ITEM 1. BUSINESS.

General

The Company develops, manufactures, and markets a broad range of products for the medical specialties of Aesthetic and General Surgery (Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery) and Urology. Aesthetic and General Surgery products include surgically implantable prostheses for plastic and reconstructive surgery and capital equipment used in soft tissue aspiration. Urologic products include disposable and surgical products for the management of urinary incontinence, surgically implantable prostheses for the treatment of impotence and brachytherapy seeds for the treatment of prostate cancer.

During fiscal 2000, the Company completed the divestiture of its ophthalmology business. Accordingly, all numbers in this 10-K have been restated to exclude the results of the ophthalmic business as appropriate. All sales, expenses, gains on assets sales, and other financial information of the ophthalmology business are reported, net, as a single line on the financials.

Effective January 19, 2001 Mentor acquired South Bay Medical, a development stage company focused on the development of a new technology for a computer based workstation and automated cartridge-based needle loading system for use in Brachytherapy procedures.

Effective February 9, 2001 Mentor acquired Porges S.A., subsidiary of Sanofi- Synthelabo headquartered in Paris, and manufacturing facilities in Sarlat France. Porges holds a leading market share for urological products in France and has strong market position throughout Europe.

Principal Products and Markets

Aesthetic and General Surgery Products

The Company produces a broad line of mammary prostheses, including saline-filled implants and silicone gel-filled implants. Approximately 81% of Aesthetic and General Surgery revenues are sales of mammary prostheses. Saline-filled breast implants accounted for approximately 72% of mammary prostheses sold in fiscal 2001.

Mammary prostheses may be implanted to achieve breast reconstruction following total or partial removal of the breast (mastectomy) or to enhance breast size and shape in plastic surgery. Breast reconstruction is possible for most patients undergoing a mastectomy, either at the time of the original surgery or at a later date.

The Company also offers a line of tissue expanders. Tissue expansion is a technique for growing additional tissue for reconstruction and skin graft procedures. Some of the major applications of tissue expansion developed to date include post-mastectomy reconstruction, and the elimination of disfigurements such as burns, massive scars and facial deformities.

In September 1997, the Company began marketing the Contour Genesis ® System, an ultrasound assisted product used for the liquefaction and aspiration of soft tissues in general surgery and cosmetic surgery applications. The Company has completed clinical trials using the Contour Genesis® System in order to expand the labeling of the product to include ultrasonic assisted liposuction. The Company has submitted an application for approval to the Food and Drug Administration, (FDA), and expects a response in the second quarter of fiscal year 2002.

Surgical Urology Products

The Company's Surgical Urology products fall into three general categories of products: erectile dysfunction products, urinary care and pelvic floor products and cancer treatment products.

Erectile Dysfunction Products

. The Company's E.D. products consist of a line of penile implants for the treatment of male sexual impotence. Penile prostheses are implanted in men who cannot achieve a natural erection of sufficient rigidity for sexual intercourse. Penile implants have become the standard of care for men who have not responded to less invasive therapies such as Pfizer's Viagra® . In order to respond to various physician and patient preferences, the Company manufactures several types of penile prostheses, including a hydraulic inflatable device and a malleable prosthesis. In fiscal year 2001, the Company introduced a major improvement to its Alpha 1 inflatable device, the Lockout® valve. The Lockout valve was designed to prevent auto-inflation, a complication in this type of treatment.

Urinary Care and Pelvic Floor Products

. The Company markets the Suspend® sling for use in pubovaginal sling and pelvic floor reconstruction procedures. Pubovaginal sling procedures provide relief for women suffering from stress incontinence. Pelvic floor reconstruction procedures utilizing Suspend tissue is commonly used to treat women suffering from all types of vaginal prolapse.

Cancer Products

. The Company serves as the marketing partner in a strategic alliance focused on the treatment of prostate cancer. The alliance is with North American Scientific, Inc. ("NASI") which produces brachytherapy seeds for the treatment of prostate cancer. NASI manufactures and ships IoGold® I-125 and Pd-Gold™ Pd-103 brachytherapy seeds, while the Company performs all of the sales and marketing functions. In January 2001, the Company announced the acquisition of South Bay Medical, and its new technology for a computer based workstation and automated cartridge-based needle loading system for use in Brachytherapy procedures. Early in fiscal year 2002, the Company submitted a 510k application to the FDA for approval to market the system. The Company expects to receive a response from the FDA in the second fiscal quarter of 2002 and sales of the workstation are expected to begin by the end of the calendar 2001.

Clinical and Consumer HealthCare Products

The Company markets a line of male external catheters that help men manage their incontinence and a line of intermittent self-catheters for men, women and children that suffer from urinary retention. These products are disposable and are used in homes, hospitals, rehabilitation and extended care facilities.

In February 2001, the Company announced the acquisition of Porges S.A., a French company specializing in urological disposable, including diagnostic tools, and various devices for surgery and postoperative follow-up. The Company expects to introduce these products into the U.S market by the end of fiscal year 2002.

The Company also markets a variety of other disposable products used in the management of urinary incontinence and cancer. These include leg bags and urine collection systems, organic odor eliminators, and moisturizing skin creams and ointments. In February of 2001, the Company announced an exclusive alliance to market and distribute the BTA-Stat® point-of-care bladder cancer screening test manufactured by Polymedco Inc.

Summary of Sales by Principal Product Lines

. The following table shows the net sales attributable to each of the Company's principal product lines and the percentage contributions of such sales to total net sales for the periods indicated.

Marketing

The Company employs specialized domestic sales forces for aesthetic surgery, surgical urology and disposable healthcare product lines. Each sales force provides product orientation, support and related services to physicians, nurses and other health care professionals. The Company also markets certain products, particularly its disposable incontinence products, through a domestic network of independent hospital supply dealers and health care distributors, and increasingly through retail pharmacies.

The Company promotes its products through radio, television, magazine and journal advertising, direct mail programs, and participation in, and sponsorship of, medical conferences and seminars. The Company also participates in support organizations that provide counseling and education for persons suffering from specific disease states, and provides patient education materials for some of its products to physicians for use with their patients.

International Operations

The Company exports most of its products lines, principally to Canada and Western Europe. Products are sold to both independent distributors as well as through the Company's direct international sales offices in Canada, the United Kingdom, Germany, France, Benelux, Australia, Spain and Italy. The recent acquisition of Porges S.A. included eight additional direct sales subsidiaries in Europe and Japan. Other than sales made through the Company's international sales offices, export sales have been made in United States dollars and currency fluctuations have not significantly affected operating earnings. The Company, generally does not use derivative instruments to hedge its foreign currency transactions. In fiscal 2001, sales from the direct international offices accounted for 16% of total sales.

In addition, the Company manufactures mammary implants in Leiden, the Netherlands and through its recent acquisition of Porges, has manufacturing facilities in Sarlat, France where urological disposables distributed throughout Europe are manufactured.

Competition

The Company believes it is one of the leading suppliers in the United States of penile implants, cosmetic and reconstructive surgery products, and disposable catheter products. This belief is based upon information developed internally, public information sources and information from independent research studies of market share.

The Company competes primarily with one other company in the domestic breast implant market, McGhan Medical Corporation, a subsidiary of INAMED, Inc. The primary competitive factors currently are range of styles and sizes, product performance and quality, proprietary design, customer service and in certain instances, price.

The Company competes with only one other company in the inflatable penile implant market, American Medical Systems, Inc. Several companies sell competing malleable penile implants. The primary competitive factors are product performance and reliability, ease of implantation and customer service. The Company believes that by providing several types of implants that stress high performance and reliability, it can successfully respond to various physician and patient preferences.

The Company competes with many other companies providing brachytherapy seeds for the treatment of prostate cancer, including Nycomed-Amersham and Theragenics. The primary competitive factors in this market are product delivery, product offering and consistent quality. The Company believes that it has second largest market share for both Iodine and Palladium seeds, and its recent acquisition of South Bay Medical's automated workstation will provide the Company with a strong competitive advantage.

By superior design and active marketing of catheters and other disposable incontinence products, the Company has been able to compete successfully against larger companies. The Company, C.R. Bard, Inc., Hollister, Inc., Kendall, a division of Tyco HealthCare, and Coloplast Corporation are the dominant competitors in the market. As with many of the Company's other product lines, the Company competes primarily on the basis of design and performance, and by providing product orientation, support and related services to health care professionals and consumers. The recent Porges S.A acquisition will provide the Company a dominant position in the European market and will also provide the Company a wide range of new products for the U.S. market

Government Regulation

General

As a manufacturer of medical devices, the Company's manufacturing processes and facilities are subject to continuing review by the FDA and various state and international agencies. These agencies inspect the Company and its facilities from time to time to determine whether the Company is in compliance with various regulations relating to manufacturing practices and other requirements. The FDA has the power to prevent or limit further marketing of products based upon the results of these inspections. These regulations depend heavily on administrative interpretation by the various agencies, and can be influenced by adverse publicity and political pressure. There can be no assurance that future interpretations made by the FDA or other regulatory bodies will not adversely affect the Company. A determination that the Company is in violation of such regulations could lead to imposition of various penalties, including the issuance of warning letters, injunctive relief (whether by adverse court ruling or by consent), product recalls or product seizures.

Medical Device Amendments of 1976

Under the "Medical Device Amendments of 1976" (the "'76 Amendments"), the FDA has the authority to adopt regulations that: (i) set standards for medical devices; (ii) require proof of safety and effectiveness prior to marketing devices which the FDA believes require pre-market clearance; (iii) require test data approval prior to clinical evaluation of human use; (iv) permit detailed inspections of device manufacturing facilities; (v) establish "good manufacturing practices" ("GMPs") that must be followed in device manufacture; (vi) require reporting of product defects to the FDA; and (vii) prohibit device exports that do not comply with the '76 Amendments unless they comply with established foreign regulations, do not conflict with foreign laws, and the FDA and the health agency of the importing country determine export is not contrary to public health. All of the Company's products are "medical devices intended for human use" within the meaning of the '76 Amendments and are, therefore, subject to FDA regulation.

The '76 Amendments establish complex procedures for FDA regulation of devices in three classes: Class I (general controls to preclude mislabeling or adulteration, compliance with labeling and requirements), Class II (performance standards in addition to general controls) and Class III (pre-market approval application ("PMAA") before commercial marketing). Class III devices are the most extensively regulated. Class III devices require each manufacturer to submit to the FDA a PMAA that includes information on the safety and effectiveness of the device. The majority of the Company's aesthetic surgery and urology implants are in Class III, while most of its disposable incontinence products are in Classes I and II.

In 1991, the Company submitted a PMAA for its silicone gel-filled mammary prostheses to the FDA, pursuant to FDA regulations issued at that time. In 1992, the FDA's outside advisory panel on aesthetic surgery products indicated that although there was insufficient data to establish with reasonable certainty that silicone gel implants were safe and effective, there was a public health need for these types of implants. The FDA adopted the recommendations of the panel.

The FDA denied the pending applications for the use of silicone gel-filled breast implants for augmentation, but provided for the continued availability of the implants for reconstruction purposes on the basis of a public health need. Since 1993, women have been required to enroll in a clinical study for future follow-up in order to receive gel-filled implants for reconstruction. Patients are required to sign an informed consent form and physicians must certify that saline implants are not a satisfactory alternative. The Company continues to ship these products under the terms of this clinical study.

In 1993, the FDA published proposed guidelines for PMAA's on the Company's hydraulic inflatable penile prostheses and saline-filled breast implants. For saline implants, the FDA published a schedule that permitted the data required for the PMAA to be submitted in phases, beginning with preclinical data due in 1995 and ending with final submission of prospective clinical data in 1999. The Company submitted all the required data. The PMA approval process is the means by which the FDA determines the safety and efficacy of a Class III device. On May 10, 2000, the FDA approved the Company's PMAA for saline-filled breast implants. In addition, the FDA audited the Company's manufacturing facility in Irving, Texas and indicated the facility was in substantial compliance with the applicable requirements of the Federal Food and Drug and Cosmetic Act and implementing regulations.

For its penile implants, the Company submitted all required data for the PMAA, and received FDA approval for the Company's penile implants in July 2000.

To comply with the '76 Amendments, the Company has incurred, and will continue to incur, substantial costs relating to laboratory and clinical testing of new and existing products and the preparation and filing of documents in the formats required by the FDA. The process of obtaining marketing clearance and approvals from the FDA for new products and existing products can be time-consuming and expensive, and there is no assurance that such clearances or approvals will be granted. The Company also may encounter delays in bringing new products to market as a result of being required by the FDA to conduct and document additional investigations of product safety and effectiveness, which may adversely affect the Company's ability to commercialize additional products or additional applications for existing products.

Additional Regulations

As a manufacturer of medical devices, the Company's manufacturing processes and facilities are subject to regulations and review by the FDA and other regulatory agencies. The Company's domestic facilities must comply with the FDA's Quality System Regulation requirements for Good Manufacturing Practices. Also, for products sold internationally, the Company has obtained a CE mark for its products by demonstrating compliance with the ISO 9001, EN46001 and EN12180, international quality system standards. Medical device laws and regulations similar to those described above are also in effect in some of the other countries to which the Company exports its products. These range from comprehensive device approval requirements for some or all of the Company's medical device products to requests for product data or certifications. Failure to comply with these domestic and international regulatory standards and requirements could effect the Company's ability to market and sell its products in these markets and have a significant negative impact on sales and results of operations.

Texas Facility Review

In May 1998, the Company entered into a voluntary consent decree with the FDA, under which the Company agreed, among other things, to complete certain re-validations of the manufacturing processes in agreed upon timeframes that were identified during an FDA audit.

The consent decree required the Company to hire outside expert consultants to assist in strengthening the Company's compliance program and related processes. In July 1998 the consultant reported to Mentor management and the FDA, that, except for the outstanding re-validations, there were no significant areas of GMP noncompliance. The Company and the FDA agreed to timeframes to complete the re-validations of the manufacturing process. The outside expert consultant reviewed the validations and reported to management and to the FDA that all validation projects had been completed within those timeframes.

Additionally, under the terms of the consent decree, an expert consultant is required to conduct an inspection and to issue a report annually. In his first annual report, the consultant stated, "Mentor is in substantial compliance with the current Good Manufacturing Practices."

In April-May, 2000 the expert consultant conducted his second annual comprehensive GMP audit of the Texas facility in accordance with the consent decree. The consultant's report concluded that "Mentor's quality and manufacturing systems fully comply with the GMPs (QSRs)." On May 1-10, 2000 the FDA conducted an audit at the Texas facility to access the procedures under which saline breast implants are manufactured. The inspection was conducted in conjunction with FDA's final decision on Mentor's saline breast implant PMAA. The inspection resulted in the issuance of an FD483 with one item related to validation of a computer system. The PMAA was approved after the FDA investigator reported findings to FDA's Center for Devices and Radiological Health.

In April 2001 the expert consultant conducted his third annual comprehensive GMP audit of the Texas facility in accordance with the consent decree. The consultant's report "found Mentor to be in compliance with cGMP/QSRs." On April 16 to 23, 2001 the FDA conducted an audit at the Texas facility. The inspection was a follow-up inspection related to Mentor's saline breast implant PMAA and the previous inspection. The inspection resulted in the issuance of a FD483 with two items, one related to a manufacturing process and one related to computer software. Mentor has responded to FDA on both items.

The Company believes that it will continue to meet the requirements of the consent decree, although there can be no assurance that it can do so. In addition, although the expert consultants have expressed their opinion as to the satisfactory completion of certain consent decree requirements, FDA inspectors, during some future audit, may disagree with the conclusions of these experts. Should the Company fail to comply with the conditions of the consent decree, under its terms the FDA is allowed to order the Company to stop manufacturing or distributing the breast implants, order a recall or take other corrective actions. The Company may also be subject to penalties of $10,000 per day until compliance is achieved.

If the Company maintains continuous compliance with the terms of the consent decree for a period of 5 years after the completion of the re-validations, the Company can petition the courts to remove the consent decree without opposition from the government.

Environmental Regulation

In certain states, primarily Texas, the Company is also subject to regulation by the local Air Pollution Control District and the United States Environmental Protection Agency as a result of some of the chemicals used in its manufacturing process.

Health Care Cost Containment

Many of the Company's products are purchased by hospitals, doctors and other health care providers who are reimbursed for the health care services provided to their patients by third-party payors, such as governmental programs (e.g., Medicare and Medicaid), private insurance plans and managed care programs. Third party payors may deny coverage for certain technologies based on assessment criteria as determined by the third-party payor. Also, third-party payors are increasingly challenging the prices charged for medical products and services. Medicare reimbursement systems are under revision in an effort by the government to reduce costs. There can be no assurance that the Company's products will be automatically covered by third-party payers, that reimbursement will be available or, if available, that the third-party payers' coverage policies will not adversely affect the Company's ability to sell its products profitably.

All third-party reimbursement programs, whether government funded or insured commercially, whether inside the United States or outside, are developing increasingly sophisticated methods of controlling health care costs through prospective reimbursement and capitation programs, group purchasing, redesign of benefits, second opinions required prior to major surgery, careful review of bills, encouragement of healthier lifestyles and exploration of more cost-effective methods of delivering health care. These types of programs can potentially limit the amount which health care providers may be willing to pay for medical devices.

The Center for Medicare and Medicaid services (CMS), previously known as U.S. Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA) sets reimbursement policy for the Medicare program in the United States. CMS issued a Final Rule on its Prospective Payment System For Hospital Outpatient Services on April 7, 2000. This rule provides for a new system to reimburse the outpatient services provided in a hospital, and is intended to cover the cost of medical devices used during the procedure.

On April 1, 2001 CMS (HCFA) published a final list of categories of 96 categories covering over 1000 individual devices. Most items previously qualified fit into one of these categories. To qualify for the Hospital Outpatient Prospective Payment System, HOPPS, the device must be a subordinate part of the procedure performed, be used for one patient only, come in contact with human tissue, and be surgically implanted or inserted whether or not it remains with the patient when the patient is released from the hospital outpatient department. Mentor devices that meet these requirements are included in a category and are subject to reimbursement. Most of these categories for reimbursement are scheduled to expire January 1, 2003. At that time, APC (procedure based) payment rates are expected to be adjusted to reflect the cost of the device. With the current changes taking place with Medicare and Medicaid reimbursement systems it is unclear precisely how future reimbursement programs will be structured and how they will effect Mentor's ability to sell its products. Failure to obtain or maintain third party and government reimbursement for our products would have a significant impact on sales and the results of operations.

Product Development

The Company is focused on the development of new products and improvements to existing products. In addition, research and development expense reflects the Company's efforts to obtain FDA approval of certain products and processes and to maintain the highest quality standards of existing products. During fiscal years 2001, 2000 and 1999, the Company spent a total of $19,632,000, $16,701,000 and $14,820,000 respectively, for research and development.

Patents and Licenses

It is the Company's policy to protect its intellectual property rights related to its products when and where appropriate. The Company's patents include patents relating to its penile prostheses, tissue expanders, combination breast implant and tissue expander, ultrasonic assisted soft tissue aspiration and disposable catheters. The Company licenses technology under exclusive supplier and licensing arrangements for certain products, including brachytherapy seeds and breast implants.

In those instances where the Company has acquired technology from third parties, it has sought to obtain rights of ownership to the technology through the acquisition of underlying patents or licenses. While the Company believes design, development, regulatory and marketing aspects of the medical device business represent the principal barriers to entry into such business, it also recognizes that its patents and license rights may make it more difficult for its competitors to market products similar to those produced by the Company. Mentor can give no assurance that any of its patent rights, whether issued, subject to license, or in process, will not be circumvented or invalidated. Further, there are numerous existing and pending patents on medical products and biomaterials. There can be no assurance that the Company's existing or planned products do not or will not infringe such rights or that others will not claim such infringement. No assurance can be given that the Company will be able to prevent competitors from challenging the Company's patents or entering markets currently served by the Company.

As a condition of employment, the Company requires each of its new employees to execute an agreement relating to confidential information and patent rights.

Raw Material Supply

The Company obtains certain raw materials and components for a number of its products from single suppliers. The Company's sources of supply could be replaced if necessary without undue disruption, but it is possible that the process of qualifying new materials and/or vendors for certain raw materials and components could cause a material interruption in manufacturing or sales. No material interruptions occurred during the last fiscal year.

The Company's inflatable penile prosthesis, saline -filled mammary implants, and catheters are available for sale under FDA approvals and/or clearances. Gel-filled mammary implants are only available as part of the adjunct clinical study. A change in raw material, components or suppliers for these products may require a new FDA submission, subsequent review and approval. There is no assurance that such a submission would be approved without delay. Any delay may have a significant adverse impact on sales and the results of operations.

The Company licenses certain technology under exclusive supplier and licensing arrangements for certain products. Those products include the following: Tutogen® processed fascia lata for the Suspend® sling, radioactive sources for its IoGold and PdGold brachytherapy seeds. In addition, the licensors are source suppliers of these products to the Company. Any interruption in their ability to supply the product to the Company may have an adverse impact on sales and the results of operations.

Employees

As of March 31, 2001, the Company employed 1,622 people of whom 969 were in manufacturing, 382 in sales and marketing, 115 in research and development and 156 in finance and administration. There has never been a work stoppage due to labor difficulties, and the Company considers its relations with its employees to be satisfactory.

ITEM 2. PROPERTIES.

The Company owns manufacturing, warehouse and office buildings in Minneapolis, Minnesota (161,965 sq. ft), Sarlat, France (123,800 sq. ft) and manufacturing facilities in Anoka, Minnesota (20,000 sq. ft.). The Company leases additional office, manufacturing and warehouse facilities in Santa Barbara, California (128,000 square feet), Eden Prairie, Minnesota (2,500), Irving, Texas (151,347 square feet), Tucson, Arizona (40,000 square feet) and Leiden, the Netherlands (15,000 square feet). The Company has international sales offices located throughout ten countries where they lease office and warehouse space ranging from 1,000 to 5,500 square feet. All leases have terms ranging from one to fifteen years, renewable on terms the Company considers favorable.

The Company believes its facilities are generally suitable and adequate to accommodate its current operations, and suitable facilities are readily available to accommodate any future expansion as necessary.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

In 1998, the Company learned that the FDA's Office of Criminal Investigations (OCI) was conducting an investigation involving the Company. Mentor understood that the investigation was dormant until in April 2000, when OCI issued a letter requesting that the Company provide OCI with manufacturing data and other corporate records, which the Company subsequently provided to OCI. The Company is cooperating fully with the OCI investigation. At this time, OCI has declined to identify the specific focus of its investigation involving Mentor, and Mentor has had no direct contact with OCI regarding the investigation other than contact related to document requests. It is not possible to predict the outcome of this investigation at this time or its potential impact on Mentor. The Company believes that it is in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations.

The Securities and Exchange Commission informed the Company that it is investigating, under a formal order of investigation, the events relating to the March 23, 2000 USA Today article entitled "Breast Implant manufacturer under investigation by the FDA," which was authored by Rita Rubin, and the March 23, 2000 press release issued by Mentor responding to that article, and possibly other matters. The Company is cooperating fully with the SEC's investigation. At this time, the SEC, Division of Enforcement has not identified the specific focus of its investigation involving Mentor. It is not possible to predict the outcome of this investigation at this time or its potential impact on Mentor. An investigation does not indicate that the SEC or its staff has concluded that violations of law have occurred.

Claims related to product liability are a regular and ongoing aspect of the medical device industry. At any one time, the Company is subject to claims asserted against it and is involved in products liability litigation. These actions can be brought by an individual, and/or by a group of patients purported to be a class action. The Company has carried product liability insurance on all its products, including breast implants, subsequent to May 1991 and prior to September 1985. This insurance is subject to certain self-insured retentions and limits on the policies. From September 1985 through April 1991, the Company was self insured for the majority of its surgical implant products, but had product liability insurance on the rest of its products. From June 1992 on, the Company's insurance has excluded silicone gel-filled breast implants.

In February 1999, Mentor was the plaintiff in a jury trial defending a patent exclusively licensed to Mentor by Sonique Surgical Systems, Inc. and used in ultrasonic tissue removal. Although the jury found willful infringement, the court entered a judgement in favor of the defendants, (Medical Device Alliance, Inc., Lysonics, Inc. and Misonix, Inc.). Mentor challenged the court order and in May 2001 a Federal circuit court reversed the lower court ruling and reinstated the jury award of damages. At this time, the defendants are not challenging any substantive issues in the case and only the specifics of final remedies remain to be addressed.

In addition, in the ordinary course of its business the Company experiences various types of claims that sometimes result in litigation or other legal proceedings. The Company does not anticipate that any of these proceedings will have any material adverse effect on the Company.

ITEM 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS.

In May 1999, the Company announced that its Board of Directors decided to divest the ophthalmology business, which accounted for approximately 16% of sales in fiscal 1999. The Company completed the sale of the assets of the Ophthalmology division in three separate transactions throughout fiscal year 2000. Accordingly, results of operations of the ophthalmic business are reported, on a net basis, as a single line on the financials as discontinued operations.

The following table sets forth various items from the Consolidated Statements of Income as a percentage of net sales for the periods indicated:

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Sales

Sales for fiscal 2001 increased to $269 million from $249 million in 2000, an increase of 8%. Sales were negatively effected by the continued strength of the U.S. Dollar versus other currencies and the general economic slowdown in the economy. Included in fiscal 2001 are approximately two months of Surgical Urology and Clinical and Consumer Healthcare product sales from the February 2001 acquisition of Porges S.A. Porges product sales accounted for three percentage points of the year to year growth. Foreign exchange rate movements had an unfavorable year-to-year impact on international sales of $2.4 million, or approximately 1% of consolidated sales.

Sales of Surgical Urology products increased 18% to $62 million from $53 million in the prior year. This growth resulted from increased sales of the Suspend® sling for treating female urinary incontinence, and the February 2001 acquisition of Porges S.A. Sales of Suspend® benefited from increased acceptance of this pelvic floor reconstruction in the treatment of prolapse.

Sales of aesthetic and general surgery products increased 5% to $157 million from $150 million in the prior year. Sales of products for reconstruction increased 6% while products used in cosmetic augmentation increased 1%. Sales of body contouring (liposuction) products declined by 14% compared to the previous year. The Aesthetic product segment is affected more than the Company's other segments by general economic conditions as a higher proportion of these surgeries are paid directly by the patient.

Sales of Clinical and Consumer Healthcare products increased 7% from the prior year. Strong growth in the sales of intermittent catheters of 12% was offset by a slight decline in male external catheter sales. The results include two months of sales from the February 2001 acquisition of Porges S.A.

Sales for fiscal 2000 increased to $249 million from $205 million in 1999, an increase of 22%. Growth was led by an increase in sales of Surgical Urology products of 41% compared to a year ago. The growth is primarily attributable to increased sales of brachytherapy seeds for the treatment of prostate cancer, and the Suspend® sling for treating female urinary incontinence, both in their second full year of sales. These products accounted for an additional $14 million of sales for the year. Brachytherapy sales were aided by the introduction of a second product offering, the Pd-Gold™ Pd-103 seed in April 1999. Sales of Suspend® benefited from increased product availability. Sales of penile implants increased 7% over fiscal 1999 sales as the market disruption caused by the introduction of Pfizer's Viagra® decreases. Viagra® was introduced by Pfizer during the Company's first quarter of fiscal 1999. The Viagra® introduction and concurrent advertising campaign generated an unprecedented amount of interest in impotence causes and treatments. The Company continues to believe that this interest in treating impotence bodes well for the long-term prospects of penile implant sales, as Viagra® will not work on all patients.

Sales of aesthetic and general surgery products increased 22% from the prior year. The sales increase in this segment is attributable, in part, to direct-to-consumer advertising programs in the United States which utilize a combination of television, radio and magazine print ads to encourage consumers to seek information about breast augmentation. In addition to information, the program provides directories of local plastic surgeons that implant Mentor's products. Sales were also aided by the re-introduction of the Becker reconstruction implant into the domestic market in September 1999.

Sales of Clinical and Consumer Healthcare products increased 6% from the prior year. The increase approximates the market growth rate. Domestic sales increased 85% overall but this growth was offset by continued weakness in international markets in which sales declined 9%.

The Company's export sales independent distributors accounted for 5%, 6% and 7% of net sales for fiscal years ended March 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively. In addition, 16%, 13%, and 15% of sales in each year were from the Company's direct international sales offices.

Over the three fiscal years ended March 31, 2001, sales increases, including the effects of acquisitions, have been primarily the result of increased unit sales. General selling price changes have not been significant in recent years.

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales was 38.9% of net sales for fiscal 2001 compared to 38.0% in fiscal 2000. The faster growth of products distributed under alliance agreements, such as brachytherapy seeds and the Suspend® sling, continues to shift the product mix towards products with gross margins of approximately 50%, which is lower than the margin generated by products manufactured and distributed by the Company. In addition, sales of Porges product late in the fiscal year diluted the gross margin product mix slightly.

Cost of sales was comparable at 38% of net sales for fiscal 2000 and fiscal 1999. The Company's product mix has changed somewhat in recent years. Greater portions of total sales are represented by two products (brachytherapy seeds and the Suspend® sling) which are distributed under alliance agreements. These products generate gross margins of approximately 50%, which is lower than the margin generated by products manufactured and distributed by the Company. While this would tend to reduce the Company's overall gross margin, decreases in manufacturing costs at the Company's facilities offset the reduction in gross margin percentage over the most recent fiscal years.

Selling, General and Administrative

Selling, general and administrative expenses, exclusive of the restructuring charge, were 37.3% of net sales in fiscal 2001 compared to 39.5% in fiscal 2000. The decrease reflects lower spending on the Company's direct-to-consumer advertising campaign partially offset by increases in product liability reserves and information technology costs. In addition, cost savings from the Company's restructuring of corporate staff contributed to the improvement.

During fiscal 2001, the Company announced a reduction in corporate staff at its headquarters in Santa Barbara as part of a restructuring move to streamline operations and improve efficiency. Employees affected by the restructuring were provided with a severance package, outplacement counseling and extended benefits to help with the transition. This program resulted in a restructuring charge included in general and administrative expenses of $2.4 million.

Selling, general and administrative expenses decreased to 39.5% of net sales in fiscal 2000, compared to 39.9% in fiscal 1999. The small decrease reflects efficiencies of scale in the Company's selling, general and administrative spending offset by approximately $7 million of spending on the Company's direct-to-consumer advertising campaign targeting the Aesthetic surgery market.

Research and Development

Research and development expenses were 7.3% of net sales in fiscal 2001, an increase from 6.7% in the prior year. The increase is attributable to spending on the Company's ongoing clinical studies related to silicone gel mammary implants. In May 2000, the Company received FDA approval for saline-filled breast implants and, in July 2000, received similar regulatory clearance on our inflatable penile implants. Although the Company has successfully completed these PMAA submissions, the amount of spending on research and development is not expected to decrease as the focus of research and development efforts will shift towards new product development. In addition, the Company is committed to a variety of clinical and laboratory studies in connection with its ultrasonic liposuction equipment, gel-filled mammary implants and other products.

Research and development expenses were 6.7% of net sales in fiscal 2000, a decrease from 7.2% the prior year. The Company completed the work on its saline-filled breast implant and penile implant PMAAs and submitted the data to the FDA in fiscal 2000.

Interest and Other Income and Expense

Interest expense increased to $276 thousand in fiscal 2001, from $34 thousand in fiscal 2000. In the first quarter of fiscal 2001, the Company borrowed and repaid $6 million to temporarily fund its stock repurchase program. During the fourth quarter, the Company borrowed $14 million to fund its acquisition of Porges S.A. There were no borrowings in fiscal 2000, and the Company repaid $ 4 million borrowed in 1999 to temporarily fund the stock repurchase program.

Interest income increased to $4.2 million in 2001 from $3.0 million in fiscal year 2000. The increase is a result of higher cash balances from operations and $59 million in proceeds from the sale of the assets of the ophthalmic business reported as discontinued operations which was only available for investment part of fiscal 2000. Further, the Company increased its use of fully taxable investments, which have a higher coupon rate and also benefited from higher prevailing interest rates.

Other income and expense primarily includes gains or losses on sales of marketable securities, disposals of assets, and foreign currency gains or losses related to the Company's foreign operations. In Fiscal 2001, the Company recorded a $1 million realized gain on the disposition of marketable securities recorded as long term marketable securities available for sale. In fiscal 2000, the Company recorded a $3 million permanent impairment of its equity investment in Intracel Corporation. This was offset by realized gains on the disposition of marketable securities recorded as long term marketable securities available for sale.

Income Taxes

The effective rate of corporate income taxes was 32% for fiscal 2001 and fiscal 2000, and 34% in 1999. The decrease in the effective tax rate from fiscal 1999 to fiscal 2000 is a result of a higher proportion of income from foreign operations with lower tax rates.

Discontinued Operations and Restructuring Charge

In December 1998, the Company announced a restructuring plan as part of a strategic initiative to improve the profitability and competitiveness of the ophthalmic segment of its business by reducing manufacturing costs and concentrating on those products and markets capable of sustained, long-term profitable growth. During the implementation of this plan, the Board of Directors authorized management to evaluate potential buyers for the product lines of the ophthalmic business segment.

In the first quarter of fiscal 2000, the Company completed the sale of the assets of the intraocular lens business for cash consideration of $38.4 million and recorded a related gain of $7.5 million, net of $3.8 million in income taxes. On October 4, 1999, the Company completed the sale of the remaining assets of the ophthalmic equipment business for cash consideration of $21 million and recorded a related gain after income taxes of $1.1 million. Fiscal 2000 operating loss from discontinued operations, after income taxes of $1.0 million, was $.8 million.

In fiscal 2001, the Company recorded $260 thousand of income from discontinued operations, net of tax of $140 thousand, from the resolution of certain liabilities for amounts less than recorded at the time of the sale of discontinued assets.

Net Income

Income from continuing operations for fiscal 2001 was $32 million, compared to $29 million for the previous year. Increased sales, lower operating expenses, and increased interest income contributed to the increase. Fiscal 2001 income from discontinued operations, net of income taxes, was $260 thousand related to the resolution of certain liabilities for amounts less than recorded at the time of disposal.

Income from continuing operations for fiscal 2000 was $29 million, compared to $20 million the previous year. Increased sales, lower operating expenses, and increased interest income contributed to the improvement. Fiscal 2000 income from discontinued operations, net of income taxes, is comprised of gains on asset sales related to the ophthalmic business of $8.5 million, net of income taxes, and loss from operations, net of income taxes of $.8 million.

Inflation

The Company does not believe inflation has had a material impact on the Company's operations over the three-year period ended March 31, 2001.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

During the three years ended March 31, 2001, liquidity needs have been satisfied principally by cash flow from operations and borrowings under the Company's line of credit. Despite significant acquisition and stock re-purchase activity, the Company maintained its strong cash and financial position throughout fiscal year 2001.

At March 31, 2001, working capital was $112 million compared to $124 million the previous year. The Company generated $42 million of cash from continuing operations during fiscal 2001, compared to $34 million the previous year. Increased income from continuing operations, and increases in accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and a decrease in accounts receivable contributed to the increased cash flow. These amounts were partially offset by the recognized gain on sales of marketable securities and an increase in inventory.

During fiscal 2001, the Company spent $7.5 million on purchases of manufacturing equipment and information technology. The Company anticipates investing approximately $24 million in a facility acquisition, facility upgrades, production equipment and information technology systems in fiscal 2002.

Certain technologies related to the manufacture of mammary prostheses were developed under a 1983 agreement with a limited partnership whereby the limited partners contributed money towards the development of the technology in exchange for payments based upon a percentage of future sales of the products utilizing the technology. The Company paid approximately $2 million in fiscal 2000 to the partnership. The Company was the general partner for this partnership. The agreement included an option to purchase the technology and thereby terminate the partnership. In fiscal 2001, the Company exercised its option to make a lump sum payment to the Limited Partners in lieu of all future payments and rights according to the Agreement of Purchase and Sale between Mentor Corporation and the Partnership, as amended. The Limited Partners could elect to be paid in cash, the Company's stock, or a combination. This transaction was completed in the second quarter ended September 30, 2000. The limited partners elected to be paid $1.0 million in cash and 434 thousand shares of the Company's common stock. The stock, transfer of which is restricted by rule 144, was valued at the fair market value on the date of issuance, of approximately $9 million. The decrease in payments to the partners will be offset by the increased amortization of the new intangible asset and the additional common shares outstanding, thus having a neutral effect on earnings per share.

In January 2001, the Company completed the acquisition of South Bay Medical, a development stage company focused on the development of a new technology for a computer based workstation and automated cartridge-based needle loading system for use in Brachytherapy procedures. The total consideration recorded included $2 million in cash and 235,293 shares of restricted common stock valued at $4 million, and $11 million in short and long-term payments due over the next several years.

In February 2001, Mentor acquired Porges S.A., subsidiary of Sanofi-Synthelabo headquartered in Paris, and with manufacturing facilities in Sarlat, France. Porges holds a leading market share for urological products in France and has strong market position throughout Europe. The consideration paid for Porges S.A. was $32 million.

The Company has available to it $25 million under a secured line of credit. Borrowings accrue interest at the prevailing prime rate or at a premium to LIBOR, at the Company's discretion. The line of credit includes certain covenants that, among others, limit the dividends the Company may pay and require the maintenance of certain levels of tangible net worth and debt service ratios. In the first quarter of fiscal 2001, the Company borrowed and repaid $6 million under the agreement to temporarily fund its stock repurchase plan. In February 2001, the Company borrowed $14.1 million (15 million euros) to fund the acquisition of Porges S.A. The amount was repaid in May 2001. In addition, there are several lines of credit established to facilitate operating cash flow needs at our foreign subsidiaries. These lines are at market rates of interest, unsecured, guaranteed by Mentor Corporation, and total $3.7 million. At March 31, 2001, $2.5 was outstanding under these foreign lines of credit.

Since 1995, the Company has paid a quarterly cash dividend of $.025 per share. On February 13, 2001, the Board of Directors approved an increase in the quarterly cash dividend to $.03 per share, an increase of 20%. At the indicated rate of $.12 per year, the aggregate annual dividend would equal approximately $2.8 million.

The Company's Board of Directors has authorized an ongoing stock repurchase program. The objectives of the program, among other items, are to offset the issuance of stock options, provide liquidity to the market and to reduce the overall number of shares outstanding. Repurchases are subject to market conditions and cash availability. In May 1999, the Board increased the repurchase authorization by 4 million shares. As a result, during fiscal 2001, the Company repurchased 1,493 thousand shares for consideration of $28 million. The Company intends to continue the share repurchase program in fiscal 2002 and 2.3 million shares remain authorized for repurchase.

The Company's principal source of liquidity at March 31, 2001 consisted of $64 million in cash and short term marketable securities plus $12 million available under the existing lines of credit. The Company believes that funds generated from operations, its cash and marketable securities and funds available under its line of credit will be adequate to meet its working capital and capital expenditure requirements through fiscal 2002.

FACTORS THAT MAY AFFECT FUTURE RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Except for the historical information contained herein, the matters discussed in this Management's Discussion are forward-looking statements, the accuracy of which is necessarily subject to risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ significantly from the discussion of such matters in the forward-looking statements.

Due to the nature of the Company's products and business, the Company has been and will be involved in various legal actions arising in the course of business, some of which involve product liability and intellectual property claims. With respect to product liability issues, the litigation and regulatory risks will continue to exist even with respect to those products that have received or in the future may receive regulatory approval for commercial sale. It is possible that adverse results arising from product liability or intellectual property actions, as well as adverse results arising from regulatory or administrative proceedings, could negatively affect the Company's future results of operations.

The Company has been and may be in the future the subject of negative publicity, which can arise from various sources, ranging from the news media to legislative and regulatory investigations. There can be no assurance that such negative publicity will not result in a material adverse effect on the Company's future financial position, its results of operations or the market price of its stock. In addition, significant negative publicity could result in an increase in product liability claims.

The Company's products, development activities and manufacturing processes are subject to extensive and rigorous regulation by the FDA and by comparable agencies in foreign countries. In the United States, the FDA regulates the introduction, manufacturing, labeling and record-keeping procedures for medical devices. The process of obtaining marketing clearance and approval from the FDA for new products and existing products can be time-consuming and expensive, and there is no assurance that such clearances or approvals will be granted or that FDA review will not involve delays that would adversely affect the Company's ability to commercialize additional products or additional applications for existing products. In addition, certain of the Company's products that are in the research and development stage may be subject to a lengthy and expensive pre-market approval ("PMA") process with the FDA. Product approvals by the FDA can also be withdrawn due to failure to comply with regulatory standards or the occurrence of unforeseen problems following initial approval. The FDA could also limit or prevent the manufacture or distribution of the Company's products and has the power to require the recall of such products. FDA regulations depend heavily on administrative interpretation, and there can be no assurance that future interpretations made by the FDA or other regulatory bodies will not adversely affect the Company. The FDA, various state agencies and foreign regulatory agencies inspect the Company and its facilities from time to time to determine whether the Company is in compliance with various regulations relating to manufacturing practices, validation, testing, quality control and product labeling. A determination that the Company is in violation of such regulations could lead to imposition of penalties, product recalls, consent decrees or product seizures.

Each of the Company's major business segments operates its manufacturing, warehousing and research and development activities in a single facility. While the Company has some limited protection in the form of basic insurance coverage, the Company's operating results and financial condition would be materially adversely affected in the event of a fire or similar catastrophe.

ITEM 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The following discussion about the Company's market risk disclosures involves forward-looking statements. Actual results could differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. The Company is exposed to market risk related to changes in interest rates and foreign exchange rates. The Company generally does not use derivative instruments.

The Company maintains a portfolio of highly liquid cash equivalents, with maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase. The Company also has current marketable securities consisting primarily of municipal bonds and commercial paper that are of limited credit risk and have contractual maturities of less than two years. Given the short-term nature of these investments, the Company is not subject to significant interest rate risk.

A portion of the Company's operations consists of sales activities in foreign markets. The Company manufactures its products primarily in the United States and Europe and sells them outside the U.S. through a combination of international distributors and wholly owned sales offices. Sales to third party distributors and to the wholly owned sales offices are in U.S. dollars or in Euros. The sales offices invoice their customers in their local currency.

As a result, the Company's financial results could be significantly affected by factors such as changes in foreign currency exchange rates or weak economic conditions in those foreign markets. The principal exposure on sales to third party distributors stems from the potential for weak economic conditions in the foreign market, thus weakening the foreign currency, decreasing the customer's buying power and potentially decreasing the Company's sales. The Company's exposure on sales to its subsidiaries consists of 1) the exposure related to the weakening of local currency when payment of the trade payable is made, thus translating into more local currency needed to pay off the U.S. denominated payable than when it was recorded, lowering the subsidiaries' earnings, and 2) upon translation of the subsidiaries' monthly financial statements, that a weakening local currency would cause lower market sales to be recorded in U.S. dollars that would have occurred had the currency been stable as compared to the U.S. dollar. However, in the latter instance, operating expenses would also be translated at lower amounts and accordingly, the effect on net income would be mitigated. The Company does not currently hedge any of these exposures.

MENTOR CORPORATION
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
MARCH 31, 2001

Note A - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Business Activity

Mentor Corporation was incorporated in April 1969. The Company develops, manufactures and markets a broad range of products for the medical specialties of plastic and general surgery and urology. The Company's products are sold to hospitals, physicians and through various health care dealers, wholesalers, and retail outlets. The results of operation of the ophthalmic segment of the business are presented as discontinued operations and not included in continuing operations.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and all of its subsidiaries in which a controlling interest is maintained. For those subsidiaries where the Company owns less than 100%, the outside shareholders' interests are treated as minority interests. All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. Certain prior year amounts in previously issued financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation. Financial information presented in the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements excludes discontinued operations, except where noted.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Marketable Securities

The Company considers its marketable securities available-for-sale as defined in Statement Financial Accounting Standards No. 115. Realized gains and losses and declines in value considered to be other than temporary are included in income. The cost of securities sold is based on the specific identification method. For short-term marketable securities, there were no material realized or unrealized gains or losses nor any material differences between estimated fair values, based on quoted market prices, and the costs of securities in the investment portfolio as of March 31, 2001 and 2000. The Company's short-term marketable securities consist primarily of commercial paper and municipal bonds that are of limited credit risk and have contractual maturities of less than two years.

The Company's long-term marketable securities and investments includes the Company's equity investments in its manufacturing partners, Intracel Corporation and North American Scientific, Inc. (NASI), and shares of Paradigm Medical Industries, Inc. (Paradigm) received in connection with the sale of assets of discontinued operations. Intracel Corporation is developing a new potential treatment for bladder cancer. The Intracel Corporation investment is valued and recorded at $3 million (cost of $6 million), as quoted market prices are not available. During the year ended March 31, 2000, the Company recorded a $3 million write down as a charge to other income related to its investment in Intracel Corporation. The equity interests in NASI, the Company's manufacturing partner under an exclusive agreement for the distribution of brachytherapy seeds for the treatment of prostate cancer, and in Paradigm are recorded at an aggregate fair market value of $2,704,000, (cost of $1,737,000) and $9,840,000 (cost of $2,122,000) based upon quoted stock market prices at March 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively. The unrealized gain of $629,000 and $5,017,000, net of taxes of $338,000 and $2,701,000, at March 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively, is reported within accumulated other comprehensive income included as a separate component of shareholders' equity.

During the year ended March 31, 2001, the Company sold a portion of its NASI and Paradigm securities and realized a pre-tax gain of $1 million, which is reflected in other income, net.

Concentrations and Credit Risk

The Company obtains certain raw materials and components for a number of its products from single suppliers. In most cases the Company's sources of supply could be replaced if necessary without undue disruption, but it is possible that the process of qualifying new materials and/or vendors for certain raw materials and components could cause a material interruption in manufacturing or sales. No material interruptions occurred during the last fiscal year.

The Company grants credit terms in the normal course of business to its customers, primarily hospitals, doctors and distributors. As part of its ongoing control procedures, the Company monitors the credit worthiness of its customers. Bad debts have been minimal. The Company does not normally require collateral or other security to support credit sales. No customer accounted for more than 10% of the Company's revenues or accounts receivable balance for all periods presented.

Revenue Recognition

In the United States and in those countries where the Company has sales offices, the Company employs specialized direct sales employees. The Company also markets its products through distributors in those countries where it does not have a sales office or for certain products, particularly its disposable incontinence products, through a domestic network of independent hospital supply dealers and health care distributors and through retail pharmacies.

Sales and related cost of sales are recognized primarily upon the shipment of products, or in the case of consignment inventories, upon the report of usage by the customer. The Company allows credit for products returned within its policy terms. Such returns are estimated and an allowance provided at the time of sale. The Company provides a warranty on certain of its implants and capital equipment products against defects in workmanship and material. Estimated warranty costs are provided at the time of sale and periodically adjusted to reflect actual experience.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market, cost determined by the first-in, first-out (FIFO) method.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost. Depreciation is based on the useful lives of the properties and computed using the straight-line method. Buildings are depreciated over 30 years, furniture and equipment over 3 to 10 years and leasehold improvements over the shorter of their estimated remaining lives or lease term. Significant improvements and betterments are capitalized while maintenance and repairs are charged to operations as incurred.

Intangible Assets and Goodwill

Intangible assets consist of values assigned to patents, licenses, and trademarks. These are stated at cost less accumulated amortization and are amortized over their economic useful life ranging from 3 to 20 years using the straight-line method. Accumulated amortization of intangibles was $5,564,000 at March 31, 2001 and $4,425,000 at March 31, 2000. The excess purchase cost over fair value of net identifiable assets acquired, goodwill, is amortized on a straight-line basis over 15 to 40 years. Accumulated amortization of goodwill was $1,882,000 at March 31, 2001 and $1,422,000 at March 31, 2000. The Company assesses on an ongoing basis the recoverability of goodwill and intangibles based on estimates of future undiscounted cash flows for the applicable business compared to net book value. If the future undiscounted cash flow estimates were less than net book value, then the net book value would then be reduced to fair value based on an estimate of discounted cash flow.

Income Taxes

Deferred income taxes are provided on the temporary differences between income for financial statement and tax purposes.

Stock Based Compensation

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" ("SFAS 123") encourages but does not require companies to record compensation expense for stock options at fair value. The Company has chosen to continue to account for stock options using the intrinsic value method prescribed in Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," ("APB Opinion 25") and related interpretations. Accordingly, the Company has provided pro forma disclosures of the earnings per share as determined under the provision of SFAS 123.

Advertising Expenses

The Company expenses media advertising costs as incurred or where applicable, upon first showing. Advertising expenses for 2001 were approximately $3.3 million, in 2000 $7.2 million and were not significant in 1999. There were no significant capitalized advertising costs as of March 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999.

Foreign Operations

Export sales to independent distributors, principally to Canada and Western Europe, were $14,342,000, $16,121,000 and $14,335,000 in 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively. In addition, $44,182,000, $33,241,000 and $30,713,000 of sales in 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively, were from the Company's direct international sales offices primarily in Canada and Western Europe. Income before income taxes for foreign operations was $6,445,000, $6,629,000 and 4,707,000 for fiscal 2001, 2000 and 1999 respectively.

Foreign Currency Translation

The financial statements of the Company's non-U.S. subsidiaries are translated into U.S. dollars in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 52, "Foreign Currency Translation." The assets and liabilities of certain non-U.S. subsidiaries whose "functional" currencies are other than the U.S. Dollar are translated at current rates of exchange. Revenue and expense items are translated at the average exchange rate for the year. The resulting translation adjustments are recorded directly into accumulated other comprehensive income (loss). Transaction gains and losses, other than intercompany debt deemed to be of a long-term nature, are included in net income in the period they occur. Transaction exchange gains and losses were immaterial in 2001, 2000 and 1999. The Company generally does not use derivative instruments.

Effects of Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In September 2000, the emerging issues Task Force (EITF) reached a final consensus on EITF Issue 00-10, "Accounting for Shipping and Handling Fee and Costs," which addresses the classification of outbound shipping and handling costs and the related revenue. The Company adopted EITF 00-10 in the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2001 resulting in a reclassification of outgoing freight revenue from a deduction from cost of sales to an increase in revenue. In accordance with the guidance, sales and cost of goods sold for all prior periods presented have been reclassified. As a result of the reclassification, fiscal 2001 sales and cost of sales increased by $2,908,000 to $268,894,000 and $104,696,000, respectively, and fiscal 2000 sales and cost of sales increased by $2,001,000 to $249,345,000 and $94,658,000, respectively, and fiscal 1999 increased by $1,793,000 to $204,576,000 and $77,967,000, respectively. These reclassifications had no effect on reported gross profit or results of operations.

In December 1999, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 101, "Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements", or SAB 101. SAB 101 summarizes certain of the SEC Staff's views in applying generally accepted accounting principles to revenue recognition in financial statements. Adoption of SAB No. 101 in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2001 did not have a significant effect on the Company's consolidated results of operations or financial position.

In June 1998, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement No. 133 "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" (SFAS 133). Subsequently, the FASB issued Statement No. 137, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities - Deferral of the Effective Date of FASB Statement No. 133" which deferred the effective date of SFAS 133 for one year. This standard is effective for the quarter ending June 30, 2001. SFAS 133 will require the Company to record all derivatives as assets or liabilities at fair value. Changes in derivative fair values will either be recognized in earnings, offset against changes in the fair value of the related hedged assets, liabilities and firm commitments or, for forecasted transactions, recorded as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income in shareholders' equity until the hedge transactions occur and are recognized in earnings. The ineffective portion of a hedging derivative's change in fair value will depend on a variety of factors, including the extent of the Company's hedging activities, the types of hedging instruments used and the effectiveness of such instruments. Based upon the Company's limited use of derivatives and hedging, management does not anticipate that the adoption of this standard will have a significant effect on earnings or the financial position of the Company.

Note F - Short-Term Bank Borrowings

At March 31, 2001, the Company had a secured line of credit, (the Credit Agreement), for borrowings up to $25 million. Borrowings accrue interest at the prevailing prime rate or at a mark-up over LIBOR at the Company's discretion. The Credit Agreement includes certain covenants, which, among others, limit the dividends the Company may pay and require maintenance of certain levels of tangible net worth and debt service ratios. No amounts were outstanding at March 31, 2000 and accordingly $25 million was available for borrowings.

The Company borrowed and repaid $6 million under the Credit Agreement in the first quarter of fiscal 2001 to temporarily fund its stock repurchase program. In February 2001, the Company borrowed $14.1 million under the Credit Agreement to fund its acquisition of Porges S.A. In addition, In February 2001, several lines of credit were established to facilitate operating cash flow needs at our foreign subsidiaries. These lines are at market rates of interest, unsecured, guaranteed by Mentor Corporation, and total $3.7 million. Outstanding borrowings under these arrangements at March 31, 2001 had a weighted-average interest rate of 5.96%. At March 31, 2001, $2.5 was outstanding under these foreign lines of credit. At March 31, 2001, a total of $12.1 million was available under the Credit Agreement and the foreign lines of credit.

Note G - Stock Options

The Company has granted options to key employees and non-employee directors under a qualified 2000 Plan and 1991 Plan. Options granted under both plans are exercisable in four equal annual installments beginning one year from the date of grant, and expire in ten years. Options are granted at the fair market value on the date of grant. Activity in the stock option plans during fiscal 2001, 2000 and 1999 was as follows:

	At March 31
	Options Outstanding
	Number of Shares	Weighted Average Price per Share
Balance March 31, 1998	2,818,893	$ 12.76
Granted	361,300	21.31

Balance March 31, 1999	2,379,786	$ 15.04
Granted	613,000	15.84
Exercised	(577,659)	10.15
Canceled or terminated	(184,750)	19.99
Balance March 31, 2000	2,230,377	$ 16.12
Granted	1,453,550	16.39
Exercised	(286,119)	8.69
Canceled or terminated	(523,527)	18.70
Balance March 31, 2001	2,874,281	$ 16.53

At March 31, 2001, the Company had two Plans under which stock options were available, including the amended 2000 Long-term Incentive Plan (2000 Plan), approved by the Company's stockholders on October 19, 2000. At March 31, 2001, the 2000 Plan had options for 2,880,000 shares available for grant. The 1991 Plan had options for 780,100 shares and options for 1,590,125 shares available for grant at March 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

Stock option exercise prices are set at the closing price of the Company's common stock on the date of grant and the related number of shares granted are fixed at that point in time. Therefore under the principles of APB Opinion 25, the Company does not recognize compensation expense associated with the grant of stock options. SFAS 123 requires the use of an option valuation model to provide supplemental information regarding options granted after fiscal 1995. Pro forma information regarding net income and earnings per share shown below were determined as if the Company had accounted for its employee stock options under the Fair Value method of that statement.

The weighted average fair values of stock option granted were estimated at the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option valuation model and the following assumptions:

	Year Ended March 31,
	2001	2000	1999
Weighted average fair value of stock options granted	$ 10.12	$ 8.67	$ 11.99
Risk-free interest rate	6.4%	5.5%	5.6%
Expected life (in years)	7.5	7.5	7.2
Expected volatility	0.557	0.524	0.528
Expected dividend yield	0.6%	0.7%	0.5%

The Black-Scholes option valuation model was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options. The Company's employee stock options have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options such as vesting restrictions and extremely limited transferability. In addition, the assumptions used in option valuation models are highly subjective, particularly the expected stock price volatility of the underlying stock. Because changes in these subjective input assumptions can materially effect the fair value estimate, in management's opinion, the existing models do not provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of its employee stock options.

For purposes of pro forma disclosure, the estimated fair value of the options is amortized over the option's vesting period. The pro forma effect on net income for the year ended March 31, 1999 is not representative of the pro forma effect on net income in future years because it does not take into consideration pro forma compensation expense related to grants prior to 1996. In 2000, however, the pro forma results include a full four years worth of option grants. Pro forma information in future years will reflect the amortization of a larger number of stock options granted in several succeeding years. The Company's pro forma information is as follows (in thousands, except per share information):

(in thousands)	Year Ended March 31,
	2001	2000	1999

If repatriated, additional taxes of approximately $2,164,000 on these earnings, net of applicable foreign tax credit carryforwards, would be due.

Note I - Acquisitions

Porges S.A.

On February 9, 2001, the Company purchased all of the outstanding shares of Porges S.A. ("Porges") from Sanofi-Synthelabo. Porges is a manufacturer of urological products supplying a complete range of products for the urological surgeon, including diagnostic tools and various devices for surgery and postoperative follow-up. The Company paid $32 million in consideration for all outstanding shares of Porges and all of its foreign sales offices.

The acquisition was accounted for using the purchase method of accounting and, accordingly, the purchase price was allocated to the tangible and intangible net assets acquired on the basis of their respective fair values on the acquisition date. The fair value of assets acquired was determined based upon an internal valuation and by using a combination of methods, including an income approach for the intellectual properties and replacement cost for tangible assets.

The total purchase price was allocated to tangible assets of $46,224,000, intangible assets of $4,241,000, customer base of $895,000, workforce-in-place of $1,885,000 and goodwill of $2,414,000, offset by accrued liabilities of $18,363,000 and deferred income tax liabilities of $4,799,000. This allocation is preliminary and subject to adjustments as the Company completes its review and evaluation of the acquired assets and assumed liabilities.

Goodwill is being amortized over its estimated useful life of fifteen years. The other acquired intangible assets are being amortized over their estimated useful lives of five to fifteen years.

The following unaudited pro forma financial information presents the combined results of continuing operations of the Company and Porges as if the acquisition had occurred as of the beginning of each period presented, after giving effect to certain adjustments, including amortization of goodwill and intangible assets.

(In thousands except per share amounts)
Fiscal Years Ended March 31,	2001	2000

Net income	$ 31,055	$ 28,051
Pro forma earnings per share:
Basic	$ 1.31	$ 1.15
Diluted	$ 1.28	$ 1.12

The pro forma results are not necessarily indicative of those that would have actually occurred had the acquisitions taken place at the beginning of the periods presented.

South Bay Medical LLC

On January 19, 2001, the Company purchased the assets of South Bay Medical LLC, a company focused on the development of a new computer based workstation and automated cartridge-based needle loading system for use in Brachytherapy procedures. The acquisition was accounted for as a purchase with the results of operations included in the Company's financial statements from the date of acquisition. Pro forma results for fiscal 2001 and 2000, assuming the acquisition occurred at the beginning of the period, would not be materially different from the results reported. The Company paid $2,000,000 in cash and issued restricted common stock valued at $4 million on the date of purchase. Additional purchase price payments will be made over the next several years as the workstation sales are made. The net present value of these amounts are recorded at March 31, 2001, in short term accrued liabilities ($3,675,000) and in long term accrued liabilities ($7,045,000) as the Company believes it is probable these payments will be paid. The purchase price allocation included $16,820,000 allocated to patents and other intangibles which will be amortized over a period not to exceed 15 years using the straight-line method. The related acquisition agreement also provides for certain other contingent amounts to be paid which will be expensed as earned based upon future sales levels.

Partnership Technologies

Certain technologies related to the manufacture of mammary prostheses were developed under a 1983 agreement with a limited partnership whereby the limited partners contributed funds towards the development of the technology in exchange for payments based upon a percentage of future sales of the products utilizing the technology. The Company paid to the partnership approximately $2 million of these payments in fiscal 2000. The Company was the general partner for this partnership. The agreement included an option to purchase the technology and thereby terminate the partnership. In fiscal 2001, the Company

Edgar Filing: MENTOR CORP /MN/ - Form 10-K

exercised its option to make a lump sum payment to the Limited Partners in lieu of all future payments and rights according to the Agreement of Purchase and Sale between Mentor Corporation and the Partnership, as amended. The Limited Partners could elect to be paid in cash, the Company's common stock, or a combination thereof. This transaction was completed on August 14, 2000. The Limited Partners elected to be paid $1 million in cash and 434 thousand shares of the Company's common stock which had a value of $9 million. As a result of this purchase, the Company recorded an intangible asset of $10 million which will be amortized using the straight-line method over its estimated useful life of twenty years.

Note J - Earnings per Share

A reconciliation of weighted average shares outstanding, used to calculate Basic earnings per share, to weighted average shares outstanding assuming dilution, used to calculate Diluted earnings per share, follows:

(in thousands)	Year Ended March 31,
	2001	2000	1999
Weighted average outstanding shares: basic	23,627	24,384	24,550
Shares issuable through exercise of stock options	559	700	844
Weighted average outstanding shares: diluted	24,186	25,084	25,394

Shares issuable through options are determined using the treasury stock method.

Options to purchase 1,488,825, 980,525 and 1,114,100 shares with exercise prices greater than the average market prices of common stock were outstanding during the years ended March 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively. These options were excluded from the respective computations of diluted earnings per share because their effect would be anti-dilutive.

Note K - Commitments

The Company leases certain facilities under non-cancelable operating leases with unexpired terms ranging from one to twelve years. Most leases contain renewal options. Rental expense for these leases was $3.3 million, $3.6 million and $3.4 million for fiscal 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively.

Future minimum lease payments under lease arrangements at March 31, 2001 are as follows:

Note L - Related Party Transactions

In 1991, the Company entered into an exclusive license agreement with Rochester Medical Corporation (Rochester) to market and distribute certain external catheter products developed by Rochester. The Company purchased $59,000, $101,000 and $1,900,000 of product from Rochester in 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively. Several officers/founders of Rochester, a public company, are siblings of the Chairman of Mentor Corporation. The Chairman derived no financial or other benefit from transactions between the Company and Rochester.

Note M - Contingencies

Claims related to product liability are a regular and ongoing aspect of the medical device industry. At any one time, the Company is subject to claims against it and is involved in litigation. These actions can be brought by an individual, or by a group of patients purported to be a class action. The Company carries product liability insurance on all its products, except silicone gel-filled implants, which are only available within the United States through a controlled clinical study. This insurance is subject to certain self-insured retention and other limits of the policy, exclusions and deductibles that the Company believes to be appropriate. In addition, the Company also offers warranty coverage on some of its products. The Company has recorded warranty and related reserves ($12,062,000 and $6,563,000 at March 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively) in an amount it believes to be reasonably sufficient to cover the cost of anticipated warranty and product liability claims.

In 1998, the Company learned that the FDA's Office of Criminal Investigations (OCI) was conducting an investigation involving the Company. Mentor understood that the investigation was dormant until in April 2000, when OCI issued a letter requesting that the Company provide OCI with manufacturing data and other corporate records, which the Company subsequently provided to OCI. The Company is cooperating fully with the OCI investigation. At this time, OCI has declined to identify the specific focus of its investigation involving Mentor, and Mentor has had no direct contact with OCI regarding the investigation other than contact related to document requests. It is not possible to predict the outcome of this investigation at this time or its potential impact on Mentor. The Company believes that it is in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations.

The Securities and Exchange Commission informed the Company that it is investigating, under a formal order of investigation, the events relating to the March 23, 2000 USA Today article entitled "Breast Implant manufacturer under investigation by the FDA," which was authored by Rita Rubin, and the March 23, 2000 press release issued by Mentor responding to that article, and possibly other matters. The Company is cooperating fully with the SEC's investigation. At this time, the SEC, Division of Enforcement has not identified the specific focus of its investigation involving Mentor. It is not possible to predict the outcome of this investigation at this time or its potential impact on Mentor. An investigation does not indicate that the SEC or its staff has concluded that violations of law have occurred.

In addition, in the ordinary course of its business, the Company experiences various types of claims that sometimes result in litigation or other legal proceedings. The Company does not anticipate that any of these proceedings will have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Note N - Restructuring Charges and Discontinued Operations

During fiscal 2001, the Company announced a reduction in corporate staff at its headquarters in Santa Barbara as part of a restructuring move to streamline operations and improve efficiency. Employees affected by the restructuring were provided with a severance package, outplacement counseling and extended benefits to help with the transition. This program resulted in a restructuring charge included in general and administrative expenses of $2.4 million. Substantially all amounts related to the restructuring charge were paid by March 31, 2001.

In December 1998, Mentor announced a restructuring plan as part of a strategic initiative to improve the profitability and competitiveness of its ophthalmic business by reducing manufacturing costs and concentrating on those products and markets capable of sustained, long-term profitable growth.

The restructuring plan resulted in a charge to the operating results of the ophthalmic business segment of $14 million in the third quarter of fiscal 1999. The $14 million charge consisted of approximately $1.9 million for employee termination benefits related to the workforce reduction of 150 positions, $800,000 for plant closing costs, $3.3 million for the impairment write down of production assets to their estimated fair value, approximately $1 million for the write down of intangible assets related to discontinued products, and $7 million for the write down of inventory to its estimated net realizable value.

During the implementation of this plan, the Board of Directors authorized management to evaluate potential buyers for the product lines of the ophthalmic business segment. In March 1999, the Company adopted a plan to dispose of its ophthalmic business segment. During the quarter ended June 30, 1999, the Company completed the sale of the assets of the intraocular lens business, for cash consideration of $38.4 million and recorded a related gain of $7.5 million, net of $3.8 million in income taxes. On October 4, 1999, the Company completed the sale of the remaining assets of the ophthalmic equipment business for cash consideration of $21 million and recorded a related gain after income taxes of $1.1 million.

Consistent with the plan to dispose of its ophthalmic business segment, the net assets and operations of the ophthalmic segment of the business, comprised of the intraocular lens products and ophthalmic equipment product lines have been classified as discontinued operations.

The results of discontinued operations for the three years ending March 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999 are as follows:

	Year Ended March 31,

This Transition & Non-Competition Agreement ("Agreement"), dated September 28, 2000, is between MENTOR Corporation ("COMPANY"), with its executive offices at 201 Mentor Drive, Santa Barbara, California 93111 and ANTHONY R. GETTE ("GETTE") of 4632 Via Roblada, Santa Barbara, California 93110.

RECITALS

COMPANY is in the business of manufacturing and selling medical devices and related products. GETTE has been President and CEO of COMPANY. GETTE has tendered his resignation and has agreed to provide a period of transitional services until May 17, 2001 and has also agreed to a period of NON-COMPETITION ("non-competition"). GETTE intends to resign effective May 17, 2001. GETTE is willing to be engaged by COMPANY and COMPANY is willing to engage GETTE upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

AGREEMENT

GETTE and COMPANY, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

1. SERVICES

During the Transition Period, GETTE will continue to be employed by COMPANY, but GETTE will not serve as an officer or director of the COMPANY. GETTE will provide the Company's Board of Directors with advice and consultation on financial and other issues ("Services") during the Transition Period on an as-needed basis.

2. TERM

This Agreement shall commence upon the execution of this Agreement and shall continue until May 17, 2001 (the "Term"), unless terminated sooner as provided in Section 4 of this Agreement.

3. COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

3.1 Compensation. GETTE's compensation shall consist of salary and medical and other benefits generally provided to employees of COMPANY. Any compensation paid to GETTE shall be pursuant to COMPANY's policies and practices for executive employees and shall be subject to all applicable laws and requirements regarding the withholding of federal, state and/or local taxes. Compensation provided in this Agreement is full payment for Services and GETTE shall receive no additional compensation for extraordinary services unless otherwise authorized.

3.1.1 Base Compensation. COMPANY agrees to pay GETTE an annualized base salary of Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000.00), less applicable withholdings, payable in equal installments no less frequently than semi-monthly. This Base Compensation shall remain the same for the duration of this Agreement.

2. Stock Options

. GETTE shall continue to be eligible to participate in COMPANY's 1991 Stock Option Plan ("Plan") during the term of this Agreement. GETTE's participation in the Plan shall be subject to all the terms and conditions of the Plan.

K.2 Business Expenses. COMPANY shall reimburse GETTE for business expenses reasonably incurred in performing Services according to COMPANY's Expense Reimbursement Policy.

3.3 Additional Benefits. COMPANY shall provide GETTE those additional benefits normally granted by COMPANY to executive individuals. Currently COMPANY provides major medical, dental, salary continuation (short-term disability) and long term disability benefits, and eligibility to participate in COMPANY's 401(k) plan.

4. Automobile Expense.

COMPANY will permit GETTE to select a business automobile (four-door sedan) for lease by COMPANY for which COMPANY will make lease payments of up to One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00) per month, or as modified from time to time by COMPANY. COMPANY shall pay applicable taxes on the automobile and shall obtain motor vehicle insurance in an amount it deems reasonable in its sole discretion. GETTE may obtain additional liability insurance at his own expense if he so chooses. In addition, on May 17, 2001, GETTE will be given the option of converting the lease on the business vehicle, or returning to COMPANY for return handling.

3.5 Indemnification. COMPANY shall indemnify GETTE from and against any and all claims and liabilities arising from GETTE's performance of his duties under this Agreement whether such claim and/or liability(s) arises during the term of the Agreement or thereafter. This indemnification provision applies only to conduct undertaken solely for the benefit of the Company.

4. TERMINATION

4.1 Circumstances Of Termination. This Agreement and the relationship between COMPANY and GETTE may not be terminated prior to the expiration of the Term without agreement between GETTE and COMPANY.

L.2 GETTE's Rights Upon Termination

4.2.1 Expiration of Term. Upon termination of this Agreement by expiration of the Term set forth in Section 2 above, all obligations of COMPANY to GETTE shall cease, except that COMPANY shall distribute to GETTE any unpaid compensation and reimbursable expenses, less applicable withholdings, owed to GETTE prior to the expiration of the Term.

4.2.2. If this Agreement is terminated prior to the natural expiration of the Term pursuant to Section 4.1.5, GETTE may obtain continuation of his medical insurance coverage pursuant to the provisions of the Consolidated Budget Reconciliation Act, 29 U.S.C. Section 1161, et seq. ("COBRA"). COMPANY agrees to pay for the costs of COBRA for the period from the termination of this Agreement through and including May 17, 2001, up to the maximum provided through COBRA provided that GETTE has not obtained medical coverage through alternate employment and GETTE completes all necessary enrollment materials and complies with all terms and regulations pertaining to COBRA.

4.2.3 Change In Control.

i. Definition. A "Change in Control" shall occur upon any of the following events:

a. Any Person (as such term is used in Sections 12(d) and 14(d)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act")) becomes a beneficial owner (as such term is defined in Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the Act) (other than COMPANY, any trustee or other fiduciary holding securities under an employee benefit plan of COMPANY, or any corporation owned, directly or indirectly, by the stockholders of COMPANY in substantially the same proportions of their ownership of stock of COMPANY), directly or indirectly, of securities of COMPANY representing fifty percent (50%) of more of the combined voting power of COMPANY's then-outstanding securities;

b. The stockholders of COMPANY approve a merger or consolidation of COMPANY with another corporation or entity, other than (a) a merger or consolidation that results in the voting securities of COMPANY outstanding immediately prior thereto continuing to represent (either by remaining outstanding or by being converted into voting securities of the surviving entity) more than eighty percent (80%) of the combined voting power of the voting securities of COMPANY or such surviving entity outstanding immediately after such merger or consolidation, or (b) a merger or consolidation effected to implement a recapitalization of COMPANY (or similar transaction) in which no Person (as defined above) acquires more than fifty percent (50%) of the combined voting power of COMPANY's then-outstanding securities; or

c. The stockholders of COMPANY approve a plan of complete liquidation of COMPANY or an agreement for the sale or disposition by COMPANY of all or substantially all of COMPANY's assets.

ii. Assumption of Obligations.

In the event of a Change in Control, COMPANY will make such agreements with the entity that obtains control of COMPANY such that the acquiring or surviving entity shall assume the responsibilities and obligations set forth in this Agreement.

5. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

5.1 Representations of GETTE. GETTE represents and warrants that he has all right, power, authority and capacity, and is free to enter into this Agreement; that by doing so, GETTE will not violate or interfere with the rights of any other person or entity; and that GETTE is not subject to any contract, understanding or obligation that will or might prevent, interfere with or impair the performance of this Agreement by GETTE. GETTE shall indemnify and hold COMPANY harmless with respect to any losses, liabilities, demands, claims, fees, expenses, damages and costs (including attorneys' fees and court costs) resulting from or arising out of any claim or action based upon GETTE's entering into this Agreement.

5.2 Representations of COMPANY. COMPANY represents and warrants that it has all right, power and authority, without the consent of any other person, to execute and deliver, and perform its obligations under, this Agreement. All corporate and other actions required to be taken by COMPANY to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the consummation of all transactions contemplated hereby have been duly and properly taken. This Agreement is the lawful, valid and legally binding obligation of COMPANY enforceable in accordance with its terms.

5.3 Materiality of Representations. The representations, warranties and covenants set forth in this Agreement shall be deemed to be material and to have been relied upon by the parties hereto.

6. COVENANTS

6.1 Nondisclosure and Invention Assignment. GETTE acknowledges that, as a result of performing the Services, GETTE shall have access to confidential and sensitive information concerning COMPANY's business including, but not limited to, its business operations, sales and marketing data, and manufacturing processes. GETTE also acknowledges that in the course of performing the Services, GETTE may develop new product ideas or inventions as a result of COMPANY's information. Accordingly, to preserve COMPANY's confidential information and to assure it the full benefit of that information, GETTE shall, as a condition of engagement by COMPANY, execute COMPANY's standard form of Confidentiality Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A, and execute updated versions of the Confidentiality Agreement as it may be modified from time to time by COMPANY and as may be required of similarly-situated individuals at COMPANY. The Confidentiality Agreement is incorporated herein by this reference. GETTE's obligations under the Confidentiality Agreement continue beyond the termination of this Agreement.

2. Covenant Not to Compete.

On May 17, 2001, the COMPANY shall pay to GETTE a sum of Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000.00) in a lump sum amount. GETTE agrees that in exchange, for a period of two (2) years following May 17, 2001, he shall not directly for himself, member of a partnership, or as an officer, director, stockholder, employee or representative of any other entity or individual, engage, directly or indirectly, in any business activity which is directly competitive with the COMPANY.

6.3 Covenant to Deliver Records. All memoranda, notes, records and other documents made or compiled by GETTE, or made available to GETTE during the term of this Agreement concerning the business of COMPANY shall be and remain COMPANY's property and shall be delivered to COMPANY upon the termination of this Agreement or at any other time on request.

7. CERTAIN RIGHTS OF COMPANY

7.1 Announcement. COMPANY shall have the right to make public announcements concerning the execution of this Agreement and certain terms thereof as agreed to by and between GETTE and COMPANY.

7.2 Use of Name, Likeness and Biography. COMPANY shall have the right (but not the obligation) to use, publish and broadcast, and to authorize others to do so, the name, approved likeness and approved biographical material of GETTE to advertise, publicize and promote the business of COMPANY and its affiliates, but not for the purposes of direct endorsement without GETTE's consent. An "approved likeness" and "approved biographical material" shall be, respectively, any photograph or other depiction of GETTE, or any biographical information or life story concerning the professional career of GETTE.

3. Right to Insure.

COMPANY shall have the right to secure, in its own name or otherwise, and at its own expense, life, health, accident or other insurance covering GETTE, and GETTE shall have no right, title or interest in and to such insurance. GETTE shall assist COMPANY in procuring such insurance by submitting to examinations and by signing such applications and other instruments as may be required by the insurance carriers to which application is made for any such insurance.

1. ASSIGNMENT

Neither party may assign or otherwise dispose of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party except as provided in this Section. COMPANY may assign and transfer this Agreement, or its interest in this Agreement, to any affiliate of COMPANY or to any entity that is a party to a merger, reorganization, or consolidation with COMPANY, or to a subsidiary of COMPANY, or to any entity that acquires substantially all of the assets of COMPANY or of any division with respect to which GETTE is providing services (providing such assignee assumes COMPANY's obligations under this Agreement). GETTE shall, if requested by COMPANY, perform GETTE's duties and Services, as specified in this Agreement, for the benefit of any subsidiary or other affiliate of COMPANY. Upon assignment, acquisition, merger, consolidation or reorganization, the term "COMPANY" as used herein shall be deemed to refer to such assignee or successor entity. GETTE shall not have the right to assign his interest in this Agreement, any rights under this Agreement, or any duties imposed under this Agreement, nor shall GETTE or his spouse, heirs, beneficiaries, executors or administrators have the right to pledge, hypothecate or otherwise encumber GETTE's right to receive compensation hereunder without the express written consent of COMPANY.

9. RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES

In the event of any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or in any way relating to the employment of GETTE which leads to the filing of a lawsuit, the parties agree that venue and jurisdiction shall be in Santa Barbara County, California. The prevailing party in any such litigation shall be entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees to be paid by the losing party.

10. GENERAL PROVISIONS

10.1 Notices. Notice under this Agreement shall be sufficient only if personally delivered by a major commercial paid delivery courier service or mailed by certified or registered mail (return receipt requested and postage pre-paid) to the other party at its address set forth in the signature block below or to such other address as may be designated by either party in writing. If not received sooner, notices by mail shall be deemed received five (5) days after deposit in the United States mail.

10.2 Agreement Controls. Unless otherwise provided for in this Agreement, the COMPANY's policies, procedures and practices shall govern the relationship between GETTE and COMPANY. If, however, any of COMPANY's policies, procedures and/or practices conflict with this Agreement (together with any amendments hereto), this Agreement (and any amendments hereto) shall control.

10.3 Amendment and Waiver. Any provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified and the observance of any provision may be waived (either retroactively or prospectively) only by written consent of the parties. Either party's failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of that party's right to enforce such provision.

I0.4 Governing Law. This Agreement and the performance hereunder shall be interpreted under the substantive laws of the State of California.

I0.5 Force Majeure. Either party shall be temporarily excused from performing under this Agreement if any force majeure or other occurrence beyond the reasonable control of either party makes such performance impossible, except a Disability as defined in this Agreement, provided that the party subject to the force majeure provides notice of such force majeure at the first reasonable opportunity. Under such circumstances, performance under this Agreement that related to the delay shall be suspended for the duration of the delay provided the delayed party shall resume performance of its obligations with due diligence once the delaying event subsides. In case of any such suspension, the parties shall use their best efforts to overcome the cause and effect of such suspension.

I0.6 Remedies. GETTE acknowledges that because of the nature of COMPANY's business, and the fact that the services to be performed by GETTE pursuant to this Agreement are of a special, unique, unusual, extraordinary, and intellectual character that give them a peculiar value, a breach of this Agreement shall cause substantial injury to COMPANY for which money damages cannot reasonably be ascertained and for which money damages would be inadequate. If the Purchaser so notifies the Seller of a Notice of Objection, the Purchaser shall be deemed to have accepted all items not specified in the said Notice of Objection and the Purchaser and the Seller shall, within thirty (30) days following the date of receipt by the Seller of such Notice (the "Resolution Period"), attempt to resolve the disagreement relating to the items specified in the Notice of Objection. Any resolution in writing by them as to any disputed item specified in the Notice of Objection shall be deemed to be final and binding on the Parties. If following any such attempt to resolve any disputed item specified in the said Notice(s) of Objection there do not remain disputed amounts, the aggregate net amount of which would have an impact on the December Net Worth in an amount which exceeds Euros 50,000, then all items specified in the said Notice(s) of Objection remaining in dispute shall be deemed to have been resolved in favor of the December Financial Statements, delivered by the Seller to the Purchaser. The term "Final December Net Worth Statement" shall mean the definitive December Net Worth Statement agreed to by the Seller and the Purchaser in accordance with this Section 2.3(d), or in the absence of such agreement, the definitive December Net Worth Statement resulting from the determination made by the Neutral Auditor (as hereinafter defined) in accordance with Section 2.3(e) (in addition to those items agreed by the Seller and the Purchaser).

Each Party agrees to execute, if requested by the Neutral Auditor, a reasonable engagement letter. All fees and expenses of the Neutral Auditor shall be borne equally by the Seller and the Purchaser. The Neutral Auditor's determination shall be made within thirty (30) days of its engagement, shall be set forth in a written statement delivered to the Seller and the Purchaser and shall be final and binding on the Parties hereto in accordance with the provisions of Article 1592 of the French Civil Code.

SECTION 2.4 Global Consideration Adjustment

(a) As soon as the Final December Net Worth Statement is agreed by the Parties or finalised by the Neutral Auditor in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.3 above, the Global Consideration shall be reduced in the event that the amount of the net worth set forth in the Final December Net Worth Statement is less than the Reference Net Worth Amount, on a euro for euro basis, by an amount equal to the difference between these two amounts. For the avoidance of doubt, no adjustment to the Global Consideration will be made in the event that the amount of the net worth set forth in the Final December Net Worth Statement is greater than the Reference Net Worth Amount.

(b) Interest and Payment. Any adjustment provided for in this Section 2.4 shall bear interest from Closing through the date of payment at the Euribor rate of interest reported from time to time by "The Financial Times". Any adjustment pursuant to this Section 2.4, together with interest thereon, shall be paid by the Seller by wire transfer of immediately available funds to accounts designated by the Purchaser within five (5) Business Days after the date on which the Final December Net Worth Statement is agreed to by the Seller and the Purchaser or determined by the Neutral Auditor.

SECTION 6.16 Payments by Seller Under Article VI

For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of Article VII hereinafter do not apply to payments made by the Seller under this Article VI.

ARTICLE VII

INDEMNIFICATION

SECTION 7.1 Indemnification

a. Indemnification by the Seller. Subject to the limits set forth in Article VII, the Seller agrees to indemnify, defend and hold the Purchaser, its officers, directors and Affiliates, harmless from and in respect of any and all losses, damages (excluding, however incidental or consequential damages), costs and reasonable expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable expenses of investigation and defense fees and disbursements of counsel and other professionals) (collectively, "Losses"), that they may incur arising out of or due to any breach of any Representation or Warranty of the Seller contained in Article III of this Agreement provided, however, that the Seller shall have no liability to the Purchaser with respect to any acts, facts or events that would not have occurred or been aggravated (to the extent of such aggravation) without the action or negligence of the Purchaser, of any legal person under its control, or of any individual under their authority.

b. Indemnification by the Purchaser and the Companies

. The Purchaser agrees to indemnify, defend and hold the Seller, their officers, directors and Affiliates, harmless from and in respect of any and all Losses that they may incur arising out of or due to any breach of any Purchaser's Representation and Warranty contained in Article IV of this Agreement.

SECTION 7.2 Survival of Representations and Warranties

The representations and warranties of the Parties contained in this Agreement will survive the Closing and will remain in full force and effect thereafter for a period of two (2) years from the Closing, except that the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 3.1, 3.2, 3.3, 3.10, 3.20 (concerning social security matters only) and 4.1 shall survive until expiration of the relevant statute of limitations.

SECTION 7.3 Limitations on Indemnification by the Seller

With respect to indemnification by the Seller for any breach of any such Representations or Warranties of Seller, no Loss shall be subject to indemnification if the total amount thereof in each case is not in excess of fifteen thousand Euros (15,000), subject to said limitation for each Loss and in addition to it, the Purchaser shall not be entitled to recover from the Seller unless and until the total of all claims for indemnity or damages with respect to any breach of any such Representations or Warranties, brought under Section 7.1 (a), exceeds three hundred thousand Euros (300,000), it being understood that such amount constitutes a threshold and not an excess amount and that any claims for indemnity in excess of the said amount shall be indemnified on a Euro for Euro basis from the first Euro, provided however that the Purchaser shall not be entitled to recover from the Seller more than ten million Euros (10,000,000), in the aggregate, pursuant to Section 7.1, except for claims arising solely under Sections 3.1, 3.2 and 3.3 for which the maximum shall be an amount equivalent to the Global Consideration.

SECTION 7.4 Notice and Opportunity to Defend

If there occurs an event which a Party (an "Indemnified Party") asserts is an indemnifiable event pursuant to Section 7.1(a) or 7.1(b), the Indemnified Party shall notify the other Party obligated to provide indemnification (an "Indemnifying Party") promptly. If such event involves (i) any claim or (ii) the commencement of any action of proceeding by a third person, the Indemnified Party will give such Indemnifying Party prompt written notice of such claim or the commencement of such action or proceeding. Such notice shall be a condition precedent to any liability of the Indemnifying Party hereunder; provided, however, that the failure to provide prompt notice as provided herein will relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations hereunder only to the extent that such failure prejudices the Indemnifying Party hereunder. In case any such action shall be brought against any Indemnified Party and it shall notify the Indemnifying Party of the commencement thereof, the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled to participate therein and, to the extent that it shall wish, to assume the defense thereof, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party and, after notice from the Indemnifying Party to the Indemnified Party of such election so to assume the defense thereof, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to the Indemnified Party for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such party in connection with the defense thereof. The Indemnified Party agrees to cooperate fully with the Indemnifying Party and its counsel in the defense against any such asserted liability. The Indemnified Party shall have the right to participate at its own expense in the defense of such asserted liability. No Indemnifying Party shall consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement without the consent of the Indemnified Party (A) if such judgment or settlement does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by each claimant or plaintiff to each Indemnified Party a release from all liability in respect to such claim, (B) if such judgment or settlement would be imposed against the Indemnified Party or such judgment or settlement could interfere with or adversely affect the business, operations or assets of the Indemnified Party.

SECTION 7.5 Miscellaneous Provisions

- a. The amount which an Indemnifying Party is required to pay to, for or on behalf of any Indemnified Party pursuant to Article VII shall be adjusted by any third party payments or insurance proceeds actually recovered by or on behalf of such Indemnified Party in reduction of the related indemnifiable Loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter called an "Indemnity Payment." If an Indemnified Party shall have received an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive insurance proceeds in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, or realize any tax benefit as a result of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnified Party shall pay to the Indemnifying Party the amount of such insurance proceeds or tax benefit or, if lesser, the amount of the Indemnity Payment.
- b. Any Indemnity Payment by the Seller on account of a Loss shall constitute damages and not a reduction in the Global Consideration.
- c. Losses having the same origin may only give use to one obligation of indemnification pursuant to this Agreement, in particular (but without being limited to the following) when a Loss in a Subsidiary would have an impact on the value of the shareholding interest held by the Company in such Subsidiary. For the avoidance of doubt no right to indemnity will exist under the Asset Transfer Agreements or the German Transfer Agreement independent of the indemnity under this Agreement.
- d. If and to the extent to which a specific provision has been made in the September Financial Statements or in the December Financial Statements (if those are substituted according to the provisions of Section 3.7 (f)) with respect to an individual matter or accounting category regarding obsolescence of stocks and bad debts which is the subject of a claim for indemnification pursuant to Section 7.1 (a) above, such claim for indemnification shall be reduced by the amount of such provision.
- e. The Purchaser shall not have a claim pursuant to Section 7.1 (a) above if and to the extent to which a Global Consideration adjustment has been made pursuant to Section 2.4 above with respect to the matter on which such claim is based.

or conduct of the Indemnifying Party occurring prior to the effective date of termination.

· INDEMNIFICATION

1. Certain Definitions.

For purposes of this Article -, the following expressions shall have the meanings set forth below:

0. Adverse Consequences

. Any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, causes of action, costs and related expenses, including attorney's fees.

1. Indemnified Party.

Any Person who is entitled by the provisions of this Agreement to be indemnified against Adverse Consequences by an Indemnifying Party.

2. Indemnifying Party

. Any Person who is obligated by the provisions of this Agreement to indemnify another Person against Adverse Consequences.

2. Indemnification by Buyer.

Subject to the provisions of Section -, below, the Buyer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Seller and its Affiliates and each of their respective Principals, agents, employees, successors and assigns from and against any and all Adverse Consequences resulting from or attributable to (a) the breach of any of the warranties or representations made by the Buyer in this Agreement or in any certificate delivered by or on behalf of the Buyer pursuant to this Agreement, (b) subject to the provisions of clause (c) of Section -, below, the business operations of the Acquired Business or the Buyer subsequent to the Closing Date, or (c) any liability expressly assumed by Buyer under or pursuant to this Agreement.

4. Notice to Indemnifying Party.

If any Indemnified Party receives notice of any claim or other commencement of any Proceeding with respect to which any Indemnifying Party is obligated to provide indemnification pursuant to Section - or Section -, above, or pursuant to any other specific indemnification covenant contained in this Agreement, the Indemnified Party shall promptly give the Indemnifying Party written notice thereof, which notice shall specify, if known, the amount or an estimate of the amount of the liability arising therefrom. The timely delivery of any such notice shall not be a condition precedent to any liability of the Indemnifying Party for indemnification hereunder, unless the delay or untimely delivery of any such notice is materially prejudicial to the right or ability of the Indemnifying Party to defend against the claim, action or Proceeding which is the subject of the notice.

5. Defense by Indemnifying Party.

In connection with any claim giving rise to indemnity hereunder resulting from or arising out of any claim or Proceeding by a person who is not a party to this Agreement, the Indemnifying Party at its sole cost and expense may, upon written notice to the Indemnified Party delivered within fifteen (15) days after receipt by the Indemnifying Party of a notice for a claim for indemnification, assume the defense of any such claim or Proceeding using counsel of its choice (subject to the approval of the Indemnified Party, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) if it acknowledges to the Indemnified Party in writing its obligations to indemnify the Indemnified Party with respect to all elements of such claim.

0. The Indemnified Party shall be entitled to participate in (but not control) the defense of any such action, with its counsel and at its own expense; provided that if the Indemnified Party reasonably determines that there exists a conflict of interest between the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party, the Indemnified Party shall have the right to engage separate counsel at its own cost and expense.
1. The Indemnified Party shall not settle or compromise any claim by a third party for which it is entitled to indemnification hereunder without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) unless suit shall have been instituted against it and the Indemnifying Party shall not have taken control of such suit after notification thereof as provided in this Section -.

6. De Minimis Claims.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section -, an Indemnified Party shall not be entitled to damages, indemnity, compensation or reimbursement, and an Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to the Indemnified Parties for any breach of the warranties and representations contained in this Agreement, unless the actual damages attributable to such breach(es) exceed (a) in any single case, the sum of $10,000 or (b) the sum of $100,000 in the aggregate. If the aggregate of all such claims, losses, obligations and liabilities, whether or not exceeding $10,000 individually, exceeds $100,000 in the aggregate then, subject to the limitations on the aggregate liability of the Indemnifying Party set forth in Section -, below, the Indemnifying Party shall be liable in full for all Adverse Consequences resulting from or attributable to Indemnifying Party's breach of its warranties, representations and covenants under this Agreement.

7. Limitation on Liability.

In no event shall the aggregate liability of all of the Indemnifying Parties to all Indemnified Parties, collectively, exceed an amount equal to the Purchase Price paid by the Buyer to the Seller, but this limitation on liability shall not apply in any case in which it has been determined that the Indemnifying Party intentionally engaged in fraudulent conduct for the purposes of deceiving the Indemnified Party. In determining the amount to which an Indemnified Party is entitled to be indemnified under this Agreement, there shall be taken into account and the loss of the Indemnified Party shall be adjusted by the value of any tax consequences and insurance proceeds (to the extent such adjustments can be documented and directly related thereto). The Indemnified Party hereby waives any rights of subrogation with respect to any claim subject to insurance coverage.

8. Limitation Period.

No claims for damages or indemnification may be asserted against an Indemnifying Party under this Agreement unless notice of such claim is given within the periods specified below:

0. In the case of claims for indemnification arising from Third-Party claims of liability for injuries to persons or to property resulting from or attributable to Products manufactured by Seller prior to the Closing Date, unless notice is given within sixty (60) days after the Indemnified Party first learns of the Third-Party claim.
1. 2. In all other cases, within eighteen (18) months after the Closing Date.

9. Exclusive Remedy.

The indemnification provided pursuant to this Section - shall be the sole and exclusive remedy hereto for any loss resulting from or attributable to the breach of any warranty or representation given by an Indemnifying Party pursuant to this Agreement.

10. Exception to Limitations.

Nothing in this Article - shall be construed to impair or be a limitation on (a) the right of either party to recover from the other damages resulting from or attributable to (1) intentional fraud or (2) a material breach by the other party of an obligation under this agreement that, on the Closing Date, was an executory obligation that was not intended to be performed until after the Closing Date, or (b) the right of Buyer to recover from Seller for Adverse Consequences resulting from or attributable to claims by Arthur Andersen for compensation in connection with the transactions contemplated in this Agreement.

3. Assignment & Delegation.

Neither party to this Agreement shall be entitled to assign its rights hereunder without the consent of any other party, and no party to this Agreement shall delegate its duties and obligations hereunder without the consent in writing of the party to whom such duty or obligation is owed, and no such assignment or delegation, if so consented to, shall relieve the assignor of liability under this Agreement.

4. Force Majeure.

Neither Buyer nor Seller shall be liable for any delay or default in performing its obligations hereunder if such delay or default is caused by Force Majeure provided that the party so affected (a) promptly gives written notice of the occurrence of such event and the likely effects thereof, and (b) resumes the performance of its obligations with due diligence as soon as practicable after the effects of any such event have been alleviated.

5. Facsimile Signatures.

The signatures of the parties on this Agreement and on any document or instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall be deemed to be original signatures and shall be sufficient to bind the parties. Each party covenants to deposit the original, manually signed document for delivery by courier or by registered or certified mail to the party to whom such facsimile signature was transmitted within two business days after the date of any such facsimile transmission.

6. Counterparts and Execution.

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument binding on all the parties hereto, notwithstanding that all of the parties are not signatories to the original or the same counterpart.

7. Construction.

The parties agree that each party and its counsel have reviewed and revised this Agreement and that any rule of construction to the effect that ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting party shall not apply in the interpretation of this Agreement or any amendments of exhibits thereto.

8. Waiver.

No waiver by a party with respect to any breach or default or of any right or remedy and no course of dealing or performance, will be deemed to constitute a continuing waiver of any other breach or default or of any other right or remedy, unless such waiver is expressed in writing signed by the party to be bound. Failure of a party to exercise any right will not be deemed a waiver of such right or rights in the future.

9. Governing Law; Jurisdiction.

Any action or proceeding to construe or enforce the provisions of this Agreement shall be commenced and conducted in a state or federal court of competent jurisdiction in that county in the State in which the defendant has its corporate offices or in the closest proximate county, and each of the parties consents to the jurisdiction of such court and waives any objection to such venue. This Agreement, the construction and enforcement of its terms, and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the parties hereunder shall be governed by the laws of the state in which any action or proceeding is properly commenced in accordance with the provisions of this Section -.

10. Partial Invalidity.

Each term and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. If any term or provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall, to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, then the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those to which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby.

11. Attorneys' Fees.

Should any proceeding be necessary to construe or enforce the terms or conditions of this Agreement, or the application or validity thereof, then the party prevailing in such action shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and other court costs, together with any costs and attorneys' fees incurred in enforcing any judgment entered therein.

12. Exhibits.

All exhibits or appendices attached or referred to in this Agreement are incorporated in this Agreement by such reference and are made a part hereof as though they were fully set forth herein.

13. Third Party Benefit.

The parties do not intend to confer any benefit on any person, firm, corporation, entity or individual other than the parties to this Agreement by reason, directly or indirectly, of the parties' execution and delivery of this Agreement, including all exhibits hereto and thereto, and any related documents, schedules, certificates and opinions.

14. Complete Agreement.

This written instrument, together with any exhibits or appendices referred to herein, constitutes the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the matters that are the subject of this Agreement, and no representations, warranties or covenants not included in this Agreement may be relied upon by any party hereto.

COVENANT AGAINST COMPETITION

THIS COVENANT AGAINST COMPETITION (this "Covenant") is given to MENTOR CORPORATION, a Minnesota corporation ("Buyer"), by SOUTH BAY MEDICAL, LLC, a Minnesota limited liability company ("Seller") and the undersigned (collectively, "Signatories"), with reference to the following facts:

RECITALS:

- A. Buyer and Seller have entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement dated for reference purposes as of December 1, 2000 (the "Purchase Agreement"), pursuant to which Buyer will purchase substantially all of the assets owned by and used by Seller in the Acquired Business.
- B. Signatories are members and employees of Seller and will participate in the consideration received by Seller under the Purchase Agreement.
- C. As a condition to entering into the transaction contemplated by the Purchase Agreement, Buyer requires, and Seller and Signatories have agreed to deliver to Buyer, a covenant against competition by Seller and Signatories following the consummation of the purchase transaction.
- D. Seller and Signatories are therefore executing and delivering this Covenant Against Competition pursuant to Section - of the Purchase Agreement.

COVENANTS:

NOW, THEREFORE, in light of the foregoing and in consideration of the covenants set forth in the Purchase Agreement, Seller and Signatories intending to be legally bound, covenant to and agree with Buyer as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS

Capitalized words and phrases not defined in this Covenant but that are defined in the Purchase Agreement shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Purchase Agreement. As used in this Covenant, the following words phrases shall have the meanings set forth below:

- 1. Business Entity. Any entity engaged in the conduct of a trade or business.

2. Competing Business Activity. The manufacture, assembly, marketing, sale or distribution of Competitive Products.
3. Competitive Products. Any product that performs the same or a substantially similar function as the Products as of the date of the Closing under the Purchase Agreement.
4. Effective Date. The date of the Closing contemplated by the Purchase Agreement.
5. Proscribed Activities. Any one or more of the following:
 1. Sponsoring, operating, joining, controlling or otherwise participating in a Competing Business Activity or otherwise being connected as a consultant, advisor, or in any other capacity with a Business Entity that is engaged in a Competing Business Activity.
 2. Owning, directly or indirectly, any interest, whether beneficial or other wise, in a Competing Business Activity, or a Business Entity that owns and operates a Competing Business Activity, other than as an owner of less than five percent (5%) of the outstanding shares of a corporation, the shares of which are publicly traded on a national stock exchange or in a national over-the-counter market.
 3. Diverting or attempting to divert from Buyer or the Acquired Business to a Competing Business Activity any patrons, customers, employees, suppliers or other persons engaged in providing goods or services to Buyer or purchasing goods or services from the Buyer.

2. AGREEMENT NOT TO COMPETE

Seller and Signatories, and each of them, covenant to and agree with Buyer that, without Buyer's prior written consent, they shall not directly or indirectly engage in any Proscribed Activities for the longer of (a) seven (7) full calendar years following the Effective Date of this Covenant, (b) for those Signatories who sign Employment Agreements with Buyer, that period specified in such Employment Agreement.

3. REMEDIES

Seller and Signatories acknowledge that Buyer will not have an adequate remedy at law upon breach of any of the foregoing provisions of this Covenant. Seller and Signatories therefore agree that Buyer shall be entitled to such injunctive relief and specific performance as is permitted by law in addition to any other available rights and remedies whether under this Covenant or at law or in equity.

4. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Waiver and Further Agreement. Any waiver of a breach of any of the terms and conditions of this Covenant shall not operate as a waiver of any other breach of such terms and conditions. Any failure to enforce any provisions hereof shall not operate as a waiver of that provision or any other provision hereof. Any waiver of any provision hereof shall not be construed to effect a continuing waiver of the provision being waived, unless such waiver explicitly provides to the contrary. No such waiver with regard to a particular event shall constitute a waiver in any other event or for any other purpose or impair the right of the party against whom such waiver is claimed to require full compliance with such provision in all other events or for all other purposes. Each of the parties agrees to execute all such further instruments and documents and to take all such further actions as the other party may reasonably require in order to effectuate the terms and purpose of this Covenant.

2. Severability. If any provision of this Covenant is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall nevertheless continue in full force without being impaired or invalidated in any way.
3. Attorneys' Fees. Should any Proceeding be necessary to construe or enforce the terms or conditions of this agreement, or the application or validity thereof, then the party prevailing in such action shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and other court costs, together with any costs and attorneys' fees incurred in enforcing any judgment entered therein.
4. Governing Law; Jurisdiction. This Covenant, the construction and enforcement of its terms, and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the parties hereunder shall be governed by the laws of the State of Minnesota without regard to its conflict of laws principles. Any Proceeding instituted to enforce or interpret the terms of this Agreement shall be brought in the court located in the City of Minneapolis, State of Minnesota, and each party hereby consents to the jurisdiction of such court and waives any objection to such venue.
5. Amendments. This Covenant may not be amended, nor shall any waiver, change, modification, consent, or discharge of any provision hereof be effected, except by an instrument in writing executed by or on behalf of the party or parties against whom enforcement of such amendment or provision is sought.
6. Complete Agreement. This Covenant constitutes the entire agreement the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings between them as to the subject matter of this Covenant. There are no restrictions, agreements, or arrangements, oral or written, between the parties related to the subject matter hereof which are not fully expressed or referred to herein.

INVESTOR REPRESENTATION STATEMENT

I am a member of South Bay Medical, LLC ("SBM"). SBM is party to that certain Purchase and Sale Agreement, dated for reference purposes as of December 1, 2000 (the "Purchase Agreement") whereby SBM will sell substantially all of its assets to Mentor Corporation (the "Company"). In consideration of such sale, the Company will remit to SBM certain shares of the Company's common capital stock, par value $0.10 per share (the "Restricted Stock"). Subsequent to the closing of the asset sale, and in connection with SBM's liquidation, SBM will distribute to me certain shares of the Restricted Stock according to my percentage interest in SBM, or upon such other criteria as SBM's members may agree (the "Shares"). In connection with my anticipated acquisition of the Shares, I hereby make the following representations and warranties to the Company:

1. INVESTMENT INTENT.

I will acquire the Shares solely for investment and not with any then-present intention of selling or otherwise disposing of the Shares or any portion thereof in any transaction other than a transaction exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). I understand that the shares of the Company's common capital stock that I will acquire are not, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act on the ground that their sale and issuance is exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act and state securities laws on the basis of the so-called "private offering" exemption provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act, Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act, and by applicable state securities laws.

I recognize that the availability of these exemptions from the registration and qualification requirements is predicated in part on my representation that I will acquire the securities for investment for my own account, with no then-present intention of dividing my participation with others or reselling or otherwise distributing the same, nor with any view to or for sale in connection with any distribution of these securities.

It is my understanding that, in the view of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the statutory basis for such exemption would not be present if, notwithstanding my representation, I had in mind merely acquiring the securities for resale on the occurrence or nonoccurrence of some predetermined event such as, for example, the expiration of the capital gains period of the Internal Revenue Code, or a market rise, or if the market does not rise, for any other fixed or determinable period in the future .

Accordingly, I hereby represent to you that I will acquire such stock for my own account and not with a view to or for sale in connection with any distribution of such stock, and that I do not intend to dispose of my beneficial interest in all or any part of such securities acquired by me.

2. ACQUISITION FOR OWN ACCOUNT

. I will acquire and shall hold the entire legal and beneficial interest of the Shares solely for my own account, and neither in whole nor in part for any other person or entity except to the extent held jointly with my spouse.

3. RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER

. I understand that the Shares will constitute "restricted securities" within the meaning of the Securities Act, the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder, including Rule 144, and the applicable state securities laws. I further understand that the Shares are and will remain subject to the holding periods set forth in Section 3.1.2C of the Purchase Agreement. I acknowledge that the Shares must be held indefinitely unless subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from such registration is available. Further, I agree that I will not transfer, by way of gift or otherwise sell, pledge or encumber said securities unless I obtain, at my expense, a "no action" letter from the Securities and Exchange Commission or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to you, that transfer of such shares does not violate the Securities Act or applicable state securities laws.

4. RESTRICTIVE LEGEND

. I understand that I will be issued three (3) share certificates which, in the aggregate, will represent the Shares. I consent to the imposition on the share certificates of legends substantially identical to the following, and of any additional legends as may be required by law:

No Reference Rate Loan shall be converted into a Eurodollar Loan or Fixed Loans if an Event Of Default or Potential Default has occurred and is continuing on the day occurring three Eurodollar Business Days or, in the case of Fixed Loans, one Business Day prior to the date of the conversion requested by the Borrower. All or any part of outstanding Loans may be converted as provided in this Paragraph 2(f)(1), provided that partial conversions shall be in a principal amount of $1,000,000 or whole multiples of $500,000 in excess thereof, and in the case of conversions into Eurodollar Loans or Fixed Loans, after giving effect thereto the aggregate of the then number of respective Eurodollar Loans and Fixed Loans of Lender having a different Interest Period does not exceed five.

If the Borrower shall fail to give notice as provided above, the Borrower shall be deemed to have elected to convert the affected Eurodollar Loan or Fixed Loan to a Reference Rate Loan on the last day of the relevant Interest Period.

2(g) Inability to Determine Rate. In the event that Lender shall have determined (which determination shall be conclusive and binding upon the Borrower) that by reason of circumstances affecting the interbank eurodollar market adequate and reasonable means do not exist for ascertaining the IBO Rate for any Interest Period, Lender shall forthwith give notice to the Borrower. If such notice is given: (1) no Loan may be funded as a Eurodollar Loan, (2) any Loan that was to have been or would be converted to a Eurodollar Loan shall, subject to the provisions hereof, be continued as a Reference Rate Loan, and (3) any outstanding Eurodollar Loan shall be converted, on the last day of the then current Interest Period with respect thereto, to a Reference Rate Loan.

2(h) Illegality. Notwithstanding any other provisions herein, if any law, regulation, treaty or directive or any change therein or in the interpretation or application thereof, shall make it unlawful for Lender to make or maintain Eurodollar Loans as contemplated by this Agreement: (1) the commitment of Lender hereunder to make or to continue Eurodollar Loans or to convert Reference Rate Loans to Eurodollar Loans shall forthwith be cancelled and (2) Lender's Loans then outstanding as Eurodollar Loans, if any, shall be converted automatically to Reference Rate Loans or, at the request of the Borrower, Fixed Loans at the end of their respective Interest Periods or within such earlier period as required by law. In the event of a conversion of any such Loan prior to the end of its applicable Interest Period the Borrower hereby agrees promptly to pay Lender upon demand in writing setting forth in reasonable detail the calculation of the amount so demanded, the amounts required pursuant to Paragraph 2(k) below, it being agreed and understood that such conversion shall constitute a prepayment for all purposes hereof. The provisions hereof shall survive the termination of this Agreement and payment of the outstanding Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder.

2(I) Requirements Of Law; Increased Costs. In the event that any applicable law, order, regulation, treaty or directive issued by any central bank or other Governmental Authority, agency or instrumentality or in the governmental or judicial interpretation or application thereof, or compliance by Lender with any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) issued by any central bank or other Governmental Authority, agency or instrumentality:

(1) Does or shall subject Lender to any tax of any kind whatsoever with respect to this Agreement or any Loans made or Letters Of Credit issued hereunder, or change the basis of taxation of payments to Lender of principal, fee, interest or any other amount payable hereunder (except for change in the rate of tax on the overall net income of Lender);

(2) Does or shall impose, modify or hold applicable any reserve, capital requirement, special deposit, compulsory loan or similar requirements against assets held by, or deposits or other liabilities in or for the account of, advances or Loans by, or other credit extended by, or any other acquisition of funds by, any office of Lender which are not otherwise included in the determination of interest payable on the Obligations; or

(3) Does or shall impose on Lender any other condition; and the result of any of the foregoing is to increase the cost to Lender of making, renewing or maintaining any Loan or to reduce any amount receivable in respect thereof or the rate of return on the capital of Lender, then, in any such case, the Borrower shall promptly pay to Lender, upon its written demand made to the Borrower, any additional amounts necessary to compensate Lender for such additional cost or reduced amounts receivable or rate of return as determined by Lender with respect to this Agreement or Loans made or Letters Of Credit issued hereunder. If Lender becomes entitled to claim any additional amounts pursuant to this Paragraph 2(i), it shall promptly notify the Borrower of the event by reason of which it has become so entitled. A certificate as to any additional amounts payable pursuant to the foregoing sentence containing the calculation thereof in reasonable detail submitted by Lender to the Borrower shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error. The provisions hereof shall survive the termination of this Agreement and payment of the outstanding Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder.

2(j) Funding. Lender shall be entitled to fund all or any portion of its Loans in any manner it may determine in its sole discretion, including, without limitation, in the Grand Cayman inter-bank market, the London inter-bank market and within the United States, but all calculations and transactions hereunder shall be conducted as though Lender actually funds all Eurodollar Loans through the purchase in London of offshore dollar deposits in the amount of the relevant Eurodollar Loan in maturities corresponding to the applicable Interest Period.

2(k) Prepayment Premium. In addition to all other payment obligations hereunder, in the event: (1) any Loan which is outstanding as a Eurodollar Loan is prepaid prior to the last day of the applicable Interest Period, whether following a voluntary prepayment, a mandatory prepayment or otherwise, or (2) the Borrower shall fail to continue or to make a conversion to a Eurodollar Loan or Fixed Loan after the Borrower has given notice thereof as provided in Paragraph 2(f) above, or (3) any Loan which is outstanding as a Fixed Loan is paid on a day other than the dates fixed for payment under this Agreement, or (4) the Borrower shall fail to continue or to make a conversion to Reference Rate Loans after the Borrower has given notice thereof as provided in Paragraph 2(f) above, then the Borrower shall immediately pay to Lender an additional premium sum compensating Lender for actual losses, and reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Lender in connection with such prepayment, including, without limitation, those incurred in connection with redeployment of funds all as set forth in a certificate from the Lender setting forth in reasonable detail the nature and amount thereof.

3. Miscellaneous Provisions.

If the Borrower desires to borrow hereunder, the Borrower shall deliver a Loan Request to Lender which shall be delivered telephonically no later than 10:00 a.m. (Los Angeles time) and immediately confirmed by facsimile transmission, on the day notice of borrowing is required to be given for the type of Loan being requested pursuant to Paragraph 2(f)(1) above. If the Loan is for the benefit of a Guarantor, such Loan Request shall direct Lender to disburse the proceeds of such Loan to an account of such Guarantor. Each Loan shall be in a minimum amount not less than $500,000 and in increments of $500,000 in excess thereof in the case of a Eurodollar Loan, and in a minimum amount not less than $100,000 and in increments of $100,000 in excess thereof in the case of a Reference Rate Loan or a Fixed Loan.

If the Letter of Credit is for the benefit of a Guarantor, such Letter of Credit Request shall notify the Lender of the identity of such Guarantor. Each such Letter Of Credit Request shall be accompanied by all other documents, instruments, and agreements as the Lender may reasonably request in connection with such request (the "L/C Documents"). The Lender shall issue its Letter Of Credit in accordance with the terms of such notice.

3(c) Evidence of Repayment Obligations.

1. The Loans. The obligation of the Borrower to repay the Loans shall be evidenced by the Note. Upon any advance, conversion or prepayment as provided in this Agreement with respect to any Loan, Lender is hereby authorized to record the date and amount of each such advance and conversion made by Lender, or the date and amount of each such payment or prepayment of principal of the Loan made by Lender, the applicable Interest Period and interest rate with respect thereto, on the schedules annexed to and constituting a part of the Note and any such recordation shall constitute prima facie evidence of the accuracy of the information so recorded absent manifest error. - B. Lender has agreed to do so on the terms and conditions contained in this Amendment.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the above Recitals and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereby agree that, upon the satisfaction of the conditions contained in Paragraph 2 below, the Agreement shall be amended as set forth below:

AGREEMENT

I. Amendments.

I(a) Amendments to Definitions. Paragraph 1 of the Agreement is amended to add, in correct alphabetical order, the definitions of "Applicable Eurolibor Rate," "Euro," "Eurolibor Business Day," "Eurolibor," "Eurolibor Loan," and "United States Dollar Equivalent" and to amend the definitions of "Interest Period" and "Note" to read as follows:

"Applicable Eurolibor Rate" shall mean, with respect to any Interest Period for a Eurolibor Loan, the rate per annum (rounded upward, if necessary to the next higher 1/100th of one percent (0.01%)) equal to (1) the Eurolibor Rate for such Interest Period plus (2) 1.75%.

"Euro" shall mean the lawful currency of the member states of the European Union that adopt the single currency in accordance with the Treaty establishing the European Community, as amended by the Treaty on European Union.

"Eurolibor Business Day" shall mean a Business Day upon which commercial banks in the European Union and Los Angeles, California are open for domestic and international business.

"Eurolibor Rate" shall mean the British Bankers Association ("BBA") rate per annum for deposits in Euros for a period equal to the relevant Interest Period which appears on the relevant page of the Reuter Monitor Money Rates Service (or other service that Lender may, from time to time, use for such purpose in the ordinary course of business) as of 11:00 a.m., London time, on the date that is two Eurolibor Business Days preceding the relevant date.

"Eurolibor Loan" shall mean Loans hereunder at such time as they are made and/or being maintained at a rate of interest based on the Eurolibor Rate.

"Interest Period" shall mean (i) with respect to any Fixed Loan, the period of 30, 60, 90, 120 or 180 days as agreed upon by Lender and the Borrower; (ii) with respect to any Eurodollar Loan, the period commencing on the date advanced and ending one, two, three or six months thereafter; and (iii) with respect to any Eurolibor Loan, the period commencing on the date advanced and ending one, two, three, six or twelve months thereafter, all as designated in the related Loan Request; provided, however, that (1) any Interest Period for Eurodollar Loans or Eurolibor Loans which would otherwise end on a day which is not a Eurodollar Business Day or Eurolibor Business Day, as the case may be, shall be extended to the next succeeding Eurodollar Business Day or Eurolibor Business Day unless, by such extension, it would fall in another calendar month, in which case such Interest Period shall end on the immediately preceding Eurodollar Business Day or Eurolibor Business Day, and (2) any Interest Period applicable to a Eurodollar Business Loan or Eurolibor Business Loan which begins on a day for which there is no numerically corresponding day in any calendar month during which such Interest Period is to end shall, subject to the provisions of clause (1) hereof, end on the last day of such calendar month. No Interest Period shall extend beyond the Maturity Date.

"Note" shall mean the Amended and Restated Promissory Note delivered by the Borrower to Lender in the form attached to the Sixth Amendment to the Original Credit Agreement as Exhibit A, all references therein to the Original Credit Agreement being deemed to be references to this Agreement and all references therein to Dollars or "$" being deemed to include references to Euros.

"United States Dollar Equivalent" shall mean, in the case of Loans denominated in Euros, the United States Dollar equivalent thereof calculated by Lender based on the British Bankers Association ("BBA") spot rate for the purchase of Euros which appears on the relevant page of the Reuter Monitor Money Rates Service (or other service that Lender may, from time to time, use for such purpose in the ordinary course of business) as of 11:00 a.m., London time two Eurolibor Business Days prior to the date of calculation (or at such other time or on such other date as Lender may, from time to time, use for such purpose in the ordinary course of business). The United States Dollar Equivalent of Loans denominated in Euros for all purposes of this Agreement, unless otherwise expressly provided, shall equal the United States Dollar Equivalent thereof as of each date from time to time determined by Lender in its discretion and as of the date such Loan is made, partially repaid, converted to a different interest rate or currency or continued as a Eurolibor Loan. Unless otherwise specified, all amounts specified in this Agreement are stated in United States Dollars and, in the case of Loans denominated in Euros, the United States Dollar Equivalent thereof. On or after the occurrence of an Event of Default or if it becomes illegal or infeasible to maintain Euro denominated Loans, Lender may, in its discretion, convert Loans denominated in Euros into Loans denominated in United States Dollars and, thereafter, such Loans shall bear interest and be repayable as United States Dollar denominated Loans."

I(b) Amendment to Credit Facility Provisions to Add Eurolibor Loans. Paragraph 2(a) of the Agreement is amended to add the following new subparagraph (3) at the end thereof:

"(3) Denomination of Loans. Loans shall be made in United States Dollars unless the Borrower shall request a Loan denominated in Euros pursuant to this Agreement. No Loan denominated in Euros shall be made if, immediately after making such Loan, 115% of the aggregate amount of Loans denominated in Euros outstanding plus all other Loans outstanding would exceed the Credit Limit. Loans denominated in Euros shall be disbursed and repaid to such accounts and locations as Lender the Borrower may from time to time agree or as otherwise specified in this Agreement. Lender shall have no obligation to make or permit Loans to be denominated in Euros if the Bank shall determine that it is unlawful or infeasible for it to maintain such Loans as the result of any change in law, rule, regulation, guideline, order or interpretation thereof."

I(c) Amendment to Credit Provisions Relating to Eurolibor Loans. New Paragraphs 2(l) and 2(m) are added after Paragraph 2(k) and before Paragraph 3(a) to read as follows:

"2(l) Eurolibor Loan Provisions.

"(1) In addition to maintaining Loans as set forth in Paragraph 2(b) above, the Borrower may maintain Loans as Eurolibor Loans as set forth herein. The Borrower shall pay interest on Eurolibor Loans outstanding hereunder from the date disbursed to but not including the date of payment at a rate per annum equal to the Applicable Eurolibor Rate. Interest accruing on Eurolibor Loans shall be payable in arrears (1) in the case of Eurolibor Loans with Interest Periods longer than three months, on the last day of each three month period from the date advanced and (2) in the case of all Eurolibor Loans, on the last day of the Interest Period therefor.

"(2) If, at any time, Lender notifies the Borrower in writing that the aggregate amount of all outstanding Loans denominated in United States Dollars plus 115% of the United States Dollar Equivalent of the aggregate amount of Loans denominated in Euros exceeds the Credit Limit, then the Borrower shall, on demand, repay Loans (as selected by the Borrower) in an amount equal to such excess. Except as otherwise required by this Agreement, the Borrower may not prepay Eurolibor Loans prior to the last day of the Interest Period therefor.

"(3) In addition to electing to have Loans made, continued as, or converted from or to Reference Rate, Fixed Rate or Eurodollar Loans pursuant to Paragraph 2(f) above and Paragraph 3(b)(1) below, the Borrower may elect to have Loans made, continued as, or converted from or to Eurolibor Loans (in minimum denominations of $1,000,000 and whole multiples of $500,000 in excess thereof) by giving the same number of Eurolibor Business Days' notice as the Borrower is required to give with respect to Eurodollar Loans.

"(4) In the event that Lender shall have determined (which determinations shall be conclusive and binding upon the Borrower) that by reason of circumstances affecting the interbank Euro market adequate and reasonable means do not exist for ascertaining the Eurolibor Rate for any Interest Period, Lender shall forthwith give notice to the Borrower. If such notice is given: (1) no Loan may be funded as a Eurolibor Loan, (2) any Loan that was to have been or would be converted to a Eurolibor Loan shall, subject to the provisions hereof, be continued as a Reference Rate Loan, and (3) any outstanding Eurolibor Loans shall be converted, on the last day of the then current Interest Period with respect thereto, to a Reference Rate Loan.

"(5) Notwithstanding any other provisions herein, if any law, regulation, treaty or directive or any change therein or in the interpretation or application thereof, shall make it unlawful for Lender to make or maintain Eurolibor Loans as contemplated by this Agreement: (1) the commitment of Lender hereunder to make or to continue Eurolibor Loans or to convert Loans to Eurolibor Loans shall forthwith be cancelled and (2) Lender's Loans then outstanding as Eurolibor Loans, if any, shall be converted automatically to Reference Rate Loans or, at the request of the Borrower, Fixed Loans or Eurodollar Loans at the end of their respective Interest Periods or within such earlier period as required by law. In the event of a conversion of any such Loan prior to the end of its applicable Interest Period the Borrower hereby agrees promptly to pay Lender upon demand in writing setting forth in reasonable detail the calculation of the amount so demanded, the amounts required pursuant to Paragraph 2(k) below, it being agreed and understood that such conversion shall constitute a prepayment for all purposes hereof. The provisions hereof shall survive the termination of this Agreement and payment of the outstanding Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder.

"(6) In addition to all other payment obligations hereunder, in the event (1) any Loan which is outstanding as a Eurolibor Loan is prepaid prior to the last day of the applicable Interest Period, whether following a voluntary prepayment, a mandatory prepayment or otherwise, or (2) the Borrower shall fail to continue to make a conversion to a Eurolibor Loan after the Borrower has given notice thereof as provided in Paragraph 2(f) above, then the Borrower shall immediately pay to Lender an additional premium sum compensating Lender for actual losses and reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Lender in connection with such prepayment, including, without limitation, those incurred in connection with redeployment of funds all as set forth in a certificate from Lender setting forth in reasonable detail the nature and amount thereof.

"2(m) Foreign Exchange. If, in its sole discretion, Lender agrees to execute one or more foreign exchange, foreign currency option, or similar transactions (collectively, the 'FX Transactions') with the Borrower with an aggregate notional amount not to exceed $35,000,000, the obligations of the Borrower with respect thereto shall constitute 'Obligations' under this Agreement, and the agreements, schedules, supplements, confirmations and other documents and agreements evidencing or relating to such FX Transactions shall constitute 'Loan Documents' under this Agreement."

I(d) Amendment to Scope of Covenants. The words "Guarantor," "Guarantors" and "Guarantor's" in the introduction to Paragraphs 6 and 7, Paragraph 6(f)(4), 6(j), and 7(h)(1) are hereby deleted and replaced with the words "Significant Subsidiary," "Significant Subsidiaries," and "Significant Subsidiary's," respectively.

I(e) Amendment to Insurance Requirements. Paragraph 6(i) is amended to read as follows:

"6(i) Insurance. Obtain and maintain insurance with responsible companies in such amounts and against such risks as are usually carried by corporations engaged in similar businesses similarly situated and furnish Lender on request full information as to all such insurance and obtain loss-payee endorsements thereon in favor of Lender. Such insurance coverage shall include, without limitation, product liability insurance covering all product liability insurance covering all products either (1) with an insurance carrier rated by Best's Rating Service as 'A VIII' or better or, in the case of insurance coverage relating to risks outside of the United States, an equivalent rating from a service similar to Best's Rating Service or (2) with the prior written approval of Lender, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, through self-insurance or a captive insurance company. Lender recognizes that, as of the date of this Agreement, silicone breast implant products are self-insured by the Borrower."

I(f) Amendment to Permitted Liens. Paragraph 7(a)(6) is amended to read as follows:

"(6) Liens on (i) property of Mentor Medical Systems B.V. located in the Netherlands and (ii) property of Porges S.A. and its Subsidiaries securing Funded Debt in an aggregate amount not to exceed $10,000,000 in any fiscal year."

I(g) Amendment to Limitations on Acquisitions. Paragraph 7(d) is amended to renumber subparagraph (2) as subparagraph (3) and to insert a new subparagraph (2) immediately prior thereto to read as follows:

"(2) Investments made by the Borrower in connection with the acquisition of Porges S.A. in fiscal year 2001 in an aggregate amount not in excess of $35,000,000 and, in each fiscal year beginning in fiscal year 2001, in an aggregate amount not in excess of $5,000,000; and"

2. Conditions to Effectiveness of Amendment. As conditions precedent to the effectiveness of this Amendment, (1) the Borrower and Lender shall have duly executed and delivered this Amendment, (2) the Guarantors shall have duly acknowledged this Amendment, and (3) Lender shall have received such board resolutions, incumbency certificates and other additional documentation as it may request in connection herewith.

3. Representations and Warranties of the Borrower. As an inducement to Lender to enter into this Amendment, the Borrower represents and warrants to Lender that:

3(a) No Change. Since the date of the financial statements most recently delivered to Lender pursuant to the Agreement, there has been no material adverse change in the business, operations, assets or financial or other condition of the Borrower or the Borrower and the Guarantors taken as a whole or the Borrower and its consolidated Subsidiaries taken as a whole. Since such date, the Borrower has not entered into, incurred or assumed any long-term debt, mortgages, material leases or material oral or written commitments not disclosed to Lender prior to the date of this Amendment.

3(b) Corporate Existence; Compliance with Law. The Borrower and each Guarantor (1) is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing as a corporation under the laws of the state of its incorporation and is qualified to do business in each jurisdiction where its ownership of property or conduct of business requires such qualification and where failure to qualify would have a material adverse effect on it or its property and/or business or on the ability of the Borrower to pay or perform the Obligations, (2) has the corporate power and authority and the legal right to own and operate its property and to conduct business in the manner in which it does and proposes so to do, and (3) is in compliance in all material respects with all Requirements Of Law and Contractual Obligations.

3(c) Corporate Power; Authorization; Enforceable Obligations. The Borrower and each Guarantor has the corporate power and authority and the legal right to execute, deliver and perform this Amendment, as amended hereby, to which it is a party and has taken all necessary corporate action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Amendment and the Loan Documents. This Amendment has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of the Borrower and each Guarantor and constitutes legal, valid and binding obligations of the Borrower and each Guarantor enforceable against the Borrower and each Guarantor in accordance with its terms, subject to the effect of applicable bankruptcy and other similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally and the effect of equitable principles whether applied in an action at law or a suit in equity.

3(d) No Legal Bar. The execution, delivery and performance of this Amendment will not violate any Requirement Of Law or any Contractual Obligations of the Borrower or create or result in the creation of any Lien on any assets of the Borrower or any Guarantor.

4. Miscellaneous Provisions.

4(a) Entire Agreement. This Amendment and the documents and agreements referred to herein embody the entire agreement and understanding between the parties hereto and supersede all prior agreements and understandings relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof.

4(b) Survival. All representations, warranties, covenants and agreements herein contained on the part of the Borrower shall survive the termination of this Amendment and the Agreement and shall be effective until the Obligations are paid and performed in full or longer as expressly provided herein.

4(c) Governing Law. This Amendment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without giving effect to choice of law rules.

4(d) Counterparts. This Amendment may be executed in any number of counterparts, all of which together shall constitute one agreement.

4(e) Expenses. In accordance with Paragraph 6(g) of the Agreement, the Borrower agrees to pay to Lender, on demand, all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including fees and disbursements of counsel, including reasonable allocated cost of inside counsel) of Lender incident to the preparation, negotiation, and closing of this Amendment.

"2(a) Credit Limit.

"(1) Revolving Loans. On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, Lender agrees that it shall from time to time to and including the Loan Maturity Date (as such term and capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein are defined in Paragraph 1 above) make revolving Loans (the 'Loans' or a 'Loan') to the Borrower denominated in United States Dollars or Euros in an aggregate amount not in excess of the amount specified in Paragraph 2(a)(3) below.

"(2) Letters of Credit. On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, Lender agrees to issue for the account of the Borrower from time to time from the date hereof to and including the 30th day immediately preceding the Loan Maturity Date, its Letters Of Credit (a 'Letter Of Credit' and, collectively, the 'Letters Of Credit') denominated in United States Dollars, Euros or Yen in an aggregate amount not in excess of the amounts specified in this Paragraph 2(a)(2) and in Paragraph 2(a)(3) below. The aggregate face amount of Outstanding Letters of Credit denominated in United States Dollars plus 115% of the United States Dollar Equivalent of the aggregate face amount of Outstanding Letters of Credit denominated in Euros and Yen shall at no time exceed the L/C Sublimit. No commercial Letter Of Credit shall expire more than one year from the date of its issuance. No Letter Of Credit may have an expiration date later than thirty (30) days prior to the Loan Maturity Date. Letters of Credit may be commercial letters of credit or stand-by letters of credit.

"(3) Credit Limits and Denomination of Loans and Letters of Credit. Loans and Letters Of Credit shall be denominated in United States Dollars unless the Borrower requests a Loan or Letter Of Credit denominated in Euros or a Letter of Credit denominated in Yen pursuant to this Agreement. No Loan may be requested in Yen. No Loan or Letter Of Credit shall be made or issued if, immediately after making such Loan or issuance of such Letter Of Credit, 115% of the United States Dollar Equivalent of the aggregate principal amount of Loans and face amount of Outstanding Letters Of Credit not denominated in United States Dollars plus the principal amount of all other Loans and the face amount of all other Outstanding Letters Of Credit would exceed the Credit Limit. Loans and L/C Drawings not denominated in United States Dollars shall be disbursed or paid and repaid or reimbursed to such accounts and locations as Lender notifies the Borrower from time to time in writing. Lender shall have no obligation to make or permit Loans or Letters Of Credit to be denominated in a currency other than United States Dollars if the Bank shall determine that it is unlawful or infeasible for it to maintain any such Loans or Letters Of Credit as a result of any change in law, rule, regulation, guideline, order or interpretation thereof."

I(c) Amendment to Credit Facility Provisions Relating to Foreign Currencies. Paragraph 2(l) is amended to read as follows:

"2(l) Foreign Currency Provisions.

"(1) Loans denominated in United States Dollars shall bear interest and be maintained as described in Paragraph 2(b) above. Loans denominated in Euros shall bear interest as Eurolibor Loans as set forth in this Paragraph 2(1). The Borrower shall pay interest on Eurolibor Loans outstanding hereunder from the date disbursed to but not including the date of payment at a rate per annum equal to the Applicable Eurolibor Rate. Interest accruing on Eurolibor Loans shall be payable in arrears (1) in the case of Eurolibor Loans with Interest Periods longer than three months, on the last day of each three month period from the date advanced and (2) in the case of all Eurolibor Loans, on the last day of the Interest Period therefor.

"(2) If, at any time, Lender notifies the Borrower in writing that the aggregate amount of all outstanding Loans and the face amount of Outstanding Letters of Credit denominated in United States Dollars plus 115% of the United States Dollar Equivalent of the aggregate amount of Loans and the face amount of Outstanding Letters of Credit not denominated in United States Dollars exceeds the Credit Limit (such excess amount being the 'Credit Limit Overage'), then the Borrower shall, on demand, repay Loans (as selected by the Borrower) and, if outstanding Loans are not at least equal to the Credit Limit Overage, deliver to Lender United States Dollar denominated cash collateral (in which the Borrower hereby grants to Lender a first priority perfected security interest) for Outstanding Letters of Credit in an aggregate amount not less than the Credit Limit Overage. If, at any time, Lender notifies the Borrower in writing that the face amount of Outstanding Letters of Credit denominated in United States Dollars plus 115% of the United States Dollar Equivalent of the aggregate amount of Outstanding Letters of Credit not denominated in United States Dollars exceeds the L/C Sublimit (such excess being the 'L/C Sublimit Overage'), then the Borrower shall, on demand, deliver to Lender United States Dollar denominated cash collateral (in which the Borrower hereby grants to Lender a first priority perfected security interest) for Outstanding Letters of Credit in an aggregate amount not less than the L/C Sublimit Overage. In the event of a prepayment of any such Eurolibor Loan pursuant to this paragraph prior to the end of its applicable Interest Period, the Borrower hereby agrees promptly to pay Lender upon demand in writing setting forth in reasonable detail the calculation of the amount so demanded, the amounts required pursuant to Paragraph 2(1)(6) below. Except as may be required by this Agreement, the Borrower may not prepay Eurolibor Loans prior to the last day of the Interest Period therefor.

"(3) In addition to electing to have Loans made, continued as, or converted from or to Reference Rate, Fixed Rate or Eurodollar Loans pursuant to Paragraph 2(f) above and Paragraph 3(b)(1) below, the Borrower may elect to have Loans made, continued as, or converted from or to Eurolibor Loans (in minimum denominations of $1,000,000 and whole multiples of $500,000 in excess thereof) by giving the same number of Eurolibor Business Days' notice as the Borrower is required to give with respect to Eurodollar Loans.

"(4) In the event that Lender shall have determined (which determinations shall be conclusive and binding upon the Borrower) that by reason of circumstances affecting the interbank Euro market adequate and reasonable means do not exist for ascertaining the Eurolibor Rate for any Interest Period, Lender shall forthwith give notice to the Borrower. If such notice is given: (1) no Loan may be funded as a Eurolibor Loan, (2) any Loan that was to have been or would be converted to a Eurolibor Loan shall, subject to the provisions hereof, be continued as a Reference Rate Loan, and (3) any outstanding Eurolibor Loans shall be converted, on the last day of the then current Interest Period with respect thereto, to a Reference Rate Loan.

"(5) Notwithstanding any other provisions herein, if any law, regulation, treaty or directive or any change therein or in the interpretation or application thereof, shall make it unlawful for Lender to make or maintain Eurolibor Loans or Letters Of Credit denominated in Euros or Yen as contemplated by this Agreement: (1) the commitment of Lender hereunder to make or to continue Eurolibor Loans or to convert Loans to Eurolibor Loans or to issue Letters Of Credit denominated in Euros or Yen, as the case may be, shall forthwith be cancelled, (2) in the case of such an illegality applying to Loans,

Lender's Loans then outstanding as Eurolibor Loans, if any, shall be converted automatically to Reference Rate Loans or, at the request of the Borrower, Fixed Loans or Eurodollar Loans at the end of their respective Interest Periods or within such earlier period as required by law, and (3) in the case of such an illegality applying to Letters Of Credit not denominated in United States Dollars, the Borrower shall on demand deliver United States Dollar denominated cash collateral to Lender (and hereby grants to Lender a first priority perfected security therein) in an amount equal to 115% of the face amount of such Outstanding Letters Of Credit. In the event of a conversion of any such Eurolibor Loan prior to the end of its applicable Interest Period, the Borrower hereby agrees promptly to pay Lender upon demand in writing setting forth in reasonable detail the calculation of the amount so demanded, the amounts required pursuant to Paragraph 2(1)(6) below, it being agreed and understood that such conversion shall constitute a prepayment for all purposes hereof. The provisions hereof shall survive the termination of this Agreement and payment of the outstanding Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder.

"(6) In addition to all other payment obligations hereunder, in the event (1) any Loan which is outstanding as a Eurolibor Loan is prepaid prior to the last day of the applicable Interest Period, whether following a voluntary prepayment, a mandatory prepayment or otherwise, or (2) the Borrower shall fail to continue to make a conversion to a Eurolibor Loan after the Borrower has given notice thereof as provided in Paragraph 2(f) above, then the Borrower shall immediately pay to Lender an additional premium sum compensating Lender for actual losses and reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Lender in connection with such prepayment, including, without limitation, those incurred in connection with redeployment of funds all as set forth in a certificate from Lender setting forth in reasonable detail the nature and amount thereof."

I(d) Fees. Paragraph 3(h)(2) is amended to read as follows:

"(2) Letter Of Credit Fees. On or prior to the issuance of each commercial Letter Of Credit, the Borrower shall pay to Lender a Letter Of Credit fee equal to such amount as may be required by Lender in accordance with its standard fee structure for such Letters Of Credit. The Borrower shall pay to Lender on or prior to the date of issuance of each standby Letter of Credit and, so long as such Letter of Credit is outstanding, on the first day of each January, April, July and October (each a 'Quarterly Date') a non-refundable commission calculated at the per annum rate of 0.75% on the face amount of such Letter Of Credit for the period from and including the date of payment through, but not including, the following Quarterly Date. Such commission payable on a standby letter of credit shall be calculated for the full period described in the preceding sentence regardless whether such Letter of Credit shall terminate (whether in accordance with its terms or otherwise) prior to the end of the period for which the commission is calculated."

I(e) Remedies. The last paragraph in Paragraph 8 is amended to read as follows:

"THEN, automatically upon the occurrence an Event of Default under Paragraph 8(f) above and at the option of Lender upon the occurrence in any other Event of Default,

"(1) Lender's obligation to make Loans or to issue Letters of Credit shall terminate;

"(2) The principal balance of outstanding Loans, interest accrued but unpaid thereon, the aggregate contingent obligation of the Borrower to reimburse Lender for future L/C Drawings, and all other Obligations under this Agreement shall become immediately due and payable, without demand upon or presentment to the Borrower, which are expressly waived by the Borrower;

"(3) The Borrower shall pay to Lender United States Dollar denominated cash (to be held as cash collateral and in which the Borrower hereby grants to Lender a first priority perfected security interest) in an amount equal to the face amount of Outstanding Letters of Credit denominated in United States Dollars and 115% of the United States Dollar Equivalent of the face amount of Outstanding Letters Of Credit not denominated in United States Dollars; and

"(4) Lender may immediately exercise all rights, powers and remedies available to them, or it, at law, in equity or otherwise."

2. Conditions to Effectiveness of Amendment. As conditions precedent to the effectiveness of this Amendment, (1) the Borrower and Lender shall have duly executed and delivered this Amendment, (2) the Guarantors shall have duly acknowledged this Amendment, and (3) Lender shall have received such board resolutions, incumbency certificates and other additional documentation as it may request in connection herewith.

3. Representations and Warranties of the Borrower. As an inducement to Lender to enter into this Amendment, the Borrower represents and warrants to Lender that:

3(a) No Change. Since the date of the financial statements most recently delivered to Lender pursuant to the Agreement, there has been no material adverse change in the business, operations, assets or financial or other condition of the Borrower or the Borrower and the Guarantors taken as a whole or the Borrower and its consolidated Subsidiaries taken as a whole. Since such date, the Borrower has not entered into, incurred or assumed any long-term debt, mortgages, material leases or material oral or written commitments not disclosed to Lender prior to the date of this Amendment.

3(b) Corporate Existence; Compliance with Law. The Borrower and each Guarantor (1) is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing as a corporation under the laws of the state of its incorporation and is qualified to do business in each jurisdiction where its ownership of property or conduct of business requires such qualification and where failure to qualify would have a material adverse effect on it or its property and/or business or on the ability of the Borrower to pay or perform the Obligations, (2) has the corporate power and authority and the legal right to own and operate its property and to conduct business in the manner in which it does and proposes so to do, and (3) is in compliance in all material respects with all Requirements Of Law and Contractual Obligations.

3(c) Corporate Power; Authorization; Enforceable Obligations. The Borrower and each Guarantor has the corporate power and authority and the legal right to execute, deliver and perform this Amendment, as amended hereby, to which it is a party and has taken all necessary corporate action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Amendment and the Loan Documents. This Amendment has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of the Borrower and each Guarantor and constitutes legal, valid and binding obligations of the Borrower and each Guarantor enforceable against the Borrower and each Guarantor in accordance with its terms, subject to the effect of applicable bankruptcy and other similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally and the effect of equitable principles whether applied in an action at law or a suit in equity.

3(d) No Legal Bar. The execution, delivery and performance of this Amendment will not violate any Requirement Of Law or any Contractual Obligations of the Borrower or create or result in the creation of any Lien on any assets of the Borrower or any Guarantor.

4. Miscellaneous Provisions.

4(a) Entire Agreement. This Amendment and the documents and agreements referred to herein embody the entire agreement and understanding between the parties hereto and supersede all prior agreements and understandings relating to the subject matter hereof and thereof.

4(b) Survival. All representations, warranties, covenants and agreements herein contained on the part of the Borrower shall survive the termination of this Amendment and the Agreement and shall be effective until the Obligations are paid and performed in full or longer as expressly provided herein.

4(c) Governing Law. This Amendment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without giving effect to choice of law rules.

4(d) Counterparts. This Amendment may be executed in any number of counterparts, all of which together shall constitute one agreement.

4(e) Expenses. In accordance with Paragraph 6(g) of the Agreement, the Borrower agrees to pay to Lender, on demand, all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including fees and disbursements of counsel, including reasonable allocated cost of inside counsel) of Lender incident to the preparation, negotiation, and closing of this Amendment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed as of the day and year first above written.
