Dear Shareholders and Optionholders:

On behalf of the Board of Directors, we cordially invite you to attend the Special Meeting of Securityholders of Intrawest Corporation to be held commencing at 10:00 a.m. (Vancouver time) on Tuesday, October 17, 2006 in the Ballroom of The Fairmont Waterfront Hotel, 900 Canada Place Way, Vancouver, British Columbia. The meeting is for holders of Common Shares of Intrawest and holders of options to acquire Common Shares.

At the Meeting, you will be asked to approve a statutory arrangement under which holders of Common Shares will receive US$35.00 in cash for each of their Common Shares and the holders of Intrawest Options will receive the difference between US$35.00 and the applicable exercise price under each Intrawest Option held, net of applicable withholdings. The accompanying Notice of Special Meeting and Management Information Circular provide a full description of the Arrangement and include certain additional information to assist you in considering how to vote on the Arrangement. YOU ARE URGED TO READ THIS INFORMATION CAREFULLY AND, IF YOU REQUIRE ASSISTANCE, TO CONSULT YOUR FINANCIAL, LEGAL OR OTHER PROFESSIONAL ADVISOR.

YOUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE ARRANGEMENT, HAS DETERMINED THAT THE ARRANGEMENT IS IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF INTRAWEST AND IS FAIR TO INTRAWEST'S SHAREHOLDERS AND RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS AND OPTIONHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE RESOLUTIONS APPROVING THE ARRANGEMENT. The recommendation of the Board of Directors is based on various factors, including the opinion dated August 10, 2006 of Goldman, Sachs & Co., financial advisor to the Board of Directors, which states that, as of the date of the opinion and based on and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth therein, the consideration to be received by Shareholders under the Arrangement Agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such Shareholders. A copy of the Goldman, Sachs & Co. opinion is included as Appendix D to the accompanying Management Information Circular.

The Arrangement must be approved by a resolution passed by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at the Meeting by the Shareholders and Optionholders (including by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at the Meeting by Shareholders), and also satisfy a "minority approval" requirement imposed by securities law under which the Arrangement must be approved by a simple majority of the Common Shares voted, where the Common Shares owned or controlled by Mr. Houssian, Intrawest's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, will not be counted. The Arrangement is also subject to certain customary conditions, including the approval of the Supreme Court of British Columbia. Subject to obtaining Court approval and satisfying such other conditions, it is anticipated that the Arrangement will be completed later in October 2006.

Your vote is important regardless of the number of Common Shares or Intrawest Options you own. If you are unable to be present at the Meeting in person, we encourage you to take the time to complete, sign, date and return the appropriate form of proxy (the white form of proxy in the case of Registered Shareholders, the applicable voting instruction form in the case of Non-Registered Shareholders and the green form of proxy in the case of Optionholders) so that your securities can be voted at the Meeting in accordance with your instructions. We also encourage Registered Shareholders and Optionholders to complete, sign, date and return the appropriate Letter of Transmittal so that, if the proposed Arrangement is approved, payment for your Common Shares or Intrawest Options can be sent to you as soon as possible following the implementation of the Arrangement.

If you have any questions, please contact our proxy solicitation agent, Georgeson Shareholder Communications Canada Inc., toll-free at 1-866-390-5292.

On behalf of Intrawest, we would like to thank you for your continued support as we prepare to take this important step in Intrawest's history.

Yours very truly,

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SECURITYHOLDERS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a special meeting (the "MEETING") of holders ("SHAREHOLDERS") of common shares (the "COMMON SHARES") and holders ("OPTIONHOLDERS" and, together with Shareholders, the "SECURITYHOLDERS") of options (the "INTRAWEST OPTIONS") to acquire Common Shares of Intrawest Corporation (the "CORPORATION" or "INTRAWEST") will be held commencing at 10:00 a.m. (Vancouver time) on Tuesday, October 17, 2006 in the Ballroom of The Fairmont Waterfront Hotel, 900 Canada Place Way, Vancouver, British Columbia, for the following purposes:

1. to consider, pursuant to an interim order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia dated September 19, 2006 (the "INTERIM ORDER") and, if deemed advisable, to pass, with or without variation, resolutions (the "ARRANGEMENT RESOLUTIONS") to approve an arrangement (the "ARRANGEMENT") under section 192 of the Canada Business Corporations Act involving the Corporation, its shareholders and optionholders, Wintergames S.a.r.l. ("PARENT"), a Luxembourg company that is indirectly owned by 18 private equity funds managed by Fortress Investment Group LLC or one of its affiliates, and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Wintergames Acquisition ULC ("ACQUISITIONCO"), involving, among other things, (a) the acquisition by Acquisitionco of all of the outstanding Common Shares for US$35.00 in cash for each Common Share and (b) the transfer by the Optionholders to the Corporation of all of the outstanding Intrawest Options in exchange for a cash amount per Optionholder equal to (i) the product of the number of Common Shares underlying the Intrawest Options held by such Optionholder and US$35.00, less (ii) the aggregate exercise price payable under such Intrawest Options by the Optionholder to acquire the Common Shares underlying such Intrawest Options, net of applicable withholdings, all as more particularly described in the accompanying management information circular of the Corporation (the "CIRCULAR"); and

2. to transact such further business as may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

The Board of Directors of the Corporation has fixed the close of business on September 18, 2006 as the record date for determining Securityholders who are entitled to receive notice of and vote at the Meeting. Only Securityholders whose names have been entered in the registers of Intrawest on the close of business on that date are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Meeting.

The Arrangement and the Arrangement Resolutions are described in the Circular and the full text of the Arrangement Resolutions is set out in Appendix A to the Circular. The Circular, forms of proxy and a form of Letter of Transmittal that can be used by Shareholders accompany this Notice of Meeting. A form of Letter of Transmittal that can be used by Optionholders will be provided separately to Optionholders.

Registered Shareholders and Optionholders unable to attend the Meeting in person are requested to complete, date, sign and return in the envelope provided for that purpose the white form of proxy in the case of Registered Shareholders and the green form of proxy in the case of Optionholders. To be used at the Meeting, proxies must be received by the Corporation's transfer agent, CIBC Mellon Trust Company, 1066 West Hastings Street, Suite 1600, The Oceanic Plaza, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, V6E 3X1 (Attention: Proxy Department) before 5:00 p.m. (Vancouver time) on Friday, October 13, 2006 or, in the case of any adjournment or postponement of the Meeting, no later than 48 hours before the date of the reconvened Meeting. Non-Registered Shareholders of the Corporation should carefully follow the voting instructions received from the Corporation or their intermediary.

Pursuant to the Interim Order, Registered Shareholders have a right to dissent in respect of the Arrangement Resolutions and to be paid an amount equal to the fair value of their Common Shares. This right is described in the Circular. The dissent procedures require that a Registered Shareholder who wishes to dissent must send to Intrawest a written notice of objection to the Arrangement Resolutions (i) at Suite 800, 200 Burrard Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, V6C 3L6 (Attention: General Counsel) or (ii) by facsimile transmission to 604-669-0605 (Attention: General Counsel), to be received not later than 5:00 p.m. (Vancouver time) on Monday, October 16, 2006 (or 5:00 p.m. (Vancouver time) on the day that is one business day immediately preceding any adjourned or postponed Meeting), and must otherwise strictly comply with the dissent procedures described in the Circular. FAILURE TO COMPLY STRICTLY WITH THESE DISSENT PROCEDURES MAY RESULT IN THE LOSS OR UNAVAILABILITY OF THE RIGHT TO DISSENT. See the section entitled "DISSENTING SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS" in the Circular and Appendix G to the Circular. Beneficial owners of Common Shares registered in the name of an intermediary who wish to dissent should be aware that ONLY REGISTERED SHAREHOLDERS ARE ENTITLED TO DISSENT AND, ACCORDINGLY, THEY NEED TO CONTACT SUCH INTERMEDIARY IN ORDER TO EXERCISE DISSENT

A GLOSSARY OF CERTAIN TERMS USED IN THIS CIRCULAR CAN BE FOUND ON PAGES 57 TO 63 OF THIS CIRCULAR.

NOTICE TO SECURITYHOLDERS IN THE U.S.

Intrawest is a corporation existing under the laws of Canada. The solicitation of proxies and the transaction contemplated in this Circular involve securities of a Canadian issuer and are being effected in accordance with Canadian corporate and securities laws. It may be difficult to compel a Canadian company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a judgment by a U.S. court.

THIS TRANSACTION HAS NOT BEEN APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED BY ANY SECURITIES REGULATORY AUTHORITY NOR HAS ANY SECURITIES REGULATORY AUTHORITY PASSED UPON THE FAIRNESS OR MERITS OF THIS TRANSACTION OR UPON THE ACCURACY OR ADEQUACY OF THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS CIRCULAR. These forward-looking statements are related to, but not limited to, Intrawest's operations, anticipated financial performance, business prospects and strategies. Forward-looking information typically contains statements with words such as "anticipate," "believe," "expect," "plan," "guidance," "judgment" or similar words suggesting future outcomes. There is significant risk that Intrawest's predictions and other forward-looking statements will not prove to be accurate. 1 place undue reliance on forward-looking information because it is possible that predictions, forecasts, projections and other forms of forward-looking information will not be achieved by Intrawest. In addition to other factors and matters contained or incorporated in this document, Intrawest believes the following factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements: failure to satisfy the conditions to complete the Arrangement, including the receipt of the required shareholder, court or regulatory approvals; the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the Arrangement Agreement; the failure to complete the Arrangement for any other reason; and the amount of the costs, fees, expenses and charges relating to the Arrangement. Intrawest disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any such forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

This Circular does not constitute an offer to buy, or a solicitation of an offer to sell, any securities, or the solicitation of a proxy, by any person in any jurisdiction in which such an offer or solicitation is not authorized or in which the person making such an offer or solicitation is not qualified to do so or to any person to whom it is unlawful to make such an offer or solicitation.

SECURITYHOLDERS SHOULD NOT CONSTRUE THE CONTENTS OF THIS CIRCULAR AS LEGAL, TAX OR FINANCIAL ADVICE AND SHOULD CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN PROFESSIONAL ADVISORS AS TO THE RELEVANT LEGAL, TAX, FINANCIAL OR OTHER MATTERS IN CONNECTION HEREWITH.

SUMMARY OF MANAGEMENT INFORMATION CIRCULAR

The following is a summary of the contents of this Circular. This summary is provided for convenience only and should be read in conjunction with, and is qualified in its entirety by, the more detailed information appearing or referred to elsewhere in this Circular, including the Appendices and documents incorporated by reference herein. Certain capitalized words and terms used in this summary and the Circular are defined in the Glossary of Terms found on pages 57 to 63.

THE ARRANGEMENT

Pursuant to the Arrangement, among other things, (a) the Common Shares will be transferred by the Shareholders to Acquisitionco for $35.00 per Common Share, (b) the Intrawest Options will be transferred by the holders thereof to Intrawest in exchange for a cash amount per holder equal to (i) the product of the number of Common Shares underlying Intrawest Options held by such holder and $35.00, less (ii) the aggregate exercise price payable under such Intrawest Options by the holder to acquire the Common Shares underlying such Intrawest Options, and (c) DSUs and RSUs (as more fully described herein) will be cancelled upon payment by Intrawest to the holders thereof of $35.00 per DSU and RSU; in each case net of applicable withholdings. See "The Arrangement -- Arrangement Mechanics." If the Arrangement Resolutions are approved by the Securityholders at the Meeting and all of the other conditions to closing of the Arrangement are satisfied or waived, the Arrangement will be implemented by way of a court-approved plan of arrangement under the CBCA.

As at the close of business on September 18, 2006, there were outstanding 49,066,926 Common Shares and Intrawest Options to purchase an aggregate of 2,823,600 Common Shares.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD

REASONS FOR THE ARRANGEMENT

In reaching its decision to approve the Arrangement Agreement and to recommend to Securityholders that they vote for the Arrangement Resolutions, the Board consulted with management of Intrawest and obtained advice from its financial and legal advisors. The Board carefully considered all aspects of the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement and considered a number of factors in concluding that the Arrangement is in the best interests of Intrawest and is fair to Shareholders, including the following:

- the price to be paid for each Common Share under the Arrangement represents a substantial premium to the historic trading prices for the Common Shares including (i) a premium of approximately 20% over $29.12 per share, being the closing trading price of the Common Shares on the NYSE on February 27, 2006, the last trading day on the NYSE prior to Intrawest's public announcement of its intention to review its strategic options, and (ii) a premium of approximately 32% over $26.51 per share, being the closing trading price of the Common Shares on the NYSE on August 10, 2006, the last trading day on the NYSE prior to the public announcement of the proposed Arrangement;
- the fact that the Arrangement is the result of a publicly disclosed strategic review process conducted by Intrawest over a six-month period, that included an extensive investigation of third-party interest in transactions with Intrawest, as well as initiatives that Intrawest itself could undertake;
- the determination by the Board that the Arrangement is superior to all other proposals received by Intrawest pursuant to the strategic review process and is superior to the other possible strategic alternatives developed by Intrawest management to maximize shareholder value as part of this process;

Edgar Filing: INTRAWEST CORP - Form 6-K

- the Fairness Opinion to the Board to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and based on and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth therein, the consideration to be received by Shareholders under the Arrangement Agreement was fair from a financial point of view to the Shareholders. See "The Arrangement -- Fairness Opinion;"

- the advice received by the Board from Capital West Partners regarding the process undertaken by Goldman Sachs and management of Intrawest in connection with the Arrangement and the range of values that might be attached to the other possible strategic alternatives developed by Intrawest management;
- the financial aspects of the Arrangement, including the facts that the consideration to be received by the Securityholders is to be paid in cash, the obligations of Acquisitionco and Parent under the Arrangement Agreement are not subject to a financing condition and that financing commitments obtained by Acquisitionco should provide Acquisitionco with sufficient resources to finance the transactions contemplated under the Arrangement Agreement;
- the evaluation by the Board of other possible strategic alternatives to maximize shareholder value, and the perceived risks to Intrawest associated with achieving any of these strategic alternatives;
- the potential disadvantages of a sale of a principal business unit of Intrawest compared to the sale of the entire company;
- the Arrangement Agreement allows Intrawest to consider other Acquisition Proposals, to change its recommendation to the Intrawest Securityholders in certain circumstances and to terminate the Arrangement Agreement to enter into a Superior Proposal (subject to payment of the Termination Fee of $60 million), and other terms and conditions, including the representations, warranties and covenants of Intrawest, Parent and Acquisitionco, the reasonable restrictions on the conduct of Intrawest's business until completion of the Arrangement and the conditions to the respective obligations of the parties, are reasonable, in the judgment of Intrawest, and the product of extensive negotiations between the parties;
- the Arrangement Resolutions must, subject to the approval of the Court, be approved by not less than two-thirds of the votes cast on the Arrangement Resolutions by Securityholders, and the fact that if a higher offer is made to Shareholders prior to the Meeting, Securityholders are free to support such a higher offer and vote against the Arrangement Resolutions (subject to payment of the Termination Fee of $60 million in certain circumstances);
- the Arrangement must be approved by the Court, which will consider, among other things, the fairness and reasonableness of the Arrangement to Shareholders; and
- the right that will be provided to Registered Shareholders to dissent.

The Board also considered a number of potential adverse factors relating to the Arrangement, including:

- the risks to Intrawest if the Arrangement is not completed in a timely manner, or at all, resulting in uncertainty which might result in

Edgar Filing: INTRAWEST CORP - Form 6-K

Intrawest's strategic partners, lenders and others delaying or deferring decisions concerning Intrawest;

- the fact that Parent and Acquisitionco are both newly formed entities with limited assets;
- if the Arrangement Agreement is terminated and the Board decides to seek another acquisition transaction, there can be no assurance that Intrawest will be able to find a party willing to pay an equivalent or more attractive price than the consideration to be paid under the Arrangement;
- the fact that the Arrangement will be a taxable transaction to Shareholders; and
- the limitations contained in the Arrangement Agreement on Intrawest's ability to solicit additional interest from third parties, Acquisitionco's right to match a Superior Proposal, and the requirement to pay the Termination Fee of $60 million may discourage other parties from offering to acquire the Common Shares.

In reaching its determination, the Board also considered and evaluated, among other things:

- current industry, economic and market conditions and trends; and
- the fact that some of Intrawest's directors and officers have interests in the Arrangement and may have circumstances that are different from, or in addition to, those of Intrawest Securityholders generally, as described under "The Arrangement -- Interests of Senior Management and Others in the Arrangement."

See "The Arrangement -- Reasons for the Arrangement."

FAIRNESS OPINION

Goldman Sachs has delivered a fairness opinion to the Board to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and based on and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth therein, the consideration to be received by Shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such Shareholders. The full text of the Fairness Opinion is attached as Appendix D to this Circular. Shareholders should read the Fairness Opinion carefully in its entirety for a description of the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken. The opinion was provided to the Board in connection with the Board's evaluation of the Arrangement and does not constitute a recommendation to Shareholders as to how Shareholders should vote with respect to the Arrangement. See "The Arrangement -- Fairness Opinion."

ARRANGEMENT MECHANICS

Pursuant to the Plan of Arrangement, upon the Arrangement becoming effective, the following transactions, among others, will occur in the order and at the times set out in the Plan of Arrangement:

- all of the Intrawest Options granted and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be automatically transferred by the holders thereof to Intrawest without any act or formality on its or their part in exchange for a cash amount equal to the excess, if any, of (a) the product of the number of Common Shares underlying Intrawest Options held by the holder and $35.00, less (b) the aggregate exercise price payable under such Intrawest Options by the holder to acquire the Common Shares underlying such Intrawest Options (or, if the exercise price of such Intrawest Options under the terms of such Intrawest Options is expressed in Canadian currency, the U.S. dollar equivalent of such exercise price determined by using the Exchange Rate);

- all Common Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than Common Shares held by a Dissenting Shareholder who is entitled to be paid the fair value of its Common Shares, will be and be deemed to be transferred by the Shareholders to Acquisitionco for $35.00 in cash per Common Share;
- all Common Shares held by Dissenting Shareholders in respect of which the holders have exercised Dissent Rights and not withdrawn their notice of dissent will be deemed to have been transferred to Acquisitionco and will be cancelled and cease to be outstanding and such holders will cease to have any rights as Shareholders other than the right to be paid the fair value of their Common Shares; and
- all vested and unvested DSUs and RSUs will be deemed to be vested, and will without any further action by the holders of the DSUs and RSUs be cancelled and terminated by Intrawest and each holder thereof will be entitled to receive from Intrawest, in exchange therefor, $35.00 in cash per DSU and RSU, and each of the Intrawest DSU Plans, the Performance RSU Agreement and the Restricted Share Unit Agreement will be cancelled. In addition, each of the Intrawest Share Purchase Plans will be cancelled; in each case net of applicable withholdings.

See "The Arrangement -- Arrangement Mechanics."

In order to receive the cash consideration for the Common Shares or Intrawest Options described above, a Securityholder must complete, sign, date and return the appropriate Letter of Transmittal in accordance with the instructions set out therein. The form of Common Share Letter of Transmittal is being sent to Shareholders with this Circular. The form of Option Letter of Transmittal will be sent separately to Optionholders by Intrawest.

SOURCES OF FUNDS FOR THE ARRANGEMENT

Under the terms of the Arrangement and related transactions, an aggregate amount of approximately $2.9 billion, including transaction costs, is expected to be paid to acquire or repay outstanding Intrawest indebtedness (including the outstanding Intrawest Notes), acquire all of the Common Shares (assuming no Shareholders exercise their Dissent Rights) and Intrawest Options and satisfy all outstanding DSUs and RSUs. Acquisitionco, directly or indirectly, intends to finance the amounts payable with debt and equity financing as contemplated by the Commitment Letter and the Equity Commitment Letter, respectively. See "The Arrangement -- Sources of Funds for the Arrangement."

- performance by Intrawest, Parent and Acquisitionco of specified covenants and agreements;
- all Appropriate Regulatory Approvals having been obtained or concluded or, in the case of waiting or suspensory periods, expired or been terminated;

CERTAIN TAX CONSIDERATIONS OF THE ARRANGEMENT

The following is a brief summary only of the Canadian and U.S. income tax considerations under "Certain Tax Considerations for Shareholders." Shareholders should read carefully the information under "Certain Tax Considerations for Shareholders" which qualifies the summary set forth below. Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences to them of the Arrangement. No advance income tax rulings have been sought or obtained with respect to any of the transactions described in this Circular.

CANADIAN TAX CONSIDERATIONS

Generally, a Shareholder who is a Canadian resident for the purposes of the Tax Act and who holds Common Shares as capital property will realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) equal to the amount by which the cash received by such Shareholder for the Common Shares under the Arrangement, net of any reasonable costs of disposition, exceeds (or is less than) the adjusted cost base to the holder of such Common Shares.

Generally, a Shareholder who is not a Canadian resident for purposes of the Tax Act whose Common Shares do not constitute "taxable Canadian property" for purposes of the Tax Act will not be subject to tax under the Tax Act on any gain realized on the disposition of such Common Shares for cash under the Arrangement.

See "Certain Tax Considerations for Shareholders -- Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations."

U.S. TAX CONSIDERATIONS

A Shareholder who is a "U.S. Holder" will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference, if any, between (a) the amount of cash received in exchange for the U.S. Holder's Common Shares in the Arrangement, and (b) the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in such Common Shares. Unless certain rules applicable to "passive foreign investment companies" apply, such gain or loss will be a capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder holds such Common Shares as capital assets (as defined for U.S. tax purposes). See "Certain Tax Considerations for Shareholders -- Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations."

OPTIONHOLDERS

Optionholders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the Canadian and U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Arrangement having regarding to their own particular circumstances.

VOTING BY ATTENDING THE MEETING

If you are a Registered Shareholder (or an Optionholder), you are entitled to attend the Meeting and cast your vote in person.

If you are a Non-Registered Shareholder, you are entitled to attend the Meeting and cast your vote in person, provided you have submitted a properly executed voting instruction form ("VIF") or proxy, inserting your name in the blank space provided and returning it in the envelope provided. When you arrive at the Meeting, advise the registration staff that you are a proxy appointee. If you have received a voting instruction form, please follow the instructions on the form.

VOTING BY PROXY OR VOTING INSTRUCTION FORM

How you vote depends on whether you are a Registered Shareholder (or an Optionholder) or a Non-Registered Shareholder.

1. VOTING BY PROXY -- REGISTERED SHAREHOLDERS (OR OPTIONHOLDERS)

To be valid, proxies must be signed, dated and either deposited with the Transfer Agent of Intrawest, CIBC Mellon Trust Company, 1066 West Hastings Street, Suite 1600, The Oceanic Plaza, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, V6E 3X1 (Attention: Proxy Department) before 5:00 p.m. (Vancouver time) on Friday, October 13, 2006 or, in the event the Meeting is adjourned or postponed, no later than 48 hours before the date the adjourned Meeting is reconvened or the postponed Meeting is convened (the "PROXY DEPOSIT DEADLINE"). An undated but executed proxy will be deemed to be dated the date of mailing by or on behalf of Intrawest of the enclosed form of proxy. If you hold both Common Shares and Intrawest Options, you must complete and submit both applicable proxy forms.

2. VOTING BY PROXY -- NON-REGISTERED SHAREHOLDERS

In accordance with the requirements of Canadian Securities Administrators National Instrument 54-101 -- Communication with Beneficial Owners of Securities of a Reporting Issuer ("NI 54-101"), Intrawest is both directly delivering the Meeting Materials to certain Non-Registered Shareholders and distributing copies of the Meeting Materials to clearing agencies and Intermediaries for onward distribution to Non-Registered Shareholders. Intermediaries are required to forward Meeting Materials to Non-Registered Shareholders unless a Non-Registered Shareholder has waived the right to receive them. Very often, Intermediaries will use service companies to:

- be given a form of proxy that has already been signed by the Intermediary (typically by a facsimile, stamped signature) which is restricted as to the number of securities beneficially owned by the Non-Registered Shareholder but which is otherwise uncompleted. This form of proxy need not be signed by the Non-Registered Shareholder and the Non-Registered Shareholder who wishes to submit a proxy should properly complete the form of proxy and deposit it with the Transfer Agent as described above;

or

- more typically, be given a VIF, which must be completed, signed and returned to the Intermediary by the Non-Registered Shareholder in accordance with the directions on the VIF (which may in some cases permit the completion of the VIF by telephone or Internet).

There are two kinds of beneficial owners -- those who object to their name being made known to the issuers of securities that they own (called OBOs for "Objecting Beneficial Owners") and those who do not object to the issuers of the securities they own knowing who they are (called NOBOs for "Non-Objecting Beneficial Owners"). Intrawest has decided to take advantage of those provisions of NI 54-101 that permit it to directly deliver proxy-related materials to its NOBOs. As a result, NOBOs can expect to receive a VIF from the Transfer Agent. These VIFs are to be completed and returned to the Transfer Agent in the envelope provided or by facsimile. The Transfer Agent will tabulate the results of the VIFs it receives from NOBOs and will provide appropriate instructions with respect to the Common Shares represented by the VIFs it receives.

The Meeting Materials are being sent to both Registered and Non-Registered Shareholders. If you are a Non-Registered Shareholder and Intrawest or its agent has sent these materials directly to you, your name and address and information about your holdings of Common Shares have been obtained in accordance with applicable securities regulatory requirements from the Intermediary holding Common Shares on your behalf.

By choosing to send these materials to you directly, Intrawest has assumed responsibility for (i) delivering these materials to you, and (ii) executing your proper voting instructions. Please return your VIF as specified in the VIF.

The purpose of these procedures is to permit Non-Registered Shareholders to direct the voting of the Common Shares they beneficially own. Should a Non-Registered Shareholder who receives either a VIF from the Corporation wish to attend and vote at the Meeting in person (or have another person attend and vote on behalf of the Non-Registered Shareholder), the Non-Registered Shareholder should complete and return the VIF that you should have received, including inserting the Non-Registered Shareholder's (or such other person's) name in the blank space provided. If you are an OBO, you should receive or have already received from your Intermediary either a VIF or a proxy form. Intermediaries have their own mailing procedures and provide their own instructions. These procedures may allow providing voting instructions by telephone, on the Internet, by mail or by fax. If you wish to vote in person at the Meeting you should follow the procedure in the directions and instructions provided by or on behalf of your Intermediary and insert your name in the space provided on the request for voting instructions or proxy form or request a form of legal proxy that will grant you the right to attend the Meeting and vote in person. NON-REGISTERED SHAREHOLDERS SHOULD CAREFULLY FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS RECEIVED FROM THE CORPORATION OR THEIR INTERMEDIARIES OR SERVICE COMPANIES TO ENSURE THAT THEIR COMMON SHARES ARE VOTED.

Q: WHO VOTES MY INTRAWEST SECURITIES?

A: Each person named in the enclosed forms of proxy is a director of Intrawest and will represent you at the Meeting. You can appoint some other person to represent you at the Meeting by inserting the name of the person proposed in the blank space provided in the appropriate enclosed form of proxy or by completing another acceptable form of proxy. Such other person need not be a Securityholder. If you are not an individual, you must have the proxy executed by a duly authorized officer or properly appointed attorney. Securityholders who require assistance in completing their proxy or proxies should contact Georgeson toll-free at 1-866-390-5292.

Q: HOW WILL MY SECURITIES BE VOTED IF I RETURN A PROXY?

A: By completing and returning a proxy, you are authorizing the person named in the proxy to attend the Meeting and vote your Securities on each item of business on which you are entitled to vote, according to your instructions. IF THERE ARE NO INSTRUCTIONS WITH RESPECT TO YOUR PROXY, YOUR SECURITIES WILL BE VOTED FOR THE ARRANGEMENT RESOLUTIONS.

The person you appoint to vote on your behalf may vote as he or she sees fit on any amendment or variation to any of the matters identified in the Notice of Special Meeting and any other matters that may properly be brought before the Meeting. As of September 19, 2006, neither the Board nor management of Intrawest is aware of any variation, amendment or other matter to be presented for a vote at the Meeting.

Q: MAY I REVOKE A PROXY?

A: Yes, if you are a Registered Shareholder or Optionholder and have submitted a proxy, you may revoke it by delivering a duly executed proxy with a later date or a form of revocation of proxy or other instrument in writing signed by you or by your attorney authorized in writing (or if you are a corporation, by a duly authorized officer or attorney). These instruments can be delivered to the Transfer Agent up to 5:00 p.m. (Vancouver time) on October 16, 2006, or if the Meeting is adjourned or postponed, no later than 5:00 p.m. (Vancouver time) on the Business Day preceding the date of the reconvened Meeting.

Alternatively, you may revoke your proxy and vote in person, by delivering a form of revocation of proxy or a signed instrument in writing to the chair of the Meeting at the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. You may also revoke your proxy in any other manner permitted by law.

Only Registered Shareholders have the right to revoke a proxy. Non-Registered Shareholders who wish to change their vote must, in sufficient time in advance of the Meeting, arrange for their Intermediaries to change the vote and, if necessary, revoke their proxy.

Q: IN ADDITION TO THE APPROVAL OF SECURITYHOLDERS, ARE THERE ANY OTHER APPROVALS REQUIRED FOR THE ARRANGEMENT?

A: Yes, the Arrangement requires the approval of the Court and is also subject to the receipt of certain anti-trust, competition and other regulatory approvals in Canada and the U.S.

Q: WILL THE COMMON SHARES CONTINUE TO BE LISTED ON THE NYSE AND THE TSX AFTER THE ARRANGEMENT?

A: No. The Common Shares will be owned by Acquisitionco and will be delisted from the NYSE and the TSX soon after the Arrangement is completed.

Q: IF I AM A REGISTERED SHAREHOLDER, SHOULD I SEND MY SHARE CERTIFICATES NOW?

Edgar Filing: INTRAWEST CORP - Form 6-K

A: If you are a Registered Shareholder, you are not required to send your certificates representing Common Shares to cast your vote validly in respect of the Arrangement Resolutions. However, you are encouraged to complete, sign, date and return the enclosed Common Share Letter of Transmittal so that, if the proposed Arrangement is approved, payment for your Common Shares can be sent to you as soon as possible following the implementation of the Arrangement. An Option Letter of Transmittal will be sent to Optionholders separately and Optionholders are also encouraged to promptly complete and return such Letter of Transmittal.

The payments to be made under the Arrangement may be reduced by the amount of any withholding tax required to be deducted and withheld under applicable Laws.

Interest will not accrue or be payable by Acquisitionco, Parent, Intrawest or the Transfer Agent to holders of Common Shares (other than Dissenting Shareholders) or Intrawest Options in respect of consideration payable under the Arrangement, regardless of any delay in making such payment.

Any use of the mail to transmit certificates for Common Shares or Letters of Transmittal is at the risk of the relevant Securityholder. If these documents are mailed, it is recommended that registered mail be used, with a return receipt requested and with proper insurance obtained.

Q: WHAT IF OWNERSHIP OF SECURITIES HAS BEEN TRANSFERRED AFTER SEPTEMBER 18, 2006?

A: Only persons on the list of Registered Shareholders and Optionholders prepared by or on behalf of Intrawest as of the close of business on September 18, 2006 are entitled to vote at the Meeting. However, all Registered Shareholders and Optionholders at the Effective Time will participate in the Arrangement.

Q: HOW WILL THE VOTES BE COUNTED?

A: The Transfer Agent counts the proxies, in order to ensure unbiased counting.

Q: WHEN WILL THE ARRANGEMENT BE IMPLEMENTED?

A: Intrawest, Acquisitionco and Parent will implement the Arrangement when all of the conditions to closing have been satisfied or waived (where permitted), but in any event not earlier than October 24, 2006. The closing is currently expected to occur later in October 2006. Because the Arrangement is subject to a number of conditions, some of which are beyond Intrawest's and Acquisitionco's control, the exact timing of implementation of the Arrangement cannot be predicted.

Q: WHEN CAN I EXPECT TO RECEIVE CONSIDERATION FOR MY COMMON SHARES AND INTRAWEST OPTIONS?

A: If you hold your Common Shares through a broker, trustee, financial institution or other nominee, your broker or other nominee will surrender your Common Shares in exchange for your portion of the consideration following completion of the Arrangement. As soon as practicable after the completion of the Arrangement and the receipt by the Depository (i) from a Registered Shareholder of a properly completed Common Share Letter of Transmittal together with your certificates representing Common Shares, or (ii) from an Optionholder of a properly completed Option Letter of Transmittal, and all other required documents, the Depository will pay to you your portion of the Arrangement payment.

Q: AM I ENTITLED TO DISSENT?

A: Only Registered Shareholders may exercise Dissent Rights. Pursuant to the Interim Order, Registered Shareholders have a right to dissent in respect of the Arrangement Resolutions. Registered Shareholders who properly exercise their Dissent Rights will be entitled to be paid by Acquisitionco the fair value of their Common Shares. This amount may be the same as, more than or less than the $35.00 in cash per Common Share offered under the Arrangement. If you wish to dissent, you must provide written notice to Intrawest at or before 5:00 p.m. (Vancouver time) on October 16, 2006 (or on the day that is one Business Day immediately preceding any adjourned or postponed Meeting) in the manner described under the heading "Dissenting Shareholders' Rights." It is important that you comply strictly with this requirement, otherwise your Dissent

Rights may not be recognized. You must also comply strictly with the other requirements of the dissent procedure.

Q: WHAT ARE THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE ARRANGEMENT TO ME?

A: Your receipt of the consideration under the Arrangement in exchange for your Securities will be a taxable transaction. For further information on certain tax consequences of the Arrangement for Shareholders, see "Certain Tax Considerations for Shareholders." Your tax consequences will depend on your particular situation. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the applicable federal, provincial, state, local, foreign and other tax consequences to you resulting from the Arrangement. Optionholders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of the Arrangement having regard to their own particular circumstances.

Q: WHO CAN I CONTACT IF I HAVE QUESTIONS?

A: Securityholders who have additional questions about the Arrangement, including the procedures for voting, should contact Georgeson toll-free at 1-866-390-5292. Securityholders who have questions about deciding how to vote should contact their professional advisors.

THE ARRANGEMENT

BACKGROUND TO THE ARRANGEMENT AGREEMENT

The Arrangement Agreement is the result of arm's length negotiations between representatives of Intrawest and Fortress and their respective advisors. The following is a summary of the events leading up to the negotiation of the Arrangement Agreement and the meetings, negotiations, discussions and actions between the parties that preceded the execution and public announcement of the Arrangement Agreement.

REVIEW OF STRATEGIC OPTIONS

Management of Intrawest and the Board regularly review the strategic alternatives available to Intrawest to maximize shareholder value. In connection with its review, management and the Board have considered how best to align Intrawest's leisure and travel business and its resort-focused real estate development and sales business. In 2004, in connection with such review,

Edgar Filing: INTRAWEST CORP - Form 6-K

Intrawest management consulted with a number of investment banking firms, including Goldman Sachs, regarding possible shareholder value maximization alternatives. In addition, from time to time in recent years management of Intrawest has been informally approached by a number of parties indicating that, if Intrawest were to entertain proposals for business combinations, such parties would be interested in discussing potential transactions. At various Board meetings in 2004 and 2005 a number of investment banking firms, as well as Intrawest management, made presentations or reported to the Board regarding possible strategic alternatives for Intrawest. Over the course of these meetings, the Board reviewed management's assessment of Intrawest's current position, including Intrawest's strategic plans, financial results and prospects and the risks inherent in the businesses conducted by Intrawest.

At a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board on February 6, 2006, the Board received a presentation from Goldman Sachs which included preliminary advice regarding strategic alternatives available to Intrawest, including approaching potentially interested parties in relation to a possible merger or acquisition transaction, or sale of significant assets of Intrawest, internal reorganizations and leveraging transactions involving a return of capital and possible strategic alliances or similar transactions. On February 24, 2006, Intrawest formally engaged Goldman Sachs to assist Intrawest with its review of strategic alternatives. At a Board meeting held on February 27, 2006, at which certain members of Intrawest management were present, the Board considered generally various possible strategic alternatives that Intrawest could pursue to maximize the value of Intrawest for its Shareholders, including a capital structure review, strategic partnerships and business combinations. The Board determined that Intrawest should publicly announce that it was initiating a review of strategic options, prepare a confidential information memorandum which could be delivered to interested parties and open a data room to facilitate a review on a confidential basis of documents and information by interested parties. On February 28, 2006, Intrawest issued a news release announcing that it had initiated a review of strategic options available to Intrawest for enhancing shareholder value.

Following the February 28, 2006 news release, Intrawest, in consultation with Goldman Sachs, prepared a confidential information memorandum for parties interested in acquiring Intrawest or one of its significant business units, or pursuing a strategic alliance or other similar transaction. In addition, Intrawest began to assemble information that could be reviewed by interested parties. Commencing in March 2006, Goldman Sachs approached a broad range of potentially interested strategic and financial purchasers. Between February 28, 2006 and May 8, 2006, Goldman Sachs contacted approximately 100 parties that might be interested in acquiring Intrawest or one of its significant business units.

Intrawest entered into confidentiality and standstill agreements with 65 parties and a confidential information memorandum was sent to all such parties.

During this period, Goldman Sachs, with the assistance of Intrawest management, held meetings and communicated with the third parties that had entered into confidentiality and standstill agreements with Intrawest. Commencing April 15, 2006, some of those parties were given access to the Intrawest data room which was supplemented from time to time until August 10, 2006 with additional documents and confidential information relating to the business, operations and plans of Intrawest.

At meetings of the Board held on March 6, 2006 and March 20, 2006, the Board was updated by Intrawest management with respect to Goldman Sachs' progress in contacting and canvassing potentially interested parties and the discussions with such parties.

Edgar Filing: INTRAWEST CORP - Form 6-K

On or about April 28, 2006, Goldman Sachs, on behalf of Intrawest, requested some of the parties that had entered into confidentiality and standstill agreements and had received the confidential information memorandum to submit non-binding proposals for a transaction involving Intrawest. These parties were provided with access to additional information and documents in the Intrawest data room. In response to this request, Goldman Sachs received multiple expressions of interest from interested parties regarding transactions involving all of the Common Shares and various proposals to acquire one or more of Intrawest's assets or business units.

In March 2006, Intrawest had also engaged Capital West Partners to provide advice in relation to the strategic review process. The Board held a meeting on May 8, 2006 at which representatives of Goldman Sachs and Capital West Partners, as well as certain members of Intrawest management, were present. At the meeting, Intrawest management and Goldman Sachs reported to the Board regarding the status of the communications Goldman Sachs was having with interested parties on behalf of Intrawest. Goldman Sachs made a presentation, and management made recommendations, to the Board as to the next steps in relation to the review of strategic options. The Board also discussed possible internal restructuring and reorganization alternatives.

Based on the review and recommendations by Goldman Sachs and management's assessment of the expressions of interest received by Goldman Sachs, commencing May 15, 2006, Intrawest provided some of the interested parties with access to more detailed due diligence material. During the period between May 18, 2006 and June 7, 2006, some of the parties that had expressed an interest in a transaction involving Intrawest received detailed presentations from Intrawest's management, including presentations from senior management of each of Intrawest's principal business units. Representatives of Goldman Sachs also participated in, and representatives of Capital West Partners were present during some of, the management presentations. Gordon MacDougall, Lead Director of Intrawest, was also present at one of these presentations at the request of the Board. During these presentations, and through access to the Intrawest data room and otherwise, Intrawest presented the interested parties with detailed information regarding its operations and significant additional due diligence materials. Goldman Sachs regularly reported between Board meetings to Intrawest management and Mr. MacDougall concerning the progress of talks with interested parties.

On or about June 2, 2006, Goldman Sachs, on behalf of Intrawest, requested some of the parties that had expressed an interest in a transaction with Intrawest to provide more definitive written proposals. The request for more definitive proposals set out, among other things, certain terms and conditions that Intrawest required to be included in any proposal.

At a meeting of the Board held on June 9, 2006, the Board formed a Special Committee consisting of Gordon MacDougall, David King, Marti Morfitt, Paul Novelly and Bernard Roy to assist the Board in connection with the strategic review, to oversee and review the process being undertaken by Intrawest and its financial advisors and to consider and review alternatives to a sale of Intrawest. The mandate of the Special Committee included authority to engage independent legal counsel and financial advisors. At the end of the June 9, 2006 Board meeting the Special Committee met, considered various law firms that might advise it and determined to engage Farris, Vaughn, Wills & Murphy LLP as independent legal counsel to the Special Committee.

On June 14, 2006, the Special Committee held its initial full meeting without any members of Intrawest management present. The Special Committee discussed its mandate. At the invitation of the Special Committee, a representative of Goldman Sachs joined the meeting to describe the process that Goldman Sachs was undertaking on behalf of Intrawest and the discussions that were taking place with various interested parties. Mr. MacDougall was appointed Chair of the Special Committee. At its meeting held on September 11, 2006, the Board approved the payment of a fee of $20,000 to each member of the Special Committee for his or her services as such, other than to Mr. MacDougall, as Chair of the Special Committee, for whom the payment of a fee of $35,000 was approved.

On June 26, 2006, the Board held a meeting to provide directors with an update regarding the strategic review process. Representatives of management, Goldman Sachs, Capital West Partners and legal counsel to Intrawest and the Special Committee also attended the meeting. Intrawest management and Goldman Sachs provided an update regarding the status of discussions that were taking place with various interested parties. In addition, Goldman Sachs reported that it had provided these parties with a draft form of an arrangement agreement prepared by McCarthy Tetrault LLP, Intrawest's legal counsel, and invited each potential bidder to submit a mark-up of the arrangement agreement with its indicative offer to reflect the terms on which the bidder would be prepared to proceed with an acquisition transaction. The draft form of arrangement agreement set forth customary representations, warranties, covenants (including non-solicitation and "fiduciary out" provisions), closing conditions and termination rights and remedies, but did not include pricing terms or termination fee thresholds.

In response to this invitation, on or about July 13, 2006, Goldman Sachs received several indications of interest with respect to various transactions, including one from Fortress.

On July 13, 2006, the Board met again with management to receive information regarding the strategic review process and the status of the proposals that Intrawest had received from the third parties potentially interested in a transaction involving all of the shares of Intrawest, or one of its principal business units. At this meeting, the Board reviewed the further steps that it would take in its consideration of the strategic review process and the proposals that might be received.

On July 17, 2006 and July 18, 2006, the Board met to review and consider the offers received and other strategic alternatives potentially available to provide value to Shareholders. Representatives of Capital West Partners, McCarthy Tetrault LLP and Farris, Vaughn, Wills & Murphy LLP were also present at these meetings, and representatives of Goldman Sachs were present for portions of the meetings. Goldman Sachs provided a summary of the financial terms and an assessment of each of the offers received, including whether financing would likely be available for the proposed transaction and conditions applicable to the proposal.

At this meeting management delivered to the Board the presentations that had been made to the third parties who had made proposals to Intrawest. These presentations included a review and analysis of the business, the results of operations and the prospects for the business. During the course of the presentations, senior management responded to questions asked by members of the Board.

At this meeting the Board also received a presentation and detailed analysis from Intrawest management regarding other strategic alternatives that Intrawest could potentially pursue, including a possible sale by Intrawest of only its real estate assets. The Board also had considerable discussion regarding the proposal from Fortress and the strategy for negotiation of the terms of its proposal, including the proposed price. After considering and evaluating the proposals received, in conjunction with advice from Goldman Sachs and Capital West Partners about the terms of the proposal received from Fortress, and from legal counsel for Intrawest and the Special Committee, the Board concluded that, subject to discussion and negotiation with Fortress regarding certain terms of its proposal, including confirmation that the financing required by Fortress to complete the proposed transaction was available to it, the proposal received from Fortress was significantly more favourable to Intrawest than the proposals received from the other interested parties. The Board authorized Goldman Sachs, together with the Chair of the Special Committee, to contact Fortress to seek clarification regarding certain terms and issues relating to the Fortress proposal, including the financing for the proposal, and authorized Intrawest management and legal counsel to proceed with negotiations with Fortress for the transaction being proposed by Fortress, which would include extensive additional due diligence and negotiation of the definitive terms and conditions of the Arrangement Agreement. At the same time, the Board authorized and instructed management of Intrawest to continue working on alternatives Intrawest could pursue to maximize value for Shareholders.

On July 20, 2006, the Chair of the Special Committee, together with representatives of Goldman Sachs, contacted Mr. Wesley R. Edens, the Chief Executive Officer of Fortress, to discuss the proposal made by Fortress.

On July 21, 2006, the Board held a meeting to review the progress of the strategic review process and the discussions with Fortress. Representatives of Intrawest management, legal counsel to Intrawest and legal counsel to the Special Committee also attended the meeting.

During the period between July 18, 2006 and August 10, 2006, Fortress and its advisors continued their due diligence investigations of Intrawest and its business, including reviewing public and non-public documents, meetings with various members of Intrawest management and visiting Intrawest's head office in Vancouver, British Columbia and various Intrawest resorts, facilities and development projects in Canada, the United States and elsewhere. Concurrently, discussions continued on legal documentation in relation to the transaction.

On July 28, 2006, the Board held a meeting at which representatives of management, Capital West Partners and legal counsel to the Special Committee were present. The meeting was primarily held to discuss the strategic alternatives to a sale of Intrawest being considered by Intrawest management. Management reviewed financial considerations relating to the sale of Intrawest's real estate assets or continuing with the business operating as a single entity. The Board discussed, among other matters, the risks and benefits of the strategic alternatives presented by management compared to the entire company transaction then under discussion with Fortress, and compared the entire company transaction with the values that might be anticipated to be obtained for Shareholders in connection with the strategic alternatives. Management also reviewed the risks and opportunities relating to maintaining the status quo and the strategic alternatives, and responded to questions from members of the Board.

On July 31, 2006, the Special Committee met with its legal counsel and General Counsel for Intrawest. General Counsel for Intrawest provided an update to the Special Committee regarding the status of the negotiations with Fortress in relation to the Arrangement Agreement and issues that were being negotiated. The Special Committee confirmed the formal engagement of Capital West Partners to provide advice regarding the transaction being proposed by Fortress and the strategic alternatives developed by management.

APPROVAL OF THE ARRANGEMENT AGREEMENT

On August 4, 2006, the Special Committee met to review a presentation by Capital West Partners. Also present, by invitation, were the other members of the Board, legal counsel to the Special Committee, legal counsel to Intrawest and certain members of Intrawest management. Representatives of Capital West Partners made a presentation summarizing its analysis regarding the transaction proposed by Fortress, the process undertaken by Goldman Sachs and management of Intrawest, and the alternative strategies developed by management. Legal counsel to Intrawest summarized the principal terms of the Arrangement Agreement and the issues remaining subject to negotiation, and members of the Special Committee and other Board members were provided an opportunity to question counsel and Intrawest management on the definitive terms of the Arrangement Agreement as well as the issues being negotiated. Legal counsel to Intrawest and legal counsel to the Special Committee provided advice to the directors regarding the duties and responsibilities of the Board in considering and deliberating on the Arrangement Agreement.

On August 7, 2006, the Board met to consider further the proposal received from Fortress and the negotiations regarding the terms and conditions of the Arrangement Agreement. The Board received a briefing from legal counsel and Intrawest management on the status of the negotiations with Fortress. Goldman Sachs, Capital West Partners and legal counsel for Intrawest and legal counsel for the Special Committee provided advice to the Board regarding the proposed transaction and issues that remained subject to negotiation.

On August 9, 2006, the Board met to consider further the proposal received from Fortress and the negotiations regarding the terms and conditions of the Arrangement Agreement. The Board again received a briefing from legal counsel and Intrawest management on the terms and conditions of the Arrangement Agreement and the status of the negotiations with Parent and Acquisitionco. Drafts of the Equity Commitment Letter and the Commitment Letter had been received and were being reviewed by management and the advisors to Intrawest. Goldman Sachs, Capital West Partners and legal counsel to Intrawest and legal counsel to the Special Committee provided advice to the Board regarding the proposed transaction and issues remaining subject to negotiation, including the amount of the termination fee. Goldman Sachs reviewed and analyzed, among other matters, the financial aspects of the proposed transaction with Fortress. Goldman Sachs delivered to the Board its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed by delivery of the written opinion dated August 10, 2006, to the effect that, as of the date of its opinion and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth therein, the consideration to be received by Shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement, being $35.00 in cash per Common Share, was fair from a financial point of view to such Shareholders. During the presentation and rendering of their opinion, representatives of Goldman Sachs responded to questions from members of the Board confirming or clarifying their understanding of the opinion of and the analysis performed by Goldman Sachs.

Following further discussion and deliberation, the Board concluded that the Arrangement was in the best interests of Intrawest and fair to the holders of Common Shares and authorized the execution and delivery of the Arrangement Agreement. In determining whether to approve the Arrangement, the Board considered, among other things, the advice received from the legal counsel to Intrawest, legal counsel to the Special Committee and Intrawest's financial advisors, the Fairness Opinion and the other factors set forth herein and the reasons for the Arrangement as set forth under "Reasons for the Arrangement."

On August 9, 2006 and August 10, 2006, legal counsel to Intrawest and legal counsel to the Special Committee and Fortress continued to negotiate the terms and conditions of the Arrangement Agreement.

Edgar Filing: INTRAWEST CORP - Form 6-K

The Lead Director, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and the President and Chief Operating Officer of Intrawest met on August 10, 2006 to approve changes to the Arrangement Agreement, including the insertion of the $35.00 share consideration and amount of $60 million as the amount of the termination fee payable in certain events under the Arrangement Agreement.

EQUITY AND DEBT COMMITMENT LETTERS

On or about August 9, 2006, Intrawest management and legal counsel to Intrawest received and reviewed drafts of the Equity Commitment Letter and the Commitment Letter in order to determine whether and on what terms the financing required to complete the Arrangement would be available to Parent and Acquisitionco and requested certain changes to such commitment letters that became the subject of negotiation. On August 10, 2006, Fortress delivered to Intrawest executed copies of the Equity Commitment Letter and the Commitment Letter which, collectively, provide for the advance, on fulfilment of the terms and subject to the conditions contained therein, of the funds necessary for the completion of the Arrangement.

EXECUTION AND DELIVERY OF THE ARRANGEMENT AGREEMENT

The Arrangement Agreement was executed and delivered by the parties on August 10, 2006. Prior to the opening of trading in the Common Shares on August 11, 2006, a joint news release was issued by Intrawest and Fortress announcing the proposed Arrangement and the execution of the Arrangement Agreement.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD

THE BOARD HAS UNANIMOUSLY DETERMINED THAT THE ARRANGEMENT IS IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF INTRAWEST AND THE SHAREHOLDERS AND IS FAIR TO SHAREHOLDERS. ACCORDINGLY, THE BOARD HAS APPROVED THE ARRANGEMENT AND UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT THE SECURITYHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE ARRANGEMENT RESOLUTIONS.

REASONS FOR THE ARRANGEMENT

In reaching its decision to approve the Arrangement Agreement and to recommend to Securityholders that they vote for the Arrangement Resolutions, the Board consulted with management of Intrawest and obtained advice from the financial and legal advisors to Intrawest and the Special Committee. The Board carefully considered all aspects of the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement and considered a number of factors in concluding that the Arrangement is in the best interests of Intrawest and is fair to Shareholders, including the following:

- the price to be paid for each Common Share under the Arrangement represents a substantial premium to the historic trading prices for the Common Shares including (i) a premium of approximately 20% over $29.12 per share, being the closing trading price of the Common Shares on the NYSE on February 27, 2006, the last trading day on the NYSE prior to Intrawest's public announcement of its intention to review its strategic options, and (ii) a premium of approximately 32% over $26.51 per share, being the closing trading price of the Common Shares on the NYSE on August 10, 2006, the last trading day on the NYSE prior to the public announcement of the proposed Arrangement;
- the fact that the Arrangement is the result of a publicly disclosed strategic review process conducted by Intrawest over a six-month period, that included an extensive investigation of third-party interest in transactions with Intrawest (in which over 100 potential strategic partners or financial buyers were contacted, of which 65 entered into confidentiality and standstill agreements with Intrawest and many of which made proposals to acquire Intrawest or one of its principal business units), as well as initiatives that Intrawest itself could undertake;

- the determination by the Board that the Arrangement is superior to all other proposals received by Intrawest pursuant to the strategic review process and is superior to the other possible strategic alternatives developed by Intrawest management to maximize shareholder value;
- the Fairness Opinion to the Board to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and based on and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth therein, the consideration to be received by Shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such Shareholders. See "The Arrangement -- Fairness Opinion";
- the advice received by the Board from Capital West Partners regarding the process undertaken by Goldman Sachs and management of Intrawest in the solicitation of proposals for the sale of the Corporation or its principal business units, the Arrangement and the range of values that might be attached to the other possible strategic alternatives developed by Intrawest management;

- the financial aspects of the Arrangement including the facts that the consideration to be received by the Securityholders is to be paid in cash, that the obligations of Acquisitionco and Parent under the Arrangement Agreement are not subject to a financing condition and that the Equity Commitment Letter and the Commitment Letter, which contain only limited customary conditions, should, subject to the terms thereof, provide Acquisitionco with sufficient resources to finance the transactions contemplated under the Arrangement Agreement;
- the evaluation by the Board of other possible strategic alternatives to maximize shareholder value, and the perceived risks to Intrawest (many of which are beyond Intrawest's control) associated with achieving any of these strategic alternatives and the Board's conclusion that none of these alternatives was reasonably likely to present superior opportunities for Intrawest, or reasonably likely to create greater value for Shareholders at this time than the Arrangement;
- the potential disadvantages of a sale of a principal business unit of Intrawest compared to the sale of the entire company, including the additional time that would likely be required to complete the sale of a significant business unit, the potential tax liabilities to Intrawest of such a transaction, the complexity of separating the significant business units of Intrawest and the loss of synergies from operating these business units together;
- the terms and conditions of the Arrangement Agreement that allow Intrawest, upon compliance with the conditions of the Arrangement Agreement, to furnish information and to conduct negotiations with other third parties making an unsolicited proposal to purchase all of the Common Shares or substantially all of the assets of Intrawest, to change its recommendation to the Intrawest Securityholders in certain circumstances and to terminate the Arrangement Agreement to enter into a

Superior Proposal (subject to payment of the Termination Fee);

- the Board's determination that both the Termination Fee and the circumstances under which it is payable and the requirement to reimburse Parent and Acquisitionco for certain expenses up to a limit of $10 million (including in the circumstances where the Securityholders fail to approve the Arrangement Resolutions) are reasonable in the light of the benefits of the Arrangement Agreement, the process conducted by Intrawest that resulted in the Arrangement Agreement and commercial practice;
- the reasonableness of the terms and conditions of the Arrangement Agreement, including the representations, warranties and covenants of Intrawest, and Parent and Acquisitionco, the reasonable restrictions on the conduct of Intrawest's business until completion of the Arrangement and the conditions to the respective obligations of the parties, the fact that they were the product of extensive negotiations between Intrawest and its advisors (including legal counsel to Intrawest and legal counsel to the Special Committee) and Parent and Acquisitionco and their advisors, including negotiation of the events potentially triggering the Termination Fee and the reduction of the termination fee amount proposed by Fortress;
- the Board's determination, based on certain factors including advice from Goldman Sachs as to its familiarity with Fortress and the Fortress Funds and their financial position, as to the commitment and ability of Acquisitionco and Parent to close the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement and the likelihood of completion of the Arrangement, considering the totality of the terms of the Arrangement Agreement, including the absence of significant closing conditions other than approval by Intrawest Securityholders of the Arrangement Resolutions, obtaining of Appropriate Regulatory Approvals and other customary closing conditions;
- the fact that the Arrangement Resolutions must, subject to the approval of the Court, be approved by not less than two-thirds of the votes cast on the Arrangement Resolutions by Securityholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to vote (including by two-thirds of the votes cast on the Arrangement Resolutions by Shareholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to vote) and the fact that, if a higher offer is made to Shareholders prior to the Meeting, Intrawest Securityholders are free to support such a higher offer and vote against the Arrangement Resolutions (subject to the payment by Intrawest of a termination fee in certain circumstances);
- the Arrangement must be approved by the Court, which will consider, among other things, the fairness and reasonableness of the Arrangement to Shareholders; and

- the right that will be provided to Registered Shareholders to dissent and apply to Court to have the Court determine the fair value of their Common Shares.

The Board also considered a number of potential adverse factors relating to the Arrangement, including:

- the risks to Intrawest if the Arrangement is not completed, in a timely manner or at all, including the costs to Intrawest in pursuing the

Arrangement and the required devotion of significant management time and attention to implementing the Arrangement, the diversion of management attention away from the conduct of Intrawest's business in the ordinary course, the uncertainty that might result in Intrawest's strategic partners, lenders and others delaying or deferring decisions concerning Intrawest, and the uncertainty that current and prospective Intrawest employees may experience concerning their future roles with Intrawest following successful completion of the Arrangement, which may adversely affect Intrawest's ability to attract or retain key management and other personnel;

- the fact that Parent and Acquisitionco are both newly formed entities with limited assets and the rights of Intrawest in the event of any failure by Parent or Acquisitionco to perform may be limited to Intrawest seeking, as a third-party beneficiary, to exercise rights and remedies against the Fortress Funds to enforce the Equity Commitment Letter;
- if the Arrangement Agreement is terminated and the Board decides to seek another acquisition transaction, there can be no assurance that Intrawest will be able to find a party willing to pay an equivalent or more attractive price than the consideration to be paid under the Arrangement or that Shareholders would be able to receive cash or other consideration for their Common Shares equal to or greater than the consideration payable under the Arrangement in any other future transaction that Intrawest may effect;
- the fact that the Arrangement will be a taxable transaction to Shareholders and, as a result, taxes generally required to be paid on any gains that result from receipt of the consideration in the Arrangement will be accelerated; and
- the limitations contained in the Arrangement Agreement on Intrawest's ability to solicit additional interest from third parties, and Acquisitionco's right to match a Superior Proposal, may discourage other parties from offering to acquire the Common Shares, even if those other parties might be willing to offer greater value than the consideration under the Arrangement, as well as the requirement to pay the Termination Fee to Parent in order to accept a Superior Proposal and the requirement to reimburse Parent for certain expenses, as described in "Other Terms of the Arrangement Agreement -- Termination Fees" and "Other Terms of the Arrangement Agreement -- Expense Reimbursement."

In reaching its determination, the Board also considered and evaluated, among other things:

- current industry, economic and market conditions and trends; and
- the fact that some of Intrawest's directors and officers have interests in the Arrangement and may have circumstances that are different from, or in addition to, those of Intrawest Securityholders generally, as described under "The Arrangement -- Interests of Senior Management and Others in the Arrangement."

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Board is not intended to be exhaustive but summarizes the material factors considered by the Board. The Board collectively reached its unanimous decision with respect to the Arrangement in light of the factors described above and other factors that each Board member considered were appropriate. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the Arrangement, the Board did not find it useful or practicable to, and did not, quantify, rank or otherwise attempt to make any specific assessments of or otherwise assign any relative or specific weight to the factors that were considered. The Board's determination and recommendation were made after consideration of all of the factors relating to the Arrangement and in light of their own knowledge of the business, financial condition and prospects of Intrawest and were based upon the advice of the financial and legal advisors to Intrawest and the Special Committee. Individual directors may have assigned or given different weights to different factors. The Board was, however, unanimous in its determination that the Arrangement be approved and in its recommendation that the Securityholders vote FOR the Arrangement Resolutions.

FAIRNESS OPINION

Goldman Sachs was retained to act as financial advisor to Intrawest in connection with, among other things, a potential sale of Intrawest.

At the meeting of the Board on August 9, 2006, Goldman Sachs orally delivered its Fairness Opinion to the Board (subsequently confirmed in writing on August 10, 2006) that, as of the date of the opinion and based on and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth therein, the consideration to be received by Shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such Shareholders.

The Fairness Opinion does not address the relative merits of the Arrangement as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to Intrawest or Intrawest's underlying business decision to effect the Arrangement. The Fairness Opinion does not address any terms of the Arrangement Agreement or the Plan of Arrangement, except as specifically set forth in the Fairness Opinion.

In connection with the Fairness Opinion, Goldman Sachs, among other things: (i) reviewed certain publicly available business and historical financial and other information relating to Intrawest; (ii) reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for Intrawest prepared by management of Intrawest; (iii) held discussions with members of the senior management of Intrawest regarding their assessment of the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of Intrawest; (iv) reviewed the reported price and trading activity for the Common Shares; (v) compared certain financial and stock market information for Intrawest with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded; (vi) reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the lodging and leisure industry specifically and in other industries generally; and (vii) performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as it deemed necessary or appropriate.

The full text of the Fairness Opinion, which sets forth, among other things, assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by Goldman Sachs in rendering its opinion, is attached as Appendix D to this Circular. The Fairness Opinion was provided for the information and assistance of the Board in connection with its consideration of the Arrangement. Such opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any Securityholder as to how such Securityholder should vote with respect to the Arrangement. Securityholders are urged to read the Fairness Opinion in its entirety. The summary of this opinion described in this Circular is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

Goldman Sachs has acted as financial advisor to Intrawest in connection with the Arrangement and will receive a fee for its services that is contingent upon the completion of the Arrangement. Intrawest has also agreed to reimburse Goldman Sachs' expenses and to indemnify Goldman Sachs and certain related persons against certain liabilities in connection with its engagement, including certain liabilities under securities legislation. In addition, Goldman Sachs has provided, and currently provides, certain investment banking services to Intrawest and Fortress and its affiliates and portfolio companies for which Goldman Sachs has received, and may in the future receive, compensation. In the ordinary course of business, Goldman Sachs and its affiliates may hold or trade, for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers, securities of Intrawest and the portfolio companies and affiliates of Fortress and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

REQUIRED SECURITYHOLDER APPROVAL

At the Meeting, Securityholders will be asked to vote to approve the Arrangement Resolutions. The approval of the Arrangement Resolutions will require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast by Securityholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting, provided that as part of such approval the Arrangement Resolutions are approved by at least two-thirds of the votes cast on the Arrangement Resolutions by Shareholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting. In addition, the Arrangement Resolutions will require the affirmative vote of at least a simple majority of the votes cast by Shareholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting, excluding the votes attached to Common Shares that are beneficially owned or over which control or direction is exercised by Joe S. Houssian, Intrawest's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. The Arrangement Resolutions must be passed by the requisite two-thirds and simple majority in order for Intrawest to seek the Final Order and implement the Arrangement in accordance with the Final Order. Notwithstanding the approval by Securityholders of the Arrangement Resolutions, Intrawest reserves the right not to proceed with the Arrangement subject to the terms of the Arrangement Agreement.

ARRANGEMENT MECHANICS

The following description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Plan of Arrangement, which is attached as Appendix C to this Circular. Upon the Arrangement becoming effective, the following transactions, among others, will occur and will be deemed to occur in the order and at the times set out in the Plan of Arrangement:

- Intrawest has currently outstanding an aggregate principal amount of Cdn. $125,000,000 of 6.875% Notes and $575,000,000 of 7.50% Notes, which Acquisitionco intends to offer to acquire immediately prior to the Effective Time. See "The Arrangement -- Notes Offers." Under the Plan of Arrangement, Acquisitionco will be deemed to have entered into an agreement with Intrawest pursuant to which Acquisitionco will transfer or cause to be transferred to Intrawest those Intrawest Notes, if any, then owned by it or any of its subsidiaries and acquired pursuant to an offer made to all holders of each of the 6.875% Notes and the 7.50% Notes at substantially the same price as Acquisitionco or any of its subsidiaries paid for such Notes (the "PURCHASE AMOUNT"), and the Intrawest Notes that are thereby transferred to Intrawest by Acquisitionco will be treated as having been repaid and will be immediately cancelled at such time, in each case without further act or formality. Intrawest may, in full and absolute satisfaction of the Purchase Amount, pay the Purchase Amount through the issuance of a demand promissory note;
- all of the Intrawest Options granted and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, without any further action on behalf of any

- with respect to each Intrawest Option, the holder thereof will cease to be the holder of such Intrawest Option, will cease to have any rights as a holder in respect of such Intrawest Option or under the Intrawest Stock Option Plan and the holder's name will be removed from the registers of Intrawest Options with respect to such Intrawest Option;
- the Intrawest Stock Option Plan will be cancelled;
- all Common Shares held by Dissenting Shareholders in respect of which such Dissenting Shareholders have exercised Dissent Rights and not withdrawn their notice of dissent will be deemed to have been transferred to Acquisitionco and such holders will cease to have any rights as Shareholders other than the right to be paid the fair value of their Common Shares;
- all Common Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than Common Shares held by a Dissenting Shareholder who is entitled to be paid the fair value of its Common Shares, will be and be deemed to be transferred by the Shareholders to Acquisitionco, free and clear of any Liens, for $35.00 in cash per Common Share;
- with respect to each Common Share transferred to Acquisitionco described above (including by Dissenting Shareholders): (a) the holder of each such Common Share will cease to be the holder of such Common Share and such holder's name will be removed from the register of Common Shares with respect to such Common Share; (b) legal and beneficial title to such Common Share will vest in Acquisitionco and Acquisitionco will be and be deemed to be the transferee of such Common Share and will be entered in the register of Common Shares as the sole holder thereof, and (c) the former holder of such Common Share will cease to have any rights as a Shareholder in respect of such Common Share;
- notwithstanding the terms of the Intrawest DSU Plans, all vested and unvested DSUs will be deemed to be vested and will without any further action by the holders of the DSUs be cancelled and terminated by Intrawest and each holder thereof will be entitled to receive from Intrawest, in exchange therefor, $35.00 in cash per DSU, net of applicable withholdings;

- notwithstanding the terms of the Performance RSU Agreement and the Restricted Share Unit Agreement, all vested and unvested RSUs will be deemed to be vested and will without any further action by the holder of the RSUs be cancelled and terminated by Intrawest and the holder thereof will be entitled to receive from Intrawest, in exchange therefor, $35.00 in cash per RSU, net of applicable withholdings;

Edgar Filing: INTRAWEST CORP - Form 6-K

- each of the Performance RSU Agreement and the Restricted Share Unit Agreement will be cancelled; and
- each of the Intrawest Share Purchase Plans will be cancelled.

In addition, the Arrangement Agreement provides that, at the election of Parent, all of the Senior Employee RSUs will be acquired or cancelled by Intrawest for cash equal to $35.00 per Senior Employee RSU. As at the date of this Circular, this election has not been exercised. If this election is exercised, the Arrangement Agreement states that the Plan of Arrangement will be amended accordingly.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

If you are a Registered Shareholder, you should have received with this Circular a Common Share Letter of Transmittal printed on blue paper. If you are an Optionholder, you should receive from Intrawest an Option Letter of Transmittal printed on yellow paper. In order to receive their portion of the Intrawest Share Consideration, Registered Shareholders must complete and sign the Common Share Letter of Transmittal enclosed with this Circular and deliver it and the other documents required by it to the Depositary in accordance with the instructions contained in the Common Share Letter of Transmittal. In order to obtain their portion of the Option Consideration, Optionholders must complete and sign the Option Letter of Transmittal and deliver it and the other documents required by it to the Depositary in accordance with the instructions contained in the Option Letter of Transmittal. In order to obtain the consideration payable for DSUs or RSUs under the Arrangement, the holders of DSUs or RSUs must complete and sign the appropriate letter of transmittal that will be made available by Intrawest to holders of DSUs and RSUs and the other documents required by such letter of transmittal to the Depositary in accordance with the instructions contained in the applicable letter of transmittal. You can request additional copies of the applicable letter of transmittal by contacting the Depositary. The Common Share Letter of Transmittal and Option Letter of Transmittal are also available at the website maintained by CDS at www.sedar.com and at the website maintained by the SEC at www.sec.gov.

The applicable letters of transmittal contain procedural information relating to the Arrangement and should be reviewed carefully. If you are a Non-Registered Shareholder, you should carefully follow the instructions from the Intermediary that holds Common Shares on your behalf in order to submit your Common Shares.

DELIVERY OF CONSIDERATION

At or prior to the filing of Articles of Arrangement in connection with the Plan of Arrangement, Acquisitionco will deposit the aggregate Intrawest Share Consideration with the Depositary and will deposit, on behalf of Intrawest, with the Depositary the aggregate Option Consideration together with the aggregate amount required to satisfy the payment obligations of Intrawest to the holders of DSUs and RSUs.

As soon as practicable following the later of the Effective Date and the surrender to the Depositary for cancellation of a certificate that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented one or more Common Shares that were exchanged under the Arrangement, together with a duly completed and executed Common Share Letter of Transmittal and such additional documents and instruments as the Depositary may reasonably require, the holder of such surrendered certificate(s) will be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, and Parent will cause the Depositary to deliver to such holder, the payment that such holder has the right to receive, and the certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. On and after the Effective Time, all certificates that represented

Common Shares immediately prior to the Effective Time will cease to represent any rights with respect to Common Shares and will only represent the right to receive the applicable portion of the Intrawest Share Consideration payable pursuant to the Plan of Arrangement.

As soon as practicable following the later of the Effective Date and the delivery to the Depositary of a duly completed Option Letter of Transmittal and such additional documents and instruments as the Depositary may reasonably require, Acquisitionco will cause the Depositary to deliver, on behalf of Intrawest, to each holder of Intrawest Options a payment representing the net cash payment, if any, payable to such holder of Intrawest Options in accordance with the provisions of the Plan of Arrangement.

Any use of mail to transmit certificate(s) for Common Shares or Letters of Transmittal is at the risk of the relevant Securityholder. If these documents are mailed, it is recommended that registered mail with return receipt requested, and with proper insurance, be used.

In the event of a transfer of ownership of Common Shares prior to the Effective Time that is not registered in the transfer records of Intrawest, a cheque representing the proper amount of cash may be delivered to the transferee if the certificate representing such Common Shares is presented to the Depositary, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer prior to the Effective Time.

Interest on the consideration payable in connection with the Arrangement will not accrue or be paid by Intrawest, Parent, Acquisitionco or the Depositary to holders of Common Shares (other than Dissenting Shareholders), Intrawest Options, RSUs or DSUs in connection with the Arrangement, regardless of any delay in making such payment.

The Depositary will act as the agent of persons who are entitled to receive payment under the Arrangement for the purpose of receiving payment from Acquisitionco or Intrawest and transmitting payment from Acquisitionco or Intrawest to such persons, and receipt of payment by the Depositary will be deemed to constitute receipt of payment by persons entitled thereto.

Unless otherwise directed in the Common Share Letter of Transmittal, the cheque to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement will be issued in the name of the Registered Shareholder of the Common Shares deposited. Unless the person who deposits the certificates representing the Common Shares instructs the Depositary to hold the cheque for pick up by checking the appropriate box in the Common Share Letter of Transmittal, cheques payable in U.S. funds will be forwarded by first class mail to the addresses supplied in the Common Share Letter of Transmittal. If no address is provided, cheques will be forwarded to the address of the Shareholder as shown on the register maintained by the Transfer Agent.

If any Shareholder fails for any reason to surrender to the Depositary for cancellation the certificates formerly representing Common Shares, together with such other documents or instruments required to entitle the holder to receive the cash payment described above, on or before the sixth anniversary of the Effective Date, such certificates will cease to represent a claim by or interest of any former Shareholder of any kind or nature. On such anniversary date, all certificates representing Common Shares and cash to which such former holder was entitled, together with any entitlements to dividends, distributions and interest thereon, will be deemed to have been donated and forfeited to

Acquisitionco.

Cheques to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement to Optionholders or holders of DSUs or RSUs will be issued as directed by Optionholders in the Option Letter of Transmittal or by holders of DSUs or RSUs in such letter of transmittal as is delivered to such holders by Intrawest.

Intrawest, Acquisitionco and the Depositary will be entitled to deduct and withhold from any consideration otherwise payable to a holder of Common Shares, Intrawest Options, DSUs or RSUs such amounts as Intrawest, Acquisitionco or the Depositary is required or permitted to deduct and withhold with respect to such payment under applicable laws.

The Depositary will receive reasonable and customary compensation for its services in connection with the Arrangement, will be reimbursed for certain out of pocket expenses and will be indemnified by Intrawest against certain liabilities under applicable securities laws and expenses in connection therewith.

INTERESTS OF SENIOR MANAGEMENT AND OTHERS IN THE ARRANGEMENT

In considering the recommendation of the Board with respect to the Arrangement, Securityholders should be aware that certain members of the Board and Intrawest's executive and other officers have certain interests in connection with the Arrangement that may be perceived as conflicts of interest with respect to the Arrangement. The members of the Board, including the members of the Special Committee, are aware of these interests and considered them along with other matters described above.

The directors and officers of Intrawest beneficially own, directly and indirectly, or exercise control or direction over, in the aggregate 2,053,879 Common Shares, representing approximately 4.0% of the Securities eligible to be voted at the Meeting. All of the Common Shares held by the directors and officers of Intrawest will be treated in the same fashion under the Arrangement as Common Shares held by any other Shareholder. The aggregate consideration payable to the directors and officers of Intrawest under the Arrangement in respect of their Common Shares will be approximately $71.9 million (before applicable withholdings).

The directors and officers of Intrawest hold in the aggregate Intrawest Options entitling them to acquire in the aggregate 2,395,950 Common Shares, representing approximately 4.6% of the Securities eligible to be voted at the Meeting. All of the Intrawest Options held by the directors and officers of Intrawest will be treated in the same manner under the Arrangement as Intrawest Options held by any other Optionholder. The aggregate consideration payable to the directors and officers of Intrawest under the Arrangement in respect of their Intrawest Options, net of the aggregate exercise price in respect of such Intrawest Options, will be approximately $31.0 million (before applicable withholdings).

As of September 19, 2006, the directors and executive officers of Intrawest held in the aggregate 1,621,134 DSUs and RSUs. Assuming that the Arrangement Agreement becomes effective prior to the end of October 2006, it is anticipated that, at the Effective Date, the directors and executive officers of Intrawest will hold in the aggregate approximately 1,625,000 DSUs and RSUs. Notwithstanding the terms of the Intrawest DSU Plans, the Performance RSU Agreement and the Restricted Share Unit Agreement, all vested and unvested DSUs and RSUs will be deemed to be vested pursuant to the Arrangement, and will be cancelled and terminated by Intrawest and each holder thereof will be entitled to receive from Intrawest, in exchange therefor, $35.00 in cash per DSU and RSU, net of applicable withholdings. Based on the assumption referred to above, the aggregate consideration payable to all directors and executive officers of Intrawest upon completion of the Arrangement in respect of DSUs and RSUs held by them will be approximately $56.9 million (before applicable withholdings).

The Arrangement Agreement also provides that, at the election of Parent, all of the Senior Employee RSUs (which do not form part of the DSUs or RSUs described above) will be acquired or cancelled by Intrawest for cash equal to $35.00 per Senior Employee RSU. As at the date of this Circular this election has not been exercised. If this election is exercised, an additional $0.5 million in the aggregate will be payable to officers of Intrawest in respect of Senior Employee RSUs held by them.

Each of Joe S. Houssian, Intrawest's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Alex Wasilov, Intrawest's President and Chief Operating Officer, John E. Currie, Intrawest's Chief Financial Officer, Daniel O. Jarvis, Intrawest's Chief Corporate Development Officer, Hugh R. Smythe, Intrawest's President, Mountain Operations, and Michael F. Coyle, Intrawest's Chief Strategy Officer is a party to an employment agreement with Intrawest under which each of these executives is entitled to receive severance benefits if the executive's employment with Intrawest is terminated by the executive following a good faith determination by the executive that he is unable to carry out the power, authority, functions, duties or reporting responsibilities attached to his position with Intrawest as a result of a change in circumstances significantly affecting his position with Intrawest as a result of or within 24 months after the occurrence of a "change in control," and in certain other circumstances not related to a "change in control", including a significant change in the executive's responsibilities which is not remedied within 30 days after notice thereof. In such event, the executive will generally receive the following for the severance period (the severance period being (a) the greater of 36 months or the period commencing the date of termination and ending 42 months after the occurrence of a "change in control" for Mr. Houssian, (b) 24 months for Mr. Wasilov, and (c) for all of the other executive officers referred to above, the greater of 24 months or the period commencing the date of termination and ending 30 months after the occurrence of a "change in control"):

- annual base salary and amounts in lieu of the continued opportunity to earn annual incentive awards (as such annual incentive awards are described in Intrawest's Annual Information Form dated September 20, 2006 under the section entitled "Report on Executive Compensation -- Annual Incentives," which section is incorporated by reference herein) plus, in the case of Mr. Wasilov, the additional amount equal to $1,500,000 less, if the date of termination occurs prior to June 30, 2008, the amount obtained by multiplying $750,000 by the fraction the numerator of which is the number of days in the period commencing the day next following the date of termination and ending June 30, 2008 and the denominator of which is 365;
- continuing rights under all benefit plans and arrangements and other perquisites in which the executive was entitled to participate or which the executive was entitled to enjoy immediately prior to the date of termination (other than disability insurance, any long-term incentive plan, deferred share unit or other pension or retirement or supplemental pension plan and any stock option or share purchase plan or arrangement) or, if such participation is not possible, substantially similar benefits (provided the executive may elect to be paid a lump sum amount equal to Intrawest's cost of providing such benefits);

- an amount equal to the loss incurred or projected to be incurred by the executive with respect to the Intrawest Corporation Employee Pension Plan by reason of the termination of his employment prior to the expiration of the severance period, as applicable;
- recognition of the severance period as a period of service for the calculation of pension benefits to which the executive or his spouse will be entitled under the Intrawest Corporation Designated Executives' Pension Plan (Non-Registered Portion) (as such plan is described in Intrawest's Annual Information Form dated September 20, 2006 under the section entitled "Statement of Executive Compensation -- Executive Pension Plan," which section is incorporated by reference herein), as applicable; and
- a lump sum amount equal to the present value of the interest payments that would be payable on any outstanding loans to the executive under any share purchase plan or arrangement of Intrawest during the severance period (or, if applicable, such earlier date on which any such loan would have matured by its terms if the executive's employment had not terminated) if interest were payable on such loans at the "prime rate" of interest of The Bank of Nova Scotia on the date of termination, as applicable.

In addition to the foregoing, Intrawest has entered into or authorized a retention agreement with each of Andrew D. Stotesbury, Intrawest's President, Placemaking, Andrew Voysey, Intrawest's Executive Vice President, Acquisitions, Sally Dennis, Intrawest's General Counsel, David Blaiklock, Intrawest's Vice President and Corporate Controller and Ross J. Meacher, Intrawest's Corporate Secretary and Chief Privacy Officer under which each of such officers is entitled to receive severance benefits if a "change in control" occurs prior to July 1, 2007 and the officer's employment with Intrawest is terminated after the "change in control", either (i) by Intrawest for any reason prior to the expiry of 12 months after the "change in control" or (ii) by the officer in defined circumstances that occur after the "change in control," including relocation, a significant change in power, authority or functions and a reduction in salary or benefits, within such 12-month period. In such event, the officer will receive the following for the applicable severance period, which varies between 6 months and 24 months, depending on the individual:

- a lump sum amount in lieu of salary and the continued opportunity to earn an annual incentive award;
- a lump sum amount equal to Intrawest's cost of providing continued participation in the benefit plans and arrangements and other benefits and perquisites in which the officer was entitled to participate or which the officer was entitled to enjoy immediately prior to the date of termination (other than any pension or retirement plan or arrangement or any stock option or share purchase plan or arrangement); and
- a lump sum equal to the loss incurred or projected to be incurred by the officer with respect to any pension or retirement plan or arrangement of which the officer is a member by reason of the termination of the officer's employment prior to the expiration of the severance period, as applicable.

None of these officers is required under the employment or retention agreements to mitigate the amount of any payment provided for by seeking other employment or otherwise, nor will the amount of any payment or benefit be reduced by any compensation earned by the individual with another employer or self-employment. Completion of the Arrangement will constitute a "change in control" under these agreements.

As part of the Arrangement, Parent and Acquisitionco have required that the Intrawest LTIP be cancelled and, as described above, the DSUs thereunder be cancelled and terminated. In addition to entitlement in respect of the DSUs which are to be cancelled and terminated as part of the Arrangement, the participants in the Intrawest LTIP have certain entitlements, including certain termination rights expressed as an additional grant of notional Common Shares, in respect of which the executive will receive an additional cash payment, for the reasonable notice period applicable on termination of the executive. The Arrangement Agreement provides for the continuation of these rights by providing that, immediately prior to the Effective Time, Intrawest will amend the employment agreements between Intrawest and each of Messrs. Houssian, Currie, Jarvis, Smythe and Coyle, in form reasonably acceptable to the respective executive party thereto (or deliver a written undertaking to each of them to do so) to provide that in the event of termination of employment of the relevant executive within 180 days after the Effective Date for any reason whatsoever, or thereafter if such executive is entitled to severance under such executive's employment agreement (as described above), Intrawest will pay to such executive, in addition to all other amounts to which such executive may be entitled under such executive's employment agreement or otherwise, an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying $35.00 by the number of notional Common Shares that such executive would be entitled to pursuant to the Intrawest LTIP in respect of the reasonable notice period applicable to such executive if the Intrawest LTIP were in full force and effect at such time and such termination occurred after June 30, 2006 and prior to July 1, 2007. The reasonable notice period applicable to each executive is the same as the severance period under the executive's employment agreement. Intrawest has determined that the aggregate number of notional Common Shares which may be granted to all of the foregoing executives collectively in respect of their reasonable notice periods will range from 487,167 to 575,359 notional Common Shares, in respect of which they would collectively be paid from $17,050,845 to $20,137,565 depending upon when termination might occur.

Intrawest may, in recognition of their performance, pay bonuses to certain officers, other than executive officers, who make a significant contribution to effecting the transactions contemplated under the Arrangement Agreement. Any such payments will be made in the discretion of Intrawest senior management.

The officers of Intrawest are also generally entitled to benefits, rights and payments under Intrawest's various retirement and pension plans. These benefits arise as normal incidents of employment for the officers of Intrawest and are not materially altered by the completion of the Arrangement.

Additional information respecting director and executive compensation, including the Intrawest LTIP, is found in Intrawest's Annual Information Form dated September 20, 2006 under the sections entitled "Report on Executive Compensation," "Statement of Executive Compensation," "Compensation of Directors," "Securities Authorized for Issuance Under Equity Compensation Plans," and "Indebtedness of Directors and Executive Officers," which sections are incorporated by reference herein.

A copy of the Annual Information Form can be found on Intrawest's website at www.Intrawest.com or on SEDAR at www.sedar.com and on EDGAR at www.sec.gov and is available upon request to the Corporate Secretary of Intrawest.

As is described in the Annual Information Form, Intrawest has a Human Resources Committee composed entirely of independent directors. The mandate of the Human Resources Committee includes annually reviewing and determining the base salary, incentive compensation and long-term compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer and authorizing, approving, adopting and overseeing Intrawest's compensation plans and equity-based plans. The incentive plans described above, and the Intrawest Options, DSUs and RSUs granted thereunder were not adopted or granted in connection with the Arrangement. Instead they were adopted and granted by the Human Resources Committee or the Board as part of the executive compensation strategy and policies adopted by the Human Resources Committee and reported to Shareholders annually by the Human Resources Committee in its report on executive compensation.

INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE

The Arrangement Agreement provides that Intrawest will, and Parent and Acquisitionco will cause Intrawest and any successor to Intrawest (including any Surviving Corporation) to, continue and maintain in effect without any gaps, lapses or reduction in scope or coverage for six years from the Effective Time policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance providing protection comparable to the protection provided by the policies maintained by Intrawest and its subsidiaries that are in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time and providing protection in respect of claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or prior to the Effective Time. The Arrangement Agreement also provides that Parent and Acquisitionco will, after the expiration of such six-year period, use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause such directors and officers to be covered under Parent's existing directors' and officers' insurance policy, if any. Prior to the Effective Time Intrawest may, in the alternative, at its option, purchase prepaid non-cancellable run-off directors' and officers' liability insurance providing coverage for a period of up to six years from the Effective Date provided that the premiums payable for such insurance do not exceed 200% of the premiums currently payable by Intrawest for directors' and officers' liability insurance.

The Arrangement Agreement also provides that Parent and Acquisitionco will cause Intrawest and any successor to Intrawest (including any Surviving Corporation) and its subsidiaries to honour all rights to indemnification existing in favour of present and former officers and directors of Intrawest and its subsidiaries (including any Surviving Corporation) as of the Effective Time, which will survive the completion of the Arrangement and shall continue in full force and effect for a period of not less than six years from the Effective Time.

Except as disclosed herein, none of the directors or officers (or such former officers) of Intrawest, no person or company who beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, Securities or who exercised control or direction over Securities or a combination of both carrying more than 10% of the voting rights attached to Securities entitled to vote at the Meeting and no associate or affiliate of any of the foregoing, has or had any material interest, direct or indirect, in any transaction or proposed transaction since the beginning of Intrawest's most recently completed financial year that has materially affected or would or could materially affect Intrawest or any of its subsidiaries.

INTENTIONS OF INTRAWEST DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The directors and officers of Intrawest, who beneficially own, directly or indirectly, or exercise control or direction over, in the aggregate, 2,053,879 Common Shares and Intrawest Options to acquire 2,395,950 Common Shares as at September 18, 2006, which represent 4.2% and 84.9% of the outstanding Common Shares and Intrawest Options, respectively, and 8.6% of the outstanding Securities eligible to be voted at the Meeting, have indicated that they intend to vote their Securities in favour of the Arrangement Resolutions.

SOURCES OF FUNDS FOR THE ARRANGEMENT

Under the terms of the Arrangement and related transactions, an aggregate amount of approximately $2.9 billion, including transaction costs, is expected to be paid to acquire or repay outstanding Intrawest indebtedness (including the outstanding Intrawest Notes), acquire all of the Common Shares (assuming no Registered Shareholders exercise their Dissent Rights) and Intrawest Options and satisfy payment in respect of all outstanding DSUs and RSUs. The following arrangements are intended to provide the necessary funding for the Arrangement and related transactions. Notwithstanding such arrangements, the obligations of Parent and Acquisitionco under the Arrangement Agreement are not subject to any financing condition.

DEBT FINANCING

Fortress has received the Commitment Letter dated August 10, 2006 made by Lehman Brothers Inc., Lehman Commercial Paper Inc., Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., Deutsche Bank AG, Cayman Islands Branch, Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. and Bear Stearns Corporate Lending Inc. (collectively, the "LENDERS"), for loan facilities (the "LOANS"). The Lenders have the option of arranging to have other financial institutions provide portions of the Loans.

The obligation of the Lenders to provide the debt financing on the terms outlined in the Commitment Letter is subject to the following conditions, among others:

- consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement contemporaneously with closing of the Loans;
- the Fortress Funds having contributed equity of a minimum specified amount (it is expected that this condition will be satisfied by the equity commitment described below);

Edgar Filing: INTRAWEST CORP - Form 6-K

- simultaneous termination of existing indebtedness of the borrowers after giving effect to the transactions, with certain exceptions;
- receipt by the lenders of certain historical and pro forma financial statements, solvency certificate of an executive officer and customary legal opinions; and
- other customary conditions for financings of this type.

Notwithstanding the foregoing financing commitment, Acquisitionco may elect to pursue alternative means of financing.

EQUITY FINANCING

Acquisitionco has received the Equity Commitment Letter dated August 10, 2006 pursuant to which the Fortress Funds have agreed to provide, or cause to be provided, equity financing to Acquisitionco as a source of funds required to consummate the Arrangement. The obligations of the Fortress Funds to provide the equity financing on the terms outlined in the Equity Commitment Letter are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the obligations of Parent set forth in Article 7 of the Arrangement Agreement. See "Other Terms of the Arrangement Agreement -- Conditions Precedent to the Arrangement."

NOTES OFFERS

The Arrangement Agreement provides that Acquisitionco will make an offer to purchase and consent solicitation with respect to the outstanding Intrawest Notes to purchase such Intrawest Notes and adopt a supplemental indenture that has the effect of eliminating covenants and other provisions in the applicable indentures governing the Intrawest Notes. Intrawest has agreed to cooperate with Acquisitionco as reasonably requested by Acquisitionco with respect to preparing for and effecting the offers, including taking the actions required by the indentures governing the Intrawest Notes in connection with the adoption of supplemental indentures. The offers are expected to be commenced on or around September 25, 2006 and to expire on October 24, 2006, or such later date to which each offer may be extended in Acquisitionco's sole discretion.

OTHER TERMS OF THE ARRANGEMENT AGREEMENT

The following description of certain material provisions of the Arrangement Agreement is a summary only, is not comprehensive and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Arrangement Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix B to this Circular. The Arrangement Agreement was filed on SEDAR on August 18, 2006 and on the Electronic Data Gathering, Analysis, and Retrieval System ("EDGAR") on August 22, 2006.

Except for the Arrangement Agreement's status as a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations among the parties thereto with respect to the Arrangement, its text is not intended to be, and should not be interpreted as, a source of factual, business or operational information about Intrawest, Parent, Acquisitionco, the Fortress Funds or Fortress, or any of their respective affiliates. The Arrangement Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants that are qualified and limited, including by information in the documents referenced in the Arrangement Agreement that the parties delivered in connection with the execution of the Arrangement Agreement, certain other information provided by the parties thereto to the other parties, or disclosed in public filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and the Canadian securities regulatory authorities. Representations and warranties may be used as a tool to allocate risks between the respective parties to the Arrangement Agreement, including where the parties do not have complete knowledge of all facts, instead of establishing such matters as facts. Furthermore, the representations and warranties may be subject to different standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties, which may differ from what may be viewed as material to Securityholders. These representations may or may not have been accurate as of any specific date and do not purport to be accurate as of the date of this Circular. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the Arrangement Agreement and subsequent developments or new information qualifying a representation or warranty may have been included in this Circular. Except for the parties themselves, under the terms of the Arrangement Agreement only certain other specifically identified persons are third-party beneficiaries of the Arrangement Agreement who may enforce it and rely on its terms. Securityholders are not third-party beneficiaries of the Arrangement Agreement and therefore may not directly enforce or rely upon its terms and conditions and should not rely on its representations, warranties or covenants as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Intrawest, Parent, Acquisitionco, the Fortress Funds or Fortress, or any of their respective affiliates.

On August 10, 2006, Intrawest, Parent and Acquisitionco entered into the Arrangement Agreement, under which it was agreed, among other things, that, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Arrangement Agreement, Acquisitionco would acquire all of the issued and outstanding Common Shares for a price equal to $35.00 in cash per Common Share pursuant to the Arrangement. On September 20, 2006, 3167113 Nova Scotia Company assigned its right, title and interest in and to the Arrangement Agreement to Wintergames Acquisition ULC, and Wintergames Acquisition LLC assigned its right, title and interest in and to the Arrangement Agreement to Wintergames S.a.r.l.

- (l) as soon as is reasonably practicable, to carry out the terms of the Interim Order and Final Order applicable to it and use commercially reasonable efforts to comply promptly with all Laws applicable to the Arrangement.

In the Arrangement Agreement, each of Parent and Acquisitionco have agreed to perform all their obligations under the Arrangement Agreement, cooperate with Intrawest in connection therewith, and do all such other acts and things as may be necessary or desirable in order to consummate and make effective, as soon as reasonably practicable, the transactions contemplated in the Arrangement Agreement and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each of Parent and Acquisitionco will:

- designate one individual from whom Intrawest may seek approval to undertake any actions not permitted to be taken under the terms of the Arrangement Agreement and will ensure that such person will respond, on behalf of Parent, to Intrawest's requests in an expeditious manner; and
- forthwith carry out the terms of the Interim Order and Final Order to the extent applicable to it and use commercially reasonable efforts to comply promptly with all Laws applicable to the Arrangement.

COVENANTS OF INTRAWEST REGARDING NON-SOLICITATION

Intrawest has agreed, except as expressly contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement until the Arrangement Agreement is terminated, that none of Intrawest nor its subsidiaries will, directly or indirectly, through any Representative of it take any action that might, directly or indirectly, interfere with the consummation of the Arrangement and, will not (and Intrawest will not permit its subsidiaries to), without the consent in writing of Parent (which consent may be unreasonably withheld), directly or indirectly, through any subsidiary or Representative of it or any of its subsidiaries:

- solicit, initiate or knowingly facilitate or encourage any inquiry, proposal or offer relating to or constituting an Acquisition Proposal from any person;
- enter into or participate in any discussions or negotiations or other activities with any person (other than Acquisitionco, Parent or their affiliates) regarding an Acquisition Proposal;
- withdraw, modify, qualify, or propose publicly to withdraw, modify or qualify, in any manner adverse to Parent or Acquisitionco the approval or recommendation of the Board or any committee thereof of the Arrangement;
- approve, endorse, recommend or remain neutral with respect to, or propose to publicly approve, endorse, recommend or remain neutral with respect to, any Acquisition Proposal; or
- accept or enter into, or propose publicly to accept or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, understanding, undertaking, arrangement or Contract in respect of or relating to an Acquisition Proposal.

Intrawest has agreed, and has agreed to cause the Representatives of Intrawest and its subsidiaries and their Representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing solicitations, discussions, negotiations or activities with any person (other than Parent and Acquisitionco) with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or any proposal that may reasonably be expected to constitute an Acquisition Proposal.

Intrawest also agreed to discontinue access by any third party (other than Parent and Acquisitionco or their representatives) to any data room (virtual or otherwise) and to promptly request the return or deletion from retrieval systems and data bases or destruction of all information provided to any third party which, at any time since

36

February 28, 2006, has entered into a confidentiality agreement with Intrawest relating to a potential Acquisition Proposal to the extent that such information has not previously been returned or destroyed, and to use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that such requests are honoured in accordance with the terms of such agreement.

CONSIDERATION OF ALTERNATIVE TRANSACTIONS

Prior to the approval of the Arrangement Resolutions, nothing contained in the Arrangement Agreement will prevent the Board from entering into an agreement or engaging in discussions or negotiations with or furnishing information to (subject to compliance with the non-solicitation provisions) any person who has made an unsolicited bona fide, Acquisition Proposal that (a) did not result from a breach of the provisions of the Arrangement Agreement relating to non-solicitation; and (b) in respect of which the Board determines in good faith after consultation with its financial advisors and its outside legal counsel that the Acquisition Proposal would be reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal.

Intrawest must promptly (and in any event within 24 hours of receipt by Intrawest) notify Parent, at first orally and thereafter in writing, of any inquiry, proposal or offer relating to or constituting an Acquisition Proposal or an inquiry that could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, in each case received after August 10, 2006, of which any of its directors or officers are or become aware, including the renewal of any Acquisition Proposal made prior to August 10, 2006.

If, prior to the approval of the Arrangement Resolutions, Intrawest receives a request for material non-public information from a person who proposes an unsolicited bona fide Acquisition Proposal where Intrawest is not in breach of the non-solicitation provisions of the Arrangement Agreement and the Board determines in good faith after consultation with its financial advisors and its outside legal counsel that such proposal would be reasonably likely, if consummated, to lead to a Superior Proposal, then, and only in such case, the Board may, subject to the execution by such person of a confidentiality agreement having terms not less favourable to Intrawest than the Confidentiality Agreement, provide such person with access to information regarding Intrawest.

Nothing contained in the non-solicitation provisions prohibits the Board from making any disclosure to Intrawest's Shareholders prior to the Effective Time if, in the good faith judgment of the Board, after consultation with outside legal counsel, such disclosure is necessary for the directors and officers of Intrawest to act in a manner consistent with their duties or is otherwise required under applicable Law.

RIGHT TO MATCH

The Arrangement Agreement provides Acquisitionco with a right to match any Superior Proposal during a response period (the "RESPONSE PERIOD") of five Business Days from the later of (i) the date on which Parent receives a written notice from Intrawest advising that the Board has determined, subject only to compliance with the right to match provisions, to enter into an agreement, understanding, arrangement or Contract in respect of, or to proceed with, or recommend, a Superior Proposal; and (ii) the date Parent receives a copy of the Superior Proposal. In the event that Intrawest provides Parent with the notice on a date that is less than seven Business Days prior to the Meeting, Intrawest is entitled to adjourn and will, at the request of Parent, adjourn the Meeting to a date that is not less than seven Business Days and not more than 15 Business Days after the date of such notice.

During the Response Period, Parent and Acquisitionco have the right, but not the obligation, to offer to amend the terms of the Arrangement Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement. The Board will review in good faith any such proposal by Parent and Acquisitionco to amend the terms of the Arrangement Agreement or the Plan of Arrangement, to determine (after receipt of advice, to the extent considered appropriate by the Board, from its financial advisors and outside legal counsel) whether the Acquisition Proposal to which Parent and Acquisitionco are responding would be a Superior Proposal when assessed against the Arrangement and the Plan of Arrangement as it is proposed by Parent and Acquisitionco to be amended.

Intrawest may enter into any agreement to proceed with a Superior Proposal only if: (i) Parent and Acquisitionco do not, prior to the expiry of the Response Period, propose to amend the terms of the Arrangement Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement; or (ii) Parent and Acquisitionco deliver to Intrawest, prior to the expiry of the Response Period, a proposal to amend the terms of the Arrangement Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement, and the Board determines in good faith, after, among other things, consultation (to the extent considered appropriate by the Board) with Intrawest's financial advisors and outside legal counsel, taking into account the proposal by Parent and Acquisitionco to amend the Arrangement Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement, that the Acquisition Proposal remains a Superior Proposal; and (iii) and Intrawest concurrently terminates the Arrangement Agreement pursuant to its terms and pays to Parent the termination fee (as described below) under "Termination Fees."

If Parent and Acquisitionco propose to amend the terms of the Arrangement Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement, and the Board does not determine that the Acquisition Proposal remains a Superior Proposal when compared to the proposed amendment to the Arrangement Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement, Intrawest and Parent and Acquisitionco will promptly execute and deliver an amending agreement amending the Arrangement Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement, incorporating or reflecting the terms of the amendment to the terms of the Arrangement Agreement and Plan of Arrangement as proposed by Parent and Acquisitionco and Intrawest will publicly announce that the Board has reaffirmed its recommendation of the Arrangement by news release, the form of which shall be provided to Parent for its review and comment prior to publication.

Each successive amendment to any Acquisition Proposal that results in any change in, or modification of, the consideration to be received by the holders of Common Shares or any other material change in the terms or conditions of such Acquisition Proposal will constitute a new Acquisition Proposal for the purposes of the right to match provisions and Parent will be afforded a new Response Period in respect of each such Acquisition Proposal.

TERMINATION FEES

The Arrangement Agreement provides that Intrawest will pay to Parent (or as it may direct) $60 million less any amounts actually paid by Intrawest to Parent for reimbursement of expenses (as described below) under "Expense Reimbursement":

- if Intrawest terminates the Arrangement Agreement by providing written notice to Parent, in order to enter into a definitive agreement

providing for the implementation of a Superior Proposal, subject to compliance with the terms of the Arrangement Agreement;

- if Parent terminates the Arrangement Agreement by providing written notice to Intrawest at any time before the Effective Time if (i) the Effective Date does not occur on or before the Termination Deadline, and the failure of the Effective Time to occur by such date is not the result of the failure on the part of Parent or Acquisitionco to fulfill any of their obligations; or (ii) if the Meeting is not held and the Arrangement Resolutions are not submitted to the Securityholders at the Meeting, at least seven days prior to the Termination Deadline;
 - in the event that a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal has been made by any person other than Parent or Acquisitionco after August 10, 2006 but before the termination of the Arrangement Agreement and (i) either Intrawest or Parent terminates the Arrangement Agreement by providing written notice to the other at any time before the Effective Time if (A) the Effective Date does not occur on or before the Termination Deadline, and the failure of the Effective Time to occur by such date is not the result of the failure on the part of Parent or Acquisitionco to fulfill any of their obligations; or (B) the Meeting is held and the Arrangement Resolutions are not passed by the Securityholders in accordance with applicable legislation and the Interim Order; and (ii) within 365 days after the date of such termination (A) an Acquisition Proposal is consummated with the offeror of such Acquisition Proposal, or any other person; or (B) the Board approves or recommends such Acquisition Proposal or any other Acquisition Proposal, or Intrawest or any of its subsidiaries enters into a definitive agreement with respect to such Acquisition Proposal or any other Acquisition Proposal and thereafter (whether or not within 365 days after the termination of the Arrangement Agreement) such Acquisition Proposal is consummated;
 - if Parent terminates the Arrangement Agreement by written notice to Intrawest at any time before the Effective Time and (i) the Board shall have failed to recommend the Arrangement Agreement or the Arrangement; (ii) the Board or any committee thereof shall have (A) withdrawn, qualified or otherwise modified in a manner adverse to Parent and Acquisitionco, or proposed publicly to withdraw or so qualify or otherwise modify, the approval or recommendation of the Board or any committee thereof of the Arrangement Agreement or the Arrangement, or (B) approved or recommended, or proposed publicly to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal; or (iii) following any Acquisition Proposal that is made or publicly announced, the Board or the Special Committee fails to publicly affirm its approval or recommendation of the Arrangement within five Business Days of any written request to do so from Parent; and
- 38
- in the event that neither Parent or Acquisitionco is in material breach of its obligations under the Arrangement Agreement, and Parent terminates the Arrangement Agreement after, in accordance with the Arrangement Agreement, it gives written notice to Intrawest that Intrawest has breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the Arrangement Agreement, that would give rise to the failure of certain conditions to closing.

The Arrangement Agreement also provides that in the event the Arrangement Agreement is:

- terminated by Intrawest upon written notice to Parent if Acquisitionco does not provide the Depositary with sufficient funds to complete the transactions contemplated by the Plan of Arrangement or if Acquisitionco or Parent has breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the Arrangement Agreement, or

- terminated by either Intrawest or Parent if the Effective Date does not occur by the Termination Date following any failure by Acquisitionco and Parent to obtain financing as contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement, or a failure by Parent or Acquisitionco to perform or comply with their obligations under the Arrangement Agreement to carry out the terms of the Interim Order and the Final Order, then Parent and Acquisitionco will pay to Intrawest an amount equal to $60 million.

EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT

The Arrangement Agreement also provides that if (a) Parent terminates the Arrangement Agreement because the Meeting is held and the Arrangement Resolutions are not passed by the Securityholders in accordance with applicable legislation and the Interim Order, and no Termination Fee is payable by Intrawest to Parent, or (b) (i) the Arrangement Agreement is terminated because the Effective Date does not occur on or before the Termination Deadline, or is terminated by Parent after Parent gives written notice to Intrawest that Intrawest has breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the Arrangement Agreement that would give rise to the failure of certain conditions to closing, (ii) no Termination Fee is payable by Intrawest to Parent, and (iii) the Meeting is not held for any reason prior to such termination, or such termination was caused as a result of breaches by Intrawest of the Arrangement Agreement, Intrawest will pay to Parent an amount equal to Parent and Acquisitionco's (without duplication) actual out of pocket costs and expenses, including reasonable fees and expenses of their counsel, accountants, financial advisors and other experts and advisors, incidental to the preparation, negotiation and execution of the Arrangement Agreement and related documentation, up to a maximum of $10 million (less the amount of any withholding required by applicable Laws relating to all Taxes that are concurrently remitted by Intrawest to the relevant Governmental Authority and receipted) as payment in respect of such costs and expenses (the amount of such costs and expenses to be certified by a senior officer of Parent in writing in reasonable detail).

In no event will Intrawest be required to pay in respect of the termination fee and reimbursement of expenses, in the aggregate, an amount in excess of $60 million.

TERMINATION RIGHTS

The Arrangement Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time:

- by agreement in writing executed by Parent and Intrawest;
- by either Intrawest or Parent, upon written notice by either one to the other if: (i) the Effective Date does not occur on or before the Termination Deadline, and the failure of the Effective Time to occur by such date is not the result of the failure on the part of the party wishing to terminate the Arrangement Agreement to fulfill any of their obligations; (ii) the Meeting is held and the Arrangement Resolutions are not passed by the Securityholders in accordance with applicable legislation and the Interim Order; or (iii) any Law makes the consummation of the Arrangement or the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement illegal or otherwise prohibited and such Law has become final and non appealable;

Edgar Filing: INTRAWEST CORP - Form 6-K

- by Intrawest upon written notice to Parent, in order to enter into a definitive agreement providing for the implementation of a Superior Proposal, subject to compliance with the terms of the Arrangement Agreement;

- by Intrawest upon written notice to Parent if Acquisitionco does not provide the Transfer Agent with sufficient funds to complete the transactions contemplated by the Plan of Arrangement;
- by Parent upon written notice to Intrawest if: (i) the Board has failed to recommend the Arrangement Agreement or the Arrangement, or (ii) the Board or any committee thereof has (A) withdrawn, qualified or otherwise modified in a manner adverse to Parent and Acquisitionco, or proposed publicly to withdraw or so qualify or otherwise modify, the approval or recommendation of the Board or any committee thereof of the Arrangement Agreement or the Arrangement, or (B) approved or recommended, or proposed publicly to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal;
- by Parent upon written notice to Intrawest if, following any Acquisition Proposal that is made or publicly announced, the Board or the Special Committee fails to publicly affirm its approval or recommendation of the Arrangement within five Business Days of any written request to do so from Parent;
- neither Parent or Acquisitionco is in material breach of its obligations under the Arrangement Agreement, and Parent gives written notice to Intrawest that Intrawest has breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the Arrangement Agreement, that would give rise to the failure of certain conditions to closing; or
- Intrawest is not in material breach of its obligations under the Arrangement Agreement, and Intrawest gives written notice to Parent, that Parent or Acquisitionco has breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the Arrangement Agreement, that would give rise to the failure of certain conditions to closing.

PRE-ACQUISITION REORGANIZATIONS

Intrawest agreed in the Arrangement Agreement that, upon request by Parent, Intrawest will, and will cause its subsidiaries to, at the expense of Parent, use its commercially reasonable efforts to (i) effect such reorganizations of its business, operations and assets and the integration of other affiliated businesses as Parent may request, acting reasonably (each a "PRE-ACQUISITION REORGANIZATION") and (ii) cooperate with Parent and its advisors to determine the nature of the Pre-Acquisition Reorganizations that might be undertaken and the manner in which they can be undertaken most effectively. Parent and Acquisitionco acknowledged and agreed in the Arrangement Agreement that the Pre-Acquisition Reorganizations will not impede, delay or prevent consummation of the Arrangement, prejudice the Securityholders, require Intrawest to obtain the approval of the Shareholders, or be considered in determining whether a representation or warranty of Intrawest under the Arrangement Agreement has been breached. Parent must provide written notice to Intrawest of any proposed Pre-Acquisition Reorganization at least ten days prior to the Effective Date. Upon receipt of such notice, Parent and Intrawest have agreed, at the expense of Parent, to work cooperatively and use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare prior to the Effective Time all documentation necessary and do such other acts and things as are necessary to give effect to such Pre-Acquisition Reorganization immediately prior to the Effective Date. If the Arrangement is not completed, Parent has agreed to reimburse Intrawest for all reasonable fees and expenses (including any professional fees and expenses) incurred by Intrawest and its subsidiaries in considering and effecting a Pre-Acquisition Reorganization and Parent will be responsible for any costs of Intrawest and its subsidiaries in reversing or unwinding any Pre-Acquisition Reorganization that was effected prior to termination of the Arrangement Agreement at Parent's request.

PRINCIPAL LEGAL MATTERS

COURT APPROVAL OF THE ARRANGEMENT AND COMPLETION OF THE ARRANGEMENT

An arrangement under the CBCA requires Court approval. Prior to the mailing of this Circular, Intrawest obtained the Interim Order, which provides for the calling and holding of the Meeting, the Dissent Rights and other procedural matters. A copy of the Interim Order is attached as Appendix E to this Circular.

Subject to the approval of the Arrangement Resolutions by Securityholders at the Meeting and to obtaining all Appropriate Regulatory Approvals, the hearing in respect of the Final Order is currently scheduled to take place on October 24, 2006 in the Court at 800 Smithe Street, Vancouver, British Columbia. Any Securityholder who wishes to appear, or to be represented, and to present evidence or arguments must serve and file a notice of appearance (a "NOTICE OF APPEARANCE") as set out in the Notice of Application for Final Order and satisfy any other requirements of the Court. The Court will consider, among other things, the fairness and reasonableness of the Arrangement. The Court may approve the Arrangement in any manner the Court may direct, subject to compliance with any terms and conditions that the Court deems fit. In the event that the hearing is postponed, adjourned or rescheduled then, subject to further order of the Court, only those persons having previously served a Notice of Appearance in compliance with the Notice of Application and the Interim Order will be given notice of the postponement, adjournment or rescheduled date. A copy of the Notice of Application for Final Order is attached as Appendix F to this Circular.

Assuming the Final Order is granted and the other conditions to closing contained in the Arrangement Agreement are satisfied or waived to the extent legally permissible, then Articles of Arrangement will be filed with the Director to give effect to the Arrangement.

REGULATORY MATTERS

The Arrangement is conditional upon the filing of all required notifications and the receipt of all required approvals under the Competition Act (Canada) (described below) and the HSR Act (described below), and the satisfaction of other regulatory requirements or the expiration of applicable waiting periods under such laws. The Arrangement is also conditional upon the applicable Minister responsible for the Investment Canada Act (Canada) being satisfied or deemed to be satisfied, that the acquisition of control of Intrawest is likely to be of net benefit to Canada (described below).

COMPETITION ACT

The Competition Act (Canada) requires that parties to certain merger transactions that exceed specified size thresholds ("NOTIFIABLE TRANSACTIONS") provide to the Commissioner of Competition (the "COMMISSIONER") appointed under the Competition Act prior notice of, and information relating to, the merger transaction. Notification must be made either on the basis of a short-form filing (in respect of which there is a 14-day statutory waiting period from the time a complete notification is made) or a long-form filing (in respect of which there is a 42-day waiting period from the time a complete notification is made). A merger transaction is exempt from the foregoing notification requirements if the Commissioner issues a certificate (an "ADVANCE RULING CERTIFICATE") that she is satisfied that she would not have grounds to challenge the merger transaction under the merger law, or if the Commissioner waives the notification requirements.

The Commissioner's review of a Notifiable Transaction may take longer than the statutory waiting period. Upon completion of the Commissioner's review, the Commissioner may decide to (i) challenge the Notifiable Transaction, if the Commissioner concludes that it is likely to substantially lessen or prevent competition, or (ii) issue a "no action" letter stating that the Commissioner does not intend to challenge the Notifiable Transaction at that time but retains the authority to do so for three years after completion of the Notifiable Transaction.

Intrawest and Acquisitionco submitted a request on September 14, 2006 that the Commissioner issue an advance ruling certificate in respect of the acquisition of Intrawest contemplated by the Arrangement. It is a condition to the completion of the Arrangement (i) that Intrawest and Acquisitionco receive an advance ruling certificate, (ii) the waiting period under Part IX of the Competition Act will have expired or been reduced by the Commissioner and the Commissioner will not have given notice that she intends to challenge the acquisition on merger grounds, or (iii) the Commissioner will have waived the notification requirements.

HSR ACT

Under the HSR Act, the Arrangement may not be completed until the required HSR notifications have been filed with the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and the U.S. Federal Trade Commission, and the required waiting period has expired or been earlier terminated. Under the HSR Act, the Arrangement may not be completed until 30 days after the initial filings (unless early termination of this waiting period is granted) or, if the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice or the Federal Trade Commission issues a request for additional information, 30 days after the parties have substantially complied with that request for additional information (unless the waiting period is terminated earlier by the reviewing agency or extended with the parties' consent). Each of the parties filed the required Notification and Report Form under the HSR Act with the U.S. Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission on August 30, 2006. Early termination of the HSR Act waiting period was granted by the Federal Trade Commission effective as of September 14, 2006.

INVESTMENT CANADA ACT

Under the Investment Canada Act, certain transactions involving the acquisition of control of a Canadian business by a non-Canadian that exceed prescribed monetary thresholds are subject to review and cannot be implemented unless the applicable Minister responsible for the Investment Canada Act is satisfied that the acquisition is likely to be of net benefit to Canada. The Minister of Canadian Heritage (for cultural activities) and the Minister of Industry (for all other activities) are the two Ministers who are responsible for reviewing transactions. Where a transaction is subject to the review requirement (a "REVIEWABLE TRANSACTION"), an application for review must be filed with the applicable Director of Investments appointed by the responsible Minister prior to the implementation of the Reviewable Transaction. The responsible Minister is then required to determine whether the Reviewable Transaction is likely to be of net benefit to Canada.

The prescribed factors of assessment to be considered by the responsible Minister include, among other things, the effect of the investment on the level and nature of economic activity in Canada (including the effect on employment, utilization of Canadian products and services, and exports), the degree and significance of participation by Canadians in the acquired business, the effect of the investment on productivity, industrial efficiency, technological development, product innovation and product variety in Canada, the effect of the investment on competition within any industry in Canada, the compatibility of the investment with national industrial, economic and cultural policies (taking into consideration corresponding provincial policies) and the contribution of the investment to Canada's ability to compete in world markets.

The Investment Canada Act contemplates an initial review period of 45 days after filing; however, if the responsible Minister has not completed the review by that date, the responsible Minister may unilaterally extend the review period by up to 30 days (or such longer period as the Minister and the applicant may agree) to permit completion of the review. In determining whether a Reviewable Transaction is of net benefit to Canada, the responsible Minister can take into account, among other things, the previously noted factors specified in the Investment Canada Act, as well as any written undertakings that may be given by the applicant. If a notice that a Reviewable Transaction is determined not to be of net benefit to Canada is sent to the applicant, it may not be implemented (although the applicant would have an additional 30 days to make representations and submit undertakings in an effort to secure approval). If no notice is sent to the applicant by the responsible Minister within the 45-day period or the extended period, as the case may be, the Reviewable Transaction is deemed to be approved by such Minister.

The acquisition of control of Intrawest contemplated by the Arrangement exceeds the relevant monetary thresholds and is therefore a Reviewable Transaction. The Arrangement is conditional upon Parent being advised in writing that the applicable Minister responsible for the Investment Canada Act is satisfied, or the Minister is deemed to be satisfied, that the acquisition of Intrawest contemplated by the Arrangement is likely to be of net benefit to Canada. An application for review under the Investment Canada Act was filed with the Director of Investments appointed by the Minister of Industry on September 5, 2006. Acquisitionco is in discussions with the Department of Canadian Heritage to determine whether an application for review under the Investment Canada Act is also required to be filed with the Director of Investments appointed by the Minister of Canadian Heritage.

Intrawest expects that each of the foregoing regulatory approvals, to the extent required, will be obtained without undue delay.

CANADIAN SECURITIES LAW MATTERS

Intrawest is a reporting issuer (or the equivalent) under applicable Canadian securities legislation in each Canadian province and is, among other things, subject to applicable securities laws of Ontario and Quebec, including Ontario Securities Commission Rule 61-501 -- Insider Bids, Issuer Bids, Business Combinations and Related Party Transactions ("OSC RULE 61-501") and Regulation Q-27 -- Respecting Protection of Minority Securityholders in the Course of Certain Transactions ("REGULATION Q-27") of the Autorite des marches-financiers.

Each of OSC Rule 61-501 and Regulation Q-27 is intended to regulate certain transactions to ensure equality of treatment to securityholders generally by requiring enhanced disclosure, approval by a majority of securityholders excluding interested or related parties and independent valuations. In certain circumstances, approval and oversight by a special committee of independent directors are recommended thereunder. The protections of OSC Rule 61-501 and Regulation Q-27 generally apply to, among others, "business combinations" or "going private transactions" that terminate the interests of securityholders without their consent.

The Arrangement may be considered a "business combination" under OSC Rule 61-501 because Joe S. Houssian, Intrawest's Chief Executive Officer, beneficially owns more than 1% of the outstanding Common Shares and is entitled to receive, as a consequence of the Arrangement, certain payments in respect of Intrawest Options and DSUs held by him pursuant to pre-existing compensation agreements or plans described in this Circular. Such payments will be made as described in this Circular on the same basis as to other holders of Intrawest Options and DSUs. The Arrangement Resolutions must be approved by at least two-thirds of the votes cast by Securityholders (and Shareholders) present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting, and Mr. Houssian is entitled and intends to vote his Securities. In addition, OSC Rule 61-501 requires that the Arrangement Resolutions be approved by a majority of the Shareholders other than Mr. Houssian. Accordingly, votes attached to Common Shares beneficially owned by Mr. Houssian will be excluded in determining whether the Arrangement Resolutions have received such approval.

As the Arrangement may also be considered a "going private transaction" for the purposes of Regulation Q-27, certain exemptions from the valuation and certain aspects of the minority approval requirements have been obtained from the Autorite des marches-financiers on the basis of compliance with the requirements of OSC Rule 61-501.

In addition, OSC Rule 61-501 and Regulation Q-27 require Intrawest to disclose any "prior valuations" (as defined in OSC Rule 61-501 and Regulation Q-27) of Intrawest or its material assets or securities made within the 24-month period preceding the date of this Circular. After reasonable inquiry, neither Intrawest nor any director or senior officer of Intrawest has knowledge of any such "prior valuation."

STOCK EXCHANGE DELISTING AND REPORTING ISSUER STATUS

The Common Shares are expected to be de-listed from the NYSE and TSX upon completion of the Arrangement. Intrawest will also seek to be deemed to have ceased to be a reporting issuer under the securities legislation of each of the provinces in Canada under which it is currently a reporting issuer (or equivalent) and to have the Common Shares de-registered under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

JUDICIAL DEVELOPMENTS

Prior to the adoption of OSC Rule 61-501 (or its predecessor) and Regulation Q-27, Canadian courts had in few instances granted preliminary injunctions to prohibit transactions involving going private transactions (currently referred to as "business combinations" in OSC Rule 61-501). The trend both in legislation and jurisprudence in Canada has been towards permitting business combinations to proceed subject to compliance with technical procedures and disclosure requirements designed to ensure substantive fairness to minority shareholders. Shareholders should consult their legal advisors for a determination of their legal rights.

Edgar Filing: INTRAWEST CORP - Form 6-K

The Plan of Arrangement provides that Registered Shareholders will have the rights of dissent contained in Section 190 of the CBCA. Section 190 of the CBCA provides registered shareholders of a corporation with the right to dissent from certain resolutions that effect extraordinary corporate transactions or fundamental corporate changes. The Interim Order expressly provides Registered Shareholders with the right to dissent from the Arrangement Resolutions pursuant to section 190 of the CBCA, with modifications to the provisions of section 190 as provided in the Plan of Arrangement and the Interim Order. Any Registered Shareholder who dissents from the Arrangement Resolutions in compliance with section 190 of the CBCA, as modified by the Plan of Arrangement and the Interim Order, will be entitled, in the event the Arrangement becomes effective, to be paid the fair value of Common Shares held by such Dissenting Shareholder determined as of the close of business on the day before the day the Arrangement Resolutions are adopted. Shareholders are cautioned that fair value could be determined to be less than the $35.00 payable pursuant to the terms of the Arrangement.

Section 190 of the CBCA provides that a shareholder may only make a claim under that section with respect to all of the shares of a class held by the shareholder on behalf of any one beneficial owner and registered in the shareholder's name. ONE CONSEQUENCE OF THIS PROVISION IS THAT ONLY A REGISTERED SHAREHOLDER MAY EXERCISE THE DISSENT RIGHTS IN RESPECT OF COMMON SHARES THAT ARE REGISTERED IN THAT SHAREHOLDER'S NAME.

In many cases, shares beneficially owned by a Non-Registered Shareholder are registered either (a) in the name of an Intermediary or (b) in the name of a clearing agency (such as CDS) of which the Intermediary is a participant. Accordingly, a Non-Registered Shareholder will not be entitled to exercise its Dissent Rights directly (unless the shares are re-registered in the Non-Registered Shareholder's name). A Non-Registered Shareholder who wishes to exercise Dissent Rights should immediately contact the Intermediary with whom the Non-Registered Shareholder deals in respect of its shares and either (i) instruct the Intermediary to exercise the Dissent Rights on the Non-Registered Shareholder's behalf (which, if the Common Shares are registered in the name of CDS or other clearing agency, may require that such Common Shares first be re-registered in the name of the Intermediary), or (ii) instruct the Intermediary to re-register such Common Shares in the name of the Non-Registered Shareholder, in which case the Non-Registered Shareholder would be able to exercise the Dissent Rights directly.

A REGISTERED SHAREHOLDER WHO WISHES TO DISSENT MUST PROVIDE A DISSENT NOTICE TO INTRAWEST AT SUITE 800, 200 BURRARD STREET, VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA, V6C 3L6 (ATTENTION: GENERAL COUNSEL) AT OR BEFORE 5:00 P.M. (VANCOUVER TIME) ON MONDAY, OCTOBER 16, 2006 (OR 5:00 P.M. (VANCOUVER TIME) ON THE DAY THAT IS ONE BUSINESS DAY IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING ANY ADJOURNED OR POSTPONED MEETING). IT IS IMPORTANT THAT REGISTERED SHAREHOLDERS STRICTLY COMPLY WITH THIS REQUIREMENT, WHICH IS DIFFERENT FROM THE STATUTORY DISSENT PROVISIONS OF THE CBCA.

The filing of a Dissent Notice does not deprive a Registered Shareholder of the right to vote at the Meeting. However, the CBCA provides, in effect, that a Registered Shareholder who has submitted a Dissent Notice and who votes in favour of the Arrangement Resolutions will no longer be considered a Dissenting Shareholder with respect to that class of shares voted in favour of the Arrangement Resolutions, being the Common Shares. The CBCA does not provide, and Intrawest will not assume, that a proxy submitted instructing the proxyholder to vote against the Arrangement Resolutions, that a vote against the Arrangement Resolutions or that an abstention constitutes a Dissent Notice, but a Registered Shareholder need not vote its Common Shares against the Arrangement Resolutions in order to dissent. Similarly, the revocation of a proxy conferring authority on the proxyholder to vote in favour of the Arrangement Resolutions does not constitute a Dissent Notice. However, any proxy granted by a Registered Shareholder who intends to dissent, other than a proxy that instructs the proxyholder to vote against the Arrangement Resolutions, must be validly revoked in order to prevent the proxyholder from voting such Common Shares in favour of the Arrangement Resolutions and thereby causing the Registered Shareholder to forfeit its Dissent Rights. See "Information Concerning the Meeting and Voting."

A Dissenting Shareholder who has not withdrawn its Dissent Notice prior to the Meeting must, within 20 days after receipt of notice that the Arrangement Resolutions have been adopted, or if the Dissenting Shareholder does not receive such notice, within 20 days after learning that the Arrangement Resolutions have been adopted, send to Intrawest care of the Transfer Agent a written notice (a "DEMAND FOR PAYMENT") containing its name and address, the number of Common Shares in respect of which it dissents (the "DISSENTING COMMON SHARES") and a demand for payment of the fair value of such Common Shares. Within 30 days after sending the Demand for Payment, the Dissenting Shareholder must send to Intrawest or the Transfer Agent certificates representing its Dissenting Common Shares. The Transfer Agent will endorse on share certificates received from a Dissenting Shareholder a notice that the holder is a Dissenting Shareholder and will forthwith return the share certificates to the Dissenting Shareholder. A Dissenting Shareholder who fails to make a Demand for Payment in the time required or to send certificates representing Dissenting Common Shares has no right to make a claim under section 190 of the CBCA.

Under section 190 of the CBCA, after sending a Demand for Payment, a Dissenting Shareholder ceases to have any rights as a Shareholder in respect of its Dissenting Common Shares other than the right to be paid the fair value of the Dissenting Common Shares as determined pursuant to the Interim Order, unless (i) the Dissenting Shareholder withdraws its Dissent Notice before Intrawest makes an Offer to Pay, or (ii) Intrawest fails to make an Offer to Pay in accordance with subsection 190(12) of the CBCA and the Dissenting Shareholder withdraws the Demand for Payment, in which case the Dissenting Shareholder's rights as a Shareholder will be reinstated. Pursuant to the Plan of Arrangement, in no case will Intrawest or any other person be required to recognize any Dissenting Shareholder as a Shareholder after the Effective Date, and the names of such Shareholders shall be deleted from the list of Registered Shareholders at the Effective Date.

Pursuant to the Plan of Arrangement, Dissenting Shareholders who are ultimately determined to be entitled to be paid fair value for their Dissenting Common Shares will be deemed to have transferred such Dissenting Common Shares to Acquisitionco at the time set forth in the Plan of Arrangement.

Pursuant to the Plan of Arrangement, Dissenting Shareholders who are ultimately determined not to be entitled, for any reason, to be paid fair value for their Dissenting Common Shares, will be deemed to have participated in the Arrangement on the same basis as any non-Dissenting Shareholder as at and from the Effective Date.

Intrawest is required, not later than seven days after the later of the Effective Date and the date on which a Demand for Payment is received from a Dissenting Shareholder, to send to each Dissenting Shareholder who has sent a Demand for Payment an Offer to Pay for its Dissenting Common Shares an amount considered by the Board to be the fair value of the Common Shares, accompanied by a statement showing the manner in which the fair value was determined. Every Offer to Pay must be on the same terms. Intrawest must pay for the Dissenting Common Shares of a Dissenting Shareholder within ten days after an Offer to Pay has been accepted by a Dissenting Shareholder, but any such offer lapses if

Intrawest does not receive an acceptance within 30 days after the Offer to Pay has been made.

If Intrawest fails to make an Offer to Pay for a Dissenting Shareholder's Common Shares, or if a Dissenting Shareholder fails to accept an Offer to Pay that has been made, Intrawest may, within 50 days after the Effective Date or within such further period as a court may allow, apply to a court to fix a fair value for the Common Shares of Dissenting Shareholders. If Intrawest fails to apply to a court, a Dissenting Shareholder may apply to a court for the same purpose within a further period of 20 days or within such further period as a court may allow. A Dissenting Shareholder is not required to give security for costs in such an application.

Before making any such application to a court itself after receiving a notice that a Dissenting Shareholder has made an application to a court, Intrawest will be required to notify each affected Dissenting Shareholder of the date, place and consequences of the application and of its right to appear and be heard in person or by counsel. Upon an application to a court, all Dissenting Shareholders who have not accepted an Offer to Pay will be joined as parties and be bound by the decision of the court. Upon any such application to a court, the court may determine whether any person is a Dissenting Shareholder who should be joined as a party, and the court will then fix a fair value for the Dissenting Common Shares of all Dissenting Shareholders. The final order of a court will be rendered against Intrawest in favour of each Dissenting Shareholder for the amount of the fair value of its Dissenting Common Shares as fixed by the court. The court may, in its discretion, allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each Dissenting Shareholder from the Effective Date until the date of payment. Registered Shareholders who are considering exercising Dissent Rights should be aware that there can be no assurance that the fair value of their Common Shares as determined under the applicable provisions of the CBCA (as modified by the Plan of Arrangement and the Interim Order) will be more than or equal to the consideration under the Arrangement. In addition, any judicial determination of fair value will result in delay of receipt by a Dissenting Shareholder of consideration for such Dissenting Shareholder's Dissenting Common Shares.

THE FOREGOING IS ONLY A SUMMARY OF THE DISSENTING SHAREHOLDER PROVISIONS OF THE CBCA (AS MODIFIED BY THE PLAN OF ARRANGEMENT AND THE INTERIM ORDER), WHICH ARE TECHNICAL AND COMPLEX. A COMPLETE COPY OF SECTION 190 OF THE CBCA IS ATTACHED AS APPENDIX G TO THIS CIRCULAR. IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT ANY REGISTERED SHAREHOLDER WISHING TO AVAIL ITSELF OF ITS DISSENT RIGHTS UNDER THOSE PROVISIONS SEEK LEGAL ADVICE, AS FAILURE TO COMPLY STRICTLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF THE CBCA (AS MODIFIED BY THE PLAN OF ARRANGEMENT AND THE INTERIM ORDER) MAY PREJUDICE ITS DISSENT RIGHTS.

For a general summary of certain income tax implications to a Dissenting Shareholder, see "Certain Tax Considerations for Shareholders."

CERTAIN TAX CONSIDERATIONS FOR SHAREHOLDERS

CERTAIN CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

In the opinion of McCarthy Tetrault LLP, Canadian counsel to Intrawest, the following summary describes the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations generally applicable to a Shareholder who, for the purposes of the Tax Act and at all relevant times, holds Common Shares as capital property, deals at arm's length with Intrawest and Acquisitionco, and is not affiliated with Intrawest or Acquisitionco. Generally, Common Shares will be capital property to a Shareholder unless the Common Shares are held or were acquired in the course of carrying on a business of buying and selling securities or as part of an adventure or concern in the nature of trade. Certain Shareholders who are residents of Canada for purposes of the Tax Act and whose Common Shares might not otherwise be capital property may, in some circumstances, be entitled to make an irrevocable election in accordance with subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act to have such Common Shares and every other "Canadian security" (as defined in the Tax Act) owned by them deemed to be capital property in the taxation year of the election and in all subsequent taxation years. Such Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors for advice with respect to whether an election under subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act is available or advisable in their particular circumstances.

This summary is based upon the current provisions of the Tax Act, the regulations thereunder (the "REGULATIONS") and counsel's understanding of the current administrative policies and assessing practices of the CRA made publicly available prior to the date hereof. This summary also takes into account all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act and the Regulations publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof (the "PROPOSED AMENDMENTS") and assumes that all Proposed Amendments will be enacted in the form proposed. However, no assurances can be given that the Proposed Amendments will be enacted as proposed, or at all. This summary does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any changes in law or administrative policies or assessing practices, whether by legislative, regulatory, administrative or judicial action or decision, nor does it take into account provincial, territorial or foreign tax legislation or considerations, which may be different from those discussed in this summary. This summary assumes that the Common Shares will be listed on the TSX at the time that the Common Shares are acquired by Acquisitionco under the Arrangement. No advance income tax ruling has been sought or obtained from CRA with respect to any of the transactions forming part of the Arrangement.

THIS SUMMARY IS NOT APPLICABLE TO A SHAREHOLDER (I) THAT IS, FOR THE PURPOSES OF CERTAIN RULES IN THE TAX ACT APPLICABLE TO SECURITIES HELD BY FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS, A "FINANCIAL INSTITUTION" (AS DEFINED IN THE TAX ACT), OR (II) WHO ACQUIRED COMMON SHARES UPON THE EXERCISE OF AN INTRAWEST OPTION. HOLDERS OF INTRAWEST OPTIONS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS CONCERNING THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE ARRANGEMENT FOR HOLDERS OF INTRAWEST OPTIONS.

THIS SUMMARY IS OF A GENERAL NATURE ONLY AND IS NOT, AND IS NOT INTENDED TO BE, LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE TO ANY PARTICULAR SHAREHOLDER. THIS SUMMARY IS NOT EXHAUSTIVE OF ALL CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS. ACCORDINGLY, SHAREHOLDERS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE ARRANGEMENT HAVING REGARD TO THEIR OWN PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

CURRENCY TRANSLATION

All amounts relevant to the computation of income under the Tax Act must be reported in Canadian dollars. Any amount that is expressed or denominated in a currency other than Canadian dollars, including adjusted cost base and proceeds of disposition, must be converted into Canadian dollars based on the spot currency exchange rate prevailing on the date each such amount arises.

SHAREHOLDERS RESIDENT IN CANADA

The following portion of this summary is generally applicable to a Shareholder who is a resident of Canada for purposes of the Tax Act (a "RESIDENT SHAREHOLDER").

Disposition of Common Shares

A Resident Shareholder who disposes of Common Shares under the Arrangement will realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) equal to the amount by which the cash received by the Resident Shareholder under the Arrangement exceeds (or is less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base of the Common Shares to the Resident Shareholder and any reasonable costs of disposition.

Generally, a Resident Shareholder is required to include in computing its income for a taxation year one-half of the amount of any capital gain (a "TAXABLE CAPITAL GAIN") realized by the Resident Shareholder in the year. A Resident Shareholder is required to deduct one-half of the amount of any capital loss (an "ALLOWABLE CAPITAL LOSS") realized in a taxation year from taxable capital gains realized in the year, and allowable capital losses in excess of taxable capital gains may be carried back and deducted in any of the three preceding taxation years or carried forward and deducted in any subsequent taxation year against net taxable capital gains realized by the Resident Shareholder in such years, to the extent and in the circumstances prescribed by the Tax Act.

The amount of any capital loss realized by a Resident Shareholder that is a corporation on the disposition of a Common Share may be reduced by the amount of any dividends received (or deemed to be received) by it on such Common Share to the extent and under the circumstances prescribed by the Tax Act. Similar rules may apply where the corporation is a member of a partnership or a beneficiary of a trust that owns Common Shares or where a partnership or trust of which a corporation is a member or a beneficiary is a member of a partnership or a beneficiary of a trust that owns Common Shares. Resident Shareholders to whom these rules may apply should consult their own tax advisors.

A Resident Shareholder that is throughout the year a "Canadian-controlled private corporation" (as defined in the Tax Act) may be liable for a refundable tax of 6 2/3% on its "aggregate investment income," which is defined to include an amount in respect of taxable capital gains.

Capital gains realized by an individual or a trust, other than certain trusts, may give rise to alternative minimum tax under the Tax Act. Resident Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the alternative minimum tax provisions.

Dissenting Shareholders

A Resident Shareholder who exercises Dissent Rights (a "RESIDENT DISSENTING SHAREHOLDER") will transfer such holder's Common Shares to Acquisitionco in exchange for payment by Acquisitionco of the fair value of such Common Shares. In general, a Resident Dissenting Shareholder will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) equal to the amount by which the cash received in respect of the fair value of the holder's Common Shares (other than in respect of interest awarded by a court) exceeds (or is less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base of such Common Shares and any reasonable costs of disposition. See "Disposition of Common Shares" above.

Interest awarded by a court to a Resident Dissenting Shareholder will be included in the shareholder's income for the purposes of the Tax Act. Resident Dissenting Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors.

SHAREHOLDERS NOT RESIDENT IN CANADA

The following portion of this summary is applicable to a Shareholder who is not a resident of Canada for purposes of the Tax Act (a "NON-RESIDENT SHAREHOLDER") and holds Common Shares as capital property. Special rules, which are not discussed in this summary, may apply to a Non-Resident Shareholder that is either an insurer carrying on business in Canada and elsewhere or an authorized foreign bank. Such Non-Resident Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors.

Disposition of Common Shares

A Non-Resident Shareholder will not be subject to tax under the Tax Act on any capital gain realized on the disposition of Common Shares under the Arrangement unless the Common Shares are "taxable Canadian property" (within the meaning of the Tax Act) to the Non-Resident Shareholder at the time of the disposition and such gain is not otherwise exempt from tax under the Tax Act pursuant to the provisions of an applicable income tax treaty.

Generally, Common Shares will not be taxable Canadian property to a Non-Resident Shareholder at the time of disposition under the Arrangement provided that (i) the Common Shares are listed on a prescribed stock exchange (which includes the TSX) at that time, and (ii) the Non-Resident Shareholder, persons with whom the Non-Resident Shareholder does not deal at arm's length, or the Non-Resident Shareholder together with all such persons, has not owned 25% or more of the issued shares of any class or series of the capital stock of Intrawest (including the Non-Resort Preferred Shares, the last redemption of which occurred in November 2002) at any time during the 60-month period that ends at the time of disposition under the Arrangement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Common Shares may be deemed to be taxable Canadian property in certain circumstances specified in the Tax Act.

Even if Common Shares are considered to be taxable Canadian property of a Non-Resident Shareholder at the time of disposition under the Arrangement, the Non-Resident Shareholder may be exempt from tax under the Tax Act pursuant to the terms of any applicable income tax treaty. Non-Resident Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the availability of any relief under the terms of any applicable income tax treaty in their particular circumstances.

In the event that the Common Shares constitute taxable Canadian property to a Non-Resident Shareholder and any capital gain realized by the Non-Resident Shareholder on the disposition of Common Shares under the Arrangement is not exempt from tax under the Tax Act by virtue of an applicable income tax treaty, then the tax consequences described above under the heading "Shareholders Resident in Canada -- Disposition of Common Shares" will generally apply. A Non-Resident Shareholder disposing of taxable Canadian property must file a Canadian tax return reporting such gain and pay the requisite Canadian tax thereon or where relief under an income tax treaty is available, assert a claim for such relief in the return.

Dissenting Shareholders

A Non-Resident Shareholder who exercises Dissent Rights (a "NON-RESIDENT DISSENTING SHAREHOLDER") will transfer such holder's Common Shares to Acquisitionco in exchange for payment by Acquisitionco of the fair value of such Common Shares. In general, the tax treatment of a Non-Resident Dissenting Shareholder will be similar to that of a Non-Resident Shareholder who participates in the Arrangement. See "Shareholders Not Resident in Canada -- Disposition of Common Shares" above.

The amount of any interest awarded by a court to a Non-Resident Dissenting Shareholder will be subject to Canadian withholding tax at a rate of 25% unless the rate is reduced under the provisions of an applicable income tax treaty. Non-Resident Dissenting Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the availability of any relief under the terms of an applicable income tax treaty in their particular circumstances.

CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

IRS CIRCULAR 230 DISCLOSURE: TO ENSURE COMPLIANCE WITH REQUIREMENTS IMPOSED BY THE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE (THE "IRS"), YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT: (A) ANY DISCUSSION OF U.S. FEDERAL TAX ISSUES IN THIS DOCUMENT IS NOT INTENDED OR WRITTEN BY US TO BE RELIED UPON, AND CANNOT BE RELIED UPON BY YOU, FOR THE PURPOSE OF AVOIDING PENALTIES THAT MAY BE IMPOSED ON YOU UNDER THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1986, AS AMENDED (THE "CODE"); (B) SUCH DISCUSSION IS WRITTEN IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROMOTION OR MARKETING OF THE TRANSACTIONS OR MATTERS ADDRESSED HEREIN; AND (C) YOU SHOULD SEEK ADVICE BASED ON YOUR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISOR.

The following is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax considerations applicable to U.S. Holders and Non-U.S. Holders (as defined below) arising from and relating to the Arrangement. This summary is based on the provisions of the Code, existing, temporary and proposed regulations promulgated under the Code and administrative and judicial interpretations of the Code, as of the date of this Circular and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. No advance income tax ruling has been sought or obtained from the IRS regarding the tax consequences of the transactions described in this Circular.

This summary does not discuss all U.S. federal income tax considerations that may be relevant to Shareholders in light of their particular circumstances or to certain Shareholders that may be subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws (for example, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, financial institutions, dealers in securities, persons that hold Common Shares as part of a straddle, hedging, constructive sale or conversion transaction, U.S. Holders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, persons that own or have owned, actually or constructively, 10% or more of the Common Shares, and other than as specifically provided below, Shareholders who acquired Common Shares through exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation for services). This summary is limited to Shareholders that hold their Common Shares as capital assets as defined in Section 1221 of the Code and does not consider the tax treatment of Shareholders that hold Common Shares through a partnership or other pass through entity. Furthermore, other than as specifically provided below, this summary does not discuss aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be applicable to holders of Intrawest Options or any other interests in Intrawest that were acquired in connection with the performance of services resulting from the Arrangement, nor does it address any aspects of foreign, state or local taxation.

SHAREHOLDERS ARE ADVISED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE APPLICATION OF THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS TO THEIR PARTICULAR SITUATIONS, AS WELL AS THE TAX CONSEQUENCES ARISING UNDER THE LAWS OF ANY FOREIGN, STATE OR LOCAL TAXING JURISDICTION OR UNDER ANY APPLICABLE TAX TREATY.

As used herein, "U.S. Holder" means a beneficial owner of Common Shares that for U.S. federal income tax purposes is (i) a citizen or resident of the U.S., (ii) a corporation, limited liability company or partnership created or organized in or under the laws of the U.S. or any political subdivision thereof (including the States and the District of Columbia), (iii) an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source, (iv) a trust if a court within the U.S. is able to exercise primary jurisdiction over its administration and one or more U.S. persons, as defined in Section 7701(a)(3) of the Code, have authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (v) any other person that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its worldwide income. If a partnership or other flow-through entity holds Common Shares, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner or other owner generally will depend on the status of the partner or other owner and the activities of the partnership or other flow-through entity. A Shareholder that is a partner of the partnership or an owner of another flow-through entity holding Common Shares should consult its own tax advisors. As used herein, the term "Non-U.S. Holder" means a beneficial owner of Common Shares that is not a U.S. Holder.

U.S. HOLDERS

DISPOSITION OF COMMON SHARES PURSUANT TO THE ARRANGEMENT

The exchange by a U.S. Holder of Common Shares for cash pursuant to the Arrangement will be treated as a taxable sale for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Consequently, a U.S. Holder will recognize a gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between (a) the amount of cash received (at its U.S. dollar equivalent determined by reference to the spot rate of exchange on the date of disposition and including the amount of any Canadian withholding tax) in exchange for the U.S. Holder's Common Shares in the Arrangement and (b) the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in such Common Shares. In the case of a U.S. Holder (that is a Shareholder) that dissents from the Arrangement, the gain or loss will be equal to the difference between the amount of cash received (at its U.S. dollar equivalent determined by reference to the spot rate of exchange on the date of disposition, if the amount received is denominated in Canadian dollars and including the amount of any Canadian withholding tax) and the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in its Common Shares surrendered in the exchange. Assuming Intrawest was not at any relevant time classified as a PFIC, as defined below under "Passive Foreign Investment Company Considerations," a gain or loss on the exchange of Common Shares will be a capital gain or loss if such shares were held by a U.S. Holder as a capital asset. Further, the gain or loss will be a long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder has held its Common Shares for more than one year at the time of the exchange. Any such gain or loss will generally be gain or loss from sources within the U.S. for foreign tax credit purposes unless the gain is attributable to an office or other fixed place of business maintained by the U.S. Holder outside the U.S. and certain other conditions are met.

Preferential U.S. federal income tax rates apply to long-term capital gains of U.S. Holders other than corporations. The current maximum tax rate is 15%. There are currently no preferential U.S. federal income tax rates for long-term capital gains of U.S. Holders that are corporations. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

PASSIVE FOREIGN INVESTMENT COMPANY CONSIDERATIONS

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, a corporation is classified as a passive foreign investment company ("PFIC") for each taxable year in which either (i) 75% or more of its gross income is passive income (as defined for U.S. federal income tax purposes), or (ii) on average for such taxable year, 50% or more in value of its assets produce passive income or are held for the production of passive income. In determining whether it is a PFIC, a foreign corporation is required to take into account a pro rata portion of the income and assets of each corporation in which it owns, directly or indirectly, at least a 25% interest.

Special, generally adverse, rules would apply to a U.S. Holder if Intrawest were classified as a PFIC during any taxable year in such Shareholder's holding period for its Common Shares. Under those rules, unless the U.S. Holder timely and validly made certain elections (either a "qualifying electing fund" election or a "mark to market" election), the U.S. Holder may be subject to the imposition of additional tax and an interest charge when its Common Shares are disposed of. Historically, Intrawest has not completed, and Intrawest does not currently intend to complete, the actions necessary for U.S. holders to make a qualifying electing fund election. This conclusion is a factual determination that is made annually. Intrawest has not made a determination of its PFIC status for each of its past tax years. It did consider its PFIC status in 1997 and 2002, and concluded that, based on the nature of its income, assets and activities, it was not a PFIC in 1997 or 2002, and that it did not expect to be classified as a PFIC for any future taxable year. Other than as described above, Intrawest has not made any determinations regarding its PFIC status.

While there can be no assurance with respect to the classification of Intrawest as a PFIC, Intrawest does not believe that it is currently a PFIC.

U.S. HOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS REGARDING THE POTENTIAL APPLICATION OF THE PFIC RULES.

FOREIGN TAX CREDITS FOR CANADIAN TAXES PAID OR WITHHELD

A U.S. Holder that pays (whether directly or through withholding) Canadian income tax in connection with the Arrangement may be entitled, at the election of such U.S. Holder, to receive either a deduction or a credit for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Generally, a credit will reduce a U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability on a dollar-for-dollar basis, whereas a deduction will reduce a U.S. Holder's income subject to U.S. federal income tax.

The foreign tax credit rules are complex, and each U.S. Holder should consult its own financial advisor, legal counsel or accountant regarding the foreign tax credit rules and the application of the foreign tax credit rules to the Arrangement.

NON-U.S. HOLDERS

DISPOSITION OF COMMON SHARES PURSUANT TO THE ARRANGEMENT

Non-U.S. Holders will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on gain realized as a result of the exchange by such Shareholder of Common Shares for cash pursuant to the Arrangement, unless the gain or income, if any, is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business of the Non-U.S. Holder or, in the case of gain realized by an individual Non-U.S. Holder, the individual is present in the U.S. for 183 days or more during the taxable year of disposition and certain other conditions are satisfied.

BACK-UP WITHHOLDING AND INFORMATION REPORTING

Back-up withholding tax is not a separate tax. Any amounts withheld under the back-up withholding rules are generally allowable as a credit against a Shareholder's U.S. federal income tax liability (if any), which may entitle the Shareholder to a refund, provided that the required information is furnished to the IRS.

U S. HOLDERS

Payments of cash received by a U.S. Holder in exchange for Common Shares (including Common Shares received by U.S. Holders exercising Intrawest Options pursuant to the Arrangement) pursuant to the Arrangement generally may be subject to the information reporting requirements of the Code and may be subject to back-up withholding tax, at the rate of 28%, unless the U.S. Holder (i) establishes that it is a corporation or other exempt holder, or (ii) provides an accurate taxpayer identification number on a properly completed Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 and certifies that no loss of exemption from back-up withholding has occurred.

NON-U.S. HOLDER

In general, a Non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to back-up withholding and information reporting with respect to payments of cash received by such Non-U.S. Holder in exchange for Common Shares if such Non-U.S. Holder provides a properly completed Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or such other applicable certification in order to establish its exemption from information reporting and back-up withholding.

Shareholders should consult their own financial advisor, legal counsel or accountant regarding the information reporting and back-up withholding tax rules, and the application of the information reporting and back-up withholding tax rules to the Arrangement.

THE DISCUSSION OF U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES SET FORTH ABOVE IS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE A COMPLETE ANALYSIS OR LISTING OF ALL POTENTIAL TAX EFFECTS THAT MAY APPLY TO A SHAREHOLDER. EACH

SHAREHOLDER IS STRONGLY ENCOURAGED TO CONSULT ITS OWN TAX ADVISOR TO DETERMINE THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO IT OF THE ARRANGEMENT, INCLUDING THE APPLICATION AND EFFECT OF U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX LAWS.

OPTIONHOLDERS

OPTIONHOLDERS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE CANADIAN AND U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE ARRANGEMENT HAVING REGARD TO THEIR OWN PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

Certain legal matters in connection with the Arrangement will be passed upon by McCarthy Tetrault LLP, Fried, Frank Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP and Morrison & Foerster LLP on behalf of Intrawest and by Goodmans LLP and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP on behalf of Parent and Acquisitionco. The senior officers of Parent and Acquisitionco, after due enquiry, have no reason to believe that Acquisitionco and Parent will be unable to satisfy on a timely basis any term or condition of closing of the financing to be satisfied by them contained in the Commitment Letter or the Equity Commitment Letter and are not aware of any fact, occurrence or condition that may cause either of such financing commitments to terminate or be ineffective or any of the terms or conditions of closing of such financings not to be met or of any impediment to the funding of the cash payment obligations of Acquisitionco under the Arrangement. Acquisitionco will have at the Effective Time cash funds sufficient to consummate the Arrangement upon the terms contemplated by this Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement.

3.4 DISCLAIMER OF ADDITIONAL REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Intrawest acknowledges and agrees that, except as set forth in this Agreement and in the Confidentiality Agreement, Parent and Acquisitionco make no representation or warranty, express or implied, at law or in equity, with respect to Parent, Acquisitionco or their respective subsidiaries, their respective businesses, their past, current or future financial condition, their properties, assets, liabilities or operations, their past, current or future profitability or performance, or any other matter, individually or in the aggregate, and any such other representations or warranties are hereby expressly disclaimed. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Parent and Acquisitionco expressly disclaim any representation or warranty that is not set forth in this Agreement or in the Confidentiality Agreement.

This section 3.5 will not limit any covenant or agreement of any of the parties which, by its terms, contemplates performance after the Effective Time or date on which this Agreement is terminated, as the case may be.

Intrawest agrees that, upon request by Parent, Intrawest shall, and shall cause its subsidiaries to, in each case, at the expense of Parent, use its commercially reasonable efforts to:

- (a) effect such reorganizations of its business, operations and assets and the integration of other affiliated businesses of Intrawest or its subsidiaries as Parent may request, acting reasonably (each a "PRE-ACQUISITION REORGANIZATION"); and
- (b) cooperate with Parent and its advisors to determine the nature of the Pre-Acquisition Reorganizations that might be undertaken and the manner in which they most effectively be undertaken. Parent and Acquisitionco acknowledge and agree that the Pre-Acquisition Reorganizations shall (i) not impede, delay or prevent consummation of the Arrangement (including by giving rise to litigation by third parties), (ii) be such that, in the opinion of Intrawest, acting reasonably, would not prejudice the Intrawest Securityholders, (iii) not require Intrawest to obtain the approval of the Common Shareholders, and (iv) not be considered in determining whether a representation, warranty or covenant of Intrawest hereunder has been breached, it being acknowledged by Parent that these actions could require the consent of third parties under applicable Contracts.

Edgar Filing: INTRAWEST CORP - Form 6-K

Parent shall provide written notice to Intrawest of any proposed Pre-Acquisition Reorganization at least ten days prior to the Effective Date. Upon receipt of such notice, Parent and Intrawest shall, at the expense of Parent, work cooperatively and use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare prior to the Effective Time all documentation necessary and do such other acts and things as are necessary to give effect to such Pre-Acquisition Reorganizations. The parties shall seek to have any such Pre-Acquisition Reorganization made effective as of the last moment of the day ending immediately prior to the Effective Date, or such other time as Parent reasonably requests (but after Parent shall have waived (subject to applicable Laws) or confirmed that all conditions referred to in sections 7.1, 7.2 and 7.3 have been satisfied) and provided that no such Pre-Acquisition Reorganization will be made effective unless (i) it is reasonably certain that the Arrangement will become effective; or (ii) such Pre-Acquisition Reorganization can be reversed or unwound without adversely affecting Intrawest and its subsidiaries in the event the Arrangement does not become effective and this Agreement is terminated or (iii) Intrawest otherwise agrees. If the Arrangement is not completed, Parent will forthwith reimburse Intrawest for all reasonable fees and expenses (including any professional fees and expenses) incurred by Intrawest and its subsidiaries in considering and effecting a Pre-Acquisition Reorganization and shall be responsible for any costs of Intrawest and its subsidiaries in reversing or unwinding any Pre-Acquisition Reorganization that was effected prior to termination of the Agreement at Parent's request. The obligation of Parent to reimburse Intrawest for fees and expenses and be responsible for costs as set out in this section will be in addition to any other payment Parent may be obligated to make hereunder and will survive termination of this Agreement.

4.3 ACCESS TO INFORMATION

- (a) Subject to compliance with applicable Laws (including pre-merger notification and other competition law requirements and other laws relating to the exchange of information) and the terms of any Contract existing as at the date of this Agreement (including any confidentiality obligation or undertaking binding on Intrawest), and except where disclosure would undermine or void any applicable legal privilege, Intrawest will, and will cause its subsidiaries to, afford to Parent and its officers, employees and other representatives reasonable access, during normal business hours, until the earlier of the Effective Time or the termination of this Agreement, to their respective businesses, properties, books and records, as well as to their respective management personnel, including in order to facilitate the ability to grant the collateral package required by the Lenders in connection with the financing contemplated by the Commitment Letter and the definitive agreements contemplated therein, subject, however, to such access not interfering with the ordinary conduct of the businesses of Intrawest and its subsidiaries. Parent will not contact employees of Intrawest or its subsidiaries except after prior consultation with the Chief Financial Officer, the General Counsel or the Corporate Secretary of Intrawest.
- (b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, except as expressly provided for herein, Intrawest will not be obligated to make available to Parent any materials relating to the Strategic Review or the assessment or evaluation of the transactions contemplated hereby or any alternative transaction considered in connection with the Strategic Review nor any information supplied by any of its officers, directors, employees, financial advisors, legal advisors, auditors, representatives or agents or other advisors in connection therewith or any confidentiality agreement made between Intrawest and any other person in connection with the Strategic Review or any such alternative transaction.

- (c) Without limiting the generality of the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement, Parent acknowledges that all information provided to it under section 4.3(a) of this Agreement or otherwise pursuant to this Agreement or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby (including the Disclosed Personal Information referred to in section 4.5(a)) is subject to the Confidentiality Agreement, which will remain in full force and effect notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or any termination of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement conflicts or is inconsistent with any provision of the Confidentiality Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement will supersede those of the Confidentiality Agreement but only to the extent of the conflict or inconsistency and all other provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement will remain in full force and effect.
- (d) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each of Parent and Acquisitionco acknowledges and agrees that the Intrawest Disclosure Letter and all information contained in it is confidential and may not be disclosed to any other person unless (i) such disclosure is required under applicable Law, unless such Law permits it to refrain from disclosing such information for confidentiality or other reasons or (ii) such disclosure is required in order to enforce its rights under this Agreement.
- (e) Nothing in this section 4.3 will require Intrawest or its subsidiaries to disclose information subject to a written confidentiality agreement, covenant or obligation or undertaking with a third party (provided that, at the request of Parent, Intrawest will use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the consent of the other party thereto to the disclosure of any information reasonably requested by Parent which is material to Intrawest and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole) or customer specific or competitively sensitive information ("CONFIDENTIAL DATA"). For greater certainty, until the Effective Date, access to and exchange of Confidential Data as between the parties will be limited to what is reasonably necessary for the purposes of securing all necessary regulatory approvals, the preparation and settlement of definitive documents and the advancement of the Arrangement and will be limited such that the dissemination of Confidential Data will be confined to the Representatives of the parties and their counsel who have a need to know such information for such purposes and who agree to respect such confidentiality in their dealings with Confidential Data. In particular, with reference to access to and the sharing of Confidential

Data of one party with Representatives of the other party for purposes of preparing any filings or submissions in respect of the Appropriate Regulatory Approvals, the general principle which will be applied is that such information will be made available to, exchanged or shared with counsel to the parties rather than the parties or their Representatives.

To the extent that Parent does not presently have sufficient funded capital to provide, from internal resources, funds required to be provided by Acquisitionco to the Transfer Agent pursuant to section 2.1(h), Acquisitionco will obtain such funds pursuant to the Commitment Letter, which has been executed and delivered by or on behalf of the Lenders and by Fortress prior to the date of this Agreement and the Equity Commitment Letter which has been executed and delivered by Fortress prior to the date of this Agreement and Parent and Acquisitionco each represent and warrant that as at the date of this Agreement each of the Commitment Letter and Equity Commitment Letter is in full force and effect and are legal, valid and binding obligations of Fortress, in the case of the Commitment Letter and Acquisitionco, in the case of the Equity Commitment Letter and, to the knowledge of Parent and Acquisitionco, the other parties thereto on a basis that is not subject to any condition precedent other than the conditions set out therein.

lapse of time or both, would individually or in the aggregate, constitute a default or breach on the part of Acquisitionco or Parent under any material term or condition of the Commitment Letter or the Equity Commitment Letter or definitive agreement or documentation referred to in this section 4.8 or if Parent has any reason to believe Acquisitionco or Parent will be unable to satisfy, on a timely basis, any term or condition of any funding referred to in this section 4.8 to be satisfied by it contained in the Commitment Letter or the Equity Commitment Letter or (iii) any financing source that is a party to the Commitment Letter or the Equity Commitment Letter that such source either no longer intends to provide or underwrite any financing referred to in this section 4.8 on the terms set forth in the Commitment Letter or requests amendments or waivers that are or may be materially adverse to the timely completion by Acquisitionco of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

- (e) Other than in connection with and as contemplated in this Agreement, neither Parent nor Acquisitionco will, nor will Parent permit Acquisitionco or any of the other affiliates of Parent to, without the prior written consent of Intrawest, take any action or enter into any transaction, including any merger, acquisition, joint venture, disposition, lease, contract or debt or equity financing, that would reasonably be expected to materially and adversely impair, delay or prevent Acquisitionco or Parent obtaining any of the financings referred to in this section 4.8.
- (f) Neither Parent nor Acquisitionco will, nor will Parent permit Acquisitionco to, amend or alter, or agree to amend or alter, the Commitment Letter or the Equity Commitment Letter or any definitive agreement or documentation referred to in this section 4.8 in any manner that could materially and adversely impair, delay or prevent the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement without the prior written consent of Intrawest.
- (g) If the Commitment Letter or the Equity Commitment Letter referred to in this section 4.8 is terminated or modified in a manner materially adverse to Parent or Acquisitionco for any reason, or if any portion of the credit facilities or other source of funding referred to in section 4.8(a) ceases to be available, Parent and Acquisitionco will, and Parent will cause Acquisitionco to, use its best efforts to (i) obtain, as promptly as practicable, and, once obtained, provide Intrawest with a copy of, a new financing commitment that provides for at least the same amount of financing as contemplated by the Commitment Letter, or the Equity Commitment Letter, as the case may be, on a basis that is not subject to any condition precedent other than the conditions precedent contained in the Commitment Letter, or the Equity Commitment Letter, as the case may be, and, if applicable, such other conditions as have been approved in writing by Intrawest prior to the date of this Agreement and otherwise on terms and conditions acceptable to Intrawest, (ii) negotiate and enter into definitive credit, loan or other agreements and all required documentation with such third parties as may be necessary for Acquisitionco to obtain such funds (to the extent reasonably practicable, on terms and conditions no less favourable than the Commitment Letter or the Equity Commitment Letter, as the case may be, being replaced) and on the basis described in this section 4.8 and otherwise on terms and conditions acceptable to Intrawest, as soon as reasonably practicable but in any event prior to the Termination Deadline, and deliver to Intrawest correct and complete copies of such executed definitive agreements and documentation promptly upon request by Intrawest, (iii) satisfy, on a timely basis, all covenants, terms, representations and warranties applicable to Acquisitionco and Parent

B-44

- (h) Parent will agree to guarantee Acquisitionco's obligations under the Commitment Letter and the Equity Commitment Letter and under the definitive agreements entered into pursuant to the Commitment Letter or the Equity Commitment Letter.

- (i) Intrawest will, and will cause its subsidiaries to provide, and use its commercially reasonable efforts to have its and their Representatives cooperate with Parent and Acquisitionco in connection with the arrangements by Parent and Acquisitionco to obtain the advance of the financing referred to in this section 4.8 as contemplated in the Commitment Letter as may be reasonably requested by Parent (provided that such requested cooperation does not unreasonably interfere with the ongoing operations of Intrawest and its subsidiaries or interfere with or hinder or delay the performance by Intrawest of its other obligations hereunder), including (i) participation in meetings, drafting sessions and due diligence sessions, (ii) furnishing Parent and Acquisitionco and their financing sources with financial and other pertinent information regarding Intrawest as may be reasonably requested by Parent, (iii) assisting Parent and Acquisitionco and their financing sources in the preparation of (A) an offering document for any debt raised to complete the Arrangement and (B) materials for rating agency representations, (iv) cooperating with Parent and Acquisitionco in connection with applications to obtain such consents, approvals or authorizations which may be necessary or desirable in connection with such financing, (v) using commercially reasonable efforts to seek to take advantage of Intrawest's existing lending relationships, including attempting to persuade Intrawest's existing lenders to participate in the syndicate organized by the Lenders, (vi) reasonably cooperating with the marketing efforts of Parent and Acquisitionco and their financing sources for any debt raised by Parent to complete the Arrangement, (vii) forming new direct or indirect subsidiaries, (viii) having officers execute, without personal liability, any reasonably necessary officers' certificates or management representation letters to Intrawest's accountants to issue unqualified reports with respect to the financial statements to be included in any offering documents, and (ix) using best efforts to permit Parent and Acquisitionco to be able to provide the Lenders with the collateral package required by the Lenders in connection with the financing contemplated by the Commitment Letter and the definitive agreements contemplated therein, in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Lender (it being acknowledged by the parties that such collateral package will include the same collateral, but not necessarily be limited to the same collateral, as is in place in connection with Intrawest's current banking arrangements (it being understood that such banking arrangements will need to be repaid in connection therewith)); provided that none of Intrawest nor any subsidiary of Intrawest will be required to pay any commitment or other similar fee or incur any other liability in connection with any such financing prior to the Effective Time. Parent will, promptly upon request by Intrawest, reimburse Intrawest for all reasonable out-of-pocket costs (including legal fees) incurred by Intrawest or its subsidiaries and their respective advisers, agents and representatives in connection with such cooperation.

- (j) All non-public or otherwise confidential information regarding Intrawest obtained by Parent or its representatives pursuant to section 4.8(i) is information which is subject to the Confidentiality Agreement and will be kept confidential in accordance with the Confidentiality Agreement unless Intrawest otherwise agrees.
- (k) For the avoidance of doubt, if any financing referred to in this section 4.8 is not obtained, Acquisitionco will continue to be obligated to consummate the Arrangement, and Parent will continue to be obligated to cause Acquisitionco to consummate the Arrangement, subject to and on the terms contemplated by this Agreement. Any failure to consummate the Arrangement as a result of the failure by Acquisitionco and Parent to obtain the financing referred to in this section 4.8 will constitute a breach by Acquisitionco and Parent hereunder.

4.9 MUTUAL COVENANTS

Each of the parties covenants and agrees that, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, except as contemplated in this Agreement, until the earlier of the Effective Time and the time that this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms:

Edgar Filing: INTRAWEST CORP - Form 6-K

(c) Provided the Arrangement becomes effective, for a period of not less than six years after the Effective Date Intrawest will, and Parent and Acquisitionco will cause Intrawest and any successor to Intrawest (including any Surviving Corporation) to, continue and maintain in effect policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance, without any gaps, lapses or reduction in scope or coverage, for the benefit of the Indemnified Parties in such amounts, and with such deductibles, retained amounts, coverages and exclusions and otherwise on terms and conditions no less advantageous or favourable to the Indemnified Parties, than such insurance maintained by Intrawest immediately prior to the Effective Time and providing protection in respect of claims arising from or related to facts or events which occurred on or prior to the Effective Date. Parent and Acquisitionco also agree that after the expiration of such six year period they will use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause such directors and officers to be covered under the Parent's existing directors' and officers' insurance policy, if any. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, prior to the Effective Time Intrawest may, in the alternative, at its option, purchase prepaid non-cancellable run-off directors' and officers' liability insurance providing coverage (on terms comparable to those contained in Intrawest's current insurance policies) for a period of up to six years from the Effective Date with respect to claims arising from or related to facts or events which occur on or prior to the Effective Date in the same manner as such claims would have been covered if they arose prior to the Effective Date and any such policy purchased by Intrawest will cover the interest of Intrawest in respect of its indemnification obligations under this section 4.11, provided, however, that the premiums payable for such insurance do not exceed 200% of the premiums currently payable by Intrawest for directors' and officers' liability insurance (which, for greater certainty shall be over and above any refunded premium for any unused portion of the current directors' and officers' liability insurance).

(d) In the event that Parent or Acquisitionco or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other person and is not the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person, then, and in each such case, proper provision will be made so that the successor or assignee of Parent or Acquisitionco (as the case may be) assumes the obligations set forth in this section 4.11.

4.12 NOTES OFFERS

- (a) On a date reasonably in advance of the Effective Date, as agreed to by Parent and Intrawest, Acquisitionco shall, in accordance with applicable securities Laws and the applicable Indenture, effect an offer to purchase and consent solicitation with respect to each of the 6.875% Notes (the "6.875% NOTES OFFER") and the 7.50% Notes (the "7.50% NOTES OFFER" and, together with the 6.875% Notes Offer, the "NOTES OFFERS"). The purpose of each of the Notes Offers shall be to purchase the Notes and to adopt a supplemental indenture that has the effect of eliminating covenants and other provisions in the applicable Indenture as reasonably required by Acquisitionco. The initial settlement date of each of the Notes Offer shall be the Effective Date but prior to the Effective Time; provided, that Acquisitionco may, at its option, set an initial settlement date for any or all of the Notes Offers prior to the Effective Date provided that the terms of any Notes Offer with an earlier initial settlement date than the Effective Date shall provide that Acquisitionco shall extend such Notes Offer as necessary so that the initial settlement date of such Notes Offer occurs on the Effective Date but prior to the Effective Time.
- (b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section 4.12(a), if Acquisitionco notifies Intrawest within seven business days after the date hereof that it wants Intrawest to effect the Notes Offers instead of Acquisitionco, then Intrawest will effect the Notes Offers in the manner contemplated by section 4.12(a), provided that such Notes Offers effected by Intrawest will be conditional upon the Arrangement becoming effective, and otherwise at the reasonable direction of Acquisitionco; provided, however, that Acquisitionco shall prepare all documentation relating to the Notes Offer, subject to the approval of Intrawest, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Intrawest shall cooperate with Acquisitionco as reasonably requested by Acquisitionco with respect to preparing for, and effecting, the Notes Offers including, without limitation, taking the actions required by Section 903 of each of the Indentures applicable to the 6.875% Notes and the 7.50% Notes in connection with adoption of the supplemental indenture contemplated by the Note Offers and section 4.12(a). If Acquisitionco elects to have Intrawest effect the Notes Offers, then on settlement for such Notes Offers Acquisitionco shall, on behalf of Intrawest, pay to the applicable tender agent the amounts necessary to purchase all tendered Notes.

ARTICLE 5

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

5.1 PERMITTED ACTIVITIES

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall (a) prohibit or prevent Intrawest or its Board of Directors or officers from (i) making any disclosure of or in relation to an Acquisition Proposal to the Common Shareholders or holders of Intrawest Options prior to the Effective Time if, in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors, after consultation with outside legal counsel, such disclosure is necessary for the directors or officers of Intrawest to act in a manner consistent with their duties or is otherwise required under applicable Laws, including obligations under Rule 14e 2 under the Exchange Act; or (ii) taking any other action in relation to an Acquisition Proposal to the extent required under applicable securities Laws or ordered or otherwise mandated by any court of competent jurisdiction, or (b) prior to the date on which the Arrangement Resolutions are passed by the Intrawest Securityholders at the Intrawest Meeting in accordance with the Interim Order and the applicable Legislation, prevent Intrawest or its Board of Directors or officers or other representatives from engaging in discussions or negotiations with any person in respect of an unsolicited bona fide Acquisition Proposal (including any unsolicited Acquisition Proposal made after the date of this Agreement by any person that made an Acquisition Proposal prior to the date of the Agreement), or providing information (subject to compliance with section 5.3) in respect of or otherwise responding to such an unsolicited Acquisition Proposal or entering into an agreement (subject to compliance with sections 5.3 and 5.4), where (i) the Acquisition Proposal does not result from a breach of section 5.2, and (ii) the Board of Directors determines in good faith after, among other things, consultation, to the extent considered appropriate by the Board of Directors, with Intrawest's financial advisors (including the Financial Advisor) and outside legal counsel that the Acquisition Proposal would be reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal.

5.2 NON-SOLICITATION

- (a) Intrawest agrees with Parent and Acquisitionco that, except as expressly contemplated by this Agreement, until this Agreement is terminated none of Intrawest nor its subsidiaries will, directly or indirectly, through any Representative of it take any action that might, directly or indirectly, interfere with the consummation of the Arrangement and, without limitation, will not (and Intrawest will not permit its subsidiaries to), except as contemplated by this Article 5, without the consent in writing of Parent (which consent may be unreasonably withheld), directly or indirectly, through any subsidiary or Representative of it or any of its subsidiaries:
- (i) solicit, initiate or knowingly facilitate or encourage (including by way of furnishing confidential information or facilitating or permitting any visit to any facilities or properties of Intrawest or any of its subsidiaries by any person with the intention or for the purpose of encouraging such person to make or propose an Acquisition Proposal, or entering into any form of agreement, arrangement or understanding) any inquiry, proposal or offer relating to or constituting an Acquisition Proposal from any person;
 - (ii) enter into or participate in any discussions or negotiations or other activities with any person (other than Acquisitionco, Parent or its affiliates) regarding an Acquisition Proposal;
 - (iii) withdraw, modify, qualify, or propose publicly to withdraw, modify or qualify, in any manner adverse to Parent or Acquisitionco the approval or recommendation of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof of the Arrangement;
 - (iv) approve, endorse, recommend or remain neutral with respect to, or propose to publicly approve, endorse, recommend or remain neutral with respect to, any Acquisition Proposal; or
 - (v) accept or enter into, or propose publicly to accept or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, understanding, undertaking, arrangement or Contract in respect of or relating to an Acquisition Proposal.

- (b) Intrawest will, and will cause the Representatives of Intrawest and its subsidiaries and their Representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing solicitations, discussions, negotiations or activities with any person (other than Parent and Acquisitionco) with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or any proposal that may reasonably be expected to constitute an Acquisition Proposal. Parent and Acquisitionco acknowledge that standstill covenants or provisions contained in various confidentiality agreements entered into by Intrawest with other parties relating to a potential Acquisition Proposal will terminate in accordance with the terms thereof (without any further action on the part of any party thereto, including Intrawest or any of subsidiaries) upon Intrawest entering into this Agreement. Except to the extent such standstill covenants or provisions will so terminate pursuant to their terms, Intrawest agrees not to release, and to cause its subsidiaries not to release, any third party from any standstill or confidentiality agreement (or any term or condition of any such agreement) that Intrawest entered into prior to the date hereof with any person that was considering any Acquisition Proposal or to amend or waive any provision of any such agreement.
- (c) Intrawest will discontinue access by any third party (other than Parent or Acquisitionco or their representatives) to any data room (virtual or otherwise) and promptly request the return or deletion from retrieval systems and data bases or destruction of all information provided to any third party which, at any time since February 28, 2006, has entered into a confidentiality agreement with Intrawest relating to a potential Acquisition Proposal to the extent that such information has not previously been returned or destroyed, and will use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that such requests are honoured in accordance with the terms of such agreement.
- (d) Intrawest will ensure that its officers and directors and its investment bankers and financial or other advisors are aware of the provisions of this Article 5, and Intrawest will be responsible for any breach of this Article 5 by any of its officers, directors, investment bankers or financial or other advisors.

5.3 NOTIFICATION OF ACQUISITION PROPOSAL

- (a) Intrawest will promptly (and in any event within 24 hours after receipt of such inquiry, proposal, offer or request) notify Parent, at first orally and then in writing, of any inquiry, proposal or offer received by Intrawest after the date of this Agreement relating to or constituting an Acquisition Proposal or that could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal (whether or not relating to any Acquisition Proposal or inquiry that may have been received prior to the date hereof), including the renewal of any Acquisition Proposal made prior to the date hereof, or any amendments to the foregoing, or any written request for material non-public information relating to Intrawest or any of its subsidiaries or for access to the properties, books or records of Intrawest or any of the subsidiaries by any person. Such written notice will include a copy of any written Acquisition Proposal (and any amendment thereof) which has been received by Intrawest or any of its subsidiaries or, if no written Acquisition Proposal has been received, a description of the material terms and conditions of any inquiry, proposal, offer or request and the identity of the person making such inquiry, proposal, offer or request. Intrawest will also provide such further details of the inquiry, proposal, offer or request (and any amendment thereof) as Parent may reasonably request. Intrawest will keep Parent informed of any change to the material terms of any such inquiry, proposal, offer or request and provide to Parent at the option of Intrawest, either copies of all correspondence and other written material sent or provided to Intrawest by any person in connection with such inquiry, proposal or request or sent or provided by Intrawest to any person in connection with such inquiry, proposal or request or a description of the material terms of such correspondence or material promptly after receipt or delivery thereof.

- (b) If, prior to the approval of the Arrangement Resolutions by the Intrawest Securityholders at the Intrawest Meeting, Intrawest receives an inquiry, proposal or offer relating to or constituting an Acquisition Proposal or a request for material non-public information from a person who has made or is proposing to make an unsolicited bona fide Acquisition Proposal where Intrawest is not in breach of section 5.2 and the Board of Directors determines in good faith after, among other things, consultation, to the extent considered appropriate by the Board of Directors, with Intrawest's financial advisors (including the Financial Advisor) and outside legal counsel that such proposal would be reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal, then, and only in such case, Intrawest may, subject to the execution by such person of a confidentiality agreement having substantially the same terms as the Confidentiality

Agreement and, taken as a whole, being no less favourable to Intrawest than the Confidentiality Agreement, provide such person with, or access to, non-public information regarding Intrawest, provided that:

- (i) notwithstanding the foregoing, the confidentiality agreement with such person will not restrict such person from making the Acquisition Proposal, or announcing the intention to make the Acquisition Proposal without the approval of Intrawest, and will not restrict Intrawest from disclosing such agreement and providing a copy thereof to Parent as set out below (and for this purpose Intrawest may agree with the other party to amend any confidentiality agreement that was entered into prior to the date of this Agreement to provide for the foregoing); and
- (ii) Intrawest will send a copy of any such confidentiality agreement to Parent promptly following its execution and will promptly advise Parent regarding all non-public information provided to such other person or to which such other person has been provided access and will promptly provide Parent with, or access to, all such information provided to such other person and not previously provided to Parent and provide Parent with access to all further non-public information regarding Intrawest provided to such other person not previously provided to Parent.
- (c) If Intrawest receives a written Acquisition Proposal that the Board of Directors in good faith determines constitutes a Superior Proposal, or any amendment or modification to any such Superior Proposal, in each case Intrawest will provide a copy of the Superior Proposal or such amendment or modification promptly to Parent and in any event within 24 hours after such receipt.

5.4 RIGHT TO MATCH

- (a) Subject to section 5.4(b), Intrawest covenants that it will not accept, approve or recommend or enter into any agreement, understanding, arrangement or Contract in respect of, or proceed with or recommend, a Superior Proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement permitted by section 5.3(b), the execution of which will not be subject to the conditions of this section 5.4) unless:

- (i) Intrawest has complied with its obligations under sections 5.2 and 5.3 and this section 5.4;
 - (ii) Intrawest has provided Parent with a copy of the Superior Proposal; and
 - (iii) a period (the "RESPONSE PERIOD") of five business days will have elapsed from the later of (A) the date on which Parent received written notice from Intrawest advising that the Board of Directors has determined, subject only to compliance with this section 5.4, that Intrawest enter into an agreement, understanding, arrangement or Contract in respect of, or to proceed with, or recommend, such Superior Proposal and (B) the date Parent receives a copy of the Superior Proposal.
- (b) In the event that Intrawest provides Parent with a notice as contemplated in section 5.4(a), on a date that is less than seven business days prior to the date the Intrawest Meeting is scheduled to be held, Intrawest will be entitled to postpone or adjourn, and will, at the request of Parent, postpone or adjourn, the Intrawest Meeting to a date (specified by Parent in the case of a postponement or adjournment requested by Parent) that is not less than seven business days and not more than 15 business days after the date of such notice.
- (c) During the Response Period (or such longer period as Intrawest may agree), Parent and Acquisitionco will have the right, but not the obligation, to propose in writing to amend the terms of the Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement. Intrawest will cause the Board of Directors to review in good faith any such proposal received by Intrawest from Parent and Acquisitionco during the Response Period to determine (after receipt of advice, to the extent considered appropriate by the Board of Directors, from its financial advisors and outside legal counsel) whether the Acquisition Proposal in respect of which the Parent and Acquisitionco are proposing to amend this Agreement and Plan of Arrangement would be a Superior Proposal when assessed against this Agreement and Plan of Arrangement as it is proposed to be amended.
- (d) Intrawest may enter into any agreement, understanding, arrangement or Contract in respect of, or to proceed with, or recommend, a Superior Proposal if, and only if, and may not enter into any agreement, undertaking, arrangement or Contract in respect of, or to proceed with, or recommend, a Superior Proposal (with the exception of a confidentiality agreement referred to in section 5.3(b)) unless:

- (i) Parent and Acquisitionco do not, prior to the expiry of the Response Period, propose to amend the terms of this Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement; or
- (ii) Parent and Acquisitionco deliver to Intrawest, prior to the expiry of the Response Period, a proposal to amend the terms of this Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement as contemplated in section 5.4(c), and the Board of Directors determines in good faith, after, among other things, consultation, to the extent considered appropriate by the Board of Directors, with Intrawest's financial advisors (including the Financial Advisor) and outside legal counsel, taking into account the proposal by Parent and Acquisitionco to amend this Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement, that the Acquisition Proposal remains a Superior Proposal; and

- (iii) Intrawest concurrently terminates this Agreement pursuant to section 6.1(c) and Intrawest has previously or concurrently paid to Parent the fee payable under section 5.6, Intrawest acknowledging and agreeing that payment of the fee payable under section 5.6 is a condition to valid termination of this Agreement under section 6.1(c) and this section 5.4.
- (e) If, in the circumstances described in section 5.4(d) (ii), the Board of Directors does not determine that the Acquisition Proposal remains a Superior Proposal when compared to the proposed amendment to this Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement, Intrawest and Parent and Acquisitionco will promptly execute and deliver an amending agreement amending this Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement, or an amended Agreement, incorporating or reflecting the terms of the amendment to the terms of this Agreement and Plan of Arrangement as proposed by Parent and Acquisitionco and Intrawest will publicly announce that the Board of Directors has reaffirmed its recommendation of the Arrangement by news release, the form of which shall be provided to Parent for its review and comment prior to publication.
- (f) Each successive modification or amendment to any Acquisition Proposal that results in any change in, or modification of, the consideration to be received under, or any other material change in the terms and conditions of, such Acquisition Proposal will constitute a new Acquisition Proposal for the purposes of this section 5.4 and Parent will be afforded a new Response Period in respect of each such Acquisition Proposal.

5.5 VALUE

For purposes of this Agreement, the value of any non-cash consideration forming part of the consideration proposed to be paid, delivered or issued under any Acquisition Proposal or by Acquisitionco or Parent will be determined by the Board of Directors (having, among other things, consulted with Intrawest's financial advisors (including the Financial Advisor) or obtained other financial advice).

5.6 PAYMENTS TO PARENT

If at any time after the execution of this Agreement:

- (a) Intrawest terminates this Agreement pursuant to section 6.1(c);
- (b) Parent terminates this Agreement pursuant to section 6.1(b) (i) or (ii) if the Intrawest Meeting is not held and the Arrangement Resolutions are not submitted to the Intrawest Securityholders at the Intrawest Meeting, at least seven days prior to the Termination Deadline; or
- (c) in the event:
 - (i) a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal has been made by any person (the "ACQUISITION PROPOSAL OFFEROR") other than Parent or Acquisitionco after the date hereof and prior to the termination of this Agreement;
 - (ii) either Intrawest or Parent terminates this Agreement pursuant to section 6.1(b) (i) or 6.1(b) (ii); and

(iii) within 365 days after the date of such termination:

- A. an Acquisition Proposal is consummated with the Acquisition Proposal Offeror, or any other person; or
 - B. the Board of Directors approves or recommends such Acquisition Proposal or any other Acquisition Proposal, or Intrawest or any of its subsidiaries enters into a definitive agreement with respect to such Acquisition Proposal or any other Acquisition Proposal and thereafter (whether or not within 365 days after the termination of this Agreement) such Acquisition Proposal is consummated;
- (d) Parent terminates this Agreement pursuant to section 6.1(e) or 6.1(f); or
- (e) Parent terminates this Agreement pursuant to section 6.1(g) as a result of a breach of covenant or agreement on the part of Intrawest contained in this Agreement;

then in any such case Intrawest will pay to Parent (or as it may direct) $60 million (less the amount of any withholding required by applicable Laws relating to Taxes which is concurrently remitted by Intrawest to the relevant Government Authority and receipted) by wire transfer in immediately available funds to an account designated by Parent. Such payment will be due (A) in the case of a termination specified in section 5.6(a), before or concurrently with such termination of this Agreement, (B) in the case of a termination specified in section 5.6(b) or 5.6(d), within two business days following receipt by Intrawest of written notice of termination by Parent, and (C) in the case of the occurrence of the events specified in section 5.6(c), on the day of the consummation of the transaction referred to therein. Intrawest will not be obligated to make more than one payment pursuant to this section 5.6.

5.7 REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES TO PARENT AND ACQUISITIONCO

If (a) this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to section 6.1(b)(ii) and no amount is payable by Intrawest to Parent pursuant to section 5.6, or (b) this Agreement is terminated pursuant to section 6.1(b)(i) or 6.1(g) and no amount is payable by Intrawest to Parent pursuant to section 5.6 and (i) the Intrawest Meeting is not held for any reason prior to such termination, or (ii) such termination was caused as a result of the condition precedent in section 7.3(a), (b) or (c) not being satisfied as a result of any breach by Intrawest of this Agreement, including from any inaccuracy in its representations and warranties and any non-performance by it of its covenants and agreements made herein, then, in any such case, within five business days following receipt by Intrawest of the certificate of a senior officer of Parent hereafter referred to, Intrawest will pay to Parent by wire transfer in immediately available funds to an account designated by Parent an amount equal to Parent and Acquisitionco's (without duplication) actual out of pocket costs and expenses, including reasonable fees and expenses of their counsel, accountants, financial advisors and other experts and advisors, incidental to the preparation, negotiation and execution of this Agreement and related documentation, up to a maximum of $10,000,000 (less the amount of any withholding required by applicable Laws relating to Taxes which is concurrently remitted by Intrawest to the relevant Governmental Authority and receipted) as payment in respect of such costs and expenses (the amount of such costs and expenses to be certified by a senior officer of Parent in writing in reasonable detail). Intrawest will not be obligated to make payment pursuant to this section 5.7 if Intrawest has paid or is required to pay the fee referred to in section 5.6, and any fees paid by Intrawest under this section 5.7 will be credited against any fee payable in section 5.6 to the extent that it subsequently becomes payable by Intrawest.

5.8 EFFECT OF PAYMENTS

Each of the parties acknowledges that the agreements contained in sections 5.6, 5.7 and 5.9 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement and that, without those agreements, the parties would not enter into this Agreement. Each party acknowledges that all of the payment amounts set out in sections 5.6, 5.7 and 5.9 are payments of liquidated damages which are a genuine pre-estimate of the damages which the party entitled to such damages will suffer or incur as a result of the event giving rise to such payment and the resultant termination of this Agreement and are not penalties. Each party irrevocably waives any right that it may have to raise as a defence that any such liquidated damages are excessive or punitive. For greater certainty, the parties agree that the payment of an amount pursuant to sections 5.6, 5.7 and 5.9, subject to section 4.2, is the sole monetary remedy of the party receiving such payment. Nothing contained herein will preclude a party from seeking injunctive relief to restrain any breach or threatened breach of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement or the Confidentiality Agreement or otherwise to obtain specific performance of any such acts, covenants or agreements.

5.9 PAYMENT TO INTRAWEST

In the event that this Agreement is:

- (a) terminated by Intrawest pursuant to sections 6.1(d), 6.1(h) or:
- (b) terminated by either Intrawest or Parent pursuant to section 6.1(b)(i) following any failure by Acquisitionco and Parent to obtain the financing referred to in section 4.8 or a failure by Parent or Acquisitionco to perform or comply with their obligations in sections 2.1(h) or 4.7(e), then, in any such case, Parent and Acquisitionco will pay to Intrawest by wire transfer in immediately available funds to an account designated by Intrawest an amount equal to $60 million. Such payment will be due within two business days of such termination.

ARTICLE 6

TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT

6.1 TERMINATION

This Agreement may be terminated at any time before the Effective Time:

- (a) by agreement in writing executed by Parent and Intrawest;
- (b) by either Intrawest or Parent, upon written notice by either one to the other:
 - (i) if the Effective Date does not occur on or before the Termination Deadline, except that the right to terminate this Agreement under this section 6.1(b)(i) shall not be available to any party to this Agreement whose failure to fulfil any of its obligations has been a significant cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the

Effective Time to occur by such date;

- (ii) if the Intrawest Meeting is held and the Arrangement Resolutions are not passed by the Intrawest Securityholders in accordance with applicable Legislation and the Interim Order; or
- (iii) if any Law makes the consummation of the Arrangement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement illegal or otherwise prohibited and such Law has become final and non-appealable;
- (c) by Intrawest upon written notice to Parent, in order to enter into a definitive agreement providing for the implementation of a Superior Proposal, subject to compliance with sections 5.2, 5.3 and 5.4;
- (d) by Intrawest upon written notice to Parent if Acquisitionco does not provide the Transfer Agent with sufficient funds to complete the transactions contemplated by sections 3.1(b), (f), (h) and (i) of the Plan of Arrangement as required pursuant to section 2.1(h);
- (e) by Parent upon written notice to Intrawest if (i) the Board of Directors shall have failed to recommend this Agreement or the Arrangement, or (ii) if the Board of Directors or any committee thereof shall have (A) withdrawn, qualified or otherwise modified in a manner adverse to Parent and Acquisitionco, or proposed publicly to withdraw or so qualify or otherwise modify, the approval or recommendation of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof of this Agreement or the Arrangement or (B) approved or recommended, or proposed publicly to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal;
- (f) by Parent upon written notice to Intrawest if, following any Acquisitionco Proposal that is made or publicly announced, the Board of Directors or the Special Committee fails to publicly affirm its approval or recommendation of the Arrangement within five business days of any written request to do so from Parent;
- (g) subject to compliance with section 6.3 neither Parent or Acquisitionco is in material breach of its obligations under this Agreement, by Parent upon written notice to Intrawest if Intrawest has breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement, which breach would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in section 7.3(a) or 7.3(b); and

- (h) subject to compliance with section 6.3 Intrawest is not in material breach of its obligations under this Agreement, by Intrawest on written notice to Parent, if Acquisitionco or Parent has breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement, which breach would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in section 7.2(a) or 7.2(b).

6.2 VOID UPON TERMINATION

If this Agreement is terminated, it will, except as provided in sections 4.2, 5.6, 5.7, 5.8, 5.9 and this section 6.2 and except for obligations of confidentiality in sections 4.3, 4.5 and 5.4, become void and of no force and effect and no party will have any liability or further obligation to the other party hereunder, provided that neither the termination of this Agreement nor anything contained in sections 5.6, 5.7 or 5.8 or this section 6.2 will relieve any party from any liability for any wilful breach by it of this Agreement, including its representations and warranties and its covenants and agreements made herein.

6.3 NOTICE OF UNFULFILLED CONDITIONS

If either Intrawest, on the one hand, or Parent and Acquisitionco, on the other hand, determines at any time prior to the Effective Date that it intends to refuse to complete the transactions contemplated hereby because of any unfulfilled or unperformed condition contained in this Agreement, such party will so notify the other party forthwith upon making such determination in order that the other party will have the right and opportunity to take such steps, at its own expense, as may be necessary for the purpose of fulfilling or performing such condition within a reasonable period of time, but in no event later than the Termination Deadline. Neither Intrawest nor Parent and Acquisitionco may exercise any termination right arising therefrom and no payments will be payable as a result of such election pursuant to section 5.6, 5.7 or 5.9 unless forthwith and in any event prior to the filing on the Effective Date of Articles of Arrangement for the purpose of giving effect to the Arrangement, the party intending to rely thereon has given a written notice to the other party specifying in reasonable detail all breaches of covenants, representations and warranties or other matters which the party giving such notice is asserting as the basis for the nonfulfillment of the applicable condition precedent or the exercise of the termination right, as the case may be. If any such notice is given, provided that the other party is proceeding diligently to cure such matter, if such matter is susceptible to being cured, the party giving such notice may not terminate this Agreement as a result thereof until the later of the Termination Deadline and the expiration of a period of 30 days from such notice. If such notice has been given prior to the date of the Intrawest Meeting, such meeting, unless the parties otherwise agree, will be postponed or adjourned and will not be held until such time as is reasonably practicable after the earlier of (i) the matter to which the notice relates being cured and (ii) the expiry of such period. If such notice has been given prior to the making of application for the Final Order, such application will be postponed and will not be made until such time as is reasonably practicable after the earlier of (i) the matter to which the notice relates being cured and (ii) the expiry of such period. For greater certainty, in the event that such matter is cured within the time period referred to herein, the Agreement may not be terminated as a result thereof.

ARTICLE 7

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

7.1 MUTUAL CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

The respective obligations of the parties hereto to complete the Arrangement are subject to the satisfaction of, or mutual waiver by Parent and Intrawest on or before the Effective Date of, each of the following conditions, which are for the mutual benefit of Parent and Acquisitionco, on the one hand, and Intrawest, on the other hand, and which may be waived, in whole or in part, by Parent (on its own behalf, and on behalf of Acquisitionco) and Intrawest at any time:

- (a) the Interim Order will have been obtained in form and substance satisfactory to each of Parent and Intrawest, acting reasonably, and such Interim Order will not have been set aside or modified in any manner unacceptable to either Parent or Intrawest, acting reasonably, on appeal or otherwise;
- (b) the Arrangement Resolutions, in form and substance acceptable to Parent and Intrawest, acting reasonably, will have been passed by the Intrawest Securityholders and Common Shareholders at the Intrawest Meeting in accordance with the Interim Order and the applicable

Legislation;

B-55

- (c) the Final Order will have been obtained in form and substance satisfactory to each of Parent and Intrawest, acting reasonably, and will not have been set aside or modified in any manner unacceptable to either Parent or Intrawest, acting reasonably, on appeal or otherwise;
- (d) all Appropriate Regulatory Approvals will have been obtained or concluded or, in the case of waiting or suspensory periods, expired or been terminated;
- (e) no Governmental Authority will have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced, made, entered, issued or applied any Law (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) that makes the Arrangement illegal or otherwise directly or indirectly enjoins, restrains or otherwise prohibits consummation of the Arrangement or the other transactions contemplated herein;
- (f) no person will have filed any notice of appeal of the Final Order, and no person will have communicated in writing to Intrawest or Parent any intention to appeal the Final Order which, in the reasonable opinion of Parent or Intrawest (on the advice of legal counsel), would make it inadvisable to proceed with the implementation of the Arrangement; and
- (g) this Agreement will not have been terminated pursuant to Article 6.

7.2 ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE OBLIGATIONS OF INTRAWEST

The obligation of Intrawest to complete the Arrangement will be subject to the satisfaction of, or waiver by Intrawest, on or before the Effective Date of the following conditions, each of which is for the exclusive benefit of Intrawest and which may be waived by Intrawest at any time, in whole or in part, in its sole discretion and without prejudice to any other rights that Intrawest may have:

Except for the rights of the Common Shareholders and holders of Intrawest Options to receive the consideration for their Common Shares or Intrawest Options following the Effective Time pursuant to the Plan of Arrangement, this Agreement is not intended to confer any rights or remedies upon any other person, provided however that section 4.10 is intended for the benefit of the officers and employees of Intrawest that are or will be party to or participants in the employment, retention or change of control agreements and arrangements referred to in section 4.10 and section 4.11 is intended for the benefit of the directors and officers of Intrawest or its subsidiaries and such sections will be enforceable by each of such persons and his or her heirs, executors, administrators and other legal representatives (collectively, the "INTRAWEST BENEFICIARIES") and Intrawest and any successors to Intrawest (including any Surviving Corporation) will hold the rights and benefits of sections 4.10 and 4.11 and this section 8.10 in trust for and on behalf of the Intrawest Beneficiaries and Intrawest hereby accepts such trust and agrees to hold the benefit of and enforce performances of such covenants on behalf of the Intrawest Beneficiaries and such rights are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights that any Intrawest Beneficiary may have by contract or otherwise, provided however that no approval of any beneficiary of such trust will be required in connection with an amendment or variation of sections 4.10 and 4.11 or this section 8.10 prior to the Effective Date.

8.11 AMENDMENT

Subject to any requirements imposed by applicable Laws or by the Court, this Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement may, at any time and from time to time before or after the holding of the Intrawest Meeting but not later than the Effective Time, be amended by written agreement of the parties hereto, and any such amendment may, without limitation:

- (c) waive compliance with or modify any of the conditions precedent referred to in Article 7 or any of the covenants herein contained or waive or modify performance of any of the obligations of the parties hereto;

provided, however, that no such amendment may reduce or materially affect the consideration to be received by the Intrawest Securityholders under the

Edgar Filing: INTRAWEST CORP - Form 6-K

Arrangement without their approval at the Intrawest Meeting or, following the Intrawest Meeting, without their approval given in the same manner as required by applicable Legislation for the approval of the Arrangement as may be required by the Court and provided further that Intrawest shall agree to any amendments proposed by Parent to section 3.1 of the Plan of Arrangement (and shall take such steps as are necessary to effect such amendments of the Plan of Arrangement in accordance with the terms thereof), including the ordering of the steps set out therein, but only to the extent that such amendments have consequences to each of Intrawest, the Intrawest Securityholders, the DSU Holders and the RSU holders which are equivalent to or better than those contemplated in the Plan of Agreement.

8.12 WAIVER AND MODIFICATIONS

Intrawest, on the one hand, and Parent and Acquisitionco, on the other hand, may (i) waive or consent to the modification of, in whole or in part, any inaccuracy of any representation or warranty made to them hereunder or in any document to be delivered pursuant hereto, (ii) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or acts of the other party, (iii) waive or consent to the modification of any of the covenants herein contained for their respective benefit or waive or consent to the modification of any of the obligations of the other hereto or (iv) waive the fulfillment of any condition to its own obligations contained herein. B-60 of any of the provisions of this Agreement, to be effective, must be in writing executed by the party or parties granting such waiver or consent and, unless otherwise provided in such written waiver, will be limited to the specific breach or condition waived. No delay or omission by any party to this Agreement in exercising any right, power or remedy provided by Law or under this Agreement, or failure of any party to assent to any of the rights provided by Law or under this Agreement will affect that right, power or remedy or constitute or operate as a waiver thereof. The single or partial exercise of any right, power or remedy provided by Law or under this Agreement will not preclude any further exercise of such right, power or remedy or the exercise of any further exercise of such right, power or remedy or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy. No waiver or partial waiver of any nature, in any one or more instances, will be deemed or construed a continued waiver of any condition or breach of any other term, representation or warranty in this Agreement.

8.13 SEVERABILITY

If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any Law or public policy, all other terms and provisions of this Agreement will nevertheless remain in full force and effect and will in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated herein is not affected in any manner which has a Material Adverse Effect on either Intrawest or Parent. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto will negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner in order that the Arrangement is consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

8.14 MUTUAL INTEREST

8.15 FURTHER ASSURANCES

Subject to the conditions of this Agreement, the parties hereto will, from time to time and at all times hereafter, at the request of the other party, do all such further acts and things, including executing and delivering all such further deeds, agreements, transfers, documents, assurances and instruments, as will be reasonably necessary in order to fully perform and carry out the terms and intent of this Agreement and, in the event the Arrangement becomes effective, to document or evidence any of the transactions or events set out in the Plan of Arrangement and, where appropriate, the parties hereto will cooperate with each other in doing those acts and things.

8.16 INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

The Parties agree that irreparable harm would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached for which money damages would not be an adequate remedy at law. It is accordingly agreed that the Parties will be entitled to an injunction or injunctions and other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement, any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with the obtaining of any such injunctive or other equitable relief hereby being waived.

The exchange of copies of this Agreement and of signature pages by facsimile or electronic transmission will constitute effective execution and delivery of this Agreement as to the parties and may be used in lieu of the original Agreement for all purposes. ARTICLE 5

CERTIFICATES AND PAYMENTS

5.1 PAYMENTS OF CONSIDERATION

- (a) At or before the filing of the Articles of Arrangement, Acquisitionco will deposit, and Parent will cause Acquisitionco to deposit, with the Depositary in escrow for the benefit of the Common Shareholders, cash in the aggregate amount equal to the payments contemplated by section 3.1(f) (calculated without reference to whether any Common Shareholders have exercised or may exercise Dissent Rights). Any such certificate formerly representing Common Shares not duly surrendered on or before the sixth anniversary of the Effective Date will cease to represent a claim by or interest of any former Common Shareholder of any kind or nature against or in Intrawest, Parent or Acquisitionco. On such date, all cash to which such former holder was entitled will be deemed to have been surrendered to Acquisitionco.
- (c) Subject to section 5.3, Acquisitionco will cause the Depositary, as soon as practicable following the later of the Effective Date and the date of deposit by any former holder of Common Shares with the Depositary of the documentation required pursuant to section 5.1(a), to:

a cheque representing the net cash payment, if any, payable to such former holder in accordance with the provisions hereof.

- (d) No former holder of Common Shares that were acquired by Acquisitionco pursuant to section 3.1(f) will be entitled to receive any consideration with respect to such Common Shares, other than the net cash payment, if any, which they are entitled to receive in accordance with section 3.1(f) and, for greater certainty, no such former holder will be entitled to receive any interest, dividends, premium or other payment in connection therewith.
- (e) Until such time as a former holder of Common Shares that were acquired by Acquisitionco pursuant to section 3.1(f) complies with the provisions of section 5.1(a), the cash payment, to which such former holder is entitled will, subject to section 5.3, be paid to and held by the Depositary to be held in trust for such former holder for delivery to such former holder, without interest, upon deposit with the Depositary of the documentation required pursuant to section 5.1(a).

- (f) Subject to section 5.3, until surrendered as contemplated by this section 5.1, each certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Date represented Common Shares that were acquired by Acquisitionco under the Arrangement will be deemed at all times after the time described in section 3.1(f) to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the net cash payment from the Depositary which such former holder is entitled to receive pursuant to section 3.1(f) in accordance with the provisions of this Plan of Arrangement.
- (g) At or before the Effective Time, Acquisitionco will deposit, on behalf of Intrawest and Parent will cause Acquisitionco to deposit, on behalf of Intrawest with the Depositary in escrow the amount of cash required to satisfy the payment obligations of Intrawest pursuant to sections 3.1(b), 3.1(h) and 3.1(i) such amount to be held for purposes of such obligations. The cash shall be held in a separate interest-bearing account and any interest earned on such funds will be for the account of Intrawest.
- (h) As soon as practicable following the later of the Effective Date and the delivery to the Depositary by or on behalf of a former holder of any Intrawest Option, DSUs or RSUs, of a duly completed Intrawest Option Letter of Transmittal, DSU Transmittal Letter or RSU Transmittal Letter, as the case may be, and such additional documents and instruments as the Depositary may reasonably require, the former holder of such Intrawest Option, DSUs or RSUs, as reflected on the registers maintained by or on behalf of Intrawest in respect of Intrawest Options, or in the books and records of Intrawest maintained in connection with the Intrawest DSU Plans or the Performance RSU Agreement or the Restricted Share Unit Agreement, as the case may be, will be entitled to receive the cash payment which such former holder is entitled to receive pursuant to sections 3.1(b), 3.1(h) and 3.1(i), as the case may be, less any amounts withheld pursuant to section 5.4.
- (i) Subject to section 5.3, Acquisitionco will, on behalf of Intrawest, cause the Depositary, as soon as practicable following the later of the Effective Date and the date of deposit by any former holder of any Intrawest Option, DSUs or RSUs, with the Depositary of the documentation required pursuant to section 5.1(h), to:
 - (i) forward or cause to be forwarded by first class mail (postage prepaid) to such former holder at the address specified in the Intrawest Option Letter of Transmittal, DSU Transmittal Letter or RSU Transmittal Letter, as the case may be; or
 - (ii) if requested by such former holder in the Intrawest Option Letter of Transmittal, DSU Transmittal Letter or RSU Transmittal Letter, as the case may be, make available at the offices of the Depositary specified therein for pick-up by such former holder; or
 - (iii) if the Intrawest Option Letter of Transmittal, DSU Transmittal Letter or RSU Transmittal Letter, as the case may be, neither specifies an address nor contains a request as described in section 5.1(i)(ii), forward or cause to be forwarded by first

a cheque representing the net cash payment, if any, payable to such former holder in accordance with the provisions hereof.

5.2 LOST CERTIFICATES

In the event any certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented any outstanding Common Shares that were acquired by Acquisitionco pursuant to section 3.1(e) or 3.1(f) has been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed, the Depository will pay in relation to for such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, the net cash payment which the former holder of such Common Shares is entitled to receive pursuant to section 3.1(e) or 3.1(f). When authorizing such payment in relation to any lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, the Person to whom the payment is made will, as a condition precedent to the delivery thereof, give a bond satisfactory to Acquisitionco, Intrawest and the Depository in such sum as Acquisitionco may direct or otherwise indemnify Acquisitionco and Intrawest in a manner satisfactory to Acquisitionco and Intrawest against any claim that may be made against Acquisitionco and Intrawest with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

5.3 EXTINCTION OF RIGHTS

If (i) any former holder of Common Shares that are acquired by Acquisitionco pursuant to section 3.1(f) fails for any reason to deliver to the Depository for cancellation the certificates formerly representing Common Shares (or an affidavit of loss and bond or other indemnity pursuant to section 5.2), together with such other documents or instruments required for such former holder to receive the cash payment which such former holder is entitled to receive pursuant to section 3.1(f), or (ii) any former holder of any Intrawest Option, DSU or RSU fails for any reason to deliver to the Depository the documents or instruments required for such former holder to receive the cash payment which such former holder is entitled to receive pursuant to section 3.1(b), 3.1(h) or 3.1(i), as the case may be, in each case on or before the sixth anniversary of the Effective Date, on such sixth anniversary such former holder will be deemed to have donated and forfeited to Acquisitionco, in the case of the Common Shares, and to Intrawest, in the case of the Intrawest Options, DSUs and RSUs, any cash, net of any applicable withholding or other taxes, held by the Depository in trust for such former holder to which such former holder is entitled. At and after the Effective Time, any certificate formerly representing Common Shares will represent only the right to receive from the Depository the consideration provided in the Plan of Arrangement; provided that such certificates will, on the sixth anniversary of the Effective Date, cease to represent a claim of any nature whatsoever and will be deemed to have been surrendered to Acquisitionco and will be cancelled. Neither Intrawest nor Acquisitionco (or any of their respective successors) will be liable to any Person in respect of any cash (including any cash previously held by the Depository in trust for any such former holder) which is delivered to any public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

subsection 192(4) becomes effective, to be paid by the corporation the fair value of the shares in respect of which the shareholder dissents, determined as of the close of business on the day before the resolution was adopted or the order was made.

- (4) NO PARTIAL DISSENT -- A dissenting shareholder may only claim under this section with respect to all the shares of a class held on behalf of any one beneficial owner and registered in the name of the dissenting shareholder.
- (5) OBJECTION -- A dissenting shareholder shall send to the corporation, at or before any meeting of shareholders at which a resolution referred to in subsection (1) or (2) is to be voted on, a written objection to the resolution, unless the corporation did not give notice to the shareholder of the purpose of the meeting and of their right to dissent.
- (6) NOTICE OF RESOLUTION -- The corporation shall, within ten days after the shareholders adopt the resolution, send to each shareholder who has filed the objection referred to in subsection (5) notice that the resolution has been adopted, but such notice is not required to be sent to any shareholder who voted for the resolution or who has withdrawn their objection.

- (24) NOTICE THAT SUBSECTION (26) APPLIES -- If subsection (26) applies, the corporation shall, within ten days after the pronouncement of an order under subsection (22), notify each dissenting shareholder that it is unable lawfully to pay dissenting shareholders for their shares.
- (25) EFFECT WHERE SUBSECTION (26) APPLIES -- If subsection (26) applies, a dissenting shareholder, by written notice delivered to the corporation within thirty days after receiving a notice under subsection (24), may (a) withdraw their notice of dissent, in which case the corporation is deemed to consent to the withdrawal and the shareholder is reinstated to their full rights as a shareholder, or (b) retain a status as a claimant against the corporation, to be paid as soon as the corporation is lawfully able to do so or, in a liquidation, to be ranked subordinate to the rights of creditors of the corporation but in priority to its shareholders.
- (26) LIMITATION -- A corporation shall not make a payment to a dissenting shareholder under this section if there are reasonable grounds for believing that (a) the corporation is or would after the payment be unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or (b) the realizable value of the corporation's assets would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities.
