Siemens in the first quarter (October 1, 2003 to December 31, 2003) of fiscal 2004

Net income was 726 million, up 39% from the first fiscal quarter a year earlier.

Group profit from Operations rose 24%, to 1.361 billion, on improved earnings at most of Siemens Groups.

Orders of 20.490 billion were up 2% and sales of 18.329 billion were down 3% compared to the first quarter a year earlier. Excluding currency translation effects and the net effect of acquisitions and dispositions, orders rose 6% and sales were up 2%.

Net cash from operating and investing activities was 64 million, before supplemental cash contributions to Siemens pension plans totaling 1.255 billion. Including these contributions, net cash was a negative 1.191 billion.

After the close of the first quarter, Siemens sold 150 million shares of Infineon Technologies AG, representing 20.8% of the outstanding shares of Infineon. With this transaction, Siemens ownership interest in Infineon declined to 18.9%.

For the first quarter ended December 31, 2003, Siemens reported net income of 726 million and basic earnings per share of 0.82, up strongly from 521 million and 0.59 in the first quarter a year earlier. A majority of Siemens Groups achieved double-digit earnings growth year-over-year, boosting Group profit from Operations to 1.361 billion compared to 1.097 billion in the first quarter a year ago. Information and Communication Networks (ICN) and Information and Communication Mobile (ICM) achieved particularly strong profit improvements. Medical Solutions (Med), Power Generation (PG), Automation and Drives (A&D), Siemens VDO Automotive (SV), and Osram continued to deliver substantial profits.

First-quarter orders were 20.490 billion, up 6% year-over-year excluding currency translation effects and the net effect of acquisitions and dispositions (i.e., on a comparable basis). First-quarter sales of 18.329 billion were 2% higher year-over-year on a comparable basis. Including currency and portfolio effects, orders grew 2% and sales came within 3% of prior-year levels.

Table of Contents

I am very satisfied with our first-quarter results, which confirm the overall outlook we provided in November regarding earnings and revenues, said Siemens CEO Heinrich v. Pierer. I am particularly pleased that on a currency-adjusted basis we are again showing growth. At a macroeconomic level, however, I am concerned that further strengthening of the euro against the dollar could have potential adverse effects on the competitiveness of European industry.

After supplemental cash contributions to Siemens pension plans totaling 1.255 billion, net cash from operating and investing activities was a negative 1.191 billion. While this is comparable to a negative 1.137 billion in the first quarter a year earlier, supplemental pension contributions in that period were 442 million. Excluding supplemental pension contributions, first-quarter net cash from operating and investing activities improved substantially year-over-year, from a negative 695 million to a positive 64 million. This improvement reflects both working capital management and ongoing positive effects from Corporate Treasury activities relating to intracompany financing activities.

New orders	1,849	1,940	(5)%	0%

*Excluding currency translation effects.

ICN achieved a sharp improvement in first-quarter Group profit, reflecting cost structure improvements resulting from its rigorous restructuring efforts in the Enterprise Networks division and the Group's Carrier Networks and Services business. Enterprise Networks earned 47 million on sales of 870 million, compared to 44 million on 889 million in sales in the prior-year period. ICN's Carrier Networks and Services business earned 42 million on revenues of 834 million, compared to a loss of 157 million on sales of 914 million in the first quarter a year ago. For ICN overall, first-quarter sales were 1.700 billion and orders were 1.849 billion. On a comparable basis, sales came within 2% of the prior-year level and orders were level year-over-year.

Sales	2,957	2,856	4%	6%
New orders	3,022	2,509	20%	23%

*Excluding currency translation effects.

ICM more than doubled its first-quarter Group profit year-over-year, to 123 million, on a sharp earnings improvement at the Mobile Networks division, strong handset sales, and continuing profitability in its cordless products business. Sales of 2.957 billion were up 6%, and orders of 3.022 billion were 23% higher than in the prior-year period, excluding currency translation effects. The Mobile Networks division was in the black, with earnings of 26 million on sales of 1.162 billion compared to a loss of 25 million on sales of 1.199 billion in the first quarter a year earlier. ICM's Mobile Phones division sold 15.2 million handsets during the seasonally strong Christmas quarter, up from 11.0 million in the same period a year earlier, reflecting improved market conditions. The division contributed 64 million to Group profit on sales of 1.486 billion, compared to 52 million on revenues of 1.309 billion a year earlier. Competitive pressures and a product mix weighted toward lower-priced phones continued to limit average selling price per unit. ICM continues to take measures aimed at streamlining its cost structure and improving profitability.

Siemens Business Services (SBS)

(in millions)	First quarter ended December 31,
	2003	2002	% Change
			Actual	Comparable*
Group profit	44	12	267%
Group profit margin	3.6%	0.9%
Sales	1,210	1,267	(4)%	(2)%
New orders	1,399	1,394	0%	2%

*Excluding currency translation effects.

SBS posted a Group profit of 44 million for the first quarter, compared to 12 million in the same period of fiscal 2003. The improvement was due primarily to cost reductions between the periods under review, as first-quarter sales were down 4% year-over-year, to 1.210 billion, and orders of 1.399 billion were nearly unchanged. Market conditions for SBS remained weak, particularly in western Europe, and the Group continues to adjust its staffing requirements accordingly.

Table of ContentsAutomation & Control*Automation and Drives (A&D)

(in millions)	First quarter ended December 31,

Sales	2,050	1,982	3%	7%
New orders	2,200	2,234	(2)%	2%

*Excluding currency translation effects of (5)% and portfolio effects of 1%.

A&D delivered 23% growth in earnings on a 3% rise in sales, posting Group profit of 221 million compared to 179 million in the first quarter a year earlier. As in past quarters, these results reflect operating leverage gained through a combination of higher productivity and lower costs. As market conditions showed signs of improvement, A&D added significant sales gains in the Asia-Pacific region to its established base in Europe and the U.S. First-quarter sales of 2.050 billion rose 7% on a comparable basis, excluding primarily currency translation effects. Orders of 2.200 billion were up 2% on a comparable basis.

I&S posted Group profit of 15 million, compared to a loss of 33 million in the first quarter a year ago, when I&S took charges of 31 million, primarily for severance. Reflecting improving market conditions, I&S recorded double-digit increases in both sales and orders excluding currency translation effects.

*Excluding currency translation effects of (8)%, and portfolio effects of 2% on sales and 3% on orders.

Table of Contents

Group profit at SD was a negative 37 million, as the results of a largely concluded internal review of the Group's project estimates resulted in first-quarter charges of 33 million related to major projects. Sales of 542 million were 7% below the prior-year level on a comparable basis, excluding primarily currency translation effects. In contrast, orders rose sharply, to 861 million, on the strength of a major order in the Middle East.

Siemens Building Technologies (SBT)

(in millions)	First quarter ended December 31,
	2003	2002	% Change
			Actual	Comparable*
Group profit	39	43	(9)%

New orders	1,105	1,254	(12)%	1%

*Excluding currency translation effects of (6)% and portfolio effects of (7)%.

SBT posted Group profit of 39 million in the first quarter, compared to 43 million in the same period a year earlier, which included charges for severance. The sale of the Group's facility management activities in Germany, Switzerland and North America, had a positive net effect on earnings. Sales of 1.040 billion and orders of 1.105 billion were within 1% of prior-year levels on a comparable basis, excluding similar effects from both currency translation and dispositions. SBT continues to streamline its business, with associated effects on earnings anticipated in coming quarters.

PowerPower Generation (PG)

(in millions)	First quarter ended December 31,
	2003	2002	% Change
			Actual	Comparable*
Group profit	245	409	(40)%
Group profit margin	12.9%	22.9%
Sales	1,902	1,785	7%	(1)%
New orders	2,676	2,270	18%	9%

*Excluding currency translation effects of (6)%, and portfolio effects of 14% on sales and 15% on orders.

PG was again a top earnings performer for Siemens, with 245 million in Group profit in the first quarter which also includes integration effects associated with the Group's acquisition of Alstom's industrial turbine business. For comparison, Group profit of 409 million in the prior-year period benefited from a net gain of 125 million related to project cancellations. PG's growing services business made a particularly strong contribution to Group profit. Sales at PG rose 7%, to 1.902 billion, reflecting new volume from the Alstom acquisition, negative currency translation effects and lower demand for gas turbines in the U.S. The 18% increase in first-quarter orders year-over-year, to 2.676 billion, was fueled by a major order in Finland, the Alstom acquisition, and contracts in the Middle East.

Table of ContentsPower Transmission and Distribution (PTD)

*Excluding currency translation effects.

PTD achieved a 28% increase in first-quarter earnings, to 51 million from 40 million in the same period a year earlier. The High Voltage division was an especially strong earnings performer. First-quarter sales of 820 million were 9% higher year-over-year excluding currency translation effects. Despite sizable new contract wins, orders of 1.020 billion for the Group as a whole were still 2% lower on a comparable basis than in the same period a year earlier, which included a large order in Australia.

TransportationTransportation Systems (TS)

(in millions)	First quarter ended December 31,

Sales	1,049	1,080	(3)%	0%
New orders	1,020	1,100	(7)%	(5)%

*Excluding currency translation effects.

TS recorded Group profit of 32 million in the first quarter, compared to 68 million in the same period a year earlier. The result for the current period reflects continuing higher warranty charges in the Group's light rail business, which may adversely affect reported earnings in coming quarters and prior-year comparisons. Sales of 1.049 billion were level with the prior-year period, excluding currency translation effects. Orders of 1.020 billion included a major contract in India, but came in below the level a year earlier, which included a number of major contract wins in Europe.

Sales	2,039	2,133	(4)%	9%
New orders	2,039	2,133	(4)%	9%

*Excluding currency translation effects of (4)% and portfolio effects of (9)%.

SV achieved a 37% increase in earnings, posting Group profit of 100 million compared to 73 million in the first quarter a year earlier, as productivity initiatives increased the Group's operating leverage and SV's onboard infotainment systems business increased its profit year-over-year. First-quarter sales and orders of 2,039 billion rose 9% year-over-year on a comparable basis, excluding primarily the divestiture of SV's approximately 800 million (annualized) cockpit module business between the two periods under review.

MedicalMedical Solutions (Med)

(in millions)	First quarter ended December 31,
	2003	2002	% Change

New orders	1,891	1,958	(3)%	12%

*Excluding currency translation effects of (10)% and portfolio effects of (5)%.

Med posted Group profit of 327 million, compared to 245 million in the first quarter a year earlier. The current period benefited from 116 million in gains from portfolio transactions, primarily the sale of Med's Life Support Systems (LSS) business. Sales of 1,648 billion were up 5% on a comparable basis, excluding ten percentage points in currency translation effects, the LSS sale, and the contribution of a portion of Med's remaining electromedical systems business into a joint venture between the periods under review. First-quarter orders of 1,891 billion were up 12% year-over-year on a comparable basis, reflecting continued strong demand for Med's innovative diagnostic imaging solutions.

Table of ContentsLighting*Osram

(in millions)	First quarter ended December 31,
			% Change
	2003	2002	Actual	Comparable*
Group profit	109	106	3%

Sales	1,073	1,123	(4)%	5%
New orders	1,073	1,123	(4)%	5%

*Excluding currency translation effects.

Osram pushed its Group profit to 109 million from 106 million in the first quarter a year earlier, despite intense competitive pressures in its large U.S. market and somewhat lower sales of 1.073 billion. On a comparable basis sales rose 5%, as Osram expanded its business not only in the relatively high-growth markets of the Asia-Pacific region but also in Europe, the U.S., and Latin America.

Other operations consist of centrally held equity investments and other operating businesses not related to a Group. These activities contributed 41 million in Group profit in the first quarter, up from 35 million in the same period a year earlier.

Corporate items, pensions and eliminations

Corporate items, pensions and eliminations were a negative 357 million in the first quarter, compared to a negative 493 million in the same period a year earlier. Corporate items were the largest factor in the change, at 174 million in the first quarter compared to 260 million in the prior-year period. Within corporate items, Siemens' equity share of Infineon's net result for the first quarter was a positive 14 million compared to a negative 17 million in the prior-year period. Centrally carried pension expense also was lower year-over-year, due to the allocation of domestic pension service costs to the Groups, beginning October 1, 2003, partially offset by higher amortization of unrealized pension plan losses. As a result, centrally carried pension expense was 181 million compared to 217 million in the prior-year period.

Sales	132	136	(3)%	4%

*Excluding currency translation effects.

Income before income taxes at SFS was 57 million compared to 84 million in the first quarter a year earlier, as income declined from investments by the Equity division and the Equipment and Sales Financing division took higher provisions against its receivables.

Siemens Real Estate (SRE)

(in millions)	First quarter ended December 31,
	2003	2002	% Change
			Actual	Comparable*
Income before income taxes	54	55	(2)%
Sales	385	396	(3)%	(2)%

*Excluding currency translation effects.

Income before income taxes at SRE of 54 million was nearly unchanged year-over-year despite somewhat lower sales.

Eliminations, reclassifications and Corporate Treasury

Income before income taxes from Eliminations, reclassifications and Corporate Treasury was a negative 2 million, compared to a positive 73 million in the first quarter a year ago. The difference is due primarily to negative mark-to-market results from interest rate derivative contracts not qualifying for hedge accounting.

Income Statement highlights for the first quarter

Net sales for Siemens worldwide were 18.329 billion in the first quarter, compared to 18.845 billion in the same period a year earlier. First-quarter net income for Siemens worldwide was 726 million, compared to 521 million last year.

In Operations, net sales were 18.200 billion compared to 18.688 billion a year earlier. First-quarter gross profit margin increased to 29.3%, compared to 27.6% a year ago, driven by improved profitability at a majority of Siemens Groups, partially offset by lower earnings at SD and TS. Research and development expense was nearly unchanged year-over-year, at 6.8% of sales.

Table of Contents

Marketing, selling, and general administration expense for the quarter was 18.0% of sales, down from 18.4% in the prior-year period. Other operating income (expense) was 89 million, compared to 197 million in the first quarter of fiscal 2003, when project cancellations at PG resulted in significant net gains. The current period includes gains from portfolio transactions, particularly at Med.

Sales and order trends for the first quarter

Sales in Germany increased 4% to 4.370 billion compared to the same period a year earlier, while orders in Germany for the first quarter of fiscal 2004 decreased 1%, to 4.614 billion. International orders rose 3% year-over-year, to 15.876 billion, and international sales fell 5% year-over-year, to 13.959 billion. On a comparable basis, international sales rose 2% and international orders climbed 9%.

Within international results, first-quarter sales in the U.S. of 3.073 billion were 21% lower compared to the same period a year earlier, and orders of 3.042 billion were 23% lower. Currency translation effects accounted for 15 percentage points of the decline in sales and 16 percentage points in orders. First-quarter orders in Asia-Pacific increased 3% to 2.220 billion and sales decreased 2%, to 2.026 billion. Excluding currency translation effects, orders in the region rose 13% and sales were up 7%.

Liquidity and Balance Sheet highlights for the first quarter

For Siemens worldwide, net cash from operating and investing activities for the first quarter of fiscal 2004 was a negative 1.191 billion, which includes 1.255 billion in supplemental cash contributions to Siemens pension plans. Net cash includes a positive net effect from Corporate Treasury, associated with financial instruments used to hedge exposure to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates, particularly with regard to intra-company financing. Within Operations, net cash used by operating activities was 1.177 billion after the supplemental pension contributions, compared to 831 million after 442 million in supplemental cash pension contributions in the prior-year period. Net cash used in investing activities within Operations was 316 million, down from 406 million a year earlier, due primarily to reduced capital expenditures.

Net cash used in financing activities for Siemens worldwide was 474 million compared to net cash used of 995 million in the prior-year period, which included the buyback of notional 500 million of a bond exchangeable into shares of Infineon.

Total assets decreased to 75.371 billion from 77.605 billion at September 30, 2003.

Table of Contents

Funding Status of Pension Plans

The funding status of Siemens' principal pension plans on December 31, 2003 improved significantly compared to the end of the prior fiscal year, with an underfunding of 3.2 billion compared to an underfunding of 5.0 billion at September 30, 2003. The improvement resulted from contributions of approximately 1.5 billion to Siemens' pension plans, including 1.255 billion in supplemental cash contributions in October 2003. The return on plan assets during the quarter amounted to 579 million. This represents a 14.0% return on an annualized basis, well above the expected annual return of 6.7%. The projected benefit obligation of Siemens' pension plans decreased by approximately 100 million during the first quarter, as currency translation effects, particularly related to the weakening U.S. dollar, more than offset the net of pension service and interest costs less benefits paid during the quarter.

Economic Value Added

In the first quarter, Economic Value Added (EVA) for Siemens worldwide improved significantly compared to the same period of the prior year.

Subsequent event

After the close of the first quarter of fiscal 2004, Siemens sold 150 million shares of Infineon Technologies AG, representing 20.8% of the outstanding shares of Infineon. With this transaction, Siemens' ownership interest in Infineon declined to 18.9%. The Company anticipates that, effective February 1, 2004, Siemens' remaining shares in Infineon will be accounted for as an available for sale security and Siemens' net income will no longer include an equity share of Infineon's net income. The share sale is expected to result in a second-quarter pretax gain of approximately 590 million after transaction fees. Due to the reversal of related deferred tax liabilities, the aggregate after tax gain will amount to approximately 800 million.

Note: Siemens CFO Heinz-Joachim Neubürger will hold an English-language telephone conference with analysts on January 22, 2004 at 8:30 a.m. CET.
