On March 3, 2015, Trian Fund Management, L.P. (“Trian”) issued the following press release:

TRIAN COMMENTS ON DUPONT REJECTION OF UNIVERSAL PROXY CARD

NEW YORK, March 3, 2015 – Trian Fund Management, L.P., one of the largest stockholders of E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company (NYSE: DD), which currently beneficially owns approximately 24.6 million DuPont shares valued at approximately $1.9 billion, today commented on DuPont’s rejection of Trian’s proposal to provide DuPont stockholders with a universal proxy card, including both Trian and DuPont nominees, in connection with the Company’s 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Nelson Peltz, Chief Executive Officer and a Founding Partner of Trian, commented, “We are disappointed that the DuPont Board has unanimously chosen to limit stockholder choice and veto best-in-class corporate governance by rejecting our proposal to allow stockholders to elect the best directors from among all director candidates. In objecting to the use of the universal proxy card, DuPont is forcing stockholders to elect either the Trian slate of candidates or the DuPont slate of candidates -- rather than permitting stockholders to elect whichever candidates they prefer regardless of which proxy card they submit. It is unfortunate that DuPont would frustrate shareholder democracy by rejecting a mechanism that we believe would result in the election of the most qualified directors and would allow stockholders who wish to choose among the best of all candidates to do so without having to travel to the Annual Meeting. Accordingly, Trian believes it is time for fresh perspectives and the election of Trian’s nominees who will stimulate robust dialogue and enhanced engagement in the boardroom.”

Trian’s letter to DuPont’s Board follows:

February 23, 2015

The Board of Directors
c/o Corporate Secretary
E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company
1007 Market Street, D-9058
Wilmington, DE 19898

Dear Members of the Board:

I am the Chief Executive Officer and a Founding Partner of Trian Fund Management, L.P. (“Trian”) and am writing to you on behalf of investment funds managed by Trian, which currently beneficially own approximately 24.6 million shares of E.I. du Pont de Nemours and Company (“DuPont”), valued at approximately $1.9 billion. On January 8, 2015, Trian announced the nomination of four highly qualified candidates for election to the DuPont Board of Directors at the 2015 annual stockholders’ meeting (the “Annual Meeting”).

We are writing to request that DuPont allow stockholders to use a universal proxy card to vote for directors in the 2015 election. Unlike a traditional proxy card, a universal proxy card includes all candidates nominated by both the company and stockholders, which allows stockholders to choose the best among all candidates (rather than between two slates of candidates) without physically attending the Annual Meeting. If DuPont does not implement a universal proxy card, DuPont stockholders not in attendance at the Annual Meeting will be able only to choose from nominees that appear on either Trian’s or DuPont’s ballot—but not both.

Adoption by both Trian and DuPont of a universal proxy card will reflect best-in-class corporate governance, and will result in the most qualified directors being elected, regardless of which proxy card a stockholder returns. Let us not limit stockholders’ rights by restricting their voting choices during this important election. Trian (and each of its nominees) wishes to provide stockholders with maximum freedom of choice and, therefore, we support the use of a universal proxy card in connection with the upcoming Annual Meeting. We hope that DuPont also will support stockholder freedom of choice and allow the democratic process to work.

We urge you to carefully consider this proposal and do the right thing for DuPont's stockholders. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

/s/ Nelson Peltz
Chief Executive Officer and Founding Partner
