PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

We were unable to file our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended November 29, 2008 prior to January 8, 2009, which was the prescribed deadline.

The delay is the result of an internal investigation regarding errors in certain of our previously filed periodic reports. Subsequent to the quarter ended November 28, 2009, we determined that the financial statements of our directly owned subsidiary in Japan contained improper accounting for certain product sales in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2008, and the improper calculation of inventory reserves from late 2006 through the first quarter of fiscal 2009.

During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2008, certain personnel in our Japanese subsidiary were unable to obtain sufficient evidence that revenue recognition was appropriate for certain product sales.

In addition, subsequent to the quarter ended November 28, 2009, we determined that our Japanese subsidiary's inventory reserve calculation was not precise enough to capture all considerations of old and outdated material.

We are currently in the process of determining whether or not these errors are material. In addition, we are currently assessing whether a formal amendment and restatement process is necessary, or whether we can correct these errors through subsequent filings.

PART IV — OTHER INFORMATION

If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Our operating results were affected as discussed above in Part III. However, we have not yet determined the materiality of the errors. In addition, our operating results were affected by the sale of our Consumer Solutions Business Unit (CSBU), which sale occurred in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2008. The first quarter of fiscal 2009 was the first full quarter in which the CSBU was not included in our consolidated financial statements.
