ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

Textron Inc. (“Textron”) is filing this Current Report on Form 8-K to provide revised financial information in Textron’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007 (“2007 10-K”), to reflect a change in segment reporting effective for fiscal year 2008. Under generally accepted accounting principles, Textron is required to recast previously reported prior period financial statements to reflect the change in its segment presentation on a basis comparable to the current presentation. By filing this Current Report on Form 8-K, Textron will be able to incorporate the updated information by reference into filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including registration statements filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

As previously disclosed in our Current Report on Form 8-K filed on April 17, 2008, Textron changed its segment reporting structure effective for fiscal year 2008 by separating the former Bell segment, which previously consisted of Bell Helicopter and the Textron Systems division, into two segments: the Bell segment and the Defense & Intelligence segment, to reflect the way Textron now manages these businesses. Through fiscal 2007, Textron reported segment financial results within four segments: Bell, Cessna, Industrial and Finance. Textron now operates in, and will report financial information for, the following five business segments: Cessna, Bell, Defense & Intelligence, Industrial and Finance.

In Exhibits 99.1 through 99.4 filed with this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference, Textron updates and supersedes the following Items that are contained in the 2007 10-K solely to reflect the change in segment reporting: “Item 1. Business,” “Item 6. Selected Financial Data,” “Item 7. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations,” and “Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data.” The historical financial information in “Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data” has been updated from its previous presentation solely to reflect Textron’s new operating segment structure in “Note 1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies,” “Note 3. Business Acquisitions, Goodwill and Intangible Assets”, “Note 18. Variable Interest Entities”, “Note 20. Segment and Geographic Data” and the Quarterly Data schedule. There is no impact on Textron’s previously reported Consolidated Statements of Operations, Consolidated Balance Sheets, Consolidated Statements of Shareholders’ Equity, and Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

The change in segment reporting, as reflected in the information included in this Form 8-K, only affects the manner in which segment results were previously reported. All other information in the 2007 10-K remains unchanged and has not been otherwise updated for events or developments that occurred subsequent to the filing of the 2007 10-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission. For developments since the filing of the 2007 10-K, refer to Textron’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ending March 29, 2008 and Textron’s Current Reports on Form 8-K filed since the filing of the 2007 10-K. The information in this Current Report on Form 8-K, including Exhibits 99.1 through 99.4, should be read in conjunction with the 2007 10-K.

FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

Certain statements in this report, including the exhibits filed herewith, and other oral and written statements made by us from time to time are forward-looking statements, including those that discuss strategies, goals, outlook or other non-historical matters, or project revenues, income, returns or other financial measures. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made, and we undertake no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in the statements, such as the Risk Factors contained in our 2007 10-K, and including the following: (a) changes in worldwide economic and political conditions that impact demand for our products, interest rates and foreign exchange rates; (b) the interruption of production at our facilities or our customers or suppliers; (c) performance issues with key suppliers, subcontractors and business partners; (d) our ability to perform as anticipated and to control costs under contracts with the U.S. Government; (e) the U.S. Government’s ability to unilaterally modify or terminate its contracts with us for the U.S. Government’s convenience or for our failure to perform, to change applicable procurement and accounting policies, and, under certain circumstances, to suspend or debar us as a contractor eligible to receive future contract awards; (f) changing priorities or reductions in the U.S. Government defense budget, including those related to Operation Iraqi Freedom, Operation Enduring Freedom and the Global War on Terrorism; (g) changes in national or international funding priorities, U.S. and foreign military budget constraints and determinations, and government policies on the export and import of military and commercial products; (h) legislative or regulatory actions impacting defense operations; (i) the ability to control costs and successful implementation of various cost-reduction programs; (j) the timing of new product launches and certifications of new aircraft products; (k) the occurrence of slowdowns or downturns in customer markets in which our products are sold or supplied or where Textron Financial Corporation offers financing; (l) changes in aircraft delivery schedules or cancellation of orders; (m) the impact of changes in tax legislation; (n) the extent to which we are able to pass raw material price increases through to customers or offset such price increases by reducing other costs; (o) our ability to offset, through cost reductions, pricing pressure brought by original equipment manufacturer customers; (p) our ability to realize full value of receivables; (q) the availability and cost of insurance; (r) increases in pension expenses and other postretirement employee costs; (s) Textron Financial Corporation's ability to maintain portfolio credit quality; (t) Textron Financial Corporation's access to financing, including securitizations, at competitive rates; (u) uncertainty in estimating contingent liabilities and establishing reserves to address such contingencies; (v) risks and uncertainties related to acquisitions and dispositions; (w) the efficacy of research and development investments to develop new products; (x) the launching of significant new products or programs which could result in unanticipated expenses; (y) bankruptcy or other financial problems at major suppliers or customers that could cause disruptions in our supply chain or difficulty in collecting amounts owed by such customers; and (z) difficulties or unanticipated expenses in connection with the consummation or integration of acquisitions, potential difficulties in employee retention following the acquisition and risks that the acquisition does not perform as planned or disrupts our current plans and operations or that anticipated synergies and opportunities will not be realized.
