Explanation of Responses:

* If the form is filed by more than one reporting person, see Instruction 5(b)(v).

 Intentional misstatements or omissions of facts constitute Federal Criminal Violations. See 18 U.S.C. 1001 and 15 U.S.C. 78ff(a).

(1) The Series E Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 (the "Series E Stock"), is convertible at the discretion of the reporting person at any time. The Series E Stock will automatically convert into the issuer's Common Stock upon the closing of an initial public offering of the issuer's Common Stock that meets criteria specified in the terms and conditions of the Series E Stock.

(2) The reporting person owns 2,000,000 shares of Series E Stock. These shares are convertible into 8,750,000 shares of the issuer's Common Stock, par value $0.001, without the payment of additional consideration, based on a liquidation value of $17.50 per share of Series E Stock and a current conversion price of $4.00 for each share of Common Stock into which the Series E Stock converts. Pursuant to the terms of the Series E Stock, this conversion price could change based on actions taken by the issuer relating to the issuance of additional equity securities, and if this were to occur the number of shares into which the Series E Stock is convertible would change. Also, the number of shares of Common Stock into which the Series E Stock is convertible, and the price at which the Series E Stock would convert into Common Stock, is subject to adjustment to reflect changes in the issuer's capital stock such as stock splits, reverse stock splits, stock dividends, and similar events.

(3) These stock options are fully vested and exercisable.

(4) These stock options were issued by the issuer to an executive officer of the reporting person as compensation for the executive officer's service on the issuer's board of directors and committees thereof. The reporting person's executive officer previously served in such capacities as a nominee of the reporting person, although he is no longer a member of the issuer's board of directors or any committees thereof. These stock options are not transferable to the reporting person, but the executive officer and the reporting person have an understanding that if any economic benefit were to be realized from the exercise of these stock options, then that benefit would be transferred to the reporting person.

Note: File three copies of this Form, one of which must be manually signed. If space is insufficient, See Instruction 6 for procedure.

Potential persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB number.
