Item Other Events
8.01

In 1994, we, as a potentially responsible party under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980 (CERCLA), entered into a Consent Decree (the Decree) with the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the State of Idaho concerning environmental remediation obligations at the Bunker Hill Superfund site, a 21-square mile site located near Kellogg, Idaho. We and ASARCO LLC (ASARCO) are the remaining parties to the Decree.

On December 13, 2005 we received notice that the EPA allegedly incurred $14.6 million in costs relating to the Bunker Hill site from January 2002 to March 2005. The notice was provided so that we and ASARCO may have an opportunity to review and comment on the EPA s alleged costs prior to the EPA s submission of a formal demand for reimbursement. We expect to receive a formal demand for reimbursement during the first quarter of 2006. We are reviewing the costs submitted by the EPA to determine whether we have any obligation to pay any portion of the EPA s alleged costs and whether under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles we are required to increase our accrual for our portion of liability relating to the Bunker Hill Site. We anticipate exercising our right to challenge reimbursement of the alleged costs under the Decree in the event of a formal demand for payment in the future. However, an unsuccessful challenge would likely require us to increase our expenditures and/or accrual relating to the Bunker Hill site.

In December 2005, the U.S. Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals overturned a 2003 modification to the Decree that reduced our and ASARCO s obligation under the decree by $7 million. Had it not been overturned, the $7 million reduction would have been applied towards a portion of the $14.6 million in alleged costs discussed above and other costs under the Decree. We intend to request a rehearing on the reversal of the $7 million reduction by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. However, there can be no assurance as to the success of any rehearing or appeal.

For additional information regarding the Bunker Hill matter, see Note 5 to our Consolidated Financial Statements filed on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2005.
