PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING INFORMATION

This proxy statement contains information related to the annual meeting of shareholders of Ark Restaurants Corp. (["Ark"] or the ["Company"]) to be held at Bryant Park Grill, located at 25 West 40th Street, New York, New York, at 10:00 A.M., New York City time, on March 25, 2008 and at any adjournment or adjournments thereof (the ["Meeting"]). This proxy statement was prepared under the direction of our Board of Directors (the ["Board of Directors"] or the ["Board"]) to solicit your proxy for use at the annual meeting. It will be mailed to shareholders on or about February 11, 2008.

Who may attend the annual meeting?

All shareholders of record at the close of business on February 6, 2008 (the ["Record Date"]), or their duly appointed proxies, and our invited guests may attend the Meeting.

Who may vote?

You may vote if you owned our common stock as of the close of business on the Record Date. Each share of our common stock is entitled to one vote. As of the Record Date, there were 3,596,799 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Meeting.

What will I be voting on?

You will be voting on the following:

- The election of nine (9) directors for a term to expire at the next annual meeting of shareholders; and
- The ratification of the selection of J.H. Cohn LLP (["Cohn"]) as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2008.

What are the voting recommendations of the Board of Directors?

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote your shares ["FOR"] each of the nominees named in this proxy statement for election to the Board and ["FOR"] ratification of the selection of Cohn as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2008.

How do I vote?

Return Your Proxy Card By Mail: You may vote by completing, signing and returning the enclosed proxy card in the postage-paid envelope provided with this proxy statement. The proxy holders will vote your shares according to your directions. If you sign and return your proxy card without specifying choices, your shares will be voted by the persons named in the proxy in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors as set forth in this proxy statement.

Vote at the Meeting: You may cast your vote in person at the Meeting. Written ballots will be passed out to anyone who wants to vote in person at the meeting.

Even if you plan to attend the meeting, you are encouraged to vote your shares by proxy. You may still vote your shares in person at the Meeting even if you have previously voted by proxy. If you are present at the Meeting and desire to vote in person, your vote by proxy will not be used.

What if I hold my shares in [street name]?

You should follow the voting directions provided by your broker or nominee. You may complete and mail a voting instruction card to your broker or nominee or, in most cases, submit voting instructions by telephone or the Internet to your broker or nominee. If you provide specific voting instructions by mail, telephone or the Internet, your broker or nominee will vote your shares as you have directed.

Can I change my mind after I vote?

Yes. If you are a shareholder of record, you may change your vote or revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the Meeting by:

- signing another proxy card with a later date and returning it to us prior to the Meeting;
- giving written notice of revocation to Ark Restaurants Corp., Attention Treasurer, 85 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10003; or
- attending the Meeting and voting in person.

If you hold your shares in street name, you may submit new voting instructions by contacting your broker, bank or other nominee. You may also vote in person at the Meeting if you obtain a legal proxy from your broker, bank or other nominee.

Who will count the votes?

A representative of our Transfer Agent will count the votes and will serve as the independent inspector of elections.

Will my shares be voted if I do not provide my proxy?

If you are the shareholder of record and you do not vote or provide a proxy, your shares will not be voted.

Your shares may be voted if they are held in street name, even if you do not provide the brokerage firm with voting instructions. Brokerage firms have the authority under the rules of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FINRA) to vote shares for which their customers do not provide voting instructions on certain routine matters.

The election of directors and the proposal to ratify the selection of Cohn as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2008 are considered routine matters for which brokerage firms may vote unvoted shares. There are currently no other proposals to be voted on at the Meeting.

How many votes must be present to hold the meeting?

A majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at the Meeting, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum. Shares of common stock represented in person or by proxy, including shares which abstain or do not vote with respect to one or more of the matters presented for shareholder approval, will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present.

What vote is required to approve each proposal?

In accordance with our bylaws, the nominees for director receiving the highest number of votes cast in person or by proxy at the Meeting (also referred to as a plurality of the votes cast) will be elected. If you mark your proxy to withhold your vote for a particular nominee on your proxy card, your vote will not count either for or against the nominee. The ratification of the selection of Cohn as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2008 requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Meeting in order to be approved.

Shares that abstain from voting as to a particular matter will not be counted as votes in favor of such matter, and also will not be counted as votes cast or shares voting on such matter. Accordingly, abstentions will not be included in vote totals and will not affect the outcome of the voting for either proposal.

Who will pay for this proxy solicitation?

We will bear the cost of preparing, assembling and mailing the proxy material and of reimbursing brokers, nominees, fiduciaries and other custodians for out-of-pocket and clerical expenses of transmitting copies of the proxy material to the beneficial owners of our shares. A few of our officers and employees may participate in the solicitation of proxies without additional compensation.

Will any other matters be voted on at the Meeting?

As of the date of this proxy statement, our management knows of no other matter that will be presented for consideration at the Meeting other than those matters discussed in this proxy statement. If any other matters properly come before the Meeting and call for a vote of shareholders, validly executed proxies in the enclosed form returned to us will be voted in accordance with the recommendation of the Board of Directors, or, in the absence of such a recommendation, in accordance with the judgment of the proxy holders.

What are the deadlines for stockholder proposals for next year's Meeting?

Stockholders may submit proposals on matters appropriate for stockholder action at future annual meetings by following the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Proposals intended for inclusion in next year's proxy statement and proxy card must be received by not later than September 27, 2008. All proposals and notifications should be addressed to Ark Restaurants Corp., Attention Treasurer, 85 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10003.

Where can I find the voting results?

The preliminary voting results will be announced at the Meeting. The final results will be published in our quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the second quarter of fiscal 2008.

Our current corporate governance principles, including the Code Ethics and the charters of each of the Audit Committee and Nominating and Governance Committee are all available under About Ark -- Corporate Governance on our website at www.arkrestaurants.com. We are in compliance with the corporate governance requirements imposed by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, the Securities and Exchange Commission and the NASDAQ Marketplace Rules. We will continue to modify our policies and practices to meet ongoing developments in this area. Aspects of our corporate governance principles are discussed throughout this Proxy Statement.

Director Independence

The Board has determined that each of the following directors is an [independent director] as such term is defined in NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 4200(a)(15): Bruce Lewin, Marcia Allen, Steven Shulman, Arthur Stainman and Stephen Novick.

Board and Committee Meeting Attendance

During the past year, the Board held six meetings. Each member of the Board attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board and committees on which he or she served. Independent directors meet at least twice per year without management present.

Board Committees

The Board has delegated various responsibilities and authority to different Board committees. The Board has three standing committees: the Compensation Committee, the Audit Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Board has appointed only independent directors to such committees. The members of each committee are appointed by the Board and serve one year terms. Committees regularly report on their activities and actions to the full Board of Directors. Each committee has a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors under which it operates.

Compensation Committee

Ms. Allen (Chairperson) and Messrs. Shulman and Stainman currently serve as members of the Compensation Committee of the Board. The Compensation Committee: (i) oversees and sets the compensation and benefits arrangements of our Chief Executive Officer and certain other executives; (ii) provides a general review of, and makes recommendations to, the Board of Directors or to our shareholders with respect to our equity-based compensation plans; and (iii) implements, administers, operates and interprets all equity-based and similar compensation plans to the extent provided under the terms of such plans..

The Board of Directors adopted a written charter under which the Compensation Committee operates. The Compensation Committee held three meetings in 2007.

Audit Committee

Messrs. Lewin (Chairperson) and Stainman and Ms. Allen currently serve as members of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee is responsible for, among other things, and engaging the independent auditors, receiving and reviewing the recommendations of the independent auditors, reviewing consolidated financial statements of the Company, meeting periodically with the independent auditors and Company personnel with respect to the adequacy of internal accounting controls, resolving potential conflicts of interest and reviewing Company's accounting policies.

The Board of Directors has determined that all of the members of the Audit Committee meet the independence criteria for audit committees and have the qualifications set forth in the listing standards of NASDAQ and Rule 10A-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the [Exchange Act]). The Board of Directors has also designated Ms. Allen as an audit committee financial expert within the meaning of Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K under the Exchange Act and the Board of Directors has determined that she has the financial sophistication required under the listing standards of NASDAQ.

The Board of Directors adopted a written charter under which the Audit Committee operates. The Board of Directors reviews and assesses the adequacy of the charter of the Audit Committee on an annual basis.

The Audit Committee held five meetings during 2007.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

Messrs. Novick (Chairperson), Stainman and Lewin currently serve as members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board. The Board of Directors adopted a written charter under which the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee operates. The Nominating and Corporate Governance the nomination of the candidates reflected in Proposal One, which candidates were approved by the Board of Directors.

Committee approved

The duties of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are to recommend to the Board nominees to the Board of Directors and its standing committees. Although the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has not established minimum qualifications for director candidates, it will consider, among other factors:

- Judgment
- Skill
- Diversity
- Experience with businesses and other organizations of comparable size
- The interplay of the candidate's experience with the experience of other Board members
- The extent to which the candidate would be a desirable addition to the Board and any committees of the Board

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider all director candidates recommended by stockholders. Any stockholder who desires to recommend a director candidate may do so in writing, giving each recommended candidate's name, biographical data and qualifications, by mail addressed to the Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, in care of Ark Restaurants Corp., 85 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10003. Members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will assess potential candidates on a regular basis.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee held one meeting in 2007.

December 31, 2007

The Board of Directors
Ark Restaurants Corp.

Fellow Directors:

The primary purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in its general oversight of the Corporation's financial reporting process. The Audit Committee conducted its oversight activities for Ark Restaurants Corp. and subsidiaries (Ark) in accordance with the duties and responsibilities outlined in the audit committee charter. The Audit Committee annually reviews the NASDAQ standard of independence for audit committees and its most recent review determined that the committee meets that standard.

Ark management is responsible for the preparation, consistency, integrity and fair presentation of the financial statements, accounting and financial reporting principles, systems of internal control, and procedures designed to ensure compliance with accounting standards, applicable laws, and regulations. The Corporation's independent auditors, J.H. Cohn LLP, are responsible for performing an independent audit of the financial statements and expressing an opinion on the conformity of those financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Edgar Filing: ARK RESTAURANTS CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Audit Committee, with the assistance and support of the Chief Financial Officer of Ark, has fulfilled its objectives, duties and responsibilities as stipulated in the audit committee charter and has provided adequate and appropriate independent oversight and monitoring of Ark's systems of internal control for the fiscal year ended September 29, 2007.

These activities included, but were not limited to, the following significant accomplishments during the fiscal year ended September 29, 2007:

- Reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management and the external auditors.
- Received written disclosures and letter from the external auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, and discussed with the auditors their independence.

In reliance on the Committee's review and discussions of the matters referred to above, the Audit Committee recommends the audited financial statements be included in Ark's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 29, 2007, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

Ark Restaurants Corp. Audit Committee

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditor

The Audit Committee is responsible for appointing, setting compensation and overseeing the work of the independent auditor. The Audit Committee has established a policy regarding pre-approval of all audit and non-audit services provided by the independent auditor.

On an ongoing basis, management communicates specific projects and categories of service for which the advance approval of the Audit Committee is requested. The Audit Committee reviews these requests and advises management if the Committee approves the engagement of the independent auditor. On a periodic basis, management reports to the Audit Committee regarding the actual spending for such projects and services compared to the approved amounts. The projects and categories of service are as follows:

Audit—Annual audit fees relate to services rendered in connection with the audit of our consolidated financial statements and the quarterly reviews of financial statements included in our Forms 10-Q.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Our Compensation Committee discharges the responsibilities of the Board of Directors with respect to compensation of the our executive officers as defined in Section 16 of the Exchange Act — which, with respect to the fiscal year ended September 29, 2007, includes the Chief Executive Officer, Michael Weinstein (the “CEO”); the President and Chief Operating Officer, Robert Towers; Senior Vice Presidents Vincent Pascal and Paul Gordon; and the Chief Financial Officer, Robert Stewart (together with the CEO, and Messrs. Towers, Pascal, Gordon and Stewart, the “Named Executive Officers” or “NEOs”) — and administration of the Company’s equity-based employee compensation plans and is responsible for evaluating the CEO’s and the other NEOs’ performance in light of Board of Director objectives and establishing compensation levels based on such evaluation. Additionally, the Compensation Committee makes recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding incentive compensation plans and equity-based plans with respect to the CEO and the other NEOs.

Executive Compensation Objectives

Our philosophy is that compensation paid to the CEO and the other NEOs should be closely aligned with the values, objectives and performance of the Company on both a short- and long-term basis. Our executive compensation program is designed to achieve the following objectives:

- Attract and retain highly qualified individuals who are capable of making significant contributions to our long-term success;
- Reward the CEO and the other NEOs for long-term strategic management and the enhancement of shareholder value; and
- Promote a performance-oriented environment that encourages Company and individual achievement.

Executive Compensation Procedures

In an effort to attain the Company's executive compensation objectives, we have established and implemented the following procedures:

Role of the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee has responsibility for establishing and monitoring the executive compensation programs of the Company and for making decisions regarding the compensation of the CEO and the other NEOs. The agenda for meetings of the Compensation Committee is determined by the Chairperson of the Compensation Committee, in consultation with the CEO. Compensation Committee meetings are often attended by the CEO. The Compensation Committee also meets in executive session. In determining compensation of the CEO, the Compensation Committee reviews data which it believes is representative of the restaurant industry, primarily by reviewing public disclosure of other public companies, as filed with the SEC. This peer group of comparable companies was selected in 2005 and may be revised by the Compensation Committee from time to time. The Compensation Committee considers, among other factors, the Company's performance and relative shareholder return, the value of similar incentive awards to executive officers at comparable companies, the awards given to the CEO and the other NEOs in past years, and other factors considered relevant by the Compensation Committee.

The Compensation Committee also monitors, administers and approves awards under the Company's incentive compensation plans for the CEO and the other NEOs, including awards under the Company's 2004 Stock Option Plan (the "Plan").

The Compensation Committee typically meets toward the end or shortly after the end of the calendar year to approve base salaries of the CEO and the other NEOs for the coming year and to consider annual incentive bonus awards for the previous year. At that meeting, the Compensation Committee also reviews the status of long-term incentives available to the CEO and the other NEOs (historically limited to options to purchase shares of Common Stock) and considers whether any additional long-term incentive awards are appropriate.

The Compensation Committee relies on its experience and judgment in making executive compensation decisions after reviewing the performance of the Company for the applicable fiscal year, evaluating the CEO's and the other NEOs' responsibilities within the Company and current compensation arrangements. The compensation program for the CEO and the other NEOs and the Compensation Committee assessment process is designed to be flexible so as to better respond to the evolving business environment and individual circumstances.

Role of Consultants. The Company and the Compensation Committee has not engaged the services of compensation consultants, but either or both may do so upon a case-by-case basis as circumstances warrant. No compensation consultants were involved in setting the compensation of the CEO or the other NEOs during the fiscal year ended September 29, 2007.

Executive Compensation Program

The following components of the Company's executive compensation program and the policies that govern their implementation are outlined briefly below:

- Base Salary;
- Annual Bonus; and
- Long-Term Equity Awards.

Base Salary. The base salary for the CEO and the other NEOs is set at a level that the Compensation Committee believes is generally competitive with levels of compensation paid to chief executive and other named executive officers of other comparably-sized restaurant operating companies. The overall performance of the Company, shareholder return, and the Company's progress toward achieving specific objectives are also important factors in setting base salary for the CEO and NEOs. The Compensation Committee also considers, among other factors, the value of similar incentive awards to chief executive officers and other named executive officers at comparable restaurant companies, the awards given to the CEO and NEOs in past years, and other factors considered relevant by the Committee.

Annual Bonus. The annual bonus component of the CEO's and the other NEOs' compensation is intended to reward short-term performance and help the Company retain the CEO and the other NEOs. The aggregate amount of annual bonus payable to the CEO and the other NEOs for each fiscal year is set at levels which the Compensation Committee believes are competitive with the Company's peers such that the combination of base salary and bonuses results in an aggregate rate of cash salary and bonus compensation within competitive, market standards when the Company meets the performance objectives.

The amount of performance-based annual bonus payable to the CEO and the other NEOs each year is contingent on several factors, including the degree to which the Company attains certain performance goals based on Company annual EBITDA targets for the year in question. The Compensation Committee determines the actual amount of performance-based bonus payable to the CEO and the other NEOs shortly after the close of the fiscal year to which the bonus relates, once financial results for the year are known. The performance-based bonus amount, if any, is paid within 60 days after year-end results are audited.

Long-Term Equity Awards. Discretionary long-term equity awards, in the form of stock options, are granted at the Compensation Committee's discretion to the CEO and the other NEOs from time to time in an effort to provide long-term performance-based compensation, to encourage the CEO and the other NEOs to continue their engagement with the Company throughout the applicable option vesting periods and to align management and shareholder interests. In making awards under the Plan, the Compensation Committee considers grant size and the appropriate combination of equity-based awards. In years in which stock options are granted, such options are granted with an exercise price equal to the closing price per share on the date of grant (or if the market is closed, with the most immediately available recent closing price). Options vest incrementally over time as determined by the Compensation Committee at the time of grant. The Company does not grant options with an exercise price below 100% of the trading price of the underlying shares of common stock on the date of grant or grant options that are priced on a date other than the grant date (unless granted on a Saturday or day when the market is closed). In granting stock options to the CEO and the other NEOs, the Company also considers the impact of the grant on the Company's financial performance, as determined in accordance with the requirements of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R), Share-Based Payment ("SFAS No. 123(R)"). In accordance with SFAS 123(R), the Company values employee stock options using the Black-Scholes option valuation method that uses assumptions that relate to the expected volatility of the Company's common stock, the expected dividend yield of our stock, the expected life of the options and the risk free interest rate. The amount of expense the Company records pursuant to SFAS 123(R) may vary from the corresponding compensation value used by the Company in determining the amount of the awards.

Other Personal Benefits. The Company provides health and disability benefits to the CEO and the other NEOs. The Company does not maintain any pension, retirement, deferred compensation, life insurance or other benefit plans or programs for the CEO or the other NEOs.

Deductibility of Executive Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), imposes a $1 million annual limit on the amount that a public company may deduct for compensation paid to the company's chief executive officer during a tax year or to any of the company's four other most highly compensated executive officers who are still employed at the end of the tax year. The limit does not apply to compensation that meets the requirements of Code Section 162(m) for "qualified performance-based" compensation (i.e., compensation paid only if the executive meets pre-established, objective goals based upon performance criteria approved by the Company's shareholders). The Compensation Committee reviews and considers the deductibility of executive compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code. In certain situations, the Compensation Committee may approve compensation that will not meet the requirements of Code Section 162(m) in order to ensure competitive levels of total compensation for its CEO or the other NEOs.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Compensation Committee has reviewed the foregoing Compensation Discussion and Analysis required by Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis with the Company's management. Based on such review and discussions with management, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board of Directors of the Company that the foregoing Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this Proxy Statement.

Householding of Proxy Materials

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries such as brokers to satisfy delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more shareholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement and annual report addressed to those shareholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as "householding," potentially provides extra convenience for shareholders and cost savings for companies. The Company and some brokers household proxy materials, delivering a single proxy statement and annual report to multiple shareholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected shareholders.

Once you have received notice from your broker or us that each of us will be householding materials to your address, householding will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate proxy statement and annual report, or if you are receiving multiple copies of the proxy statement and annual report and wish to receive only one, please notify your broker if your shares are held in a brokerage account or the Company if you hold registered shares. You can notify us by sending a written request to Ark Restaurants Corp., Attention Treasurer, 85 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10003.

This proxy solicitation material has been mailed with the annual report to shareholders for the fiscal year ended September 29, 2007; however, it is not intended that the annual report be a part of the proxy statement or this solicitation of proxies.
