Item 5. Other Events

On November 4, 2002, Meredith Corporation announced an agreement to acquire American Baby magazine and related assets from Primedia Inc. for $115 million. American Baby magazine, which was launched in 1938, is currently published monthly and has a circulation of 2 million. Other American Baby group properties being acquired include:

-- Childbirth

magazine, which reaches 2.3 million expectant mothers annually

- First Year of Life

magazine, which reaches 3 million parents annually
- Hispanic titles, including Expera, Primeros 12 Meses, and Health Kids en Espanol, and marketing programs, which reach 3 million consumers annually
- Television programs, American Baby and Healthy Kids, which currently reach 60 million households on the FX television network
- Web sites, americanbaby.com and healthykids.com, which deliver 2.7 million page views and approximately 700,000 unique visitors each month
- Baby Faire expos and product shows, which have attracted more than 100,000 attendees annually
- Sampling programs that reach nearly 10 million expectant and new parents annually
- Custom publications for clients including Proctor & Gamble, Fisher Price and Mead Johnson

The purchase price of $115 million represents a multiple of approximately 10 times the American Baby group's projected 12-month earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization. Meredith expects the transaction to be accretive to earnings per share in fiscal 2003 and subsequent years.
