Part I

The Company first incurred the duty to file reports under section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended (the “Exchange Act”) on July 26, 1990 when its ADSs were listed on the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”).

Telefónica Chile has filed or submitted all reports required under Exchange Act section 13(a) or section 15(d) and corresponding Commission rules for the 12 months preceding the filing of this form. Telefónica Chile has filed annual reports under section 13(a) on Form 20-F for each year since its listing.

Item 2. Recent United States Market Activity

The Company’s securities were last sold in the United States in a registered offering under the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”) pursuant to the Registration Statement on Form F-3 (Registration No. 333-08828), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 1, 1998, relating to the registration of ADSs.

Telefónica Chile does not have equity securities, or any other securities, registered on a shelf or other Securities Act registration statement under which securities remain unsold.

Item 3. Foreign Listing and Primary Trading Market

The Company’s share capital consists of two series of common stock: Series A Common Stock and Series B Common Stock. Currently, the primary trading market for the Series A Common Stock and Series B Common Stock is the Chilean Stock Exchanges. The Company’s common stock was initially listed on the Chilean Stock Exchanges on July 12, 1946. On July 29, 1988 the Company’s share capital was divided into two series, the Series A Common Stock and the Series B Common Stock, which were both listed on the Chilean Stock Exchanges on such date. The Company’s Series B Common Stock has been exclusively listed on the Chilean Stock Exchange since that time. The Company’s Series A Common Stock was initially listed on the NYSE, in the form of ADRs evidencing ADSs, on July 26, 1990. The Company has maintained the Chilean listing of its Series A Common Stock since that time and the Company maintained the NYSE listing of its Series A Common Stock, in the form of ADRs evidencing ADSs, until February 19, 2009, as described below.

On January 15, 2009, Telefónica S.A., the Company’s controlling shareholder, completed its tender offer for Telefónica Chile’s Series A Common Stock (including Series A Common Stock held as ADSs) and Series B Common Stock, significantly decreasing the number of shares of Telefónica Chile common stock actively traded on both the Chilean Stock Exchanges and the NYSE. On February 9, 2009, Telefónica Chile applied for delisting of its ADSs from the NYSE pursuant to a Form 25 filed with the SEC. The delisting became effective on February 19, 2009. Concurrently, the Company notified Citibank, N.A., the Company's depositary (the "Depositary") issuing ADRs, of its intention to terminate its ADS facility, and on February 6, 2009 the Depositary issued a notice of such termination to all holders of Telefónica Chile ADSs. The termination of Telefónica Chile's ADS facility was effective on May 7, 2009 and the remaining shares of Series A Common Stock held under the Deposit Agreement between Telefónica Chile and the Depositary as of July 7, 2009 were sold by the Depositary on the Chilean Stock Exchanges.

Since February 19, 2009, the date that Telefónica Chile's Series A Common Stock was delisted from the NYSE, the primary trading market for Telefónica Chile's Series A Common Stock has been the Chilean Stock Exchanges. The percentage of trading in the Series A Common Stock that occurred on the Chilean Stock Exchanges from February 19, 2008 to February 18, 2009 was 83.2% with all other trading in Series A Common Stock during such period occurring on the NYSE in the form of ADRs. Since February 19, 2009, 100% of trading in Series A Common Stock has occurred on the Chilean Stock Exchanges.
