TASEKO RE-EVALUATING bcMETALS SITUATION

November 10, 2006, Vancouver, BC - On November 2, 2006 Taseko Mines Limited ("Taseko" or the "Company") (TSX:TKO; AMEX:TGB) announced its intention to make a take-over bid for bcMetals Corporation ("bcMetals") (TSXV:C), subject to various conditions. On November 3, 2006 Imperial Metals Corporation ("Imperial") advised that it had taken up all shares tendered to its offer and held 6,891,694 shares of bcMetals (18.09%). On November 6, 2006 bcMetals announced that it had filed an application to the British Columbia Securities Commission ("BCSC") for an order restraining Imperial from taking up and paying for the shares of bcMetals deposited under the Imperial offer. On November 7, 2006 Imperial reported that it had filed an application with the BCSC to issue a permanent order to cease trade any securities that may be issued under bcMetals' shareholder rights plan dated October 19, 2006. In the same press release, Imperial stated that the BCSC will hear Imperial's application on Friday, November 10, 2006 together with the application filed by bcMetals in connection with the take-up of bcMetals shares by Imperial. In light of uncertainties resulting from this situation as it relates to the conditions cited in Taseko's November 2nd press release, Taseko is re-evaluating its options.
