Attachment A

ACL Semiconductors, Inc. (□we□ or □us□) anticipates that it will report significant changes in its results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009 as compared to the same period in the prior fiscal year.

Based on information available to us at this time, net sales increased from approximately $51.3 million and $149.5 million in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008, respectively, to approximately $73.6 million and $209.1 million in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively, cost of sales increased from approximately $49.6 million and $145.9 million in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008, respectively, to approximately $71.9 million and $202.4 million in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively, operating expenses increased from approximately $0.9 million and $2.5 million in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008, respectively, to approximately $1.7 million and $4.1 million in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively, and other expenses decreased from approximately $0.2 million and $0.8 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008, respectively, to other income of approximately $0.7 million and $0.6 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively, resulting in a decrease of net income from approximately $0.53 million for the three months ended September 30, 2008 to approximately $0.46 million for the three months ended September 30, 2009 and an increase in net income from approximately $0.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 to approximately $2.5 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009.

The increase in net sales was attributable principally to increased demand and resulting higher sales prices for memory products in the PRC market, especially for Nand Flash, DRAM and Graphic RAM products while the increase in cost of sales was mainly due to a corresponding increase in net sales. The increase in operating expenses was attributable principally to increased sales and marketing efforts, the default by an unrelated customer, that went into liquidation, for an account receivable of approximately $0.7 million and increases in compensation paid to our employees and executives. The decrease in other expense was mainly due to the receipt of insurance proceeds of approximately $0.7 million for the aforementioned customer that went into liquidation as well as a decrease in interest expense as a result of the reduction in the use of letters of credit to obtain goods from suppliers.

The foregoing is qualified in its entirety by reference to our unaudited financial statements for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2009, to be filed in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2009.
