Armstrong World Industries Comments on Sale of Asbestos Trust Shares to TPG

LANCASTER, Pa., Aug. 11 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- TPG Capital ("TPG") announced it has agreed to purchase seven million shares of Armstrong World Industries, Inc. ("Armstrong") (NYSE: AWI), and economic interests in an additional 1,039,777 shares, from the Armstrong World Industries Inc. Asbestos Personal Injury Settlement Trust ("the Trust"). TPG's purchase price per share of $22.31 is the 20-day trailing volume-weighted average price through Friday, August 7. The transaction is expected to be completed during the next several weeks, and will result in approximately $180 million of proceeds for the Trust.

TPG will initiate a tender offer for 4,435,935 shares (or approximately 8 percent) of the Company's outstanding shares from investors unaffiliated with the Trust. The tender, at the same price per share, will be consistent with certain requirements of Armstrong's governing documents and commence promptly following completion of the Trust transaction.

"TPG has a proven record of helping companies increase their value through operational improvements and by providing an environment in which the company can better realize its longer term strategic potential," Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Michael D. Lockhart said. "We believe TPG's involvement should make it easier for AWI to realize its objective to emerge from the downturn better positioned than it was when it entered, and to remain solidly profitable throughout the period."
