The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified or modified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the Stock Purchase Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties and standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from those applicable to investors, and may change after the date of the Stock Purchase Agreement. This subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in our public disclosures. Accordingly, investors and security holders should not rely on the representations and warranties in the Stock Purchase Agreement as characterizations of the actual state of any fact or facts.
