The First Completes Purchase of Two Maine Banking Facilities

On Friday, October 26, 2012, The First, N.A. completed the purchase of a bank branch at 63 Union Street in Rockland, Maine. Deposit accounts totaling $32.3 million as well as a small volume of loans were included in the transaction. In addition, The First, N.A. completed the purchase of a bank building located at 145 Exchange Street in Bangor, Maine. The First N.A. is the operating subsidiary of The First Bancorp, Inc.

The 63 Union Street branch in Rockland was previously operated by Bank of America and was purchased from Camden National Bank. It is one of 15 Maine branches Camden National Bank acquired from Bank of America and was divested to resolve competitive concerns in that market raised by the U.S. Department of Justice's Antitrust Division. In Bangor, the 145 Exchange Street building was purchased from Camden National Bank. The First intends to open a full-service banking center in this location in the first quarter of 2013.

The total value of the transaction is approximately $6.7 million, which includes the premises and equipment for the two locations plus the premium paid for the Rockland deposits.
