Item 8.01 Other Events

On July 19, 2013, SCBT Financial Corporation, a South Carolina corporation (“SCBT”) entered into a memorandum of understanding (the “MOU”) with plaintiffs regarding the settlement of a putative class action lawsuit filed in the Supreme Court of the State of New York in the County of New York (the “Court”) in response to the announcement of the execution of an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 19, 2013 (the “Merger Agreement”), by and between SCBT and First Financial Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“First Financial”). Pursuant to, and subject to the terms and conditions of, the Merger Agreement, First Financial will merge with and into SCBT, with SCBT as the surviving entity following the merger (the “Merger”).

As described in greater detail in the joint proxy statement/prospectus dated June 18, 2013 (the “Definitive Proxy”) forming a part of the registration statement on Form S-4, as amended, filed by SCBT with the SEC and declared effective by the SEC on June 13, 2013, on May 3, 2013, a purported shareholder of First Financial filed a lawsuit (the “Lawsuit”) in the Court, captioned Rational Strategies Fund v. Robert R. Hill Jr. et al., No. 651625/2013, naming SCBT and members of its board of directors as defendants (such members, the “Director Defendants”). On July 18, 2013, the Court granted a temporary injunction enjoining SCBT from certifying the vote of its shareholders at its upcoming special meeting on July 24, 2013 to consider and vote upon the Merger, pending a hearing scheduled for the same date on the defendants’ motion to vacate that temporary injunction. Under the terms of the MOU, the plaintiff has agreed to jointly request with SCBT that the temporary injunction be lifted so that the results of the special meeting may be certified without any delay or impediment. The lifting of the temporary injunction prior to the special meeting is a condition to the effectiveness of the settlement.

Under the terms of the MOU, SCBT, the Director Defendants and the plaintiffs have agreed to settle the Lawsuit and release the defendants from all claims made by the plaintiffs relating to the Merger, subject to approval by the Court. If the Court approves the settlement contemplated by the MOU, the Lawsuit will be dismissed with prejudice. Pursuant to the terms of the MOU, SCBT has agreed to make available additional information to SCBT shareholders. The additional information is contained below in this Current Report on Form 8-K (the “Current Report”) and should be read in conjunction with the Definitive Proxy, which should be read in its entirety. In return, the plaintiffs have agreed to the dismissal of the Lawsuit with prejudice and to withdraw all motions filed in connection with the Lawsuit. The parties to the MOU have agreed that final resolution by the Court of any fee petition will not be a precondition to the dismissal of the Lawsuit. There can be no assurance that the parties will ultimately enter into a stipulation of settlement or that the Court will approve the settlement, even if the parties were to enter into such stipulation. In such event, the proposed settlement as contemplated by the MOU may be terminated.

The settlement will not affect the consideration to be paid by SCBT to First Financial shareholders in connection with the Merger or the timing of the special meeting of SCBT shareholders, which is scheduled for July 24, 2013 in Columbia, South Carolina, to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, among other things.

SCBT and the Director Defendants deny each of the allegations in the Lawsuit and believe the prior disclosures in the Definitive Proxy are adequate under applicable law. The Director Defendants have informed SCBT that they maintain that they have complied with their fiduciary duty and other applicable legal duties in all respects in connection with the Merger and any disclosure obligations in connection therewith. SCBT and the Director Defendants have agreed to settle the Lawsuit in order to avoid costly litigation and reduce the risk of any delay to the completion of the Merger. Nothing in this Current Report or any stipulation of settlement shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable laws of any of the disclosures set forth herein or therein.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE DEFINITIVE PROXY

The following information supplements the Definitive Proxy and should be read in conjunction with the Definitive Proxy, which should be read in its entirety. All page references in the information below are to pages in the Definitive Proxy, and terms used below have the meanings set forth in the Definitive Proxy, unless otherwise defined below. Without admitting in any way that the disclosures below are material or otherwise required by law, SCBT makes the following supplemental disclosures:

The following disclosure is inserted following the final sentence of the second full paragraph on page 19 of the Definitive Proxy:

Prior to entering into the merger agreement, SCBT estimated that its one-time, after tax expenses relating to the completion of the merger could be approximately $18 million; however, such an estimate is inherently uncertain and SCBT's actual merger-related expenses may be higher or lower than such amount.

The following disclosure is inserted following the final sentence of the first full paragraph on page 48 of the Definitive Proxy:

Each of Keefe, Bruyette & Woods and Wachtell, Lipton was retained by SCBT management in light of such firm's extensive prior relationship with the company, including representing SCBT in connection with strategic transactions of a type similar to the contemplated strategic business transaction with First Financial. The retentions and engagement of each firm, including the compensation and other terms contained in the engagement letter between Keefe, Bruyette & Woods and SCBT, were subsequently ratified by the SCBT board of directors.

The following disclosure is inserted between the penultimate and final sentences of the second full paragraph on page 48 of the Definitive Proxy:

At the January 18, 2013 meeting, Mr. Hill and Mr. Horger further communicated their belief that any strategic business combination transaction between SCBT and First Financial would benefit from the continued leadership of certain First Financial officers and directors, and that accordingly Mr. Hill and Mr. Horger were hopeful that, subject to negotiating the full terms of any such transaction and the approval of such terms by both parties' respective boards of directors, certain First Financial officers and directors would continue to serve the combined company following any such strategic transaction. In this regard, Mr. Hill and Mr. Horger proposed that, in connection with entering into a transaction and subject to approval of any such terms by the board of directors of each company, Ms. Bethea would serve as a member and the Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors of the combined company, that 4 additional current directors of First Financial would also join the Board of Directors of the combined company, as described under "Interests of First Financial's Directors and Officers in the Merger—Boards of Directors of SCBT and SCBT Bank," and that all other directors would serve on an advisory board and in connection therewith receive compensation and be bound by certain contractual restrictions, all as described under "Interests of First Financial's Directors and Officers in the Merger—Advisory Board." Mr. Hill and Mr. Horger further indicated that the combined company would benefit from the continued service of Mr. Hill in an executive capacity, and proposed, subject to negotiating the full terms of any such agreement and approval by the board of directors of SCBT, a 5-year employment arrangement as described under "Interests of First Financial's Directors and Officers in the Merger—Employment Agreements between SCBT and Certain Executive Officers of First Financial."

The following disclosure is inserted before the final sentence on page 50 of the Definitive Proxy:

In connection with delivering its written fairness opinion to the SCBT Board of Directors on February 19, 2013, and consistent with the terms of their engagement KBW disclosed to SCBT that, as of February 15, 2013, due to its acting as market maker in the securities of each of SCBT and First Financial in the ordinary course of business, KBW had a net long position of 5,821 shares in SCBT and a net long position of 809 shares in First Financial.

The following disclosure is inserted at the end of the second bullet point on page 64 of the Definitive Proxy:

As of February 18, 2013, the day before the final meeting of the SCBT board at which the merger agreement was approved, Sandler O'Neill, financial adviser to First Financial, estimated 22% cost savings resulting from the merger, which estimate differed from SCBT's stated requirement of achieving 30% cost savings and a corresponding tangible book value earn back range of 3-3.5 years.

The following disclosure is inserted before the bolded subheading, "Dissenter's Rights in the Merger," on page 79 of the Definitive Proxy:

Certain Information Regarding Mr. Hill's and Mr. Pollok's 2013 Executive Incentive Plan

As disclosed in the proxy statement for the 2013 annual meeting of shareholders of SCBT, Mr. Hill, SCBT's President and Chief Executive Officer, and Mr. Pollok, SCBT's Chief Financial Officer, participate in the 2013

Executive Incentive Plan, which includes a cash-based component and an equity-based component. The 2013 Executive Incentive Plan includes a formulaic financial goal based on non-acquired loan growth, which takes into account solely organic asset growth, rather than any asset growth that may be achieved due to acquisitions, such as the merger.

The following disclosure is inserted between the penultimate and final sentences of the paragraph spanning pages 83 and 84 of the Definitive Proxy:

As disclosed in the proxy statement for the 2013 annual meeting of shareholders of SCBT, Mr. Horger is a partner at the law firm of Horger, Barnwell & Reid, LLP, which has from time to time (including in 2012) provided certain minor legal services to SCBT, for which SCBT has generally paid amounts not in excess of $30,000 annually.
