EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Post-Effective Amendment is being filed pursuant to Rule 414(d) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and constitutes Amendment No. 1 to the following registration statements previously filed by Adolph Coors Company ("Coors Colorado"), a Colorado corporation and the predecessor of the registrant, relating to the Coors Savings and Investment Plan: (i) the registration statement on Form S-8 filed on August 21, 1992, Registration No. 33-51072, and (ii) the registration statement on Form S-8 filed on February 17, 2000, Registration No. 333-30610 (collectively, the "Registration Statements").

On October 3, 2003, the shareholders of Coors Colorado approved the reincorporation of Coors Colorado from the State of Colorado to the State of Delaware by way of merger (the "Reincorporation Merger") of Coors Colorado with and into its wholly owned Delaware subsidiary, Adolph Coors Company, with the Delaware subsidiary being the surviving corporation. The Reincorporation Merger became effective at 4:00 p.m. EDT on October 3, 2003 (the "Effective Time"). For all periods subsequent to the Effective Time, the term "Company" shall mean the surviving Delaware corporation, Adolph Coors Company.

Pursuant to Rule 414(d) under the Securities Act, the Company hereby expressly adopts as its own, for all purposes of the Securities Act and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the Registration Statements.

ITEM 4. DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

Incorporated by reference. See Item 3.

ITEM 5. INTERESTS OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL

Not applicable.

ITEM 6. INDEMINIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The Company's Certificate of Incorporation authorizes the Company to indemnify its directors and officers against liabilities and expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in their corporate capacities to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law and in accordance with the Company's Bylaws. Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") sets forth the conditions and limitations governing the indemnification of directors, officers and other persons. Generally, with respect to non-derivate actions, Section 145 of the DGCL allows a corporation to indemnify a director or an officer of a corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually or reasonable incurred by the director or officer in connection with an action, suit or proceeding if the director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner the director or officer reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the director's or officer's conduct was unlawful. With respect to derivative actions, Section 145 of the DGCL allows the corporation to indemnify directors and officers on a basis similar to that set forth above, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such director or officer shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person was fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper. Moreover, the DGCL provides for mandatory indemnification of directors and officers of a corporation to the extent that such person has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any such action, suit or proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company's Bylaws provide that the Company shall be required to indemnify a director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) commenced by such director or officer only if the commencement of such proceeding (or part thereof) by such person was authorized in the specific case by the Company's board of directors.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL permits corporations to eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability of a director (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the DGCL regarding liability of directors for unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchase or redemption, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. Accordingly, Article IX of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation provides that a director of the Company shall not be liable to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent that such exemption from liability or limitation thereof is not permitted under the DGCL as currently in effect or as the same may subsequently be amended. If the DGCL is subsequently amended to eliminate or limit further the liability provided by the preceding sentence, the liability of each director shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL as so amended.

Edgar Filing: COORS ADOLPH CO - Form S-8 POS

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

-3-

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
