This amendment supplements Item 5.02 of the Current Report on Form 8-K, filed by Perrigo Company plc (the “Company”) on February 27, 2017, to disclose compensation arrangements with Ronald L. Winowiecki entered into in connection with his appointment as acting Chief Financial Officer of the Company.

Item Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers;
5.02. Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

The Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) appointed Mr. Winowiecki as acting Chief Financial Officer of the Company effective February 27, 2017. On March 8, 2017, the Remuneration Committee of the Board approved changes to Mr. Winowiecki’s compensation. As a result, Mr. Winowiecki will receive an annual salary of $400,000 and a $250,000 promotional bonus ($50,000 payable on March 31, 2017 and $200,000 payable at a later date, provided that Mr. Winowiecki remains employed with the Company for at least six months following either his appointment as permanent Chief Financial Officer or the appointment of a new Chief Financial Officer). In addition, Mr. Winowiecki will continue to participate in the Company’s Annual Incentive Plan (also known as the Management Incentive Bonus “MIB” Plan), with a 2017 target award of 50% of his base salary. Mr. Winowiecki also will continue to participate in the Company’s Long-Term Incentive Plan, receiving a 2017 grant of performance-based restricted stock units and stock options with a total grant date value of $550,000.

Although Mr. Winowiecki remains a key candidate for the Company’s permanent Chief Financial Officer, the Board has suspended its Chief Financial Officer search during its search for Mr. Hendrickson’s successor as Chief Executive Officer. Accordingly, on June 14, 2017, the Remuneration Committee recommended to the Board, and the Board approved, further changes to Mr. Winowiecki’s compensation to provide a compensation package appropriate for his current role as acting Chief Financial Officer. These changes were subject to Mr. Winowiecki’s acceptance, which occurred on July 18, 2017. In addition to the compensation approved on March 8, Mr. Winowiecki will receive an annual stipend of $200,000, payable bi-monthly effective February 27, 2017, until such time as Mr. Winowiecki is either appointed as permanent Chief Financial Officer or, provided he remains employed by the Company, until 60 days following the commencement of employment of a new Chief Financial Officer. He will also receive a grant of restricted stock units under the Company’s Long-Term Incentive Plan with a grant date value of $350,000, vesting 50% on each of the first and second anniversaries of the grant date. In addition, Mr. Winowiecki’s 2017 target award under the Company’s MIB Plan was increased to 75% of the sum of his base salary and any stipend. If a new Chief Financial Officer is not appointed until 2018, this target award will continue to apply until 60 days following the commencement of employment of the new Chief Financial Officer.

Mr. Winowiecki will also participate in an executive severance plan, provided that, in the event of his termination without “cause” or “separation for good reason” during the period ending 12 months after the date on which Mr. Hendrickson’s successor commences employment as the Company’s Chief Executive Officer, (i) Mr. Winowiecki will receive a severance payment of 1.5 times the sum of his then base salary, any stipend and 75% target bonus noted above and (ii) Mr. Winowiecki’s (a) unvested service-vesting equity awards outstanding under the Company’s Long-Term Incentive Plan will continue to vest per their original vesting schedules and, in the case of options, will remain outstanding for their original terms and (b) performance-based restricted stock units will vest based on actual performance at the end of the original performance periods. In addition, the remaining $200,000 of Mr. Winowiecki’s promotional bonus will be paid immediately upon his termination other than for “cause,” but will not be paid in the event of his voluntary termination. For Mr. Winowiecki, “cause” means: (i) the commission of an act which, if proven in a court of law, would constitute a felony violation under applicable criminal laws; (ii) a breach of any material duty or obligation imposed upon him by the Company or any Affiliate (as defined in the executive severance plan); (iii) divulging the Company’s or any Affiliate’s confidential information, or breaching or causing the breach of any confidentiality agreement to which he, the Company, or any Affiliate is a party; or (iv) engaging or assisting others to engage in business in competition with the Company or any Affiliate. “Separation for good reason” is defined in the executive severance plan and for Mr. Winowiecki also includes (i) if he is not selected as the permanent Chief Financial Officer by Mr. Hendrickson's successor as Chief Executive Officer, or (ii) if he is appointed permanent Chief Financial Officer following the appointment of Mr. Hendrickson's successor as Chief Executive Officer and his appointment requires a relocation of over 75 miles from his current location of employment.
