ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS.

On November 1, 2018, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Ingevity Corporation (the “Company”) determined that amendments to the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation (the “Charter Amendments”) and By-laws (the “By-laws Amendments”) to remove all supermajority vote provisions relative to stockholders’ ability to alter certain provisions of these governing documents were advisable. The Board voted to approve the Charter Amendments, and the By-laws Amendments, to submit the Charter Amendments for approval at the Company’s 2019 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, and to recommend that the stockholders vote to approve and adopt the Charter Amendments.

Currently, an amendment to certain provisions of the Company’s Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws requires the affirmative vote of at least seventy five percent (75%) of the outstanding stock. The Charter Amendments and By-Laws Amendments would change this voting standard to a majority of the outstanding stock. The provisions currently subject the supermajority vote requirement include the following:

- Calling a special meeting of stockholders
- Right of directors to set size of board and fill board vacancies
- Director compensation
- Indemnification and insurance
- Director liability
- The vote required for the specific provisions that establish the supermajority vote

The Board also approved changes to these governing documents to remove references to a classified board, as beginning with the 2019 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the Company’s board will be de-classified, pursuant to the terms of the Articles of Incorporation.

The Charter Amendments and the By-laws Amendments will become effective upon the approval by the stockholders of the Charter Amendment and the filing of the related Certificate of Amendment with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.
