The amendments have also been approved by the Company’s Board of Directors, effective upon the approval of such amendments by the Company’s stockholders at the 2012 Annual Meeting. The Certificate Amendments were filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on November 8, 2012 and became effective as of November 8, 2012.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

In its meeting held on November 7, 2012, the Compensation Committee of the Company’s Board of Directors approved technical amendments to the Company’s 2010 Executive Severance Plan (the “2010 Severance Plan”) to bring the provisions of the 2010 Severance Plan into documentary compliance with the applicable requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code and the Treasury regulations issued thereunder (collectively, “Section 409A”) and thereby continue to facilitate the administration of the 2010 Severance Plan in compliance with those requirements. In its meeting held on November 8, 2012, the independent members of the Company’s Board of Directors approved identical technical amendments to the Company’s Executive Severance Plan (the “Original Severance Plan”), a plan under which the Company’s Chief Executive Officer participates. The Company does not deem the amendments to either the 2010 Severance Plan or the Original Severance Plan to be material. Specifically, the following amendments to the 2010 Severance Plan and Original Severance Plan were approved:

Section 3(a) of each plan was revised to state more explicitly that a participant’s execution and delivery of a general waiver and release (a “Required Release”), within a specified number of days set forth in the applicable plan after the date of the participant’s separation from service, is a pre-condition to receiving severance benefits under the applicable plan;

Section 3(a) of each plan was further revised to state that the effective date of the Required Release must be on or before the date that is 60 days following the participant’s separation from service;

A new Section 3(a)(i) was added to each plan, which states that, if a separation from service occurs at a time during the calendar year when the Required Release could potentially become effective in the calendar year following the calendar year in which the separation from service occurs (whether or not it actually becomes effective in the following year), then any severance payments and benefits under the applicable plan that would constitute an item of deferred compensation under Section 409A will be paid on the first normal payroll run to occur during the calendar year following the calendar year in which such separation from service occurs, or, if later, (A) the first normal payroll run after the Required Release actually becomes effective, or (B) such time as otherwise required by the plan; and Sections 4(b), (c) and (d) of each plan were each revised to state that the first payment of benefits under such section will begin on the first normal payroll run after the Required Release becomes effective, except as required by the new Section 3(a)(i) summarized above.

The foregoing description of the amendments to the 2010 Severance Plan and the Original Severance Plan is qualified in its entirety by reference to the 2010 Severance Plan and Original Severance Plan, complete copies of which will be attached as exhibits to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ending December 31, 2012, which the Company expects to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission on or prior to February 11, 2013.

In its meeting held on November 7, 2012, the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors also approved a technical amendment to Section 8.3 of the Company's Executive Deferred Savings Plan ("EDSP") to provide that any EDSP participant who makes a hardship withdrawal from the Company's 401(k) plan will not be eligible to make any deferral elections under the EDSP for the then-subsequent plan year. The Company does not deem the amendment to the EDSP to be material.

The foregoing description of the amendment to the EDSP is qualified in its entirety by reference to the EDSP, which will be attached as an exhibit to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ending December 31, 2012, which the Company expects to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission on or prior to February 11, 2013.
