QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MEETING AND THE PROPOSALS

Q: Who is entitled to vote?

A: Stockholders of record as of the close of business on April 2, 2003, may vote at the annual meeting.

Q: How many shares can vote?

A: On April 2, 2003, there were 119,314,272 shares issued and outstanding. Every stockholder may cast one vote for each share owned. In the election of directors, stockholders have the right of cumulative voting (described below).

Q: What may I vote on?

A: You may vote on the election of 10 directors who have been nominated to serve on our board of directors, the ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as Safeguard's independent auditors, and any other business that is properly presented at the meeting.

Q: How does the Board recommend I vote?

A: The Board recommends a vote FOR each Board nominee and FOR ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as Safeguard's independent auditors. The Board requests discretionary authority to cumulate votes.

Q: How do I vote?

A: Sign and date each proxy card you receive, mark the boxes indicating how you wish to vote, and return the proxy card in the prepaid envelope provided. In the election of directors, if you wish to vote cumulatively, please follow the directions in the next question.

If you sign your proxy card but do not mark any boxes showing how you wish to vote, Christopher J. Davis and N. Jeffrey Klauder will vote your shares and will cumulate your votes as recommended by the board of directors.

Q: What does cumulative voting mean?

A: Cumulative voting applies only in the election of directors. It means that you may cast a number of votes equal to the number of Safeguard shares you own multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. For example, since 10 directors are standing for election at this year's annual meeting, if you hold 100 shares of Safeguard stock, you may cast 1,000 votes in the election of directors. You may distribute those votes among the nominees as you wish. In other words, in the example provided, you may cast all 1,000 votes for one nominee or allocate them among two or more nominees in any amount you like, as long as the total equals 1,000 votes.

To vote cumulatively, you must write the words cumulate for in the space provided under item 1 of the proxy card, and write the name of each nominee and the number of votes to be cast for each nominee in that space.

If you vote cumulatively, please check to be sure that the number of votes you cast adds up to the number of shares you own multiplied by 10. If the number of votes does not add up correctly, our proxy tabulator will return the proxy card to you for clarification and will not vote your shares until a properly completed proxy card has been returned to them.

Table of Contents

Q: What if my Safeguard shares are not registered in my name?

A: If you hold your Safeguard shares through a broker, bank or other nominee, you will receive a voting instruction form directly from them describing how to vote your shares. This form will, in most cases, offer you three ways to vote:

1. by telephone,
2. via the Internet, or
3. by returning the form.

Your vote by telephone or Internet will help Safeguard save money. Remember, if you vote by telephone or Internet, do not return your voting instruction form.

If you and other residents at your mailing address own shares of Safeguard stock in street name, your broker or bank may have notified you that your household will receive only one annual report and proxy statement for each company in which you hold stock through that broker or bank. This practice is known as householding. Unless you responded that you did not want to participate in householding, you were deemed to have consented to the process. Therefore, your broker or bank will send only one copy of our annual report and proxy statement to your address. Each stockholder in your household will continue to receive a separate voting instruction form.

If you would like to receive your own set of our annual report and proxy statement in the future, or if you share an address with another Safeguard stockholder and together both of you would like to receive only a single set of Safeguard annual disclosure documents, please contact ADP by telephone at 800-542-1061 or by mail to ADP, Attention: Householding Department, 51 Mercedes Way, Edgewood, NY 11717. Be sure to indicate your name, the name of your brokerage firm or bank, and your account number. The revocation of your consent to householding will be effective 30 days following its receipt.

If you did not receive an individual copy of this year's annual report or proxy statement, we will send a copy to you if you address a written request to Safeguard Scientifics, Inc., Attention: Investor Relations, 800 The Safeguard Building, 435 Devon Park Drive, Wayne, PA 19087-1945 or call 1-888-733-1200.

Q: What if I want to change my vote?

A: You may change your vote at any time before the meeting in any of the following ways:

1. notify our corporate secretary, Deirdre Blackburn, in writing,
2. vote in person at the meeting,
3. submit another proxy card with a later date, or
4. if you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, follow the directions received from your broker to change those instructions.

If you own shares of Safeguard stock in street name and wish to vote at the meeting, you must obtain a legal proxy from your broker, bank or other nominee authorizing you to vote at the meeting. We will be unable to accept a vote from you at the meeting without that form. If you are a registered stockholder and wish to vote at the meeting, no additional forms will be required.

Q: How will directors be elected?

A: The 10 nominees who receive the highest number of affirmative votes at a meeting at which a quorum is present will be elected as directors.

Table of Contents

Q: Who will count the votes?

A: A representative of Mellon Investor Services, our registrar and transfer agent, will count the votes and act as the judge of election.

Q: What does it mean if I get more than one proxy card?

A: It means that you have multiple accounts at the transfer agent and/or with stockbrokers or other nominees. Please complete and provide voting instructions for all proxy cards and voting instruction forms that you receive. We encourage you to have all accounts registered in the exact same name and address (whenever possible). If you are a registered stockholder, you may obtain information about how to do this by contacting our transfer agent:

Safeguard Scientifics, Inc.
c/o Mellon Investor Services
P. O. Box 3315
South Hackensack, NJ 07606

If you provide Mellon Investor Services with photocopies of the proxy cards that you receive or with the account numbers that appear on each proxy card, it will be easier to accomplish this.

You also can find information on transferring shares and other useful stockholder information on their web site at www.melloninvestor.com.

Q: What is a quorum?

A: A quorum is a majority of the outstanding shares. The shares may be represented at the meeting either in person or by proxy. To hold the meeting, there must be a quorum present.

Q: What is the effect if I abstain or fail to give instructions to my broker?

A: If you submit a properly executed proxy, your shares will be counted as part of the quorum even if you abstain from voting or withhold your vote for a particular director.

Broker non-votes also are counted as part of the quorum. When nominees such as banks and brokers holding shares on behalf of beneficial owners do not receive voting instructions from the beneficial owners by a specified date before the meeting, the nominees may vote those shares on matters deemed routine by the New York Stock Exchange. Both matters described in this proxy statement are routine matters. On non-routine matters, nominees cannot vote and there is a so-called broker non-vote on that matter. Broker non-votes and abstentions are not counted in the tally of votes FOR or AGAINST a proposal. A WITHHELD vote is treated the same as an abstention.

Q: Who can attend the meeting?

A: We encourage all stockholders to attend the meeting. Admission tickets are not required.

Q: Are there any expenses associated with collecting the stockholder votes?

A: We will reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding proxy and other materials to our stockholders. We do not anticipate hiring an agency to solicit votes at this time.

Table of Contents

Q: What is a stockholder proposal?

A: A stockholder proposal is your recommendation or requirement that Safeguard or our board of directors take action on a matter that you intend to present at a meeting of stockholders. However, under applicable rules we have the ability to exclude certain matters proposed, including those that deal with matters relating to our ordinary business operations.

Q: Can anyone submit a stockholder proposal?

A: To be eligible to submit a proposal, you must have continuously held at least $2,000 in market value, or 1% of our common stock, for at least one year by the date you submit your proposal. You also must continue to hold those securities through the date of the meeting.

Q: If I wish to submit a stockholder proposal for the annual meeting in 2004, what action must I take?

A: If you wish us to consider including a stockholder proposal in the proxy statement for the annual meeting in 2004, you must submit the proposal, in writing, so that we receive it no later than January 1, 2004. The proposal must meet the requirements established by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Send your proposal to:

Table of Contents

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

General: We have long believed that good corporate governance is important to ensure that Safeguard is managed for the long-term benefit of our stockholders. During the past year, we have been reviewing our corporate governance policies and practices and comparing them to those suggested by various authorities in corporate governance and the practices of other public companies. We have also been reviewing the provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the new and proposed rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and the proposed new listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

Based on our review, we have taken steps to implement voluntarily many of the proposed new rules and listing standards. In particular, we have:

adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines, nominated for election five new directors, each of whom qualifies as an independent director under our Corporate Governance Guidelines and at least two of whom also qualify as an audit committee financial expert under the new rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, amended our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, which applies to all officers, directors and employees, and begun the process of updating the charters for our Audit Committee, Corporate Governance Committee and Compensation Committee. The remainder of this Corporate Governance section covers all the Board and compensation matters required to be disclosed in a proxy statement.

Board Meetings: The Board held five meetings in 2002. Each director attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board and committees of which he was a member.

Board Compensation: Directors employed by Safeguard receive no additional compensation for serving on the Board or its committees. Mr. Craig is the only employee of Safeguard who is a member of the board of directors. As of May 2002, non-employee directors receive the following compensation:

$25,000 annually, or $75,000 in the case of the chairman of the board,

$5,000 annually for chairing a committee,

$2,000 for each Board meeting attended in person,

$1,500 for each committee meeting attended in person,

$500 for each Board or committee meeting attended by telephone, and reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses.

Additionally, each director who is not an employee of Safeguard receives an option to purchase 50,000 shares of Safeguard common stock upon initial election to the Board. Each of these directors also receives an annual option grant to purchase 15,000 shares.

Directors' options generally have an eight-year term. Initial option grants generally vest 25% each year starting on the first anniversary of the grant date. Annual stock option grants generally vest 100% on the first anniversary of the grant date. The exercise price is equal to the fair market value of a share of our common stock on the grant date.

Table of Contents

In August 2002, each non-employee director received an option to purchase 12,000 shares in connection with the directors' activities in the reorganization of the Board and the consideration and oversight of Safeguard's shift in strategic focus. At the same time, each non-employee director received the annual service grant to purchase 15,000 shares. These options have a per share exercise price of $1.31, an eight-year term, and vest 100% on the first anniversary of the grant date.

Deferred Compensation: Before 1989, we offered certain directors and officers a deferred compensation plan (which included deferrals of directors' fees). All contributions to the plan were completed by the end of 1988. Upon retirement (or an earlier date in certain cases) or upon termination of service as a director, each participant is entitled to receive, as a level payment over 15 years or as a lump sum, an amount equal to the total credits to his account plus an investment growth factor. Mr. Bell began receiving a quarterly payment in February 1992 of $3,100, which was reduced to $3,000 in February 1994. In February 2003, the Compensation Committee of the Board terminated the deferred compensation plan effective January 1, 2003 to eliminate the costs associated with continuing the plan and will distribute the account balances in the plan to the five remaining participants in the plan. These distributions will include a distribution of approximately $287,000 to Mr. Fox and approximately $44,000 to Mr. Bell.

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS
Item 2 on Proxy Card

The Audit Committee, composed entirely of independent, non-employee members of the Board, approved the appointment of KPMG LLP as independent auditors for 2003 and is asking the stockholders for ratification of the appointment. If this appointment is not ratified by the stockholders, the Audit Committee may reconsider its recommendation. One or more representatives of KPMG LLP are expected to attend the annual meeting. They will have an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

The Board recommends a vote FOR ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as Safeguard's independent auditors. Ratification requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the annual meeting.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of the board of directors (the Audit Committee) has reviewed and discussed Safeguard's audited consolidated financial statements for fiscal 2002 with management. The Audit Committee has discussed with KPMG LLP (KPMG), Safeguard's independent auditors, the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61. The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from KPMG required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and has discussed with KPMG its independence. Based on the review and discussions described above, among other things, the Audit Committee recommended to the board of directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in Safeguard's Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal year 2002.

Each member of the Audit Committee qualifies as independent under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. The Audit Committee has adopted a charter which was attached to the 2001 proxy statement and meets all currently applicable requirements of the New York Stock Exchange and the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Audit Fees. The aggregate fees billed by Safeguard's independent auditors for professional services rendered in connection with the audit of its consolidated financial statements included in Safeguard's Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal year 2002, as well as for the review of its consolidated financial statements included in Safeguard's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q during 2002, totaled $1,014,500 (excluding expenses reimbursed by Safeguard).

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees. No fees other than those described above under the caption Audit Fees and those described below under the caption All Other Fees were billed to Safeguard by its independent auditors for professional services in 2002.

All Other Fees. The only fees billed to Safeguard by its principal auditors during 2002 other than those described above related to services provided with regard to tax compliance, 401(k) plan audits and various miscellaneous matters, and such fees totaled $463,035. REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE
ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

COMPENSATION PHILOSOPHY

Safeguard's mission is to create long-term value for our stockholders by taking controlling interests in and developing companies in the time-to-volume stage of development that pursue business activities within our strategic focus, investing capital, management and operational expertise to achieve superior revenue, cash-flow and value growth of our majority owned strategic subsidiaries, engaging in an ongoing planning and assessment process to help our companies measure their progress and continually reassess their critical objectives, and when a company no longer meets our criteria for value creation, divesting the company and redeploying the capital realized in other acquisition and development opportunities.

Our philosophy is to align the compensation of senior management and other employees with our mission and the long-term interests of our stockholders. This philosophy also helps us to attract and retain outstanding employees who can thrive in a competitive environment of continuous change, promote among our employees the economic benefits of stock ownership in Safeguard, and motivate and reward employees who, by their hard work, loyalty and exceptional service, make contributions of special importance to the success of our business.

COMPENSATION STRUCTURE

The compensation of our executives consists of base pay,

annual cash incentives, and equity grants in the form of stock options, restricted stock grants or deferred stock units.

Base Pay

Base pay is established initially on the basis of subjective factors, including experience, individual achievements, and the level of responsibility assumed at Safeguard. In reviewing the appropriate level of Safeguard's base pay for its executive officers, the Compensation Committee considers advice provided by its executive compensation consultant, Buck Consultants, Inc. During 2002, the Compensation Committee generally sought to establish base pay for its executive officers at a level that was generally in the range of the 50th percentile for executives performing comparable roles at a group of comparable companies selected by Buck Consultants. During 2002 and 2003, the comparable companies utilized by Buck Consultants in assisting the Compensation Committee in establishing its compensation benchmarks included a mix of technology companies (both early stage and later stage), technology incubator companies, private equity funds and conglomerates. Early stage technology companies and technology incubator companies comprised approximately 70% of the weighting of comparable companies. The weighting of later stage technology companies and conglomerates used in establishing the benchmark is expected to increase in future years as Safeguard continues to execute its long-term strategy.

Table of Contents

2002 salary adjustments. The salary paid to Mr. Craig during 2002 was established pursuant to the terms of the employment agreement Mr. Craig entered into when he joined Safeguard in October 2001. Based on the Compensation Committee's assessment of Mr. Craig's performance during 2002 in accomplishing the strategic objectives for Safeguard established by the Board and the comparable company benchmark study described above, in December 2002, the Compensation Committee determined to increase Mr. Craig's annual salary to $600,000 commencing on January 1, 2003. The Compensation Committee determined that the salary increase was necessary to maintain Mr. Craig's salary at the 50th percentile of the annual salary for chief executive officers established by the comparable company benchmark study. At that time and based on the same rationale, the Compensation Committee also increased the salaries of two of Safeguard's other managing directors to $310,000.

Annual Cash Incentives

Annual cash incentives are intended to motivate executives to achieve and exceed annual corporate performance targets and strategic objectives. Our primary objectives are to leverage our resources to create superior growth opportunities and long-term value for Safeguard and its stockholders; pursue additional market penetration, revenue growth, cash-flow improvement and long-term value growth of our majority owned strategic subsidiaries; acquire interests in new companies in the time-to-volume stage of development that pursue business activities within our strategic focus; and continue to assess our companies and fund commitments for their growth opportunities and fit within Safeguard's strategic focus. We measure our success by the market price of our stock, the financial condition and operations of our company, the operating performance and market value of our public and private companies, and the successful completion of liquidity events involving our companies (which may be through divestitures in company sale transactions or through IPOs). Specific annual financial and strategic objectives may include achieving strategic goals established by the Board, achieving revenue and cash flow targets for Safeguard's controlled companies, achieving parent company cost and capitalization objectives, achieving value growth objectives at Safeguard's controlled companies, developing, refining and implementing Safeguard's strategy and infrastructure, and adding new companies consistent with our strategy and capital model.

At the beginning of each bonus period (which may be a period of six months or a year at the discretion of the Compensation Committee), the Compensation Committee sets target levels of executive cash incentives based on a percentage of base salary and the executive's ability to impact Safeguard's performance and establishes management objectives for the bonus period which are communicated to bonus plan participants. At the end of each bonus period, the Compensation Committee reviews the level of achievement of the financial and strategic objectives established for that period and individual performance. Cash incentives are paid based on a percentage of target amounts and may exceed target amounts when, in the judgment of the Compensation Committee, performance levels are deemed to be superior. During 2003, a significant portion of the bonus incentives will be driven by achievement of quantitative targets such as revenue and cash flow.

2002 cash incentives. In December 2002, the Compensation Committee determined to increase Mr. Craig's target bonus percentage to 120% of his base salary commencing on January 1, 2003. The Compensation Committee determined that the bonus target increase was necessary to place Mr. Craig's cash incentive level within the third quartile (consistent with their philosophy) of the cash incentive arrangements for chief executive officers established by the comparable company benchmark study. Based on the same rationale, during 2002 the Compensation Committee established the target bonus level for Safeguard's managing directors at 100% of their base salaries.

The Compensation Committee awarded a 2002 bonus to the chief executive officer based on its determination that Mr. Craig exceeded his full bonus objectives and that our other executive officers met their target bonus objectives. The bonus objectives established for 2002 included

- development and Board approval of a strategic plan for Safeguard,
- completion of an organizational restructuring at Safeguard and certain of its subsidiaries,
- development of strategic and operating plans for strategic subsidiaries,
- development of a divestiture strategy for non-strategic assets,
- establishment of controlling interests in strategic subsidiaries, and
- implementation of Safeguard's business and IT services strategy.

Stock Options, Restricted Stock Awards and Deferred Stock Units

Stock options, restricted stock awards and deferred stock units align the interests of executives and employees with the long-term interests of our stockholders and motivate executives and employees to remain in our employ. The Compensation Committee awards stock options, restricted stock and deferred stock units based on a number of factors, including

- the need to create retention incentives in key personnel,
- the desire to align the executive's incentive compensation with the interests of Safeguard's stockholders,
- the achievement of financial and strategic objectives,
- an individual's contributions in providing strategic leadership and oversight for Safeguard and our companies,
- the amount and term of unvested options and restricted stock awards already held by each individual and the price of Safeguard's common stock at the time that grants are considered, and
- the significance of other long term incentive and retention arrangements provided to recipients.

2002 Stock Option, Restricted Stock and Deferred Stock Unit Awards. During 2002, the Compensation Committee granted to its executive officers stock options, restricted stock or deferred stock units. The Compensation Committee believes that the principal purpose of Safeguard's equity incentive programs is to attract, retain and motivate executives. Awards under the equity compensation plan encourage plan participants to contribute materially to Safeguard's growth, thereby benefiting the stockholders, and align the economic interests of the plan participants with those of Safeguard's stockholders. Consequently, the Compensation Committee generally attempts to make equity grants that, when taken together with existing unvested equity grants, will achieve a potential value for the executive during the vesting period of the grant that is equal to a multiple of the executive's total annual targeted cash compensation which is determined based upon the executive's level of responsibility at Safeguard. The indicated equity grant is then adjusted based upon the Compensation Committee's review of benchmark companies equity grant practices, the advice of the Compensation Committee's compensation consultant, and the executive's accomplishments.

Option Exchange Program. In December 2001, the Compensation Committee approved a program to exchange certain stock options for shares of restricted stock. The exchange program was designed to restore the incentive and retentive value of the equity compensation awards held by Safeguard's employees. The Compensation Committee determined that the large differential between the exercise price of a number of the outstanding options in December 2001 and the then current market price of Safeguard's common stock significantly reduced the benefits Safeguard expected to realize in connection with its equity compensation plans. Many of Safeguard's key personnel were recruited during a period when the stock was trading at a significantly higher price than the December 2001 market value, and none of the outstanding stock options held by existing employees, other than the options granted in October 2001 to Mr. Craig, were in the money. Based on the Compensation Committee's review of the analysis prepared by the Compensation Committee's compensation consultant, the Compensation Committee determined that the options with an exercise price in excess of $15 per share had lost nearly all of their retentive and motivational effect and that the exchange program was a necessary tool to retain key employees and management staff. The exchange was designed in a manner to reduce the option overhang, meaning the number of outstanding, unexercised options held by Safeguard employees.

Under the exchange program, each employee with an outstanding stock option with an exercise price in excess of $15.00 per share was offered the opportunity to exchange the options for shares of restricted stock. Each option with an exercise price of $15.00 to $29.99 was exchanged for one-half share of restricted stock; each option with an exercise price of $30.00 to $40.00 was exchanged for one-quarter share of restricted stock; and each option with an exercise price greater than $40.00 was exchanged for one-sixth share of restricted stock. The shares of restricted stock were issued on January 22, 2002, and vested on the later of July 22, 2002, or the date on which the unvested eligible option exchanged for the restricted shares would have vested. Vesting will be accelerated upon a change of control. Until the restricted stock vests, the shares are generally subject to forfeiture in the event an employee leaves Safeguard for any reason other than a termination without cause. Safeguard is recording a non-cash compensation expense as the restricted stock vests based on the stock's value on January 22, 2002.

A total of 2,038,071 outstanding options were exchanged, including 397,500 options held by persons who are currently executive officers, and Safeguard issued 537,878 restricted shares. One and one-half million options were cancelled and Safeguard's option overhang was therefore reduced.

IRS Limits on Deductibility of Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code provides that publicly held companies may not deduct in any taxable year compensation paid to any of the individuals named in the Summary Compensation Table in excess of one million dollars that is not performance-based. To qualify as performance-based compensation, the Compensation Committee's discretion to grant incentive awards must be strictly limited. Grants of stock options and SARs under our plans generally will meet the requirements of performance-based compensation. Restricted stock grants and deferred stock units generally will not qualify as, and performance units may not qualify as, performance-based compensation. The Compensation Committee believes that the benefit of retaining the ability to exercise discretion under Safeguard's incentive compensation plans outweighs the limited risk of loss of tax deductions under section 162(m). Therefore, the Compensation Committee does not currently plan to take any action to qualify any of the incentive compensation plans under section 162(m).

- (1) These values assume that the shares appreciate from the market price on the grant date (which may be significantly in excess of the current market price) at the compounded annual rate shown from the grant date until the end of the option term. These values are not estimates of future stock price growth of Safeguard. Executives will not benefit unless the common stock price increases above the stock option exercise price.
- (2) Unless otherwise disclosed, the options have an eight-year term and vest 25% on the first anniversary of the grant date and in 36 equal monthly installments thereafter. Upon death, disability, change of control, retirement on or after an individual's 65th birthday, or termination for any reason other than cause or resignation without good reason, the options will become fully vested on the date of the event. Options reported in the above table may be exercised at any time. If an executive exercises unvested options and his employment is terminated, we may repurchase the unvested shares at the exercise price. The option exercise price may be paid in cash, by delivery of previously acquired shares, subject to certain conditions, or same-day sales (that is, a cashless exercise through a broker), or such other method as the Compensation Committee may approve. The Compensation Committee may modify the terms of outstanding options, including acceleration of the exercise date.
- (3) All options have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the shares subject to each option on the grant date.

- (1) The figures in this column do not represent the exercise price but rather the number of shares of restricted stock issued upon cancellation of the respective option. In January 2002, the individuals named in this table exchanged stock options having an exercise price of more than $15 per share previously granted under our equity compensation plans for shares of restricted stock. Each option with an exercise price of $15.00 to $29.99 was exchanged for one-half share of restricted stock; each option with an exercise price of $30.00 to $40.00 was exchanged for one-quarter share of restricted stock; and each option with an exercise price greater than $40.00 was exchanged for one-sixth share of restricted stock. The shares of restricted stock vested on the later of July 22, 2002, or the date on which the unvested eligible option exchanged for the restricted shares would have vested.

Employment Contracts, Severance and Change-in-Control Arrangements

Pursuant to Safeguard's employment agreement with Mr. Craig, he is entitled to a base salary of $600,000 per year. We also paid $333,151 of Mr. Craig's relocation costs and the related tax gross-up and afforded him the right to use an equity membership in a country club. The agreement also provides that we will pay him a multiple of the sum of his annual base salary plus his annual target bonus if his employment is terminated without cause or if he terminates his employment for good reason. The multiple is 2 unless the termination occurs in connection with a change of control or after the third anniversary of his employment with Safeguard, in which case the multiple is 3.

We also entered into retention agreements with each of our managing directors that provide for a payment equal to a multiple of the sum of the annual base salary and annual target bonus if an individual's employment is terminated without cause or if the individual terminates his employment for good reason. The multiple is 1.5 unless the termination occurs in connection with a change of control or after the third anniversary of the executive's employment with Safeguard (but not earlier than October 12, 2003), in which case the multiple is 2.

The retention agreements also provide that upon the termination of an executive in connection with a change of control, the executive's options and restricted stock awards or deferred stock units will fully vest and options will be exercisable until the third anniversary of the termination. If the termination of the executive occurs other than in connection with a change of control, the executive's options will fully vest and be exercisable until the third anniversary of the termination and any restricted stock grants made prior to October 2002 will vest. Restricted stock or deferred stock unit awards made after October 2002 may vest in the discretion of the Board. Upon such a termination, Safeguard will pay premiums for insurance benefits for up to 24 months, which includes the 18-month COBRA period, and up to $20,000 for outplacement services or office space which the executive secures.

Relationships and Related Transactions with Management and Others

As part of our business, we participate in the management of private equity funds. Robert Keith, chairman of our board of directors, is the president and CEO of TL Ventures, the management company for TL Ventures III, TL Ventures IV, and TL Ventures V, and the chairman of the management companies for EnerTech Capital Partners and EnerTech Capital Partners II. Mr. Keith and Safeguard are partners of the general partners of the TL Ventures and EnerTech Capital Partners funds, and they participate in the profits of these private equity funds. TL Ventures receives management fees from the TL Ventures funds and indirectly from EnerTech. During 2002, Safeguard paid to TL Ventures management fees of approximately $1.11 million in respect of Safeguard's capital contribution to the various funds managed by TL Ventures. TL Ventures paid Safeguard $100,000 in 2002 for management and operational services to TL Ventures and the funds and approximately $322,000 for the rental of office space. As a result of Safeguard's sale of its corporate campus to a third party in 2002, Safeguard no longer leases office space to TL Ventures. Safeguard has invested or committed a total of $66.5 million in the seven TL Ventures and EnerTech Capital funds. Safeguard owns less than 7% of the partnership interests of each of these funds.

Safeguard owns approximately 12.6% of the outstanding common stock of Internet Capital Group, Inc. and received approximately $385,000 in rent for office space leased to Internet Capital during 2002. As a result of Safeguard's sale of its corporate campus to a third party in 2002, Safeguard no longer leases office space to Internet Capital. Walter Buckley, a director of Safeguard, is a director and executive officer of Internet Capital Group, Inc.
