Item 8.01. Other Events

As previously disclosed, in August 2008 a stockholder derivative suit was filed against Applied Signal, Inc. (the "Company") itself, as a nominal defendant, and several of the Company's current and former directors and officers in the Santa Clara County (California) Superior Court (the "Court"), Case No. 108 CV 119810 (the "Derivative Action").

The plaintiff in the Derivative Action alleges that certain of the Company's current or former management breached fiduciary duties to the company and violated certain laws by causing the Company to issue false and misleading financial statements, failed to maintain appropriate internal controls, and utilized material non-public information for personal benefit, and that as a result those officers and directors are liable to the Company.

On April 14, 2010, certain parties to the Derivative Action, including the plaintiff, executed a Stipulation of Settlement (the “Stipulation”), and such document was filed with the Court. On May 13, 2010, the Court entered an order preliminarily approving the proposed settlement and setting forth a process and scheduling a hearing for consideration of final approval of the proposed settlement (the “Preliminary Order”). The hearing for final approval is presently scheduled for at July 9, 2010 at 9:00 a.m. in Courtroom 8C (191 North First St., San Jose California) before the Hon. Joseph H. Huber, to determine: (1) whether the terms of the Settlement should be approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate; and (2) whether the Derivative Action should be dismissed on the merits and with prejudice.

Pursuant to the Preliminary Order, the Company is filing this Form 8-K with the Stipulation of Settlement attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and the Notice of Proposed Settlement of Shareholder Derivative Action and Hearing Thereon attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2.

The proposed settlement remains subject to final approval of the Court.

ROBERT J. RICHARDSON, GARY L. YANCEY, JAMES E.
DOYLE and STUART G. WHITTEELSEY,

Defendants,

and

APPLIED SIGNAL TECHNOLOGY, INC.,

Nominal Defendant.

This Stipulation of Settlement,¹ dated April 14, 2010 (“Stipulation”), is made and entered into by and among the following Settling Parties, each by and through their respective counsel: (i) Plaintiff, Howard C. Shoemaker, on behalf of himself and derivatively on behalf of nominal defendant Applied Signal Technology, Inc. (“Applied Signal” or the “Company”); (ii) Applied Signal; and (iii) the Individual Defendants. The Stipulation is intended by the Settling Parties to fully, finally and forever resolve, discharge and settle the Released Claims, upon and subject to the terms and conditions hereof.

I. INTRODUCTION

On August 12, 2008, Plaintiff, through his counsel Barroway Topaz Kessler Meltzer & Check, LLP, commenced this action against the Individual Defendants and on behalf of nominal defendant Applied Signal by filing the Verified Shareholder Derivative Complaint (the "Complaint"). In the Complaint, Plaintiff alleged that the Individual Defendants breached their fiduciary duties to the Company by knowingly issuing materially false and misleading financial statements that failed to disclose stop-work orders that the Company had received, and the stop work orders' effect on the Company's reported financial statements.

In addition to the Action, a securities class action (the "Class Action") captioned In re Applied Signal Technology, Inc. Securities Litigation, No. C 05-1027 (SBA) was pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, Oakland Division, and alleged that Applied Signal and certain of its executive officers misrepresented certain information regarding Applied Signal's financial performance and its systems of internal controls. Class Action Defendants' Motion to Dismiss the Class Action complaint was granted on February 28, 2006. Class Action Plaintiffs appealed the decision granting Class Action Defendants' Motion to Dismiss the Complaint in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. On June 5, 2008, the court issued a decision reversing the Northern District of California's Order granting Class Action Defendants' Motion to Dismiss the Complaint finding that the Class Action Plaintiffs had plead with sufficient particularity a strong inference of fraudulent intent as required by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act.

Applied Signal and Individual Defendants separately filed demurrers to the Complaint on October 10, 2008. Applied Signal asserted that Plaintiff's Complaint failed to properly allege demand futility and to properly state a cause of action. Similarly, Individual Defendants asserted that Plaintiff's Complaint failed to properly state a cause of action. On November 14, 2008, Plaintiff filed separately his memoranda of points and authorities in opposition to Defendants' demurrers, to which Applied Signal and Individual Defendants separately filed reply memoranda on December 5, 2008.

On January 8, 2009, Plaintiff served upon Defendants' counsel Plaintiff's First Request for Production of Documents.

On January 9, 2009, the Court heard oral argument on Defendants' demurrers to Plaintiff's Complaint. Also on January 9, 2009, the Court issued a written opinion pursuant to which it sustained Defendants' demurrers to the Complaint, but granted Plaintiff 20 days leave to file an amended complaint.

On January 27, 2009, the Settling Parties submitted to the Court a Stipulation and (Proposed) Order Extending Time to File Amended Complaint in order to permit the Settling Parties an opportunity to participate in a mediation session, in connection with the Class Action, on January 30, 2009 in an effort to amicably resolve both actions. The Court entered the proposed stipulation as an Order on January 28, 2009.

On January 30, 2009, the Settling Parties attended a mediation session in New York, New York before Hon. Daniel Weinstein (Ret.). Although the Settling Parties did not resolve the Action at the mediation, the Settling Parties agreed to resume settlement discussions and all parties continued to work collaboratively to resolve the Action and Class Action.

On February 17, 2009, Defendants served upon Plaintiff's Counsel Defendants' Response to Plaintiff's First Request for Production of Documents. Defendants did not produce any documents at this time.

During the week of March 16, 2009, counsel for the Settling Parties engaged in discussions concerning documents and other materials that Defendants would produce to Plaintiff in furtherance of the Settling Parties ongoing settlement negotiations. On April 9, 2009, Defendants' counsel produced to Plaintiff's Counsel certain Applied Signal corporate governance documents and other materials.

On March 26, 2009, the parties to the Class Action entered into a Stipulation of Settlement of the Class Action. The settlement of the Class Action received preliminary approval from the Federal Court on May 22, 2009 and received final approval on July 28, 2009.

In the meantime, the Settling Parties continued to engage in protracted good faith, arm's-length negotiations concerning a possible resolution of the Action. These negotiations included the exchange of multiple proposals regarding the implementation of possible corporate governance measures and numerous discussions regarding the subject. The parties continued to engage in further arm's-length negotiations, eventually resulting in this Stipulation of Settlement, along with the related settlement papers.

II. PLAINTIFF'S RESEARCH AND INVESTIGATION

Plaintiff states that he, through Plaintiff's Counsel, conducted an extensive investigation during the development and prosecution of the Action. Plaintiff further states that this investigation included, inter alia, (1) inspecting, reviewing and analyzing the Company's financial filings and other documents produced to Plaintiff's Counsel; (2) researching corporate governance issues; (3) participating in numerous in-person and telephonic meetings with Defendants' Counsel; and (4) researching the applicable law with respect to the claims asserted in the Complaint and the potential defenses thereto.

III. PLAINTIFF'S POSITION REGARDING SETTLEMENT

Plaintiff believes that the claims asserted in the Action have merit and that his Counsel's investigation supports the claims asserted. However, Plaintiff recognizes and acknowledges the expense and length of continued proceedings necessary to prosecute the Action against Defendants through trial and appeals. Plaintiff has also taken into account the uncertain outcome and the risk of any litigation, especially in complex shareholder litigation such as the Action, as well as the difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation. Plaintiff's Counsel are also mindful of the inherent problems of proof under, and possible defenses to, the violations asserted in the Action. Based on these considerations, among others, Plaintiff believes that the Settlement confers substantial benefits upon Applied Signal and Applied Signal Stockholders and is in the best interests of Applied Signal and Applied Signal Stockholders.

IV. DEFENDANTS' DENIAL OF LIABILITY

Defendants have denied and continue to deny each and all of the claims alleged by Plaintiff in the Action. Nonetheless, Defendants have concluded that further litigation of the Action would be protracted and expensive and that it is desirable that the Action be fully and finally settled in the manner and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Stipulation. Defendants are entering into this Stipulation solely because the proposed Settlement would eliminate the burden and expense of further litigation, and without admitting any liability whatsoever.
