Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEFA14A

On June 8, 2006, Lucent Technologies Inc. issued the following update to employees:

DATE: June 8, 2006
TO: All Lucent Employees
FROM: Corporate Communications
SUBJECT: Merger Update: Hart-Scott-Rodino Milestone Reached

Lucent and Alcatel have cleared an important hurdle with respect to the proposed merger. On June 7, 2006, the two companies were notified that they had received early termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (HSR) as it pertains to the merger and Lucent filed an 8K with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Click here for a link to the 8K filing.

This means that the U.S. Department of Justice's Antitrust Division has closed its routine investigation of the merger under the HSR Act. While it is still theoretically possible for the Antitrust Division or the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) or others to challenge the merger on substantive antitrust grounds in the United States, it would be highly unlikely.

Termination of the HSR Act waiting period is one of the conditions under the merger agreement between Lucent and Alcatel.

The merger transaction was subject to review by the U.S. Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice and the FTC under the HSR Act. Lucent had filed the requisite Pre-Merger Notification and Report Forms under the HSR Act on May 5, 2006, and Alcatel had filed the requisite forms on May 8, 2006. The early termination granted by the FTC on June 7 applies to both Alcatel and Lucent.

We still expect the merger to be completed in six to 12 months of the announcement date, which was April 2, 2006.

As is typical with these types of transactions, there are other milestones that must be reached before closing. These include:

- o Antitrust filings in the European Union and other jurisdictions; o Approval by the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS) and
- o Approval by shareowners of both companies (holders of 2/3 of Alcatel shares voting and holders of a majority of Lucent shares).

Please note that we have further steps to take before the merger is completed, and Lucent and Alcatel remain separate companies and must conduct themselves as such, prior to closing, including continuing to operate independently. ### SAFE HARBOR FOR FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS AND OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This website and other employee communications material contain statements regarding the proposed transaction between Lucent and Alcatel, the expected timetable for completing the transaction, future financial and operating results, benefits and synergies of the proposed transaction and other statements about Lucent and Alcatel's managements' future expectations, beliefs, goals, plans or prospects that are based on current expectations, estimates, forecasts and projections about Lucent and Alcatel and the combined company, as well as Lucent's and Alcatel's and the combined company's future performance and the industries in which Lucent and Alcatel operate and the combined company will operate, in addition to managements' assumptions. Words such as "expects," "anticipates," "targets," "goals," "projects," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates," variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements which are not statements of historical facts. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to assess. Therefore, actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in such forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties are based upon a number of important factors including, among others: the ability to consummate the proposed transaction; difficulties and delays in obtaining regulatory approvals for the proposed transaction; difficulties and delays in achieving synergies and cost savings; potential difficulties in meeting conditions set forth in the definitive merger agreement entered into by Lucent and Alcatel; fluctuations in the telecommunications market; the pricing, cost and other risks inherent in long-term sales agreements; exposure to the credit risk of customers; reliance on a limited number of contract manufacturers to supply products we sell; the social, political and economic risks of our respective global operations; the costs and risks associated with pension and postretirement benefit obligations; the complexity of products sold; changes to existing regulations or technical standards; existing and future litigation; difficulties and costs in protecting intellectual property rights and exposure to infringement claims by others; and compliance with environmental, health and safety laws. For a more complete list and description of such risks and uncertainties, refer to Lucent's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2005 and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended December 31, 2005 and March 31, 2006 and Alcatel's annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2005 as well as other filings by Lucent and Alcatel with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Except as required under the U.S. federal securities laws and the rules and regulations of the SEC, Lucent and Alcatel disclaim any intention or obligation to update any forward-looking statements after the distribution of this website and other employee communications material, whether as a result of new information, future events, developments, changes in assumptions or otherwise.
