executive Officers entered into an amendment to the existing Executive Severance Agreements and Change in Control Severance Agreements between the Company and such persons. The primary purpose of such amendment was to modify such agreements so that they conform to Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, the amendment to the Executive Severance Agreement modified the calculation of the severance amount thereunder so that it is based on the highest annual rate of base salary during the 12-month period immediately prior to the qualifying termination.

The Company and Ms. Almond have entered into a Severance, Nondisclosure, Nonsolicitation and Noncompete Agreement pursuant to which, and in consideration for, among other things, the agreement by Ms. Almond to be bound by a restrictive covenant, in the event of the termination of her employment other than for cause, Ms. Almond is entitled to a severance payment equal to nine months of base salary, payable in monthly installments, and a continuation of benefits during such period.

Effective as of March 2013, the Company and Mr. Layton amended certain of the terms of the Executive Severance Agreement between the Company and Mr. Layton. The amendment modified certain provisions regarding severance payments payable to Mr. Layton, including the payment of certain additional amounts upon the occurrence of a change in control, and included an additional covenant restricting Mr. Layton from being employed by certain named competitors of the Company. A copy of the amendment was filed as an exhibit to the Company's Form 8-K filed with the SEC on March 29, 2013 and reference is made thereto for a complete description of the terms thereof.

Benjamin Rosenzweig	16,000	29,220 (5)	45,220
Timothy M. Murray	35,250	— (6)	35,250

(1) Represents aggregate grant date fair value computed in accordance with ASC Topic 718.

(2) Mr. Reilly had 59,149 options outstanding as of December 31, 2013.

(3) Mr. Beatson had 59,149 options outstanding as of December 31, 2013.

(4) Dr. Jacobs had 54,894 options outstanding as of December 31, 2013.

(5) Mr. Rosenzweig had 10,000 options outstanding as of December 31, 2013.

(6) Mr. Murray resigned from the Board in May 2013. Mr. Murray had no options outstanding as of December 31, 2013.

During 2013 non-employee directors received an annual retainer fee of $22,000, payable quarterly, a director meeting fee of $2,500 for each board meeting attended, a committee meeting fee of $1,500 for each quarterly Audit Committee meeting attended and a committee meeting fee of $750 or $1,250 (depending upon the meeting length) for each special committee meeting. Mr. Reilly, as lead director, received an additional $5,000 for each quarterly board meeting attended and $25,000 for additional services performed for the special committee.

In June 1999 the Company adopted a Non-Employee Director Stock Option and Retainer Plan (the “Non-Employee Director Plan”). As amended in June 2011, the Non-Employee Director Plan provides for the issuance to each non-employee director of an option to purchase 10,000 shares of common stock as of the date of each annual meeting of stockholders. Pursuant to the Non-Employee Director Plan, during 2013, each non-employee director received an option to purchase 10,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $4.20 per share. The Non-Employee Director Plan permits the payment of non-employee director retainer fees in shares of Common Stock in lieu of cash.

All options issued to non-employee directors under the Non-Employee Director Plan are non-qualified options for federal income tax purposes and have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of a share of common stock as of the date of the annual meeting upon which such option is granted. All options have a ten-year term and are subject to a one-year vesting schedule.

Generally, unless the Non-Employee Director Plan administrator otherwise provides, options are non-transferable other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution. At the time of any merger, consolidation, reorganization, recapitalization, stock dividend, stock split, or other change in the corporate structure or capitalization affecting the Company's common stock, the Non-Employee Director Plan administrator will make appropriate adjustments to the exercise price, number and kind of shares to be issued under the Non-Employee Director Plan and any outstanding options. The Board of Directors has the authority to amend, modify, suspend or terminate the Non-Employee Director Plan at any time.

Directors who are also employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries receive no remuneration for serving as directors or Committee members.

Mr. Nagakura is eligible to participate in the Company's compensation programs for non-employee Directors. As the representative of TCI, however, under TCI's current policy, Mr. Nagakura is not permitted to receive remuneration for serving as a director of the Company. Accordingly, Mr. Nagakura received no compensation as a Director during 2013.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During 2013, Mr. Reilly, Mr. Nagakura and Mr. Beatson served on the Compensation Committee. None of the members of the Compensation Committee has had a relationship with the Company or any subsidiary other than as a director or stockholder. No executive officer of the Company served or serves on the Compensation Committee or board of any company that employed or employs any member of Company's Compensation Committee or Board of Directors.
