Item 5 Other Events.

On June 18, 2003, SRI/Surgical Express, Inc. (the Company ), Aesculap, Inc. ( Aesculap ), and Rex Healthcare, Inc. ( Rex Healthcare ) entered into a Service and Supply Agreement (the Rex Agreement ). The Company's press release dated June 19, 2003, reporting the Rex Agreement is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Rex Healthcare of Raleigh, North Carolina is a major healthcare system providing care to the Raleigh area. Rex Healthcare is currently a customer of the Company, but the Rex Agreement considerably increases the scope of the Company's customer relationship with this hospital group.

The Rex Agreement provides for the Company to exclusively provide Rex Healthcare with surgical and obstetrical instrument supply and Central Services Management services. Aesculap will procure, repair, maintain, and refurbish instruments required under the Rex Agreement pursuant to its Joint Marketing Agreement with the Company. The Company earns revenues under this agreement based on the number of surgical procedures that it services. Revenue projections provided in the Company's press release were determined based on Rex Healthcare's projected surgical procedure counts. Any variation in the actual number of surgical procedures performed would change the projected revenue amounts.

The initial term of the Rex Agreement is seven years, beginning on July 1, 2003. The agreement is subject to termination rights for non-performance. The parties may terminate this agreement without cause on one year's prior written notice, although any termination within the first three years is cause for a significant termination fee payable by the terminating party.

The statements in this filing that are not historical, including statements regarding the Company's beliefs, expectations, and strategies, constitute forward looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause the differences are discussed in the Company's periodic reports on Forms 10-Q and 10-K that the Company periodically files with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These factors include the Company's sales process and market acceptance of its products and services, the Company's capital needs, its new product offering, dependence on a supplier as well as on significant customers, market consolidation and competition. The Company does not undertake to update any forward-looking statement in this filing.
