NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(unaudited)

1. Significant Accounting Policies

The unaudited interim financial statements of Sears Roebuck Acceptance Corp. ("SRAC"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sears, Roebuck and Co. ("Sears"), reflect all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring accruals) which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair statement of the results for the interim periods presented.

Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted. The significant accounting policies used in the presentation of these financial statements are consistent with the summary of significant accounting policies set forth in SRAC's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the 52 weeks ended December 28, 2002, and these financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes found therein. The results of operations for the interim periods should not be considered indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

2. Back-up Liquidity

SRAC continued to provide support for 100% of its outstanding commercial paper through its investment portfolio and committed credit facilities. SRAC's investment portfolio fluctuated from a low of $1.3 billion to a high of $3.6 billion in the first quarter of 2003. On March 29, 2003, SRAC's committed credit facilities consisted of a $3.5 billion 364-day revolving credit facility expiring February 23, 2004 which includes an option to extend the repayment of borrowings, if any, through February 2005.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors and Shareholder of Sears Roebuck Acceptance Corp.:

We have reviewed the accompanying statements of financial position of Sears Roebuck Acceptance Corp. (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sears, Roebuck and Co.) as of March 29, 2003 and March 30, 2002, and the related statements of income and comprehensive income and cash flows for the 13 week periods then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Sears Roebuck Acceptance Corp.'s management.

We conducted our reviews in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures to financial data and of making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our reviews, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to such financial statements for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Edgar Filing: SEARS ROEBUCK ACCEPTANCE CORP - Form 10-Q

We have previously audited, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, the statement of financial position of Sears Roebuck Acceptance Corp. as of December 28, 2002, and the related statements of income and comprehensive income, shareholder's equity and cash flows for the year then ended (not presented herein); and in our report dated February 14, 2003, except for Note 5, as to which the date is February 24, 2003, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements. In our opinion, the information set forth in the accompanying statement of financial position as of December 28, 2002 is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the statement of financial position from which it has been derived.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION

Results of Operations

During the first quarter of 2003, Sears Roebuck Acceptance Corp.'s ("SRAC") revenues increased to $258 million from $237 million in the comparable 2002 period. SRAC's income is derived primarily from the earnings on its investment in the notes of Sears, Roebuck and Co. ("Sears") and invested cash. The increase in revenue resulted primarily from a $1 billion increase in average earning asset levels in the first quarter of 2003 versus the 2002 period.

SRAC's interest and related expenses increased to $206 million for the first quarter of 2003 from $188 million for the first quarter of 2002 as a result of higher average long-term interest rates and debt levels. SRAC's cost of long-term funds averaged 6.57% in the first quarter of 2003 from 6.54% for the first quarter of 2002. Average outstanding long-term debt of $11.3 billion in the first quarter of 2003 increased $1.4 billion compared to $9.9 billion in the first quarter of 2002. Increases in interest and related expenses attributed to long term debt activity were partially offset by reductions in average costs and debt levels related to short-term funding. SRAC's cost of short-term funds averaged 1.77% in the first quarter of 2003, a 73 basis point decrease from 2.50% for the first three months of last year. SRAC's short-term borrowings averaged $3.1 billion in the first quarter of 2003, a slight decrease from the 2002 first quarter average of $3.5 billion.

On April 23, 2003, SRAC entered into a new selling agent agreement that provides for the continuous issuance of up to $3 billion of medium-term notes through a program targeted at retail investors. This agreement replaced the December 6, 2002 agreement under which SRAC issued $1.4 billion in notes.

SRAC's net income was $34 million for the first quarter of 2003 and $32 million for the first quarter of 2002. SRAC's ratio of earnings to fixed charges was 1.25 and 1.26, respectively for the first quarter of 2003 and 2002.

Financial Condition

SRAC's investment in Sears notes declined by $1.4 billion to $14.0 billion at the end of the first quarter 2003 from $15.4 billion at year-end 2002. Offsetting this decrease was a $1.8 billion increase in SRAC's cash and cash equivalents. Changes in SRAC's assets were primarily the result of Sears activity in the first quarter of 2003. In this quarter, Sears announced plans to evaluate strategic alternatives for its Credit and Financial Products segment, including the possible sale of all or a portion of the segment. Due to the uncertainty regarding the future of its Credit and Financial Products segment stemming from that evaluation as well as the economic and geopolitical uncertainties, Sears believed it prudent to arrange short-term asset-backed funding capacity in the first quarter of 2003 to ensure liquidity and partially pre-fund 2003 debt maturities. As a result, Sears used acquired funds to pay down a portion of the Sears note resulting in an increase in cash and cash equivalents for SRAC.

SRAC's total debt outstanding rose by $400 million to $13.9 billion in the first quarter of 2003 from $13.5 billion at year-end 2002. SRAC issued $1.8 billion of term debt in the first quarter of 2003 of which proceeds from this issuance and commercial paper were used to fund SRAC's maturing debt and provide excess cash liquidity.

SRAC ended the 2003 quarter with an equity position of $3.4 billion and a debt-to-equity ratio of 4.2:1 compared to 4.1:1 at year-end 2002.

Item 4. DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The Company's management, including Keith E. Trost, President (principal executive officer) and George F. Slook, Vice President, Finance (principal financial officer), have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's "disclosure controls and procedures," as such term is defined in Rules 13a-14 and 15d-14 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, within 90 days of the filing date of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. Based upon their evaluation, the principal executive officer and principal
