CALCULATION OF REGISTRATION FEE

Title of Securities to be Registered	Amount to be Registered(1)	Proposed Maximum Offering Price Per Share(2)	Proposed Maximum Aggregate Offering Price	Amount of Registration Fee
Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share	733,329	$35.80	$26,253,178	$2,416

- (1) Includes (a) up to 533,329 shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of PriceSmart's Series A preferred stock at a conversion price of $37.50 per share and (b) up to 200,000 shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of a common stock purchase warrant. The terms of the Series A preferred stock and the warrant provide for an adjustment to the number of shares issuable upon conversion or exercise thereof in the event of a stock split, stock dividend or similar transaction involving the common stock. In accordance with Rule 416 under the Securities Act, the number of shares of common stock registered hereby shall be automatically increased or decreased to cover such adjusted number of shares.
- (2) Estimated in accordance with Rule 457(c) solely for purposes of computing the amount of the registration fee based on the average of the high and low sales prices of the common stock as reported on the Nasdaq National Market on February 25, 2002.

The Registrant hereby amends this Registration Statement on such date or dates as may be necessary to delay its effective date until the Registrant shall file a further amendment which specifically states that this Registration Statement shall thereafter become effective in accordance with Section 8(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 or until the Registration Statement shall become effective on such date as the Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to said Section 8(a), may determine.

SUBJECT TO COMPLETION DATED February 26, 2002

The information in this prospectus is not complete and may be changed. We may not sell these securities until the registration statement filed with the SEC is effective. This prospectus is not an offer to sell these securities and it is not a solicitation of an offer to buy these securities in any state where the offer or sale is not permitted.

PROSPECTUS

733,329 Shares

PRICESMART, INC.

Common Stock

This prospectus relates to up to 733,329 shares of our common stock, which may be offered for sale by the selling stockholders named in this prospectus. The shares of common stock being offered are issuable upon conversion or exercise of our Series A preferred stock and a warrant to purchase our common stock, which were previously issued to the selling stockholders. The shares of common stock to which this prospectus relates may be sold from time to time by the selling stockholders directly or through one or more broker-dealers, in one or more transactions on the Nasdaq National Market, in the over-the-counter market, in negotiated transactions or otherwise, at prices related to the prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the shares of common stock sold by the selling stockholders. We will bear all expenses of the offering of common stock, except that the selling stockholders will pay any applicable underwriting fees, discounts or commissions and transfer taxes, as well as all fees and disbursements of their counsel and experts.

Our common stock is listed on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol "PSMT." On February 25, 2002, the last sale price of our common stock as reported on the Nasdaq National Market was $35.80.

PRICESMART

We own and operate U.S.-style membership shopping warehouses in Central America, the Caribbean and Asia using the trade name "PriceSmart" (and, in the Philippines, "S&R Price Membership Shopping"). As of January 31, 2002, we operated 24 warehouse stores in eleven countries (four in Panama, three each in Guatemala, Costa Rica and the Dominican Republic, two each in El Salvador, Honduras, the Philippines and Trinidad, and one each in Aruba, Barbados and the U.S. Virgin Islands). In Guatemala, the Philippines, Barbados, Trinidad and Aruba, we operate through joint venture arrangements, of which we own at least a majority interest. We also have a joint venture arrangement in Jamaica, of which we own a majority interest, and we plan to open up to two warehouses there, the first to open within the next 12 months. On January 15, 2002, we announced a 50/50 joint venture in Mexico with Grupo Gigante, S.A. de C.V., one of Mexico's largest retail store chains. PriceSmart and Grupo Gigante have agreed to initially invest up to an aggregate of $40 million, which is the anticipated amount required to construct and operate four new warehouse stores in Mexico over a period of 18 months. Also, there were ten warehouse stores in operation (nine in China and one in Saipan, Micronesia) licensed to and operated by local business people.

The warehouses sell basic consumer goods, typically comprised of approximately 60% U.S. sourced merchandise and approximately 40% locally sourced merchandise, with an emphasis on quality, low prices and efficient operations. By offering low prices on merchandise, the warehouses seek to generate sufficient sales volumes to operate profitably at relatively low gross margins. The typical no-frills warehouse-type buildings have 40,000 to 50,000 square feet of selling space and are located in urban areas to take advantage of dense populations and relatively higher levels of disposable income. Our strategy is to achieve a significant market share in metropolitan areas in emerging market countries by rapidly saturating these areas with multiple stores. Product selection includes perishable foods and basic consumer products. The target customers are primarily consumers and small businesses. The shopping format includes an annual membership fee that varies by market from $20 to $35. As of January 31, 2002, the 24 warehouses then in operation had been operating for an average of 21 months.

Our principal executive offices are located at 4649 Morena Boulevard, San Diego, California 92117. Our telephone number is (858) 581-4530.

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the following risk factors, in addition to the other information included in this prospectus, before purchasing our shares of common stock. Each of these risks could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations, as well as adversely affect the value of an investment in our common stock.

Our financial performance is dependent on international operations, which exposes us to various risks.

Our international operations account for nearly all of our total sales. Our financial performance is subject to risks inherent in operating and expanding our international membership business, which include:

changes in tariffs and taxes,

the imposition of governmental controls,

trade restrictions,

greater difficulty and costs associated with international sales and the administration of an international merchandising business, limitations on U.S. company ownership in foreign countries, permitting and regulatory compliance, volatility in foreign currency exchange rates, the financial and other capabilities of our joint venturers and licensees, and general political as well as economic and business conditions.

Any failure by us to manage our growth could adversely affect our business.

We began an aggressive growth strategy in April 1999, opening 20 new warehouses over a two and a half year period, bringing us to 22 warehouses operating in eleven countries at the end of fiscal 2001 (12 months ended August 31, 2001). We intend to open four additional new warehouses in fiscal 2002, one of which was opened in November 2001 and one of which was opened in December 2001. In March 2002, we will open our third warehouse in the Philippines and our first warehouse in Guam. The success of our growth strategy will depend to a significant degree on our ability to (1) expand our operations through the opening of new warehouses, (2) operate warehouses on a profitable basis and (3) maintain positive comparable warehouse sales growth in the applicable markets. Some markets may present operational, competitive, regulatory and merchandising challenges that are similar to, or different from those previously encountered by us. We also might not be able to adapt our operations to support our expansion plans, and new warehouses we open may not achieve the profitability necessary for us to receive an acceptable return on our investment.

Our ability to open new warehouses on a timely basis will also depend on a number of factors, some of which may be beyond our control, including our ability to:

locate suitable warehouse sites, negotiate acceptable lease or acquisition terms, construct sites on a timely basis, and obtain financing in a timely manner and with satisfactory terms.

Our growth strategy will also require us to hire, train and retain skilled managers and personnel to support our planned growth, and we may experience difficulties hiring employees who possess the training and experience necessary to operate our new warehouses, particularly in foreign markets where language, education and cultural factors may impose particular challenges. Further, we may encounter substantial delays, increased expenses or loss of potential sites due to the complexities, cultural differences and local political issues associated with the regulatory and permitting processes in the international markets in which we intend to locate new warehouses. We might not be able to open the planned number of new warehouses according to our schedule or continue to attract, develop and retain the personnel necessary to pursue our growth strategy. Failure to do so could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

As we grow, we will need to continually evaluate the adequacy of our existing systems and procedures, including warehouse management, financial and inventory control and distribution systems. In addition, we will need to continually analyze the sufficiency of our inventory distribution methods and may require additional facilities in order to support our planned growth. We may not adequately anticipate all the changing demands that our expanding operations will impose on these systems. Our failure to update our internal systems or procedures as required could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We face significant competition.

Our international merchandising businesses compete with exporters, wholesalers, other membership merchandisers, local retailers and trading companies in various international markets. Some of our competitors may have greater resources, buying power and name recognition. We cannot assure you that our competitors will not decide to enter the markets in which we operate, or expect to enter, or that our existing competitors will not compete more effectively against us. We may be required to implement price reductions in order to remain competitive should any of our competitors reduce prices in any of our markets. Moreover, our ability to expand into and operate profitably in new markets, particularly small markets, may be adversely affected by the existence or entry of competing warehouse clubs or discount retailers.

We may encounter difficulties in the shipment of goods to our warehouses.

We are required to transport products over great distances, typically over water, which results in:

- substantial lags between the procurement and delivery of product, thus complicating merchandising and inventory control methods,
- the possible loss of product due to theft or potential damage to, or destruction of, ships or containers delivering goods,
- tariff, customs and shipping regulation issues, and
- substantial ocean freight and duty costs.

Moreover, only a limited number of transportation companies service our regions. The inability or failure of one or more key transportation companies to provide transportation services to us, any collusion among the transportation companies regarding shipping prices or terms, changes in the regulations that govern shipping tariffs or any other disruption in our ability to transport our merchandise could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, many of the countries in which we operate require registration of imported products, which may result in additional delays in our deliveries of products to our warehouses.

The success of our business requires effective assistance from local business people with whom we have established strategic relationships.

Several of the risks associated with our international merchandising business may be within the control (in whole or in part) of local business people with whom we have established formal and informal strategic relationships or may be affected by the acts or omissions of these local business people. In some cases, these local business people previously held minority interests in joint venture arrangements and now hold shares of our common stock. We cannot give you any assurance that our membership store concept will be implemented effectively or that these local business people will effectively help us penetrate their respective markets. The failure of these local business people to assist us in their local markets could harm our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We are exposed to weather and other risks associated with international operations.

Our operations are subject to the volatile weather conditions and natural disasters which are encountered in the regions in which our warehouse stores are located or are planned to be located, and which could result in delays in construction or result in significant damage to, or destruction of, our warehouse stores. For example, our two stores in El Salvador experienced minimal inventory loss and disruption of their business in January 2001 as a result of an earthquake that measured approximately 8.0 on the Richter Scale and resulted in a loss of approximately $120,000. Losses from business interruption may not be adequately compensated by insurance, and could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Declines in the economies of the countries in which we operate our warehouse stores would harm our business.

The success of our operations depends to a significant extent on a number of factors relating to discretionary consumer spending, including employment rates, business conditions, consumer spending patterns and customer preferences and other economic factors in each of our foreign markets. Consumer spending in our markets may be adversely affected by these factors, which would affect our growth, sales and profitability. A decline in the national or regional economies of the foreign countries in which we currently operate, or will operate in the future, could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

A few of our stockholders have substantial control over our voting stock, which may make it difficult to complete some corporate transactions without their support and may prevent a change in control.

As of January 31, 2002, Robert E. Price, who is the Chairman of our Board, and Sol Price, a significant stockholder of ours and father of Robert E. Price, beneficially owned approximately 38% of our outstanding common stock. As a result, these stockholders will effectively control the outcome of all matters submitted to our stockholders for approval, including the election of directors. In addition, this ownership could discourage the acquisition of our common stock by potential investors and could have an anti-takeover effect, possibly depressing the trading price of our common stock.

The loss of key personnel could harm our business.

We depend to a large extent on the performance of our senior management team and other key employees for strategic business direction. If we lost the services of any members of our senior management or other key employees, it could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We are subject to volatility in foreign currency exchange.

Through our majority or wholly-owned subsidiaries, we conduct operations primarily in Central America, the Caribbean and Asia, and as such we are subject to both economic and political instabilities that cause volatility in foreign currency exchange rates or weak economic conditions. As of November 30, 2001, we had a total of 23 warehouses (adding a twenty-fourth in December 2001) operating in eleven foreign countries. Eighteen of the 23 warehouses operate under currencies other than the U.S. dollar. For the first quarter ended November 30, 2001, 74% of our net warehouse sales were in foreign currencies. We expect to enter into additional foreign countries in the future, which will increase the percentage of net warehouse sales denominated in foreign currencies.

Foreign currencies in most of the countries where we operate have historically devalued against the U.S. dollar and are expected to continue to devalue. We manage our foreign currency risks at times by hedging currencies through non-deliverable forward exchange contracts, or NDFs, that are generally for durations of six months or less and no physical exchange of currency occurs at maturity (only the resulting gain or loss). The premium associated with each NDF is amortized on a straight line basis over the term of the NDF, mark-to-market amounts and realized gains or losses are recognized on the settlement date in cost of goods sold. The related receivables or liabilities with counterparties to the NDFs are recorded in the consolidated balance sheet. As of January 31, 2002, we had NDFs outstanding of $1.2 million and $1.3 million which expire in February 2002 and March 2002, respectively. The mark-to-market unrealized loss as of January 31, 2002 on the NDFs were approximately $6,000 and $10,000, respectively. For the five months ended January 31, 2002, we had realized losses of approximately $95,000 from NDFs previously entered into. We may continue to purchase NDFs in the future to mitigate foreign exchange losses, but due to the volatility and lack of derivative financial instruments in the countries in which we operate, significant risk from unexpected devaluation of local currencies exist. Foreign exchange transaction losses realized, which are included as a part of the costs of goods sold in the consolidated statement of operations, for the three months ended November 30, 2001 and 2000 (including the cost of the NDFs), were $296,000 and $404,000, respectively.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Some of the information under the caption "Risk Factors" and elsewhere in this prospectus are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about our plans, objectives, expectations and intentions, and other statements contained in this prospectus that are not historical facts. When used in this prospectus, the words "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates" and similar expressions are generally intended to identify forward-looking statements. Because these forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, there are important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We are registering the shares of our common stock offered by this prospectus for the account of the selling stockholders identified in the section of this prospectus entitled "Selling Stockholders." All of the net proceeds from the sale of our common stock by this prospectus will go to the stockholders who offer and sell their shares of our common stock. We will not receive any part of the proceeds from the sale of these securities.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

The following table provides the name of each stockholder and the number of shares of our common stock offered by each selling stockholder under this prospectus. Because the selling stockholders may sell all or part of their shares of our common stock under this prospectus and since this offering is not being underwritten on a firm commitment basis, we cannot estimate the number and percentage of shares of our common stock that the selling stockholders will hold at the end of the offering covered by this prospectus. Of the 733,329 shares of common stock listed below,

400,000 and 200,000 shares, respectively, are issuable upon the conversion or exercise of 15,000 shares of Series A preferred stock and a common stock purchase warrant we sold to Grupo Gigante in a private placement pursuant to Rule 506 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, completed on January 22, 2002, and 133,329 shares are issuable upon the conversion of an aggregate of 5,000 shares of Series A preferred stock we sold to the remaining selling stockholders in a private placement pursuant to Rule 506 under the Securities Act completed on January 23, 2002.

Pursuant to agreements between PriceSmart and the selling stockholders, PriceSmart agreed to file a registration statement covering the shares of common stock issuable upon conversion or exercise of the Series A preferred stock and the warrant held by the selling stockholders.

The selling stockholders do not have any position, office or other material relationship with us or any of our affiliates, nor have they had any position, office or material relationship with us or any of our affiliates within the past three years, except that:

we entered into a joint venture in Mexico with Grupo Gigante, pursuant to a shareholders' agreement between PriceSmart and Grupo Gigante;

we entered into a stock purchase agreement with Grupo Gigante, which among other things grants Grupo Gigante the right to nominate one director to our board of directors so long as Grupo Gigante owns all of its shares of Series A preferred stock and the warrant or all of the shares of common stock issuable upon conversion or exercise of its shares of Series A preferred stock or the warrant. As a result, Angel Losada Moreno, the president and a significant shareholder of Grupo Gigante, was elected to our board on January 22, 2002; and Robert E. Price, who is Chairman of our Board, and Sol Price, a significant stockholder of ours and father of Robert E. Price, are directors and executive officers of The Price Family Charitable Fund, and Sol Price is a trustee of the Price Family Charitable Trust and the Sol and Helen Price Trust. As of December 31, 2001, Robert E. Price and Sol Price beneficially owned an aggregate of approximately 38% of our outstanding common stock.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling stockholders may from time to time offer and sell their shares of our common stock offered by this prospectus. We have registered the selling stockholders' shares for resale to provide them with freely tradable securities. However, registration does not necessarily mean that the selling stockholders will offer and sell any of their shares.

Offer and Sale of Shares. The selling stockholders, or their pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors in interest, may offer and sell their shares of our common stock at prices related to the prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices, in one or more of the following manners:

on the Nasdaq National Market or other exchanges on which our common stock is traded at the time of sale, in the over-the-counter market or otherwise at prices and at terms then prevailing or at prices related to the then current market price, or in privately negotiated transactions.

The selling stockholders, or their pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors in interest, may sell their shares of our common stock in one or more of the following transactions:

a block trade in which the broker or dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent, but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction, a broker or dealer may purchase as principal and resell the shares for its own account under this prospectus, or ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers.

The selling stockholders may accept or, together with any agent of the selling stockholders, reject in whole or in part any proposed purchase of the shares of our common stock offered by this prospectus.

Brokers and Dealers. The selling stockholders may select brokers or dealers to sell their shares of our common stock. Brokers or dealers of the selling stockholders may arrange for other brokers or dealers to participate in selling the shares. The selling stockholders may give the brokers or dealers commissions or discounts in amounts to be negotiated immediately before any sale. In connection with these sales, these brokers or dealers, any other participating brokers or dealers, and some pledgees, donees, transferees and other successors in interest may be considered "underwriters" within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act. In addition, any securities covered by this prospectus that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933 may be sold under Rule 144 rather than under this prospectus.

Commissions. The selling stockholders will pay any sales commissions or other sellers' compensation applicable to these transactions.

EXPERTS

Ernst & Young LLP, independent auditors, have audited our consolidated financial statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the year ended August 31, 2001, as set forth in their report, which is incorporated by reference in this prospectus and elsewhere in the registration statement. Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Officers and directors of the Company are covered by the provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL"), the Company's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, individual indemnification agreements with the Company and insurance policies which serve to limit, and, in some instances, to indemnify them against, certain liabilities which they may incur in such capacities. These various provisions are described below.

Elimination of Liability in Certain Circumstances. In June 1986, Delaware enacted legislation which authorizes corporations to limit or eliminate the personal liability of directors to corporations and their stockholders for monetary damages for breach of directors' fiduciary duty of care. This duty of care requires that, when acting on behalf of the corporation, directors must exercise an informed business judgment based on all significant information reasonably available to them. Absent the limitations now authorized by such legislation, directors are accountable to corporations and their stockholders for monetary damages for conduct constituting negligence or gross negligence in the exercise of their duty of care. Although the statute does not change directors' duty of care, it enables corporations to limit available relief to equitable remedies such as injunction or rescission. The certificate of incorporation limits the liability of directors to the Company or its stockholders (in their capacity as directors but not in their capacity as officers) to the fullest extent permitted by such legislation. Specifically, the directors of the Company will not be personally liable for monetary damages for breach of a director's fiduciary duty as director, except for liability:

for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Company or its stockholders;

for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

for unlawful payments of dividends or unlawful share repurchases or redemptions as provided in Section 174 of the DGCL;
or

for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Indemnification and Insurance. As a Delaware corporation, the Company has the power, under specified circumstances generally requiring the directors or officers to have acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believe to be in or not opposed to the Company's best interests, to indemnify its directors and officers in connection with actions, suits or proceedings brought against them by a third party or in the name of the Company, by reason of the fact that they were or are such directors or officers, against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any such action, suit or proceeding. The Company's certificate of incorporation generally provides for mandatory indemnification of the Company's directors and officers to the full extent provided by Delaware corporate law. In addition, the Company has entered into indemnification agreements with its directors and officers which generally provide for indemnification of the officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted under Delaware law, including under circumstances for which indemnification would otherwise be discretionary under Delaware law.

The Company has purchased and intends to maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Company, or is or was a director or officer of the Company serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Company would have the power or obligation to indemnify him or her against such liability under the provisions of its certificate of incorporation or bylaws.

Item 17. Undertakings.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

Edgar Filing: PRICESMART INC - Form S-3

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

II-2

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in this registration statement;

provided, however, that subparagraphs (i) and (ii) above do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3, Form S-8 or Form F-3, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned Registrant hereby further undertakes that, for the purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
