The principal business office of each of the Reporting Persons is set forth on Schedule A attached hereto.

The name, business address and present principal occupation or employment of each executive officer and director of the Reporting Persons, as applicable, is set forth in Schedule B and is incorporated herein by reference. To the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, each of the persons listed on Schedule B is a citizen of the United States.

Except as described below, during the last five years, none of the Reporting Persons (or, to the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, any of the persons listed on Schedule B hereto) have been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or judicial misdemeanors) or was a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction as a result of which such person was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws, or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

On March 11, 2009, without admitting or denying the SEC's findings, MLPFS consented to the entry of an administrative SEC order that (1) finds violations of Section 15(f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) and Section 204A of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (the Advisers Act) for allegedly failing to maintain written policies and procedures reasonably designed to prevent the misuse of customer order information, (2) requires that MLPFS cease and desist from committing or causing any future violations of the provisions charged, (3) censures MLPFS, (4) imposes a $7,000,000 civil money penalty and (5) requires MLPFS to comply with certain undertakings.

On August 21, 2008, ML&Co reached an agreement in principle with the New York attorney general, state securities regulators, and the staff of the Commission relating to auction rate securities (ARS). Without admitting or denying wrongdoing, ML&Co agreed to accelerate a previously announced offer to purchase ARS from retail clients, use best efforts to provide liquidity solutions for institutional holders of ARS, pay a civil money penalty and compensate other eligible clients who purchased ARS and sold them at a loss.

As part of a settlement relating to managing auctions for ARS, the Commission accepted the offers of settlement of 15 broker-dealer firms, including MLPFS, and issued a settlement order on May 31, 2006. The Commission found, and MLPFS neither admitted nor denied, that respondents (including MLPFS) violated section 17(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 by managing auctions for ARS in ways that were not adequately disclosed or that did not conform to disclosed procedures. MLPFS consented to a cease and desist order, a censure, a civil money penalty, and compliance with certain undertakings.

On May 1, 2008, without admitting or denying the SEC's finding, Columbia Advisors consented to the entry of an order that found violations of Sections 17(a)(2) and 17(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, Sections 206(2), 206(4) and 207 of the Advisers Act and Advisers Act Rule 206(4)-1(a)(5) in connection with Banc of America Investment Services, Inc.'s wrap fee program, the adequacy of disclosures to customers regarding the program and Columbia Advisors' receipt of additional management fees as a result thereof. Columbia Advisors will pay $2,143,273 in disgorgement, $516,382 in prejudgment interest and $1,000,000 in civil monetary penalties.

On September 28, 2006, BAC entered into a civil settlement agreement with the New York County District Attorney. The agreement provides that, from about 2002 to 2004, BAC had deficiencies in certain internal anti-money laundering controls and failed to react appropriately to the risk presented by certain South American money services business customers who moved funds illegally through BAC. The agreement requires BAC to make a total payment of $7.5 million, to cooperate with the New York County District Attorney in ongoing investigations and to abide by anti-money laundering changes recommended by BAC's regulators.

On March 13, 2006, MLPFS entered into a settlement with the Commission whereby the Commission alleged, and MLPFS neither admitted nor denied, that MLPFS failed to furnish promptly to representatives of the Commission electronic mail communications (e-mails) as required under Section 17(a) of the Exchange Act and Rule 17a-4(j) thereunder. The Commission also alleged, and MLPFS neither admitted nor denied, that MLPFS failed to retain certain e-mails related to its business as such in violation of Section 17(a) of the Exchange Act and Rule 17a-4(b)(4) thereunder. Pursuant to the terms of the settlement, MLPFS consented to a cease and desist order, a censure, a civil money penalty of $2,500,000 and compliance with certain undertakings relating to the retention of e-mails and the prompt production of e-mails to the Commission.

In March 2005, ML&Co and certain of its affiliates (ML&Co and its affiliates collectively, Merrill Lynch) reached agreements with the State of New Jersey and the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) and reached an agreement in principle with the State of Connecticut pursuant to which Merrill Lynch, without admitting or denying the allegations, consented to a settlement that included findings that it failed to maintain certain books and records and to reasonably supervise a team of former financial analysts (FAs) who facilitated improper market timing by a hedge fund client. Merrill Lynch terminated the FAs in October 2003, brought the matter to the attention of regulators and cooperated fully in the regulators' review. The settlement will result in aggregate payments of $13.5 million.

In March 2005, Merrill Lynch reached an agreement in principle with the NYSE pursuant to which Merrill Lynch, without admitting or denying the allegations, later consented to a settlement that included findings with regard to certain matters relating to the failure to deliver prospectuses for certain auction rate preferred shares and open-end mutual funds; the failure to deliver product descriptions with regard to certain exchange-traded funds; the failure to ensure that proper registration qualifications were obtained for certain personnel; issues with regard to the retention, retrieval and review of e-mails; isolated lapses in branch office supervision; late reporting of certain events such as customer complaints and arbitrations; the failure to report certain complaints in quarterly reports to the NYSE due to a systems error; and partial non-compliance with Continuing Education requirements. The settlement resulted in a payment of $10 million to the NYSE.

On February 9, 2005, the board of governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond reviewed certain activities of BAC's Wealth and Investment Group. The Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond raised concerns that BAC and its subsidiaries did not adequately assess the legal and reputational risks posed by certain mutual fund trading activities and also addresses flaws in compliance and risk management pertaining to the asset management lines of business. Following that review, BAC and the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond executed a written agreement to ensure that BAC and its subsidiaries make progress in their efforts to adopt and implement numerous corrective actions and best practice recommendations provided by independent consultants and to address all weaknesses identified by the review.

On February 9, 2005, neither admitting nor denying the findings, Columbia Advisors entered into assurances of discontinuance with the office of the New York Attorney General to settle allegations that they had violated the Martin Act (New York General Business Law article 23-A, sections 352-353), Executive Law 63(12) and the General Business Law 349. The assurance finds that, from at least 1998 through October 2003, Columbia Advisors and Columbia Management Distributors, Inc. entered into arrangements with nine investors that allowed them to engage in short-term or excessive trading and that contrary to restrictions and/or representations in the Columbia Advisors' funds' prospectuses, allowed or failed to prevent other investors from engaging in a practice of short-term or excessive trading and failed to maintain policies or procedures to prevent the misuse of material non-public information about portfolio holdings. Columbia Advisors and Columbia Management Distributors, Inc. have paid $70 million in disgorgement and a civil money penalty of $70 million. These are the same payments paid under the parallel SEC orders dated February 9, 2005 (as described below).

On February 9, 2005, pursuant to offers of settlement by Columbia Advisors, the SEC entered an order on February 9, 2005 finding that, from at least 1998 through October 2003, Columbia Advisors and Columbia Management Distributors, Inc. allowed clients to engage in short-term or excessive trading, contrary to restrictions and/or representations in the Columbia Advisors' funds' prospectuses, allowed or failed to prevent numerous other investors, including certain employees of Columbia Advisors and their affiliates, from engaging in a practice of short-term or excessive trading and provided material non-public information about portfolio holdings to some persons. Columbia Advisors shall cease and desist from committing or causing any violations and any future violations of 204A, 206(1) and 206(2) of the Advisers Act and 17(d) and 34(b) of the Investment Company Act and Rule 17d-1 thereunder. Columbia Advisors and Columbia Management Distributors, Inc. have paid $70 million in disgorgement and a civil money penalty of $70 million. These are the same payments as described in the paragraph above.

On February 9, 2005, BANA entered into a supervisory written agreement with the Comptroller of the Currency. Under the terms of the written agreement, BANA has submitted an action plan that it shall implement and adhere to until it receives further written notice from the comptroller. The plan provides for the development of corporate governance and internal control policies and procedures for transaction documentation of each significant new customer relationship, new or unique product or service, or any significant change to an existing customer relationship, product, service or business practice recommended for the approval by the Wealth and Investment Management Group; policies and procedures governing the approval and risk management of each significant new customer, new or unique product or service or any significant change to an existing customer relationship, product, service or business practice recommended for the approval by the Wealth and Investment Management Group; and development of audit procedures to provide comprehensive coverage of activity involving the wealth and investment management business.

On November 3, 2004, a jury in Houston, Texas convicted four former Merrill Lynch employees of criminal misconduct in connection with a Nigerian barge transaction that the government alleged helped Enron inflate its 1999 earnings by $12 million. The jury also found that the transaction led to investor losses of $13.7 million. Those convictions were reversed by a federal appellate court on August 1, 2006, except for one conviction against one employee based on perjury and obstruction of justice. The government has appealed the reversals.

The Reporting Persons have entered into a Joint Filing Agreement, dated as of June ____, 2009, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

On December 21, 2005, MLGPELP, ML Ventures LP, Hertz Co-Investor LP and CMC LP (collectively, the ML Funds), together with Clayton Dubilier & Rice Fund VII, L.P., CDR CCMG Co-Investor L.P. and CD&R Parallel Fund VII, L.P. (collectively, the CD&R Funds), and Carlyle Partners IV, L.P., CP IV Coinvestment, L.P., CEP II U.S. Investments, L.P. and CEP II Participations S.à.r.l SICAR (collectively, the Carlyle Funds, and together with the ML Funds and the CD&R Funds, the Funds), through a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Funds, acquired all of The Hertz Corporation's common stock from a subsidiary of Ford Motor Company, for aggregate consideration of $4,379 million in cash, debt refinanced or assumed of $10,116 million and transaction fees and expenses of $447 million. See Item 1 Business Our Company Corporate History in the Annual Report on Form 10-K of Hertz for the year ended December 31, 2008, which is incorporated herein by reference, for a detailed description of the funds used to acquire the common stock of The Hertz Corporation. Because of such acquisition, since the initial public offering of the Issuer, the ML Funds, the CD&R Funds and the Carlyle Funds and their respective affiliates have reported their respective holdings in the Issuer annually on Schedule 13G in reliance on Rule 13d-1(d) promulgated under the Exchange Act.

On May 19, 2009, each of Clayton Dubilier Rice Fund VII, L.P. and CD&R Parallel Fund VII, L.P. entered into Subscription Agreements (as defined below) pursuant to which each agreed to purchase, and the Issuer agreed to issue and sell, Shares in the Private Offering (as defined below), resulting in a greater than 2% acquisition of the outstanding Shares of the Issuer by such entities and their respective affiliates. The closing of the Private Offering is contingent upon, among other things, the receipt of governmental approvals, including clearance under the HSR Act. All material contingencies outside the control of Clayton Dubilier Rice Fund VII, L.P. and CD&R Parallel Fund VII, L.P., including the receipt of all governmental approvals, were satisfied on June 17, 2009. Such acquisition within a 12-month period requires the CD&R Funds and the Carlyle Funds to henceforth report their holdings on Schedule 13D, instead of Schedule 13G. The CD&R Funds and the Carlyle Funds each filed a Schedule 13D in respect of their respective pending acquisitions on June 8, 2009. While none of the Reporting Persons entered into a subscription agreement with the Issuer or otherwise acquired or intends to acquire any additional Shares, they are filing this Schedule 13D because they may be deemed to be part of a group with the CD&R Funds and the Carlyle Funds within the meaning of Rule 13d-5(b) under the Exchange Act (by virtue of their original joint acquisition in 2005 and their agreements with respect to the Issuer as set forth in the Stockholders Agreements (as defined and more fully described below)), and therefore may be deemed to also acquire the Shares to be acquired by CD&R Funds and the Carlyle Funds upon the closing of the Private Offering. As a result of such acquisition, the Reporting Persons are now reporting their holdings in Hertz on a Schedule 13D and will continue to do so for so long as they are required to do so.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

On May 19, 2009, Clayton Dubilier & Rice Fund VII, L.P., CD&R Parallel Fund VII, L.P., Carlyle Partners IV, L.P. and CP IV Coinvestment, L.P. (such stockholders, together with Clayton Dubilier & Rice Fund VII, L.P. and CD&R Parallel Fund VII, L.P., the Subscribing Stockholders) each entered into substantially identical Subscription Agreements (each, the Subscription Agreement and together, the Subscription Agreements) with Hertz, pursuant to which each Subscribing Stockholder agreed to purchase, and Hertz agreed to issue and sell, an aggregate of 32,101,182 shares, at a purchase price per share equal to $6.2303 in a private offering (the Private Offering). The Subscription Agreements were entered into substantially concurrently with a public offering of its common stock (the Common Stock Public Offering) and a public offering of $450,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 5.25% Convertible Senior Notes due 2014 of Hertz. The Reporting Persons are not participating in the transactions contemplated by the Subscription Agreements and will not acquire any Shares in connection with the Private Offering nor do they intend to acquire any additional Shares at this time.

The ML Funds acquired the Shares in 2005 for general investment purposes and in the ordinary course of business. Each Reporting Person expects to evaluate on an ongoing basis the Issuer's financial condition and prospects and its interest in, and intentions with respect to, the Issuer. Accordingly, each Reporting Person reserves the right to change its plans and intentions at any time as it deems appropriate. Each Reporting Person may at any time and from time to time, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise, acquire additional securities of the Issuer; dispose of all or a portion of the securities of the Issuer that the Reporting Persons now own or may hereafter acquire; and/or enter into derivative transactions with institutional counterparties with respect to the Issuer's securities. In addition, the Reporting Persons may engage in discussions with management, the Issuer's board of directors, other stockholders of the Issuer and other relevant parties concerning the business, operations, board composition, management, strategy and future plans of the Issuer. Pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, the Reporting Persons directly holding Shares are entitled to nominate, and other significant stockholders that are parties to the Stockholders Agreements are required to vote in favor of, nominees to the board of directors of the Issuer, which will afford access to, and participation in, deliberations of the board of directors regarding the business, operations, board composition, management, strategy and future plans of the Issuer.

As a result of these activities, and subject to the limitations set forth in the Stockholders Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement (as defined below), one or more of the Reporting Persons may suggest or take a position with respect to potential changes in the operations, management, or capital structure of the Issuer as a means of enhancing shareholder value. Such suggestions or positions may include one or more plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions required to be reported herein, including, without limitation, such matters as disposing of one or more businesses; selling the Issuer or acquiring another company or business; changing operating or marketing strategies; adopting, not adopting, modifying, or eliminating certain types of anti-takeover measures; restructuring the Issuer's capitalization; reviewing dividend and compensation policies; entering into agreements with third parties relating to acquisitions of securities issued or to be issued by the Issuer; entering into agreements with the management of the Issuer relating to acquisitions of the Issuer's common stock by members of management, issuance of options to management, or their employment by the Issuer.

To the knowledge of each Reporting Person, each of the persons listed on Schedule B hereto may make the same evaluation and reserve the same rights.

The Reporting Persons have no present plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions required to be reported herein.

Stockholders Agreement

The ML Funds, the Carlyle Funds, the CD&R Funds and Hertz are parties to an Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement, dated as of November 20, 2006 (the "Stockholders Agreement"), which is incorporated herein by reference. to the instructions of certain groups of investors with respect to certain change of control transactions. The aggregate number of Shares to be beneficially owned collectively by the ML Funds, the Carlyle Funds, the CD&R Funds and Hertz following the completion of the Private Offering is 209,879,167, which after completion of the Private Offering is expected to represent approximately 51% of the Shares outstanding.
