ITEM 5. OTHER EVENT

Despite being under no formal disclosure obligations, today in tribute Flanders Corporation announced with regret the unexpected passing of its Director and Audit Committee Chairman Andrew Stallman. Mr. Stallman died of natural causes while he was traveling internationally. Mr. Stallman had served on the Flanders Board of Directors and as Audit Committee Chair since 2001. Flanders Corporation expressed its deepest sympathies to Mr. Stallman's family, friends, and business associates. Robert Amerson, Chairman, commented: Flanders has recently suffered the loss of a distinguished member of our Corporation and his presence will be sorely missed. Our hearts go out all those who had the good fortune of crossing paths with Andrew.

To fill the recent vacancy, Flanders Corporation announced today that Mr. David M. Mock has been duly appointed by a unanimous decision of the Flanders Board of Directors to serve as an outside Director and as an Audit Committee member until elections are held at the Annual Meeting of the Shareholders. Mr. Mock is a General Partner with GMG Capital Partners, a New York-based investment firm which he co-founded in 1997. He is currently Chairman of the Board of Captus Networks as well as serving as a Director or Officer to several other companies including Alloptic, Inc., Forum Systems, and Connecting Point, Inc. Mr. Mock holds an Accounting degree from the University of Utah (1976). The Flanders Board voiced its optimism for the experience and fresh perspective that David M. Mock can contribute for the benefit of the Corporation.

Flanders is a leading air filtration products manufacturer. Flanders' products are utilized by many industries, including those associated with commercial and residential heating, ventilation and air conditioning systems, semiconductor manufacturing, ultra-pure materials, biotechnology, pharmaceuticals, synthetics, nuclear power and nuclear materials processing.
