Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 4, 2014, Rexford Industrial Realty, Inc. (the “Company”) through its operating partnership, Rexford Industrial Realty, L.P., entered into an agreement (the “Agreement”) with a third-party seller (the “Seller”) to acquire an industrial portfolio consisting of three fully occupied properties aggregating 344,425 square feet, located within the infill Los Angeles - Mid-Counties and Inland Empire West sub-markets (the “Portfolio”). The purchase price of the Portfolio is $29,050,000, including approximately $5.4 million in debt that currently encumbers one of the three properties (the “Encumbered Property”). The Company expects to fund the acquisition by assuming the $5.4 million mortgage debt, subject to approval by the lender (the “Assumption Approval”), and by using cash on hand and, subject to cash utilized for other transactions or corporate purposes prior to the Portfolio transaction closing, by drawing on the revolving line of credit for the remainder of the purchase price.

The Company made a deposit of $5.0 million, pro-rated between the unencumbered properties and the Encumbered Property, upon entering into the Agreement, which may be refunded to the Company if it elects to terminate the Agreement prior to the expiration of the due diligence period for any reason. Upon the expiration of the due diligence period, if the Company elects to proceed with the transaction, the deposit will be non-refundable, except in the case of a Seller default or failure to satisfy closing conditions. If the Assumption Approval has not occurred by the final deadline provided for in the Agreement, notwithstanding the Company’s election to proceed with the transaction, the Company or the Seller shall have the right to terminate the Agreement with respect to the purchase of the Encumbered Property, with the Company receiving the pro rata portion of the deposit back. The closing of the two unencumbered properties is scheduled to close in the fourth quarter of 2014, subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions. The closing of the Encumbered Property is dependent on the timing and outcome of the loan assumption process, which could extend out to the first quarter of 2015, and upon the satisfaction of customary closing conditions.

There is no assurance that the Company will acquire the Portfolio because the proposed acquisition is subject to a variety of factors, including the completion of our due diligence procedures, the satisfaction of customary closing conditions and the occurrence of the Assumption Approval as it relates to the Encumbered Property noted above.
