Item Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

1.01

On June 16, 2008, Regal Beloit Corporation (the “Company”) entered into a Term Loan Agreement among the Company, the financial institutions party thereto, U.S. Bank, National Association and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., as co-documentation agents, Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as syndication agent (the “Term Loan Agreement”). The Term Loan Agreement is available for general corporate purposes.

Pursuant to the Term Loan Agreement, the Company borrowed an aggregate principal amount of $165 million on June 16, 2008, which is the initial maximum aggregate amount of availability under the term loan facility. The Term Loan Agreement provides that the Company can seek to increase the maximum aggregate amount of availability under the term loan facility by $75 million, subject to certain conditions, including the identification of lenders (which may include existing lenders or new lenders) willing to provide the additional commitments.

The Company may repay amounts under the Term Loan Agreement from time to time until the maturity of the term loan in June 2013, at which time all amounts outstanding under the term loan facility will become due and payable. Voluntary prepayments under the Term Loan Agreement are permitted at any time without penalty upon proper notice.

The term loan will be guaranteed by certain domestic subsidiaries of the Company. All borrowings under the Term Loan Agreement are unsecured.

Borrowings under the Term Loan Agreement generally bear interest at a variable rate equal to (i) LIBOR plus a specified margin (which may range from .75% to 1.50%), which may be adjusted upward or downward depending on whether certain criteria are satisfied, or (ii) the alternate base rate (which is the higher of the Bank of America, N.A. prime rate or the federal funds rate plus .50%).

The Term Loan Agreement contains various restrictions and covenants, including requirements that the Company maintain certain financial ratios at prescribed levels and restrictions on the ability of the Company and certain of its subsidiaries to consolidate or merge, create liens, incur additional indebtedness or dispose of assets. The Term Loan Agreement requires maintenance on a rolling four quarter basis of a maximum leverage ratio (as defined) of 3.75x and a minimum interest coverage ratio (as defined) of 3.00x, in each case tested as of the last day of each fiscal quarter. The Term Loan Agreement does not contain a restriction specifically limiting the Company’s ability to pay dividends on its common stock.

The Term Loan Agreement also contains customary events of default. If an event of default under the Term Loan Agreement occurs and is continuing, the lenders may increase the interest rate on all obligations under the Term Loan Agreement to 2.00% per annum above the otherwise applicable rate and the lenders may declare any outstanding obligations under the Term Loan Agreement to be immediately due and payable. In addition, if the Company becomes the subject of voluntary or involuntary proceedings under any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law or certain other events occur that evidence any such company’s insolvency, then any outstanding obligations under the Term Loan Agreement will be immediately due and payable.

The description of the Term Loan Agreement set forth above is qualified by reference to the Term Loan Agreement filed herewith as Exhibit 4.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
