Press Release

Cleveland Golf/Srixon Chooses Magic Software's iBOLT Integration Suite

Magic Software's iBOLT Provides Business Process Integration Between Shopatron eCommerce Systems and Oracle JD Edwards ERP Systems Running on IBM Power7 Systems for IBM i

Or-Yehuda, Israel, January 27, 2011 Magic Software Enterprises (NASDAQ:MGIC), a global provider of cloud and on-premise application platforms and business integration solutions, today announced an agreement with Cleveland® Golf/Srixon®, a manufacturer of PGA tour proven golf equipment, to provide information technology system integration between Cleveland® Golf's eCommerce and Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) systems.

Cleveland® Golf/Srixon®, of Huntington Beach, California, a subsidiary of SRI Sports, Ltd. of Japan, a Sumitomo Company, chose Magic Software's iBOLT Integration Suite to orchestrate business processes and provide needed integration between Shopatron eCommerce and Oracle JD Edwards World ERP software. Magic Software's data transformation, messaging and routing capabilities for IBM Power7 Systems running IBM i were also key to Cleveland® Golf's decision.

"We needed a better way to automate the integration between our distribution system and our electronic commerce systems supporting the online market," said Charles Chamberlain, Director of Information Technology at Cleveland® Golf. "Magic Software gives us the ability to integrate, interface and deliver information needed by our employees, management and customers by providing a stable interface platform."

"Now that Cleveland® Golf/Srixon® has the infrastructure in place to automate business processes, Magic Software is eager to assist them with the implementation of integration projects through the offering of technical support and services," said Regev Yativ, CEO of Magic Software Enterprises Americas. "We look forward to a long and fruitful business relationship with this highly respected leader in the innovation of new golf products and technologies."
