of lending institutions (the "Lenders"). Bank of America, N.A. is the administrative agent (the "Agent") under the New Credit Facility. The New Credit Facility, which expires on May 25, 2010, provides for borrowings of up to $100.0 million in the aggregate, including up to $25.0 million under a letter of credit sub-facility. The New Credit Facility replaces the Company's existing $100.0 million senior secured revolving credit facility (the "Existing Credit Facility"). No amounts have been borrowed under the New Credit Facility through the date hereof, although the Borrowers may in the future use the New Credit Facility to repay existing indebtedness, to issue standby or commercial letters of credit, to finance permitted capital expenditures and for ongoing working capital needs and other general corporate purposes.

The Borrowers' obligations under the New Credit Facility are guaranteed by certain of the Company's domestic subsidiaries and secured by a first priority security interest in favor of the Lenders in all of the Borrowers' accounts receivable, inventory and certain bank accounts. The availability of funds under the revolving credit facility is limited by a specified borrowing base consisting of accounts receivable and inventory which meet customary eligibility criteria. Amounts outstanding under the revolving credit facility bear interest, at the Company's option, at LIBOR or the Bank of America base rate plus, in each case, an applicable interest margin.

The Loan Agreement contains customary covenants, including restrictions on mergers and acquisitions, indebtedness, affiliate transactions, liens, dividends and distributions, capital expenditures, dispositions of collateral and investments, and customary events of default, including nonpayment, misrepresentation, breach of covenant, bankruptcy, change of ownership, certain judgments and certain cross defaults. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, commitments under the New Credit Facility may be terminated and amounts outstanding may be accelerated and declared immediately due and payable.

Affiliates of Credit Suisse, Cayman Branch and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., which are each a lender under the New Credit Facility, and Bank of America, N.A., which is administrative agent and a lender, have from time to time participated as underwriters or initial purchasers in various offerings of the Company's securities and have also provided financial advisory, commercial banking and/or investment banking services for the Company in the ordinary course of business for customary fees.

The description of the New Credit Facility set forth above is necessarily limited and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full terms and conditions of the New Credit Facility as set forth in the Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of September 19, 2005, among the Borrowers, the Lenders and the Agent, a copy of which will be filed as an exhibit to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2005.
