In response to a question regarding pension and post-retirement healthcare benefits, a representative of Trian Fund Management, L.P. ("Trian") made the following statement on March 30, 2015. Trian may provide substantially similar statements from time to time.

“Thank you very much for your email of March 29. As one of DuPont’s largest stockholders, Trian has a clear interest in the long-term success of the company. As you know, in 2006, DuPont closed its defined benefit pension plan to new employees, and in 2012, DuPont amended its retiree medical and dental plans for certain retirees and survivors. Trian’s objective is to help DuPont be in a position to honor its obligations to current and former employees. We believe the best way to ensure that outcome is to make sure that the DuPont Board holds management accountable for best-in-class performance in every aspect of DuPont’s business. In addition, Trian’s nominees, if elected to the DuPont Board, will seek to grow sales and profitability, which will allow the dividend to grow. And, contrary to DuPont’s rhetoric, Trian is committed to maintaining DuPont’s investment grade rating. Our interests are fully aligned with those of DuPont’s current and former employees and the greater Wilmington community, and we thank you for taking the time to write to us.”
