ITEM 7.01. REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE.

Effective January 1, 2019, Bank of America Corporation (the “Corporation”) made certain financial reporting changes and reclassifications. These changes and reclassifications were adopted on a retrospective basis. The changes and reclassifications reflect changes to both the format of the Consolidated Statement of Income and segment allocations. Highlights of the financial reporting changes and reclassifications include:

Format-driven changes:

The net interest income and noninterest income sections are presented in fewer line items; the level of detail as historically presented will continue to be included in the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

The noninterest expense section has been updated to enhance its functional alignment, including changes to certain of the captions.

Segment allocation and other changes:

Interest expense on structured notes has been reclassified from interest expense to trading account income, consistent with how other changes in the fair value of these instruments are recognized. Further, certain other immaterial reclassifications have been made.

The methodologies used for allocating funding costs, credits and expenses related to asset and liability management activities have been further refined, certain financing costs have been reattributed from All Other to Global Wealth & Investment Management and the methodology for allocating certain payroll taxes has been further refined.

Management believes these reporting changes result in a more relevant presentation of the Corporation’s consolidated and business segment results.

Financial information for all prior periods presented herein has been updated to reflect the changes and reclassifications. The Corporation’s consolidated net income as reported for all prior periods in its 2018 Annual Report on Form 10-K is unchanged.

The information in this Form 8-K is being furnished to assist investors in understanding how the Corporation’s results would have been presented in previously filed reports had such financial statements been reported consistent with the changes and reclassifications.

The Revised Supplemental Information to Reflect Certain Financial Reporting Changes, including the Consolidated Statements of Income, Average Balances and Interest Rates schedules, and segment financial information for 2018, 2017 and 2016, and the quarterly periods in 2018 and 2017; and certain other financial information is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1. This Revised Supplemental Information to Reflect Certain Financial Reporting Changes is being furnished pursuant to Item 7.01, and shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, nor shall the Revised Supplemental Information be deemed incorporated by reference into any filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

ITEM 9.01. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND EXHIBITS.
