A description of Mr. Covington’s compensation arrangement with Farmer Mac is set forth under Item 5.02(e) of this Current Report on Form 8-K.

On January 13, 2015, Farmer Mac issued a press release to announce the appointment of Mr. Covington as Senior Vice President – Agricultural Finance of Farmer Mac. The grant price for Mr. Covington's 4,000 SARs will be the closing price of a Share on the New York Stock Exchange on his first day of employment. The 4,000 SARs will all "cliff" vest three years from Mr. Covington's first day of employment and will expire ten years from Mr. Covington's first day of employment. Mr. Covington will also be considered for grants of equity-based, long-term incentive compensation in April 2015 at the same time that those grants are considered for Farmer Mac's other executive officers.
