Regulatory Approvals: All necessary regulatory approvals received

Strategic Rationale

- The merger between CVS and Caremark creates the premier integrated pharmacy services provider and offers significant benefits to employers, health plans, consumers and shareholders of both companies.
- The combined company is expected to be able to offer end-to-end services, from plan design to prescription fulfillment, as well as the opportunity to improve clinical outcomes, resulting in better control over healthcare costs for employers and plan providers.
- CVS/Caremark is expected to improve the delivery of pharmacy services and healthcare decision making in an increasingly consumer-centric environment, enabling consumers to benefit from unparalleled access, greater convenience and greater choice.
- We expect this combination to realize substantial synergies: between $800 million and $1 billion in incremental revenue in 2008 and significantly more thereafter; annual cost savings in excess of $500 million; share repurchase expected to enable the company to achieve double-digit cents-per-share accretion and significantly increase return on equity in 2008.

Edgar Filing: CAREMARK RX INC - Form 425

- Combines one of the nation's leading pharmaceutical services companies with the largest pharmacy chain; combined company will be: #1 in pharmacy sales; #1 in PBM lives managed; #2 in mail services pharmacy sales; #1 in specialty pharmacy sales; #1 in retail-based clinics.
 - We believe this combination is the logical evolution of the pharmacy services industry, and enables CVS/Caremark to better address emerging trends and challenges in healthcare.
 - CVS/Caremark expects to help manage the costs and complexities of the U.S. healthcare system, driving superior healthcare outcomes and enhancing value for employers, health plans, and consumers.
 - Over time, the combination will create a platform to drive growth and offer new and innovative personalized services to consumers and employers.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains certain forward-looking statements about CVS and Caremark. When used in this document, the words "anticipates", "may", "can", "believes", "expects", "projects", "intends", "likely", "will", "to be" and any similar and any other statements that are not historical facts, in each case as they relate to CVS or Caremark or to the combined company, the management of either such company or the combined company or the transaction are intended to identify those assertions as forward-looking statements. In making any of those statements, the person making them believes that its expectations are based on reasonable assumptions. However, any such statement may be influenced by factors that could cause actual outcomes and results to be materially different from those projected or anticipated. These forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, statements relating to anticipated accretion, return on equity, cost synergies, incremental revenues and new products and offerings, are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties. There are various important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in any such forward-looking statements, many of which are beyond the control of CVS and Caremark, including macroeconomic condition and general industry conditions such as the competitive environment for retail pharmacy and pharmacy benefit management companies, regulatory and litigation matters and risks, legislative developments, changes in tax and other laws and the effect of changes in general economic conditions, the risk that a condition to closing of the transaction may not be satisfied, the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for the transaction is not obtained or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated and other risks to consummation of the transaction. The actual results or performance by CVS or Caremark or the combined company, and issues relating to the transaction, could differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, any forward-looking statements relating to those matters. Accordingly, no assurances can be given that any of the events anticipated by the forward-looking statements will transpire or occur, or if any of them do so, what impact they will have on the results of operations or financial condition of CVS or Caremark, the combined company or the transaction.
