Item 8.01 Other Events

On January 30, 2013, PartnerRe Ltd. (the “Company”) announced that during the January 1, 2013 treaty renewal season it expects to write and bind approximately $2.0 billion of Non-Life treaty premium in 2013. On a constant foreign exchange basis, this represents an increase of 12% from the renewable premium base (excluding in process / extensions). The Company renews approximately 60% percent of its total annual Non-Life treaty business on January 1 of each year.

The renewal data does not include U.S. agriculture premium which renews later in the first quarter of 2013. The Company expects to write approximately $400 million of U.S. agriculture premium, including multi-peril crop insurance and crop hail, although the ultimate amount may vary significantly from this initial estimate. The 2012 U.S. agriculture premium was approximately $220 million.

The renewal numbers relate to reinsurance treaty business only. In addition to treaty reinsurance, the Company writes facultative business. Renewal dates for facultative business are more evenly distributed during the year than renewal dates for treaty business. During 2013, the Company expects to write approximately $390 million of facultative premium, although the ultimate amount may vary significantly from this initial estimate.

The table below outlines PartnerRe’s January 1, 2013 Non-Life treaty renewals.
